DROPPED LOOT—Patrolman Richard Timmis of San Anselmo police examines $743 worth of coins which were found outside H and J Coin Shop on the Miracle Mile in the Hub City after a burglary last night. Police Chief Raymond H. Buchignani said the coins, in plastic bag, were being carried away in a pillow case which tore and dumped them. However, one of the burglars escaped with about $9,600 worth of coins. (Independent-Journal photo)

Skulking Suspect Nabbed, Brother Sought After $10,000 Coin Theft

By STEPHEN COOK

A burglary team of two brothers broke into the H and J Coin Shop at 75 Redhill Avenue, San Anselmo, during last night's wind and rain storm, police said, and tried to make off with $10,343 in rare coins.

A series of blunders, though, cut their take by $743 and resulted in the arrest of Robert Harorld Wood, 29, of 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said the thieves tripped the store's burglar alarm at 8:50 p.m., while breaking open the display cases which housed the coins. Four patrolmen raced to the scene.

The officers stationed themselves at the front and back of the store, Buchignani said, thinking the culprits were still inside.

Patrolman Vincent Sloane, at the front, heard a dog barking the backyard of a house across Redhill Avenue from the shop. He walked over and saw two men crouched among the rain-soaked bushes.

The patrolman drew his gun and ordered them out, "but they apparently didn't think he could see them and made no response," Chief Buchignani said.

Sloane walked over and grabbed one of them, Robert Wood. The other darted off, crashing through the bushes. Other officers joined the search, but the man was not found. Wood said it was his brother Thomas Edward Wood, 24, according to Chief Buchignani. Wood denied they had burglarized the coin shop, however.

THOMAS EDWARD WOOD
Sought by police

Buchignani said the officers found six rare silver dollars in Robert Wood's pocket. They were later identified by store owner Jerry H. Sholar as having come from his display case.

Buchignani said the shop was entered by climbing up a drain pipe and breaking a bathroom window with a rock.

The thieves used pillow cases to haul out the coins, he said. That may haev been a bad idea, because officers found a ripped pillow case and $743 worth of coins spilled in the mud outside the window.

Buchignani theorized that the material ripped from the weight of the coins as the burglars

Judge Finds Own Mistake, Sets Up Retrial For Pair

There'll be a second chance for Chance and Sheffield, because of a conscientious judge.

Thomas Howerd Chance, 24, and Harold Bradley Sheffield, 20, both of Petaluma, were convicted by a Marin Superior Court jury of the burglary last Aug. 4 of Joe's Market in Point Reyes Station.

After the conviction, however, Judge Joseph G. Wilson discovered he had made an error in his instructions to the jury. He said he mistakenly told the jury that an accessory after the fact of a crime may be convicted of the crime itself.

Judge Wilson did not allow his own error to stand. He informed defense attorneys, who promptly moved for a new trial. He then granted the motion.

Date of the new trial will be set at 9:30 a.m. next Tuesday—the same day a third man arrested for the burglary, Gerald Dalton Rich, 23, of Petaluma, is to be sentenced on his plea of guilty.

Coast Storm Expected To Linger Days

Gusts Of Wind On Tam Taper; Shed Tumbles

Rainfall will continue tonight and become scattered tomorrow, but the storm center is expected to linger near California several more days, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Rainfall in the 24 hours to noon in San Rafael was 1.16 inches.

Wind gusts up to 80 miles an hour were recorded yesterday afternoon atop Mount Tamalpais, but they tapered off during the night. A steady wind of 60 to 65 miles an hour was reported there yesterday afternoon.

In San Anselmo a landslide sent an old woodshed tumbling into Corte Madera Creek at 4 p.m. from the rear yard of the home of Mrs. Clara Beaty, 122 Sycamore Avenue.

BREAKS UP

City public work crews were asked to remove the building, which threatened to block the creek, according to City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell. But the building got away from the men, floated through the downtown San Anselmo and then broke up. Workers removed timber from the east side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, but most of the remains of the building washed down into the bay.

A tree branch fell across a pair of power lines, cutting off electric service for about 15 homes in a canyon west of Lagunitas about 5 a.m. today, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. reported.

A tree fell at 401 Chapman Avenue, Corte Madera at about 12:05 a.m. today, breaking a power line serving a few homes in the area. Both outages were repaired quickly.

NO FLOODING

City and county street crews reported no flooding or streets blocked.

San Anselmo workers did cut one tree on Scenic Avenue which was leaning over the street and seemed about to fall. A tree fell at the side of Bretano Way, Greenbrae, but did not block the street.

Heaviest rainfall in the county in the 24 hours to 8 a.m. today was 1.41 inches at Woodacre, with 1.2 at Ross and 1.1 at Belvedere, Mill Valley and Terra Linda.

Chevy Chase area of Larkspur had 1.06, with 1.05 in downtown Larkspur and at Sausalito, and 1.04 at San Anselmo. Novato recorded .96, Inveress .7 and Point Reyes Station .46.

Luci's New Ring Said Not For Engagement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Johnson wore a new ring on her third finger, left hand last night but the White House said today it was not the gift of any boyfriend — it was from her parents. (See earlier story, page 9).

The appearance of the gold, pearl and diamond ring on the finger of the President's 18-year-old daughter as she danced cheek-to-cheek with boyfriend Pat Nugent at a White House party raised new speculation she might be engaged.

A hospital spokesman said he died late this morning. He had been ill several months.

The cause of death was said to be arterial sclerosis.

Mrs. Wallace was with him when the former vice president died.

Wallace had been hospitalized earlier at the National Institute of Health in Washington. He was released Oct. 28 and he returned to South Salem.

WAS BLOCKED

Southern Democrats and big city forces blocked his renomination to the post, however, and Harry S. Truman got the bid. When Truman became president, he ousted Wallace from a cabinet post as secretary of commerce following a row over foreign policy.

Wallace, first a Republican, became a Democrat when he entered his public career in 1933 and eventually developed as a leading proponent of Roosevelt's New Deal policies.

His international views, however, prompted considerable controversy.

In 1948 Wallace ran for president under the newly formed Progressive Party, campaigning for friendlier relations with Russia. Wallace accepted the Communist party's support, but as criticism developed during the campaign, he declared, "I am not a Communist or Socialist or Marxist of any description."

After his unsuccessful presidential campaign, Wallace dropped from public view to become a gentleman farmer on his 115-acre farm at South Salem, N.Y.

PRIVATE STUDY

There he spent his remaining years privately studying and experimenting with plants—cross-breeding corn for hybrids, for example. He enjoyed gardening but his speciality was raising strawberries.

"If you garden you want to live and see how plants develop the next year," Wallace once said at his farm, complete with barns and windmill overlooking the green hills and blue lakes of northern Westchester County, N.Y.

Wallace also served as secretary of agriculture under Roosevelt and promulgated a controversial plan to cut surpluses by reducing crop acreage and killing young pigs.

With the outbreak of the Korean War, Wallace's view toward Russia cooled, then he became alarmed over Soviet policy. But he saw Communist China as perhaps a greater threat.

In 1962 Wallace wrote:

"Looking ahead—say 20 or 30 years—I'd say we've got to get Russia or China with us; we can't have both those countries with their huge populations against us."

Wallace predicted China might become the Mongols of the 20th Century, threatening first Russia, then the rest of the world.

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Cavalrymen battled North Vietnamese troops on the slopes of Chu Pong Mountain today for the fifth consecutive day despite a Communist ambush in which both sides suffered major losses.

In another action 40 U.S. Marine helicopters flew to battalions of Vietnamese troops to Hiep Duc 28 miles south of Da Nang where the Viet Cong overran the town yesterday and impaled the defenders on stakes. Red machinegun fire was so withering two helicopters were shot down.

Two more flights of Strategic Air Force B-52 bombers from Guam hit Communist positions in the Chu Pong area 225 miles northeast of Saigon where the Red forces ambushed 600 Cavalrymen yesterday and cut the force in two. The Americans suffered "Moderate losses," U.S. officials said, but killed 300 Communists.

All indications from the field were the American losses were heavier than those suffered in three previous days of fighting with regular North Vietnamese troops and those were reported to be the heaviest of the war. The battle itself was as fierce as any yet fought in Viet Nam.

Pilot's Luck Almost Out After War, Years Flying

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Cmdr. Wesley McDonald came home two weeks ago after flying combat missions over Viet Nam for five months.

He has been a naval aviator for 17 years, and until yesterday had never lost a plane.

A bit ironical, said McDonald, 41, commander of Carrier Wing 15.

"I flew 43 combat missions in Viet Nam—about 120 hours—and I've logged about 4,500 hours since I started in Navy aviation in 1948."

He said he was flying at 5,000 feet when he heard a muffled explosion from the rear of the plane and the power failed.

The plane was over Rancho Bernardo, a community north of here, but McDonald managed to direct the Skyhawk into an unpopulated area.

He guided the plane down to an altitude of 2,800 feet before ejecting.

"I stayed with the plane until I was certain it would land out in the hills, then I ejected," McDonald said. "I was thrown in the air—an experience I don't advertise for pleasure."

He left the plane not a moment too soon. As his parachute opened, he said the plane burst into flames.

Northgate Unit Sale Reported

The Draper Companies have sold unit one of the Northgate Shopping Center in San Rafael to a group of San Francisco investors banded as Howard Properties.

Sale price reportedly exceeded 2.5 million dollars.

Unit one included 9.7 acres of commercial property with buildings containing 79,579 square feet of floor space, parking space for 460 cars and 28 tenants. It does not include the Emporium and other major stores in that area.

Major tenants in the portion sold are Purity Stores, Crocker-Citizens National Bank, Northgate Drugs, Lin Fa Restaurant, and Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Assn., along with 23 other retail stores and service businesses. All space is leased.

The transaction was an outright sale, not a leaseback arrangement, said William Hoey, manager of Dohemann and Co., which handled the transaction along with Coldwell, Banker and Co.

Sales of another Marin County holding of the Draper Companies and two of their shopping centers elsewhere are reported pending.

Beatification Ordered For Popes John XXII, Pius XII

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today ordered the start of the beatification process for his two predecessors, John XXIII and Pius XII. His action was a first step toward their possible cannonization as saints.

Pope Paul made his surprise announcement in a discourse at a public ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica for the promulgation of two new decrees of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Speaking of the renewal of Roman Catholicism started by the council, which was first convened by Pope John, Pope Paul said his to predecessors should be piously remembered. He said the church and the world owed much to them.

"We are arranging," he said, "that to this end there be canonically begun the processes of beatification of these holy and eminent supreme pontiffs who are so dear to us."

POPE PAUL VI
Surprise word

Beatification declares that someone worthy of public veneration because of exceptional holiness during his life. It is a step toward canonization, which declares that the beaitified may be called a saint.

In his speech, Pope Paul also announced:

That the long - awaited reform of the Vatican Curia is progressing and that he will soon announce a new statute for the Vatican's Holy Office, the Curia's most powerful unit and its most controversial.

That the period from the end of the Ecumenical Council, Dec. 8, to Pentecost Sunday, next June, ill be a special jubilee period for the world's Roman Catholics to promote the council's decisions.

That he hopes to convene his new Synod of Bishops for the first time next year or, if not feasible then, in 1967.

POPE PIUS XII
Candidate

Pope Paul's statement on the Curia had long been expected. he said he felt there was no need for great changes but for "perfectioning."

Pope Paul established the Synod — or Senate — of Bishops, with representatives from various nations to advise him after the council ends. Many experts feel it will amount to a sort of continuation of the council.

The to decrees of the Ecumenical Council promulgated today were on the apostolate of the laity and on divine revelation.

During the council session, the prelates took a final vote on the to documents. The divine revelation decree as approved by a vote of 2,344-6, the laity decree by 2,305-2.

Pope Paul then promulgated the to decrees.

The decree on the laity bids Roman Catholic laymen play an active role in their church and recommends creation of a Vatican secretariat for the laity.

POPE JOHN XXIII
Began council

The decree on divine revelation says both Scripture and the traditions of the Church "merge into a unity" in handing down the word of God. It encourages the preparation by Protestant and Catholic scholars, working together, of Bible translations for interdenominational use.

The general contents of both decrees were known before their promulgation. The complete texts became public with today's ceremony.

The documents are the 11th and 12th issued as decrees by the council since it began in 1962. Four more will be issued before the council ends Dec. 8.

The decree on the laity encourages Catholic men and women "to a more fervent life," binding them to do what they can to help their church spread the Gospel both as individuals and as members of Catholic lay organizations.

The decree on divine revelation is a theological treatise that stirred much heat in the council from its opening in 1962. At issue was whether God's word is revealed by Scripture and Church tradition as from a single source or from two distinct sources.

BELLES OF THE BALL—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson Turns On White House Glitter To Entertain Princess

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Said the President to the Princess: "You have claimed our heart and we are happy to give it to you."

Said the Princess to the President: "We are having the most wonderful time."

And that about summed up the festivities last night at the most dazzling affair of the Washington social season—the White House dinner dance President and Mrs. Johnson gave for Britain's royal tourists, Princess Margaret and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon.

One final museum visit and ceremonial tree-planting at the British Embassy was all that was scheduled for Margaret today before her afternoon departure for New York. She leaves a captivated capital.

One of her conquests was the President, who ignored any tinges he may have felt from his Oct. 8 operation, to dance with the tiny, blue-eyed Margaret. Despite her jewels and her sophisticated ballgown she looked like a little girl, not quite coming up to the President's shoulder.

The tune they danced to was "Everything's Coming Up Roses"—in honor of the Princess, who was known as Margaret Rose as a youngster. She was reported to have enjoyed the affair "wildly."

Johnson must have enjoyed it, too. For though the Princess left the White House at 1:35 this morning, the President didn't call it quits until shortly after 2.

The next dance was a sentimental tribute to the Johnson's 31st wedding anniversary yesterday. The Johnsons danced to the tune of the "Anniversary Waltz" and "The Girl That I Married."

McNamara Battles Copper Price Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government plans to release at least 200,000 tons of copper from its stockpile. It says the aim is to nip the climb in copper prices and ease a world shortage of the metal.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced the decision last night, saying the world copper situation threatens a disruption which could lead to strong inflationary developments.

The announcement came one week after similar government proposals had forced a price-rise rollback in the aluminum industry.

There was no immediate comment from major copper companies as to whether they would follow the aluminum pattern and cutback prices.

McNamara said the release plus three other actions affecting the metal had been discussed with leading U.S. copper companies.

The other government decisions:

1. To control exports of copper and copper scrap "for an indefinite period to conserve domestic supply."

2. To ask Congress to suspend the 1.7-cent-a-pound import duty on copper, a protection McNamara said domestic producers don't need. The Western world used 5.3 million tons of refined copper last year but produced 4.4 million tons. The rest came from scrap.

3. To ask the New York Commodity Exchange to curb excessive speculation in copper trading by raising margin requirements for copper. He said the current margin is about 10 per cent, compared to an approximate 70 per cent on the New York Exchange.

McNamara said the government copper would be sold at between 36 and 38 cents a pound, as much as 34 cents below prices current on the speculative markets in London and New York.

War On Poverty's Policies Defended

Ronald Field, field representative for the Economic Opportunity Program in 11 western states, in a Novato speech Tuesday night quoted Sargent Shriver, national director of the program, that "we will make no retreat from our policies on participation of the poor."

Field was one of three speakers on the War on Poverty program presented by the Novato Democratic Club on a program that drew 50 persons at the Novato Community House.

Sharing the platform with him were Dr. Paul O'Rourke, former Novatan who is state director of the program, and Walter Bremond, Marin County director of community services.

O'Rourke said many of the poor who have become involved in War on Poverty projects have proven themselves highly capable and competent, and "they take to participation like ducks to water."

Bremond, however, said participation of the poor has caused some stress and conflict. Established welfare and charitable agencies were somewhat taken aback by the edict of participation by the poor themselves, he said.

However, Bremond declared, the Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted the concept in asking the people of Marin City to elect five representatives to the council in charge of the program.

Bremond praised the preschool program set up under the War on Poverty in Sausalito School District as "one of the finest in California."

O'Rourke, calling War on Poverty a self-help project designed to do for the poor what welfare programs have failed to do, declared it is "an extremely positive program" and is proving successful.

He blamed news media for stressing negative aspects of the program, and declared, "The result is that the public a large has little awareness of the strength and success the program is having."

Charge Reduced To Petty Theft

Lee, of 1520 Bridgeway, Sausalito, originally was charged with burglary of a boat owned by Sean Mooney at Marinship Yacht harbor. A $30 ship's compass was allegedly taken from the 38-foot power boat on Nov. 5.

Judge Goldstein scheduled arraignment on the petty theft charge for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Gifts For Dystrophy

A total of $2,410 had been donated yesterday in the Marin County 1965 Muscular Dystrophy Assn. mail campaign, announced Mrs. Barbara Cutler, campaign publicity manager. Goal in the drive, which will end Nov. 30, is $10,700, said Mrs. Cutler.

Field Hands Picket Ship, Block Loading Of Grapes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The SS President Wilson will sail for the Far East today on schedule but without 1,250 cases of grapes it originally had intended to carry.

The ship's owner—American President Lines (APL)—agreed last night to leave the grapes behind after loading operations were halted by four pickets representing striking Kern County grape pickers.

The pickets said the grapes had been shipped by Delano growers who are being struck by the AFL-CIO Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee and the independent National Farm Workers Assn.

The pickets showed up on Pier 50 where the President Wilson was being loaded yesterday Some 50 longshoremen, who already had loaded some of the grapes, stopped work in sympathy.

Teamsters also agreed to honor the line, and deliverty trucks arriving with cargo halted. There was a brief scuffle at one point when a truck tried to drive through.

Its tires were flattened and the word "scab" was scrawled with soap on its side. Police arrive to restore order, but there were no arrests.

War On Poverty's Policies Defended

Ronald Field, field representative for the Economic Opportunity Program in 11 western states, in a Novato speech Tuesday night quoted Sargent Shriver, national director of the program, that "we will make no retreat from our policies on participation of the poor."

Field was one of three speakers on the War on Poverty program presented by the Novato Democratic Club on a program that drew 50 persons at the Novato Community House.

Sharing the platform with him were Dr. Paul O'Rourke, former Novatan who is state director of the program, and Walter Bremond, Marin County director of community services.

O'Rourke said many of the poor who have become involved in War on Poverty projects have proven themselves highly capable and competent, and "they take to participation like ducks to water."

Bremond, however, said participation of the poor has caused some stress and conflict. Established welfare and charitable agencies were somewhat taken aback by the edict of participation by the poor themselves, he said.

However, Bremond declared, the Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted the concept in asking the people of Marin City to elect five representatives to the council in charge of the program.

Bremond praised the preschool program set up under the War on Poverty in Sausalito School District as "one of the finest in California."

O'Rourke, calling War on Poverty a self-help project designed to do for the poor what welfare programs have failed to do, declared it is "an extremely positive program" and is proving successful.

He blamed news media for stressing negative aspects of the program, and declared, "The result is that the public a large has little awareness of the strength and success the program is having."

Charge Reduced To Petty Theft

Lee, of 1520 Bridgeway, Sausalito, originally was charged with burglary of a boat owned by Sean Mooney at Marinship Yacht harbor. A $30 ship's compass was allegedly taken from the 38-foot power boat on Nov. 5.

Judge Goldstein scheduled arraignment on the petty theft charge for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Gifts For Dystrophy

A total of $2,410 had been donated yesterday in the Marin County 1965 Muscular Dystrophy Assn. mail campaign, announced Mrs. Barbara Cutler, campaign publicity manager. Goal in the drive, which will end Nov. 30, is $10,700, said Mrs. Cutler.

Field Hands Picket Ship, Block Loading Of Grapes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The SS President Wilson will sail for the Far East today on schedule but without 1,250 cases of grapes it originally had intended to carry.

The ship's owner—American President Lines (APL)—agreed last night to leave the grapes behind after loading operations were halted by four pickets representing striking Kern County grape pickers.

The pickets said the grapes had been shipped by Delano growers who are being struck by the AFL-CIO Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee and the independent National Farm Workers Assn.

The pickets showed up on Pier 50 where the President Wilson was being loaded yesterday Some 50 longshoremen, who already had loaded some of the grapes, stopped work in sympathy.

Teamsters also agreed to honor the line, and deliverty trucks arriving with cargo halted. There was a brief scuffle at one point when a truck tried to drive through.

Its tires were flattened and the word "scab" was scrawled with soap on its side. Police arrive to restore order, but there were no arrests.

Testimony started today before Judge Thomas F. Keating. Conviction carries an automatic death penalty, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said.

Sanchez allegedly knifed Ralph Canning, 54, of Oakland, following a dispute between the two men April 23. He is charged with assault by a lifer. Canning, a civilian, was struck at least 18 times with a knife-like instrument, officers said.

Strike May Hurt Space, War Efforts

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Machinists at McDonnell Aircraft Corp. are preparing for a strike at midnight that would halt production of Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam and could delay two Gemini space shots.

Some 11,000 members of District 9 of the International Assn. of Machinists jammed a downtown auditorium yesterday and overwhelmingly rejected a company contract offer. The rejection is tantamount to a strike vote. The McDonnell plant has 35,000 employees, 17,000 of them machinists.

A strike would immediately hit production of the Phantoms, used by the Navy, Air Force and Marines in Viet Nam. About 50 now are on McDonnell production lines.

The walkout also may reach to Cape Kennedy, Fla., where about 500 McDonnell employees, including some machinists, are working on the launch of Geminis 6 and 7, scheduled for Dec. 4 and 13.

Eugene Glover, machinist union vice president, said the union must "take into account the situation at the Cape."

He said he would confer today in a three-way telephone hookup with union officials in Washington and representatives of the Cape Kennedy members. One of the points to be discussed, he said, is a possible dispensation from striking for machinists working on the Gemini launchings.

Storer Offers Marincello Talks

Marin County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer ha soffered to speak to any group in the county, including those opposed to Marincello, to explain his vote in favor of the Marincello master plan.

In a two-page press release, Storer today reviewed some of his statements made at last Friday's hearing and asked that opponents now take a positive interest in the plan and offer suggestions.

"This would be constructive and welcomed by county officials, not to mention the developer," Storer said.

State Postpones Parks Discussion

Discussion of location of mainland docking facilities to serve Angel Island State Park was postponed indefinitely yesterday by the California Park Commission, meeting in Los Angeles.

The commission also put off discussion of improvement projects at Marin Headlands State Park and Mount Tamalpais State Park, scheduled for today, to await an as-yet-uncompleted investigation report, the Associated Press reported from Los Angeles. The improvemets are to be financed from the $150 million state bond issue approved by voters last year.

When cast-iron plows appeared in the early 1800's many farmers refused to use them for fear of "poisoning the soil."

COINS

Sholar, who lives at 278 San Felipe Way, Novato, took a quick inventory last night and told police that about $9,600 worth of his rare coins were still missing.

He was still taking inventory today, but told police that all the gold coins he had on display were gone. His most valuable coins, he said, were locked in the safe and untouched.

Buchignani said Thomas Wood has been living at 409 and one-half Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo. The home is practically across the street from the coin shop.

The chief reported that Maria Svenson, who owns the home, told him two pillow cases were missing from the bedroom there.

Buchgnani described Wood as standing five feet eight inches tall, weighing 150 pounds, with blonde hair, hazel eyes and a slim build.

His brother, who was booked at county jail on a charge of burglary, gave his occupation as a truck driver and said he lived with his wife at the Bermuda Palms, Buchignani said. Bail was set at $2,500.

Suspended Sentence For Marijuana Sale

Twenty-six-year-old Anthony Louis Pastor of Beverly Hills was given a four-months suspended county jail sentence and placed on three years probation today in Marin Superior Court for selling marijuana.

A second count of illegal sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley following Pastor's guilty plea. Pastor is one of 11 adults arrested in a June 4 roundup of southern Marin County suspects for sale or possession of the weed.

already the casualties were mounting. The Communists were believed to have suffered heavily when wave after wave of U.S. and Vietnamese planes bombed and strafed Viet Cong gun positions for two hours.

In the Chu Pong area units of the 1st Air Cavalry division regrouped after the mauling they received, flew their dead and wounded out by helicopter and pressed deeper into the jungle through head-high elephant grass.

Intelligence officers told UPI that pack elephant trails indicated the Communists may be fighting in defense of the main supply point for all Red troops in the Central Highlands.

Scores of Americans lay on the battlefield all night amid the bodies of slain comrades and Communists.

First reports on the ambush said the Americans had beaten off the attack. But correspondents on the scene today were told that the U.S. force had been cut in two and that the separated units curled into two tight perimeters to defend themselves for the night.

American troops returning to the battlefield today said they found it littered with dead and dying men on both sides.

The American column was headed north from Chu Pong, here 1st Cavalry units virtually annihilated a North Vietnamese regiment in three previous days of bitter fighting, to a new landing zone three miles away.

The Communists cut loose with mortar and sniper fire from every direction as the American infantrymen pushed through head-high bush. The attack snapped the column in two.

Woman Jury Hearing Testimony In Slaying

An all-woman jury in the murder trial of Armando G. Sanchez, 33-year-old San Quentin prisoner charged with slaying a shop foreman, was chosen yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Testimony started today before Judge Thomas F. Keating. Conviction carries an automatic death penalty, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said.

Sanchez allegedly knifed Ralph Canning, 54, of Oakland, following a dispute between the two men April 23. He is charged with assault by a lifer. Canning, a civilian, was struck at least 18 times with a knife-like instrument, officers said.

Strike May Hurt Space, War Efforts

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Machinists at McDonnell Aircraft Corp. are preparing for a strike at midnight that would halt production of Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam and could delay two Gemini space shots.

Some 11,000 members of District 9 of the International Assn. of Machinists jammed a downtown auditorium yesterday and overwhelmingly rejected a company contract offer. The rejection is tantamount to a strike vote. The McDonnell plant has 35,000 employees, 17,000 of them machinists.

A strike would immediately hit production of the Phantoms, used by the Navy, Air Force and Marines in Viet Nam. About 50 now are on McDonnell production lines.

The walkout also may reach to Cape Kennedy, Fla., where about 500 McDonnell employees, including some machinists, are working on the launch of Geminis 6 and 7, scheduled for Dec. 4 and 13.

Eugene Glover, machinist union vice president, said the union must "take into account the situation at the Cape."

He said he would confer today in a three-way telephone hookup with union officials in Washington and representatives of the Cape Kennedy members. One of the points to be discussed, he said, is a possible dispensation from striking for machinists working on the Gemini launchings.

Storer Offers Marincello Talks

Marin County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer ha soffered to speak to any group in the county, including those opposed to Marincello, to explain his vote in favor of the Marincello master plan.

In a two-page press release, Storer today reviewed some of his statements made at last Friday's hearing and asked that opponents now take a positive interest in the plan and offer suggestions.

"This would be constructive and welcomed by county officials, not to mention the developer," Storer said.

State Postpones Parks Discussion

Discussion of location of mainland docking facilities to serve Angel Island State Park was postponed indefinitely yesterday by the California Park Commission, meeting in Los Angeles.

The commission also put off discussion of improvement projects at Marin Headlands State Park and Mount Tamalpais State Park, scheduled for today, to await an as-yet-uncompleted investigation report, the Associated Press reported from Los Angeles. The improvemets are to be financed from the $150 million state bond issue approved by voters last year.

When cast-iron plows appeared in the early 1800's many farmers refused to use them for fear of "poisoning the soil."

COINS

Sholar, who lives at 278 San Felipe Way, Novato, took a quick inventory last night and told police that about $9,600 worth of his rare coins were still missing.

He was still taking inventory today, but told police that all the gold coins he had on display were gone. His most valuable coins, he said, were locked in the safe and untouched.

Buchignani said Thomas Wood has been living at 409 and one-half Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo. The home is practically across the street from the coin shop.

The chief reported that Maria Svenson, who owns the home, told him two pillow cases were missing from the bedroom there.

Buchgnani described Wood as standing five feet eight inches tall, weighing 150 pounds, with blonde hair, hazel eyes and a slim build.

His brother, who was booked at county jail on a charge of burglary, gave his occupation as a truck driver and said he lived with his wife at the Bermuda Palms, Buchignani said. Bail was set at $2,500.

Suspended Sentence For Marijuana Sale

Twenty-six-year-old Anthony Louis Pastor of Beverly Hills was given a four-months suspended county jail sentence and placed on three years probation today in Marin Superior Court for selling marijuana.

A second count of illegal sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley following Pastor's guilty plea. Pastor is one of 11 adults arrested in a June 4 roundup of southern Marin County suspects for sale or possession of the weed.

already the casualties were mounting. The Communists were believed to have suffered heavily when wave after wave of U.S. and Vietnamese planes bombed and strafed Viet Cong gun positions for two hours.

In the Chu Pong area units of the 1st Air Cavalry division regrouped after the mauling they received, flew their dead and wounded out by helicopter and pressed deeper into the jungle through head-high elephant grass.

Intelligence officers told UPI that pack elephant trails indicated the Communists may be fighting in defense of the main supply point for all Red troops in the Central Highlands.

Scores of Americans lay on the battlefield all night amid the bodies of slain comrades and Communists.

First reports on the ambush said the Americans had beaten off the attack. But correspondents on the scene today were told that the U.S. force had been cut in two and that the separated units curled into two tight perimeters to defend themselves for the night.

American troops returning to the battlefield today said they found it littered with dead and dying men on both sides.

The American column was headed north from Chu Pong, here 1st Cavalry units virtually annihilated a North Vietnamese regiment in three previous days of bitter fighting, to a new landing zone three miles away.

The Communists cut loose with mortar and sniper fire from every direction as the American infantrymen pushed through head-high bush. The attack snapped the column in two.

Bruce Sees Marincello Service District Setup

Some kind of special district undoubtedly will have to be created to provide municipal-type services to Marincello, County Administrator Alan Bruce said today.

He said county sheriff's and fire protection provided in the unincorporated areas will not be adequate when Marincello is developed. He believes a community service area which would be governed by the board of Supervisors would probably be the best approach.

Those holding property in the district would pay an additional tax for the added service.

Bruce's remarks were in response to action Tuesday night by the Novato City Council, which urged that extra services for Marincello be paid for by Marincello and not spread throughout the county.

The issue of municipal-type services supplied by the county in some areas has been under study for some time by a city-county services committee. These studies are continuing and the question of service for Marincello will undoubtedly be discussed, Bruce said.

Court Approves Recording Contract For Novato Girl

The contract between Chris Clark, 19, and Motown Records Corp. of Detroit, New York and Hollywood was approved by Judge A. A. Scott of Los Angeles Superior Court.

Miss Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Clark of 14 Nave Court, Novato, has been a Novato resident for 12 years. She graduated from Novato High School in 1963.

She sang with various combos and small bands while in high school, and since graduation has been singing in night clubs in Texas, Los Angeles and Detroit.

Under terms of the court-approved contract, Miss Clark will receive 3 per cent of gross sales of the records for seven years if all options are picked up.

Defendant Denies Killing Marinite

He is charged with the Oct. 17 rifle slaying of Riley, a tenant in the apartment house of which Lovill is owner. Police, answering a report that shots had been heard, saw Riley stagger out of an apartment and collapse at their feet. He died hours later.

Lovill was found standing in a hallway with a .30 caliber rifle, officers said.

Railway Clerks On Strike; Santa Fe Trains Halted

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks went on strike against the 13,000 mile Santa Fe system today. The railroad immediately asked the National Railway Mediation Board to take jurisdiction.

Santa Fe said that passenger trains in runs at the time the strike was called at 6 a.m. (CST) would be allowed to reach their destinations.

There were no immediate efforts to negotiate. The Santa Fe said it was awaiting word from the mediation board. The brotherhood said it had no statement beyond what was in its original release earlier today.

In most if not all places, members of the five on-train brotherhoods refused to cross picket lines of the 9,000 clerks union.

FLOOD OVERPOWERS CAR

Southern Californians Brace For More Rain

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California, inundated by more than five inches of rain in its worse November storm, braced today for a predicted two or three more inches. It was the fifth straight day of downpours.

The downpours eased overnight, giving a breather to thousands of residents whose homes were flooded, threatened or isolated by floods and mud slides.

Damage in coastal areas from Santa Barbara to the Mexican border was estimated in the millions.

The forecast: Gusty winds and rain, heavy at times, from a new storm expected to last through tomorrow.

Los Angeles received 5.16 inches of rain, bringing the season total to 6.97.

The Simi Valley, an agricultural area 35 miles west where houses are replacing groves, was perhaps hardest hit. An estimated 200 persons evacuated parts of three subdivisions during a deluge yesterday, taking refuge in an emergency center at a high school. Damage in the area was estimated at "several million." Sheriff's deputies said at least 56 homes were flooded and more than 100 partially flooded.

At Thousand Oaks, just over the hills from Simi, homes were hit in two subdivisions.

Roads in both areas were flooded and in some places undercut. More than 100 county workers were called in to protect a storm drain threatened by washout. Sandbags were brought in from other communities to protect homes.

Elsewhere, hillside homes in many areas were damaged by water and flowing mud. Rocks and slides blocked mountain roads. State Highway 118 linking the Simi and San Fernando valleys was blocked for a time.

At Box Canyon near the San Fernando Valley 40 members of a religious sect, the Wisdom, Knowledge, Faith and Love Fountain of the World—a group whose men have helped many others during floods and fires—were evacuated when flooding undermined buildings.

Rain was higher in outlying areas. At the Red Rock ranger station in the San Gabriel Mountains,

State Parks Bond Issue Not Enough

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Fred L. Jones, state director of parks and recreation, indicated yesterday the "one time only" $150 million beach and park bond issue of 1964 will not begin to meet the state park system needs over the next 20 years.

Jones presented an accelerated development program for the state park system to the state park commission at a meeting in Los Angeles. He also gave a progress report on how the money from the bond issue was being spent.

Jones said park system usage had increased from less than 10 million visitor days in 1948 to more than 32 million visitor days in 1964 and is expected to jump to 113 million by 1980. Present facilities are overused, with 1.5 million campers turned away from parks last year because no campsites were available.

Jones said the state park system development should be phased over a 20-year period at a cost of $500 million. This would provide for an additional 23,000 camp units, 30,000 picnic units, 55,000 parking spaces, 211 boat launching ramps, and other facilities.

Southern Californians Brace For More Rain

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California, inundated by more than five inches of rain in its worse November storm, braced today for a predicted two or three more inches. It was the fifth straight day of downpours.

The downpours eased overnight, giving a breather to thousands of residents whose homes were flooded, threatened or isolated by floods and mud slides.

The forecast: Gusty winds and rain, heavy at times, from a new storm expected to last through tomorrow.

Los Angeles received 5.16 inches of rain, bringing the season total to 6.97.

The Simi Valley, an agricultural area 35 miles west where houses are replacing groves, was perhaps hardest hit. An estimated 200 persons evacuated parts of three subdivisions during a deluge yesterday, taking refuge in an emergency center at a high school. Damage in the area was estimated at "several million." Sheriff's deputies said at least 56 homes were flooded and more than 100 partially flooded.

At Thousand Oaks, just over the hills from Simi, homes were hit in two subdivisions.

Roads in both areas were flooded and in some places undercut. More than 100 county workers were called in to protect a storm drain threatened by washout. Sandbags were brought in from other communities to protect homes.

Elsewhere, hillside homes in many areas were damaged by water and flowing mud. Rocks and slides blocked mountain roads. State Highway 118 linking the Simi and San Fernando valleys was blocked for a time.

At Box Canyon near the San Fernando Valley 40 members of a religious sect, the Wisdom, Knowledge, Faith and Love Fountain of the World—a group whose men have helped many others during floods and fires—were evacuated when flooding undermined buildings.

Rain was higher in outlying areas. At the Red Rock ranger station in the San Gabriel Mountains,

State Parks Bond Issue Not Enough

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Fred L. Jones, state director of parks and recreation, indicated yesterday the "one time only" $150 million beach and park bond issue of 1964 will not begin to meet the state park system needs over the next 20 years.

Jones presented an accelerated development program for the state park system to the state park commission at a meeting in Los Angeles. He also gave a progress report on how the money from the bond issue was being spent.

Jones said park system usage had increased from less than 10 million visitor days in 1948 to more than 32 million visitor days in 1964 and is expected to jump to 113 million by 1980. Present facilities are overused, with 1.5 million campers turned away from parks last year because no campsites were available.

Jones said the state park system development should be phased over a 20-year period at a cost of $500 million. This would provide for an additional 23,000 camp units, 30,000 picnic units, 55,000 parking spaces, 211 boat launching ramps, and other facilities.

Terra Linda's Recreation Director Resigns His Post

WILLIAM A. GORDON
He's through

William A. Gordon, Terra Linda recreation director for a year and one-half, submitted his written resignation to Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District directors early this morning at the close of a long meeting.

No reason was given in the letter, board chairman Jack Brandon said. Gordon could not be reached for comment today. The resignation is to take effect Dec. 31.

Most of last night's meeting was spent discussing a teen charter and revised rules for teen-age dances, Brandon said.

It was agreed that in addition to the two sheriff's deputies and four chaperones for each dance, there would be two more adults serving as gate tenders.

Directors also agreed that no one will be admitted to a dance after 9 p.m. rather than the previous 10 p.m., and that all guests must register by 6 p.m., rather than permitting registration until the start of the dance at 8 p.m.

The revisions were made following a fracas in the center parking lot after a dance last month. This was not so serious as the vandalism and disturbances that caused directors to close the dances last summer.

Directors will meet again at the center at 8 p.m. Wednesday to discuss finances and Gordon's resignation.

Brandon was directed to meet with directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District to see if control or signs could be tightened in the district. Brandon reported a truck was parked in a median strip over the weekend with signs offering wood for sale. There are also signs offering homes and puppies for sale which are in violation of the county code, he said.

Fuel Cell Woes Hit Gemini Again

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Trouble with power-producing fuel cells threatens to delay the Dec. 4 launch date of Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr.

Sources said any postponement probably would be for to days. There was no indication when a decision would be made.

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said there was a possibility of keeping the Dec. 4 schedule by working on Thanksgiving and weekends, normally off days.

A NASA spokesman said that during a test Tuesday, pressure apparently built up and forced liquid hydrogen into the to fuel cells, which combine hydrogen and oxygen to produce electrical power. The spokesman said the cells may not have been harmed, but to be on the safe side for the intended 14-day mission, the decision was made to replace them.

If Gemini 7 is delayed, the companion Gemini 6 flight, to be launched nine days after Gemini 7, also would be postponed.

State Sets Seminar On Narcotics Laws

A narcotics enforcement seminar sponsored by the Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement, San Francisco office, will be held for Marin County law enforcement officers Nov. 29-30 at the National Guard Armory in Santa Venetia.

The three four-hour sessions will be 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Nov. 29 and 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Nov. 30. Purpose of the seminar is to familiarize officers with problems the state bureau encounters, to instruct on better identification of narcotics, and to alert officers to narcotics laws.

Speakers Ready For Next Event

Members of Terra Linda High School's newly formed Forensic Club will enter their second tournament Saturday at Terra Nova High School in Pacifica.

Entered in the tourney, which will be confined to non-debating events, will be Janice Read, Shelley Cochran, Terry Carlson, Judy Naves, Lelia Loban, Frank Gravitt, Kathy Spence and Monica Miller.

Debating teams from the school won four rounds in their first outing, at a tournament Oct. 30 at Richmond High School.

Mrs. L. B. Tuck is forensics coach.

WAR PROTESTORS ALLOWED PARADE

Judge Orders Oakland To Permit March, Bars Anti-Viet Nam Show At Terminal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) Dist. Judge William T. Sweigert issued a preliminary injunction ordering the City of Oakland to permit a massive anti-Viet Nam war parade Saturday—but at the same time, imposed strict conditions on sponsors of the demonstration.

Sweigert's action followed refusal by the Oakland City Council to issue a parade permit to the Viet Nam Day Committee (VDC), although the judge stated formally last Friday that the parade should be permitted.

Oakland withheld permits on two previous occasions last month, and once a parade of about 10,000 demonstrators was barred from entering the city at its boundary by hundreds of police officers. There was also a brief encounter between the demonstrators and members of California's "Hells Angels" motorcycle club.

Sweigert's order yesterday restrained city officials from arresting plaintiffs for violations of their parade permit ordinances, and enjoined officials from failing to provide the demonstrators with adequate protection against attacks.

But the judge imposed some conditions upon the VDC.

The most important restriction was his forbiding the demonstrators from sending even a token force of one person to their preferred parade objective, the Oakland Army Terminal, a major West Coast military embarkation center to the Far East.

The VDC promptly announced they would appeal this restriction, although they considered Sweigert's decision in the main to be a victory.

The judge based his ruling on his interpretation of the first and 14th amendments to the U.S. Constitution. He said the amendments give the Viet Nam demonstrators the right of free speech and assembly so long as their activity is peaceful and orderly.

As approved by Sweigert, the parade route will run seven miles from the University of California campus through Berkeley to either a vacant lot or a park a mile from the army base. The judge said that an approach to the base would create unreasonable traffic hazards and make it difficult for police to do their job.

Oakland police have warned that the demonstration might incite mob violence and noted that public threats have been made by the Hell's Angels, Judge Sweigert specifically named the notorious motorcycle club in his order.

Delta Jet Makes Forced Landing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Delta Airlins DC8 turned back to Los Angeles seven minutes after takeoff early today after an explosion in its number four engine.

There were no injuries among the 58 passengers or crew of six, an airline spokesman said.

The Dallas-bound flight, Delta's flight 820, took off at 1:55 a.m. and was about 1,000 feet in the air when the engine apparently ingested an unidentified object through its jet intake, said the pilot, Capt. W. D. Wood of Dallas.

Wood said there was a minor explosion and a ball of fire shot out through the jet exhaust.

Sheriff To Talk

Sausalitan Injured On Shoreline Road

Joseph H. Brown, 39, of 503 Main Street, Sausalito, suffered minor injuries at 11:30 a.m. yesterday when his car ran off the road near Point Reyes Station, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Brown was driving north on Shoreline Highway three quarters of a mile south of Point Reyes Station when he crashed into an embankment. He was treated for cuts and bruises by a Point Reyes Station doctor.

Chauffeur Leads Police To Jewelry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police have arrested a family chauffeur in the $126,000 jewel robbery at the Pacific Heights mansion of San Francisco car dealer Albert E. Schlesinger.

Police said Robert H. Heermann, the Schlesinger's 27-year-old chauffeur, led them to a vacuum cleaner inside the mansion after his arrest yesterday.

They found $72,000 worth of the loot, including half of a $50,000 necklace. The remaining jewels from last Saturday night's theft were still missing.

Two other men were arrested in Reno, Nev., and were being returned to San Francisco for questioning as the chauffeur's alleged accomplices.

They are Walbert B. Cunningham, 52, and Larry Igou, 26. They were arrested by Reno police on a vagrancy charge.

San Francisco police said they cracked the case after a neighborhood police officer heard that a young man brought a diamond ring to a pawnbroker to ask if it were real. It was.

The young man, Vern Bennett, 19, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property, police said.

Reform Jews Ask Viet Nam Truce

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Leaders of Reform Judaism in the United States and Canada have overwhelmingly voted to urge an American cease-fire in Viet Nam.

The 3,000 delegates to the 48th biennial meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregtions urged the armistice "subject only to the requirements of the safety of our armed forces."

The resolution, adopted yesterday, called upon President Johnson to announce to the world "that as of a given date, our armed forces will cease firing, our planes will cease bombing. . ."

The announcement would state that American representatives would proceed to a designated neutral place to meet with opposing forces in Viet Nam.

The resolution also called on "representatives of the opposing forces to join us in this unselfish determination to demonstrate our commitment to peace in our time and for all time."

Earlier the delegates, representing a million Reform Jews in 664 temples, passed resolutions supporting peaceful dissent and demonstrations against American foreign policies.

In a heated debate the delegates deleted the resolution's original language in specifically referring to dissent and demonstrations against Viet Nam policies.

The key wording, as passed, said:

"Those who are critical of the United States' policies, whether from the pulpit or in the street, must be neither stifled nor intimidated by the threat of investigation. Neither shall their motives nor their loyalties be impugned."

Delegates also approved a resolution supporting the winning of converts to Judaism. Jews stopped the practice in 315 A.D. under penalty of death by order of Roman Emperor Constantine I.

Sentencing Due In Manslaughter

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) —A Californian will be sentenced Monday for manslaughter — the Oct. 4 shooting of his stepson.

Frank Baldinegro, 68, of Nubieber in California's Lassen County, pleaded guilty yesterday to the reduced charge. He originally had been charged with murder.

Guild Strike Hits Newspaper In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The American Newspaper Guild went on strike early today against the nation's largest evening daily, the Los Angles Herald-Examiner.

Negotiations were reported continuing despite the strike as union and management representatives met with mediators.

Assistant managing editor Agness Underwood said department heads would fill in for the estimated 1,000 struck editorial, advertising and circulation workers.

Key issues, union spokesmen said, involve wage and job security issues.

Journeymen now receive $164.50 a week minimum after five years, and are demanding two yearly raises—$16 the first and $8 the second year. The newspaper has offered $4.05 and $4.25.

President Of Brazil Urges Anti-Subversive Measures

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Western Hemisphere heard a strong call by Brazil's president for them to update inter-American machinery to combat infiltration and subversion.

"It is urgent that we, the members of the inter-American system, rethink our concepts and preconceptions in the light of the new realities," President Humberto Castello Branco declared in formally opening the special inter-American conference last night.

The Brazilian chief chided past hemisphere parleys for "academically mulling over principles and provisions that, when a dispute comes up, we do not show any inclination to obey."

Stoutly defending the intervention in the Dominican Republic, Castello Branco said the hemisphere defense system was devised in the early postwar years to protect against direct armed aggression.

Now aggression threatens more subtly "through infiltration and subversion" and "it is therefore imperative that we take a new look at the concepts of aggression and intervention," he said.

His keynote rang harmoniously with a theme sounded by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk after Washington ordered troops into Santo Domingo, which Washington said were to save lives and prevent a Communist takeover.

Of the five Latin-American nations which sent troops to join the Americans in the peace force formed by the Organization of American States, Brazil sent the biggest number.

Rusk, heading the U.S. delegation to the conference, declined public comment on the Brazilian's proposal at this time. He planned to deliver the American speech early next week, after some other deleate haev had their say.

WAR PROTESTORS ALLOWED PARADE

Judge Orders Oakland To Permit March, Bars Anti-Viet Nam Show At Terminal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) Dist. Judge William T. Sweigert issued a preliminary injunction ordering the City of Oakland to permit a massive anti-Viet Nam war parade Saturday—but at the same time, imposed strict conditions on sponsors of the demonstration.

Sweigert's action followed refusal by the Oakland City Council to issue a parade permit to the Viet Nam Day Committee (VDC), although the judge stated formally last Friday that the parade should be permitted.

Oakland withheld permits on two previous occasions last month, and once a parade of about 10,000 demonstrators was barred from entering the city at its boundary by hundreds of police officers. There was also a brief encounter between the demonstrators and members of California's "Hells Angels" motorcycle club.

Sweigert's order yesterday restrained city officials from arresting plaintiffs for violations of their parade permit ordinances, and enjoined officials from failing to provide the demonstrators with adequate protection against attacks.

But the judge imposed some conditions upon the VDC.

The most important restriction was his forbiding the demonstrators from sending even a token force of one person to their preferred parade objective, the Oakland Army Terminal, a major West Coast military embarkation center to the Far East.

The VDC promptly announced they would appeal this restriction, although they considered Sweigert's decision in the main to be a victory.

The judge based his ruling on his interpretation of the first and 14th amendments to the U.S. Constitution. He said the amendments give the Viet Nam demonstrators the right of free speech and assembly so long as their activity is peaceful and orderly.

As approved by Sweigert, the parade route will run seven miles from the University of California campus through Berkeley to either a vacant lot or a park a mile from the army base. The judge said that an approach to the base would create unreasonable traffic hazards and make it difficult for police to do their job.

Oakland police have warned that the demonstration might incite mob violence and noted that public threats have been made by the Hell's Angels, Judge Sweigert specifically named the notorious motorcycle club in his order.

Delta Jet Makes Forced Landing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Delta Airlins DC8 turned back to Los Angeles seven minutes after takeoff early today after an explosion in its number four engine.

There were no injuries among the 58 passengers or crew of six, an airline spokesman said.

The Dallas-bound flight, Delta's flight 820, took off at 1:55 a.m. and was about 1,000 feet in the air when the engine apparently ingested an unidentified object through its jet intake, said the pilot, Capt. W. D. Wood of Dallas.

Wood said there was a minor explosion and a ball of fire shot out through the jet exhaust.

Sheriff To Talk

Marin County Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos will tell members of Parents Without Partner how to teach their children to obey the law when the group meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Sun Valley School, San Rafael.

Sausalitan Injured On Shoreline Road

Joseph H. Brown, 39, of 503 Main Street, Sausalito, suffered minor injuries at 11:30 a.m. yesterday when his car ran off the road near Point Reyes Station, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Brown was driving north on Shoreline Highway three quarters of a mile south of Point Reyes Station when he crashed into an embankment. He was treated for cuts and bruises by a Point Reyes Station doctor.

Chauffeur Leads Police To Jewelry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police have arrested a family chauffeur in the $126,000 jewel robbery at the Pacific Heights mansion of San Francisco car dealer Albert E. Schlesinger.

Police said Robert H. Heermann, the Schlesinger's 27-year-old chauffeur, led them to a vacuum cleaner inside the mansion after his arrest yesterday.

They found $72,000 worth of the loot, including half of a $50,000 necklace. The remaining jewels from last Saturday night's theft were still missing.

Two other men were arrested in Reno, Nev., and were being returned to San Francisco for questioning as the chauffeur's alleged accomplices.

They are Walbert B. Cunningham, 52, and Larry Igou, 26. They were arrested by Reno police on a vagrancy charge.

San Francisco police said they cracked the case after a neighborhood police officer heard that a young man brought a diamond ring to a pawnbroker to ask if it were real. It was.

The young man, Vern Bennett, 19, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property, police said.

Reform Jews Ask Viet Nam Truce

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Leaders of Reform Judaism in the United States and Canada have overwhelmingly voted to urge an American cease-fire in Viet Nam.

The 3,000 delegates to the 48th biennial meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregtions urged the armistice "subject only to the requirements of the safety of our armed forces."

The resolution, adopted yestarday, called upon President Johnson to announce to the world "that as of a given date, our armed forces will cease firing, our planes will cease bombing. . ."

The announcement would state that American representatives would proceed to a designated neutral place to meet with opposing forces in Viet Nam.

The resolution also called on "representatives of the opposing forces to join us in this unselfish determination to demonstrate our commitment to peace in our time and for all time."

Earlier the delegates, representing a million Reform Jews in 664 temples, passed resolutions supporting peaceful dissent and demonstrations against American foreign policies.

In a heated debate the delegates deleted the resolution's original language in specifically referring to dissent and demonstrations against Viet Nam policies.

The key wording, as passed, said:

"Those who are critical of the United States' policies, whether from the pulpit or in the street, must be neither stifled nor intimidated by the threat of investigation. Neither shall their motives nor their loyalties be impugned."

Delegates also approved a resolution supporting the winning of converts to Judaism. Jews stopped the practice in 315 A.D. under penalty of death by order of Roman Emperor Constantine I.

Sentencing Due In Manslaughter

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) —A Californian will be sentenced Monday for manslaughter — the Oct. 4 shooting of his stepson.

Frank Baldinegro, 68, of Nubieber in California's Lassen County, pleaded guilty yesterday to the reduced charge. He originally had been charged with murder.

Guild Strike Hits Newspaper In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The American Newspaper Guild went on strike early today against the nation's largest evening daily, the Los Angles Herald-Examiner.

The union contract with the Hearst-owned paper expired at midnight last night.

Negotiations were reported continuing despite the strike as union and management representatives met with mediators.

Assistant managing editor Agness Underwood said department heads would fill in for the estimated 1,000 struck editorial, advertising and circulation workers.

Key issues, union spokesmen said, involve wage and job security issues.

Journeymen now receive $164.50 a week minimum after five years, and are demanding two yearly raises—$16 the first and $8 the second year. The newspaper has offered $4.05 and $4.25.

President Of Brazil Urges Anti-Subversive Measures

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Western Hemisphere heard a strong call by Brazil's president for them to update inter-American machinery to combat infiltration and subversion.

"It is urgent that we, the members of the inter-American system, rethink our concepts and preconceptions in the light of the new realities," President Humberto Castello Branco declared in formally opening the special inter-American conference last night.

The Brazilian chief chided past hemisphere parleys for "academically mulling over principles and provisions that, when a dispute comes up, we do not show any inclination to obey."

Stoutly defending the intervention in the Dominican Republic, Castello Branco said the hemisphere defense system was devised in the early postwar years to protect against direct armed aggression.

Now aggression threatens more subtly "through infiltration and subversion" and "it is therefore imperative that we take a new look at the concepts of aggression and intervention," he said.

His keynote rang harmoniously with a theme sounded by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk after Washington ordered troops into Santo Domingo, which Washington said were to save lives and prevent a Communist takeover.

Of the five Latin-American nations which sent troops to join the Americans in the peace force formed by the Organization of American States, Brazil sent the biggest number.

Rusk, heading the U.S. delegation to the conference, declined public comment on the Brazilian's proposal at this time. He planned to deliver the American speech early next week, after some other deleate haev had their say.

Luci Wearing New Ring, But Still Won't Tell

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new gold and diamond ring sparkled on Luci Johnson's third finger, left hand, as she danced cheek-to-cheek with boyfriend Pat Nugent at a White House party.

The ring drew new speculation that the President's daughter, 18, is engaged to marry Nugent, 23. But the White House again would make no comment and Luci, herself, couldn't be reached.

AT PRINCESS' PARTY

Luci, in a strapless white faille evening dress, her hair bouffant, had a gay time at the dinner-dance last night in honor of Britain's Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon.

She danced some slow numbers romantically with Nugent and did some fast frugs with other partners during the evening to the blaring beat of Peter Duchin's orchestra in the East Room.

Before the dinner, Mrs. Johnson's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, had asked the few reporters permitted to watch the dancing that they not interview Luci.

REPORTERS STALLED

Reports circulated several weeks ago that Luci and Pat—whose hometown is Waukegan, Ill.—had flown to the LBI Ranch in Texas for a weekend to ask President and Mrs. Johnson's permission to marry.

Neither the Johnsons nor their White House spokesmen would either confirm or deny the report. Luci and Nugent maintained that their private lives were their own and they would have nothing to say. There were subsequent rumors, though, that the President had persuaded the young couple to wait at least until Luci, a freshman at Georgetown University School of Nursing here, finished her four-year course.

Nugent is scheduled to enter military service around Nov. 28. He has been working meanwhile in the office of the District of Columbia Advisory Council on Higher Education.

Candidate Hits 'Pro-Viet Cong'

BERKELEY (UPI)— Republican gubernatorial candidate Laughlin E. Waters today called "pro-Viet Cong demonstrators a frantic fringer of offbeats, deadbeats and Red beats."

"The American majority belives in law, believes in free speech and believes in both the wisdom and justice of our stand beside the South Vietnamese," he said in a speech prepared for noon delivery before faculty and students of the University of California Law School.

But Waters praised U.S. District Judge William T. Sweigert for ruling that anti-Viet Nam war demonstrators could march through Oakland Saturday under proper controls and with safeguards for the rights of others.

Auto Smog Gadgets Claimed Doing A Job

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A smog control engineer reports that emission control devices installed on new and used cars are now preventing 364,000 gallons of hydrocarbons — smog components—from entering the atmosphere daily.

Miles Brubacher, senior engineer for the California Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board, reported to a meeting of the board yesterday that the state already has 100,000 1966 model cars on the road.

All of these, he said, are equipped with crankcase and exhaust emission control devices, preventing 14,000 gallons of hydrocarbons from being discharged into the air daily.

The board's executive officer, Donald A. Jensen, recommended that the board make three major proposals to the special session of the legislature next February.

These proposals, Jensen said, would have the board certify only one rather than two exhaust control devices for used cars, speed up installation and make servicing and inspection mandatory.

Color Television Bonanza Revives Sierra Ghost Town

BAKER (AP)—A sudden bonanza has flopped into the laps of the residents of the tiny desert town of Mountain Pass—it's color television.

Two years ago Mountain Pass was almost dead asleep, having only nine residents operating the Mountain Pass Mine, which is owned by the Molybdenum Corp. of America.

Now there are 175 people, and they're working one of the biggest producers of europium oxide—used in the manufacture of color television tubes—in the world.

The company said its deposit of rare earth metals is the largest in the world, with the most important being bastnasite, a fluocarbonate which contains small amounts of europium.

And the residents are happy to see the boom in color television set sales—it means expansion of the mine, more people and more growth.

He had a cyst removed from his neck.

Burns, 63, who is president pro tem of the Senate, said he had planned the operation for some time, but had delayed it until after the close of the special legislative session.

WAR IN VIET NAM

Wrecks of five U.S. Air Force L-19 spotter planes lie behind their sandbag revetments today on Tan Heip Airfield after a Viet Cong attack. Brown Boasts Of California Ability To Create New Jobs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "No state in the nation can even begin to match California's record in creating new jobs," says Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Brown, addressing a dinner audience last night, said California industry produced 1.3 million new jobs and increased profits 57 per cent during the seven years of his administration. He added:

"The . . .healthy business climate has also brought unparalleled prosperity to our employers. Corporate profits in California totaled $3.6 billion in 1958, the year before I took office.

"Last year they totaled $5.7 billion, an increase of $2 billion or 57 per cent. The prospects are even better for 1965," Brown declared.

The governor spoke at a banquet honoring William Bassett, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Federation of Labor.

Earlier, Brown said the Republican Party in California is "off and running fast" for the governorship — in different directions, "as usual."

"Off to the far, far right," Brown declared, "Ronald Reagan is demanding that President Johnson declare war on North Viet Nam, abandon the anti-poverty program, scuttle federal aid to education, give up Medicare and put Barry Goldwater in charge of our Social Security program."

Tomales Unification Proposals Get Airing

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization, studying the entire county for various unification schemes, came up with several proposals last night.

All were aimed at solving the problem of the Tomales High School District, which the state Board of Education has said repeatedly lacks enough pupils for unification within its own borders.

Robert Stannard, secretary for the committee, said one proposal would put the attendance area of Sir Francis Drake High School in the Tomales unified district.

Another would unify Tomales with Petaluma High School District. There were several variables of this.

Stannard was to come up with attendance and finance figures on the various proposals for report to the committee at its next meeting at 8 p.m., Dec. 1, at the Civic Center.

Youth's Condition Better At Hospital

Jack J. Green, 16, son of Martin F. Green of 449 Marin Drive, Tamalpais Valley, was reported improving today at Marin General Hospital after allegedly being whipped about the head with a telephone receiver on Monday.

Green, said to be in good condition and out of the hospital's intensive care unit, told sheriff's officers that John Allen Acree, 18, of 109 Cardinal Road, Tamalpais Valley, broke into his bedroom and beat him with a telephone receiver, berating Green for phoning a 17-year-old girl Acree had been dating. Acree told a different version of the fight.

Telephone Rate Hike Discussed

Muir Beach Community Services District directors last night discussed telephone rates, to be increased next April, but took no action. Further studies may be made on the subject, said Jack F. Harris, board president.

The board indicated it was pleased that Green Gulch Ranch, which touches the Pacific near Muir Beach, is to become an agricultural preserve under the land conservation act of 1965.

Charles Graham, secretary-manager, reported he has leveled off ground on the hill above the beach for a second tank and is checking prices on tanks.

Peking Believed Closer To U.N.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 47-47 split in the General Assembly on seating Red China plus waning support for U.S. demands that a two-thirds vote decide the issue, aroused speculation today that Peking cannot be barred much longer.

Supporters of the U. S. campaign to keep Red China out of the United Nations admitted privately that they may have scored their last annual victory.

Many diplomats believed the fact that the 117-nation assembly approved the call for a two-thirds majority by a margin of only 7 votes was more significant than the dramatic split over admitting Peking.

The procedural maneuver was approved 56-47 with 11 abstentions, a majority of 20 less than the last vote on the same question four years ago.

The consensus was that if Peking's supporters break the majority barrier next year, they can rally enough support to admit Red China on a straight vote.

Diplomats noted that if Indonesia had not quit the United Nations last March, Peking may have had the single vote needed to score a simple majority this time.

It was believed that Red China's backers could pick up a number of votes if they did not insist on coupling their call for admission of Peking with demands to oust Nationalist China.

Ceylon tried before Wednesday's vote to delete the ouster demand, but the sponsors refused. Peking has said it will not consider U.N. membership unless the Nationalists are thrown out.

Advisory Group Elects Chief

Junius Thompson of Novato was elected last night as chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee on the Development of Marin.

He will replace Mrs. Betty Pierce Jan. 1.

Harold S. Elberg of San Anselmo was elected vice chairman.

The committee discussed a reply to the recommendation on committees prepared by county administrator Alan Bruce. Bruce suggested that the advisory committee's efforts be more concentrated.

Steel Structure Plans Opposed

A steel building at the Sausalito corporation yard would not be harmonious with the residential neighborhood at Nevada and Tomales streets in Sausalito, city planning commissioners agreed last night.

They adopted a resolution urging the city council to require that the structure, proposed by the city staff to be of steel, be of materials "harmonious and sympathetic with the neighborhood." (The city council Tuesday asked City Mgr. Charles A. Brown to investigate use of material other than steel and to get comparative costs.)

The commission, reported acting chairman Alan D. Bonapart, agreed that within five years it would be wise to add a fulltime professional city planner.

Rhodesian Again Branded Traitor

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today rebel Rhodesian Premier Ian's Smith's attempt to replace Gov. Sir Humphrey Gibbs was "an act of treason."

Under British law treason can be punishable by death.

The premier, who appeared in the House of Commons to answer questions on the Rhodesian crisis after a morning spent in urgent consultations with his ministers, said the Smith regime had committed Gibbs, his wife, and other loyal government house staff.

He said people who knew Gibbs and had some impression of Deputy Prime Minister Clifford Du Pont, named by Smith to replace Gibbs, "will be able to measure the extent to which Rhodesia has been degraded and her people abused by the events of the last seven days."

Rhodesia seized its independence from Britain last Thursday—the first British colony to take such action since the 13 American colonies in 1776.

Britain already has imposed stiff economic and diplomatic sanctions on Rhodesia. Wilson's meeting with ministers today was to determine ways on tightening a strangle grip around Smith's rebel government.

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart, who returned early today from the United Nations, told newsmen it now appeared there was no danger of African states' intervention other than by economic measures.

Wilson will send diplomatic trouble-shooter Malcolm MacDonald on an urgent mission to Zambia to discuss Zambia's request for British troops to guard the Kariba Dam from possible Rhodesian sabotage, it was reported today.

THOSE NEW QUARTERS ARE A KICK

The Blue Lantern Tavern has a remote control TV set and patrons have learned accidentally they can turn it off and out by dropping two of the new copper quarters on the bar.

A repairman said he didn't know what to do about it but guessed the sound from the bar was triggering the set.

Nick Balafoutia, Blue Lantern owner, said last night it was some what of a nuisance but patrons were having fun.

Novato Woman Hurt

Christine A. Walton, 34, of 799 Plaza Iinda, Novato, complained of back pains after her northbound car crashed into the divider fence on Highway 101 just north of the Alto interchange at 12:30 p.m. yesterday, the California Highway Patrol reported. She was to see her own doctor.

Larkspur Trustees Seek War On Poverty Money

Larkspur School District trustees last night approved two projects which might qualify the district for $22,000 in federal war on poverty funds.

District business manager Gilbert L. Slusher said rough drafts were presented to the board of plans to open school libraries at San Clemente and Neil Cummins schools for students to work at night.

The second proposal, he said, would be to attempt to identify children who will be problem learners as early as age 4.

Under this project, he said, the district would have to work with other agencies such as police departments and the county social services department.

The Larkspur School District Board also:

1. Awarded a contract for blacktopping at Henry C. Hall School to A. J. Bresnan Co. of San Rafael for $2,255 and a contract for blacktop at Larkspur-Corte Madera School to Piombo Brothers of San Rafael for $4,091.

2. Complied with a new state law by adopting a policy for negotiations with teacher groups.

3. Approved a student teaching agreement with San Francisco State College.

4. Approved a pilot project for the district's seventh and eighth grades involving giving of tests which can be scored by IBM machines. The process provides quick analysis of the tests, Slusher said.

5. Heard reports on the district's library skills program and trends in district English teaching.

Farm Profits Offset By Higher Costs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Bank of America report says sharply higher labor costs will keep California farm profits this year at about the same level as last year despite record total sales.

The bank's economic research report released yesterday said cash receipts for the first eight months of 1965 show a 2.6 per cent increase over the first two-thirds of 1964. The researchers said the year-end total should be a record $3.62 billion.

The sale of California livestock should provide the largest increase, from $1.321 billion last year to about $1.375 billion.

The 40 per cent increase in the price for canning tomatoes and the good autumn weather that boosted crops will contribute to raising the vegetable and melon totals from last year's $503 million, the report said.

In short bursts, the squid probably is the fastest of all marine creatures, according to the Miami Seaquarium.

Vocational Training Classes Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California Employment Director Albert B. Tieburg yesterday reported federal approval of 24 vocational training classes for 502 jobless persons.

Tieburg said that the classes could be conducted in Culver City, Duarte, Eureka, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Oakland, Palo Alto, Pomona, Sacramento, Stockton and Van Nuys.

Worker, 73, Falls From Platform, Dies

A Vallejo sheetmetal worker fell from a 10-foot-high plank platform yesterday and was dead on arrival at 3:47 p.m. at Novato General Hospital.

William Schulmeyer, 73, landed just five feet from two men working on the ground below, but neither saw him fall, said William F. Johns, foreman of the work crew. The fact Schulmeyer did not cry out has led state industrial accident investigators to believe the man may have had a heart attack.

The fall occurred at the McGraw-Hill Book Co. warehouse under construction just north of Novato. It was Schulmeyer's first day on the job. He was putting tape on points in ventilation ducts. standing on a scaffold above a concrete floor.

Schulmeyer is survived by his wife, Charlotte Schulmeyer, of Vallejo, and two sons, Alfred Schulmeyer of Kentucky and Phillip E. Schulmeyer of Vallejo. Funeral arrangements are pending at Redwood Funeral Chapel, Novato.

Actress Dandridge Killed By Drug

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The death of actress Dorothy Dandridge last Sept. 8 was caused by an overdose of a drug used to treat psychiatric depressive cases, the county coroner's office has reported.

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey said yesterday the compound, Tofranil, is a new drug. He said his office would not attempt to determine if the 41-year-old actress' death was accidental or a suicide.

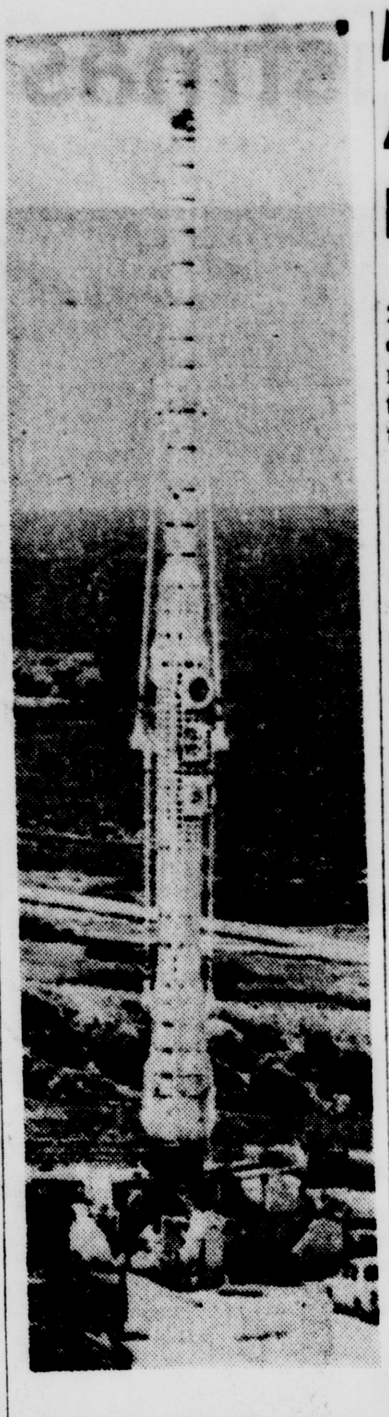
'Grace' Complaints Over Meters Stop

Motorists in San Rafael have learned quickly about the new policy of ticketing cars in front of parking meters as soon as their time is up, rather than allowing a 12-minute grace period which is indicated by a moving hand on the old type meters still in use.

Police said today that complaints from irate parkers since the new policy went into effect Tuesday have dropped in frequency until there were none this morning.

Actress Files Suit

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Eurasian actress France Nuyen, 25, yesterday filed suit for separate maintenance from her psychiatrist husband, Thomas G. Morell of New York City.



JULES VERNE IDEA — The old French science fiction writer's scheme of a monster cannon to launch lunar voyages has almost come true in Barbados, British West Indies. Scientists have welded together two 16-inch naval rifles end-to-end, to make a launching gun 118 feet tall. It has already fired 185-pound payloads to heights of 84-plus miles; Canadian and American scientists plan to try putting a 50-pound capsule into orbit with it. The idea was first suggested by famed physicist Sir Isaac Newton in the 18th Century.

Conference Set On Highway

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A top state official has been directed to confer with San Francisco officials in an 11th hour effort to solve the freeway hassle and save $270 million in federal highway funds.

The highway commission yesterday ordered John Erreca, director of public works, to see what he could do to end the dispute.

Unless San Francisco approves construction of a new freeway within a few months, the state stands to lose $270 million earmarked for the interstate highway system.

Mothers Asks Aid To Find Daughters

Mrs. Rita Allen said Monroy Allen, 24, her husband, took the children for a Halloween weekend visit "but he took them all the way to Sweden."

Allen, a civilian worker at the Nike missile station at Pacifica, returned from Sweden and is awaiting trial on a felony child stealing charge. Mrs. Allen declared he refused to tell where the children are.

Mrs. Allen, at the San Francisco home of her father, Ed Ellis, reported the husband had phoned from Sweden and she had talked then with the two older girls.

German Women's Role Told By Justice Minister's Wife

The growing role of women in West Germany's public life was described to a group of students at Dominican College last night by the wife of that country's minister of justice.

Mrs. Rose Jaeger appeared while on the last leg of a lecture tour through this country and Canada. She had another reason for stopping in Marin, however: three cousins who live in the county.

She stayed with the family of one cousin, J. William Zimmerman of 318 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, and visited with the others, Carl H. Zimmerman of 214 Laurel Place, San Rafael, and Frederick A. Zimmerman of Mill Valley.

Most young women who go to college in Germany are encouraged to go into teaching, Mrs. Jaeger said, but many, including one of her own six children, are going into law.

German women, who have had the right to vote since 1919, are now determined to make better use of this right so as to help prevent the country from going through another nightmare like it did under Adolph Hitler, she said.

Mrs. Jaeger left today to meet a speaking engagement in Cincinatti. She will return to Bonn from there.

Fisheries

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gov. Edmund C. Brown has announced the appointment of Ray E. Welsh, founder and president of Salmon Unlimited, as a member of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission.

State Tax Revenues Rise

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — General fund tax revenues for the July-October period ran 33 per cent ahead of those for a year ago, due mainly to a new provision which requires large retailers to return sales taxes to the state each month instead of quarterly.

State Controller Alan Cranston said revenues for the first four months of the 1965-66 fiscal year totaled $632,494,914, up $158 million from a year ago.

Expenditures for the period also were up, Cranston said, totaling $816,622,417 for the four months. This was an increase of $87 million or 12 per cent, and the outgo passed income by more than $184 million for the four-month period.

Worker, 73, Falls From Platform, Dies

A Vallejo sheetmetal worker fell from a 10-foot-high plank platform yesterday and was dead on arrival at 3:47 p.m. at Novato General Hospital.

William Schulmeyer, 73, landed just five feet from two men working on the ground below, but neither saw him fall, said William F. Johns, foreman of the work crew. The fact Schulmeyer did not cry out has led state industrial accident investigators to believe the man may have had a heart attack.

The fall occurred at the McGraw-Hill Book Co. warehouse under construction just north of Novato. It was Schulmeyer's first day on the job. He was putting tape on points in ventilation ducts, standing on a scaffold above a concrete floor.

Schulmeyer is survived by his wife, Charlotte Schulmeyer, of Vallejo, and two sons, Alfred Schulmeyer of Kentucky and Phillip E. Schulmeyer of Vallejo. Funeral arrangements are pending at Redwood Funeral Chapel, Novato.

Actress Dandridge Killed By Drug

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The death of actress Dorothy Dandridge last Sept. 8 was caused by an overdose of a drug used to treat psychiatric depressive cases, the county coroner's office has reported.

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey said yesterday the compound, Tofranil, is a new drug. He said his office would not attempt to determine if the 41-year-old actress' death was accidental or a suicide.

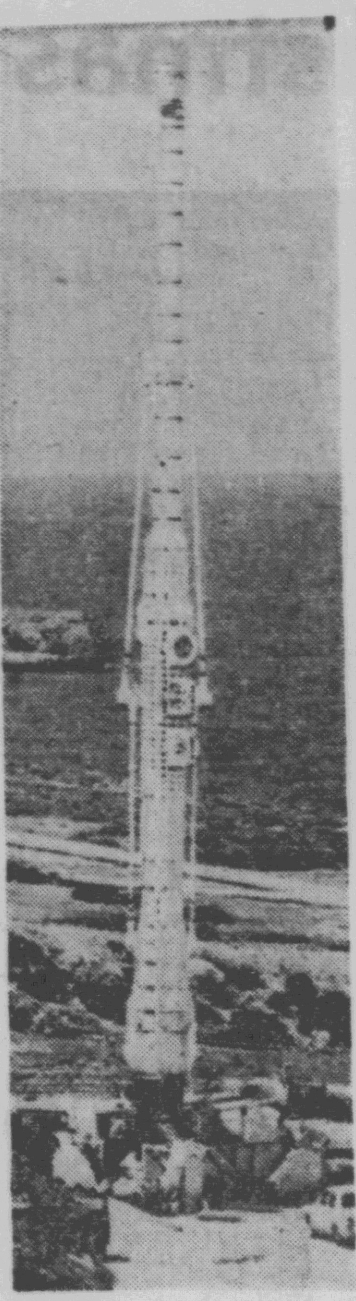
'Grace' Complaints Over Meters Stop

Motorists in San Rafael have learned quickly about the new policy of ticketing cars in front of parking meters as soon as their time is up, rather than allowing a 12-minute grace period which is indicated by a moving hand on the old type meters still in use.

Police said today that compaints from irate parkers since the new policy went into effect Tuesday have dropped in frequency until there were none this morning.

Actress Files Suit

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Eurasian actress France Nuyen, 25, yesterday filed suit for separate maintenance from her psychiatrist husband, Thomas G. Morell of New York City.



JULES VERNE IDEA — The old French science fiction writer's scheme of a monster cannon to launch lunar voyages has almost come true in Barbados, British West Indies. Scientists have welded together two 16-inch naval rifles end-to-end, to make a launching gun 118 feet tall. It has already fired 185-pound payloads to heights of 84-plus miles; Canadian and American scientists plan to try putting a 50-pound capsule into orbit with it. The idea was first suggested by famed physicist Sir Isaac Newton in the 18th Century.

Conference Set On Highway

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A top state official has been directed to confer with San Francisco officials in an 11th hour effort to solve the freeway hassle and save $270 million in federal highway funds.

The highway commission yesterday ordered John Erreca, director of public works, to see what he could do to end the dispute.

Unless San Francisco approves construction of a new freeway within a few months, the state stands to lose $270 million earmarked for the interstate highway system.

Mothers Asks Aid To Find Daughters

Mrs. Rita Allen said Monroy Allen, 24, her husband, took the children for a Halloween weekend visit "but he took them all the way to Sweden."

Allen, a civilian worker at the Nike missile station at Pacifica, returned from Sweden and is awaiting trial on a felony child stealing charge. Mrs. Allen declared he refused to tell where the children are.

Mrs. Allen, at the San Francisco home of her father, Ed Ellis, reported the husband had phoned from Sweden and she had talked then with the two older girls.

German Women's Role Told By Justice Minister's Wife

The growing role of women in West Germany's public life was described to a group of students at Dominican College last night by the wife of that country's minister of justice.

Mrs. Rose Jaeger appeared while on the last leg of a lecture tour through this country and Canada. She had another reason for stopping in Marin, however: three cousins who live in the county.

She stayed with the family of one cousin, J. William Zimmerman of 318 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, and visited with the others, Carl H. Zimmerman of 214 Laurel Place, San Rafael, and Frederick A. Zimmerman of Mill Valley.

Most young women who go to college in Germany are encouraged to go into teaching, Mrs. Jaeger said, but many, including one of her own six children, are going into law.

German women, who have had the right to vote since 1919, are now determined to make better use of this right so as to help prevent the country from going through another nightmare like it did under Adolph Hitler, she said.

Mrs. Jaeger left today to meet a speaking engagement in Cincinatti. She will return to Bonn from there.

Fisheries

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gov. Edmund C. Brown has announced the appointment of Ray E. Welsh, founder and president of Salmon Unlimited, as a member of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission.

State Tax Revenues Rise

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — General fund tax revenues for the July-October period ran 33 per cent ahead of those for a year ago, due mainly to a new provision which requires large retailers to return sales taxes to the state each month instead of quarterly.

State Controller Alan Cranston said revenues for the first four months of the 1965-66 fiscal year totaled $632,494,914, up $158 million from a year ago.

Expenditures for the period also were up, Cranston said, totaling $816,622,417 for the four months. This was an increase of $87 million or 12 per cent, and the outgo passed income by more than $184 million for the four-month period.

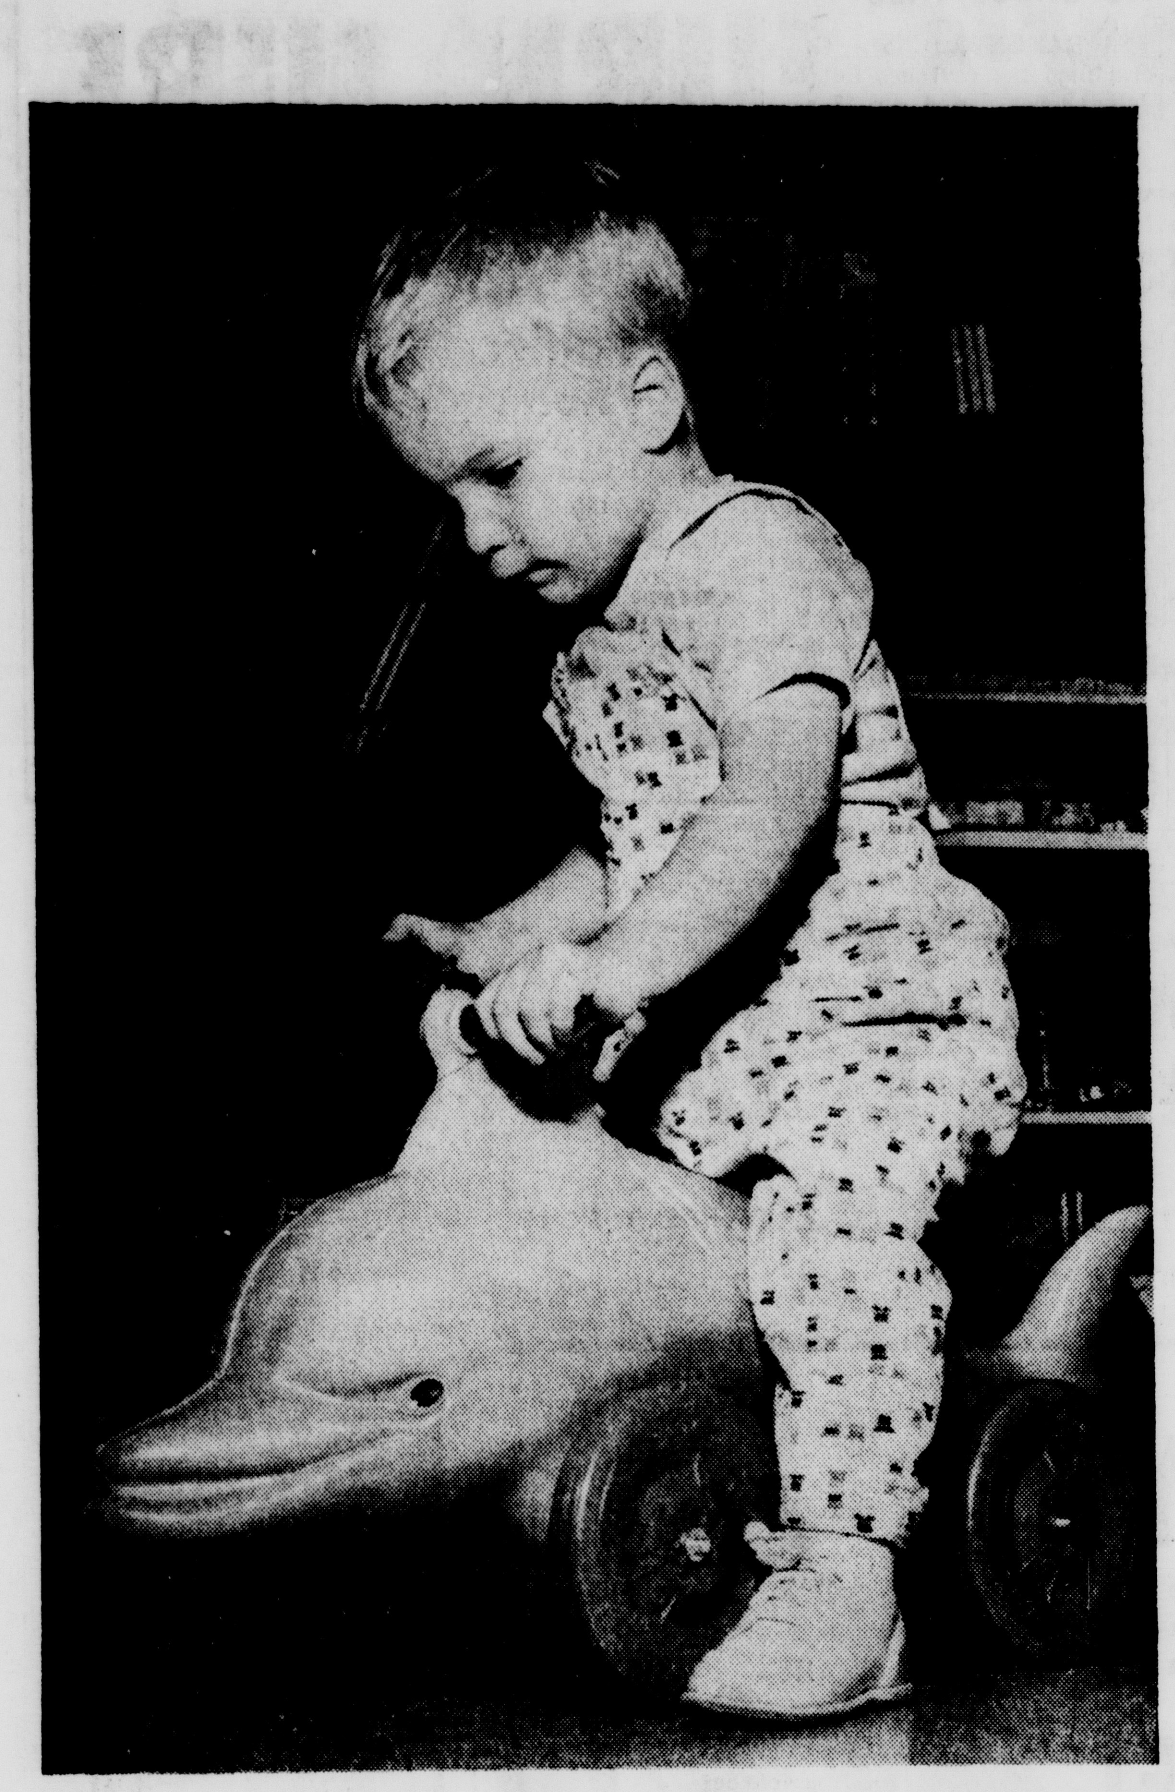
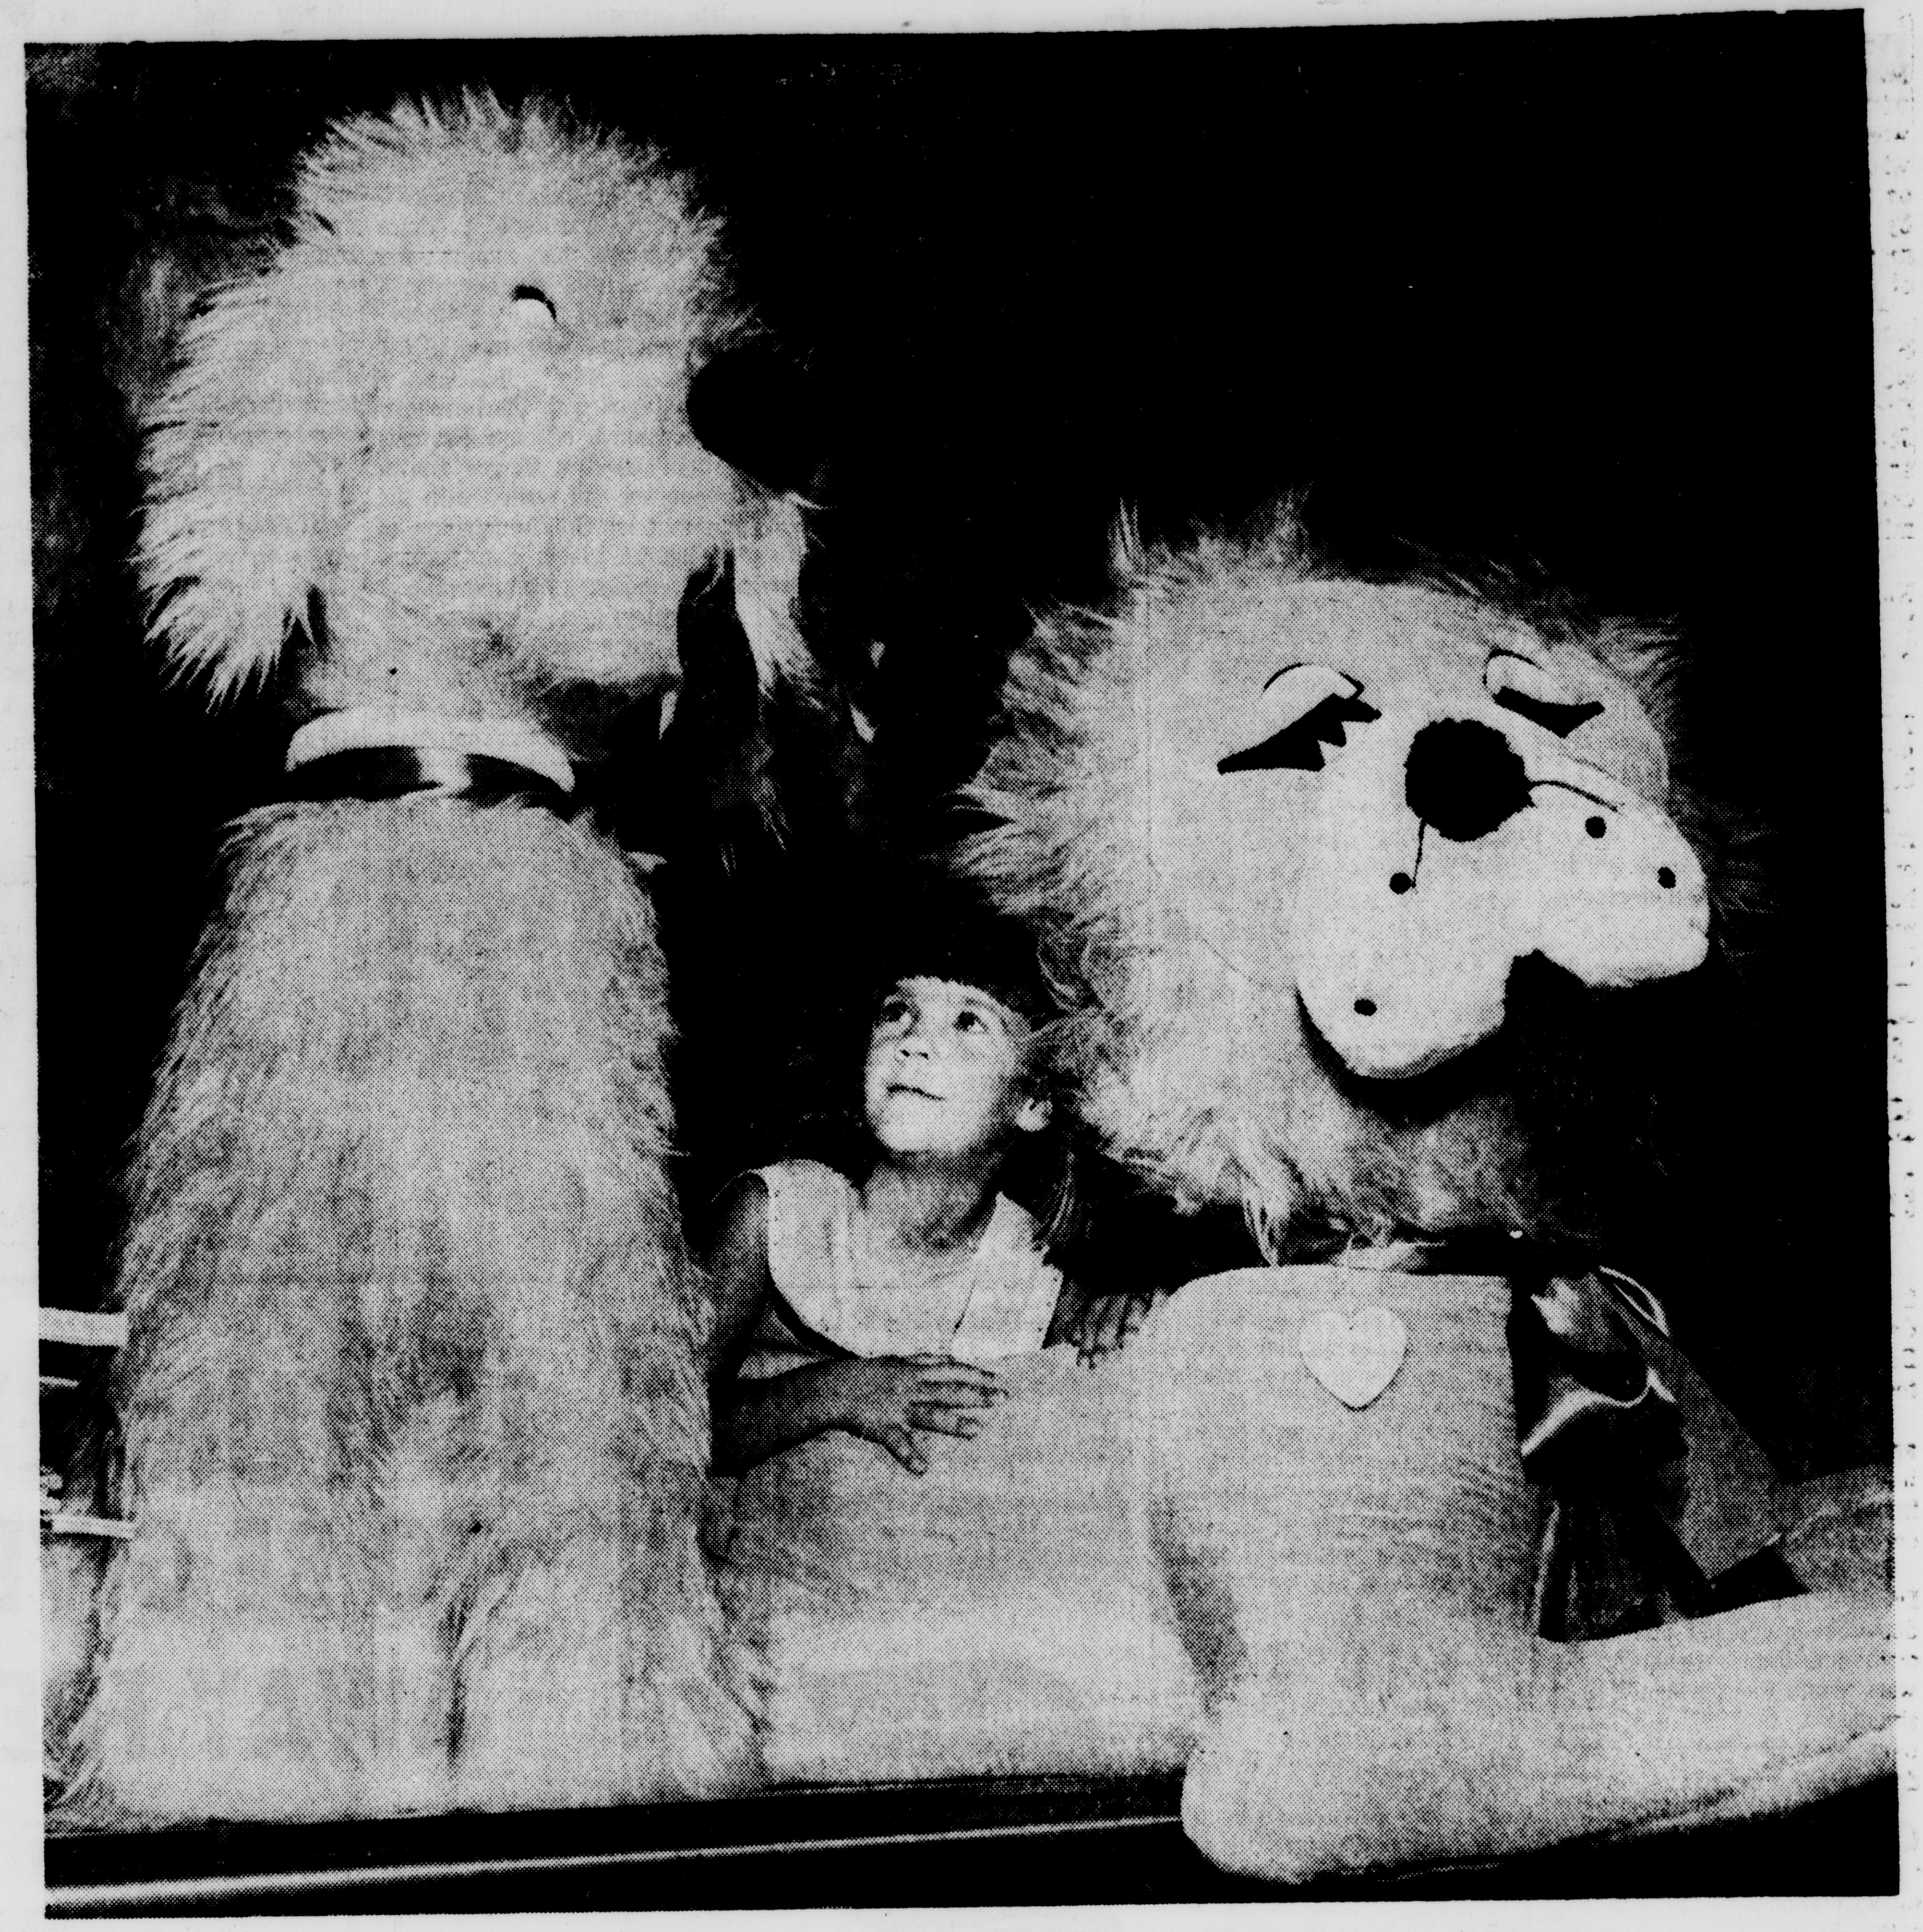
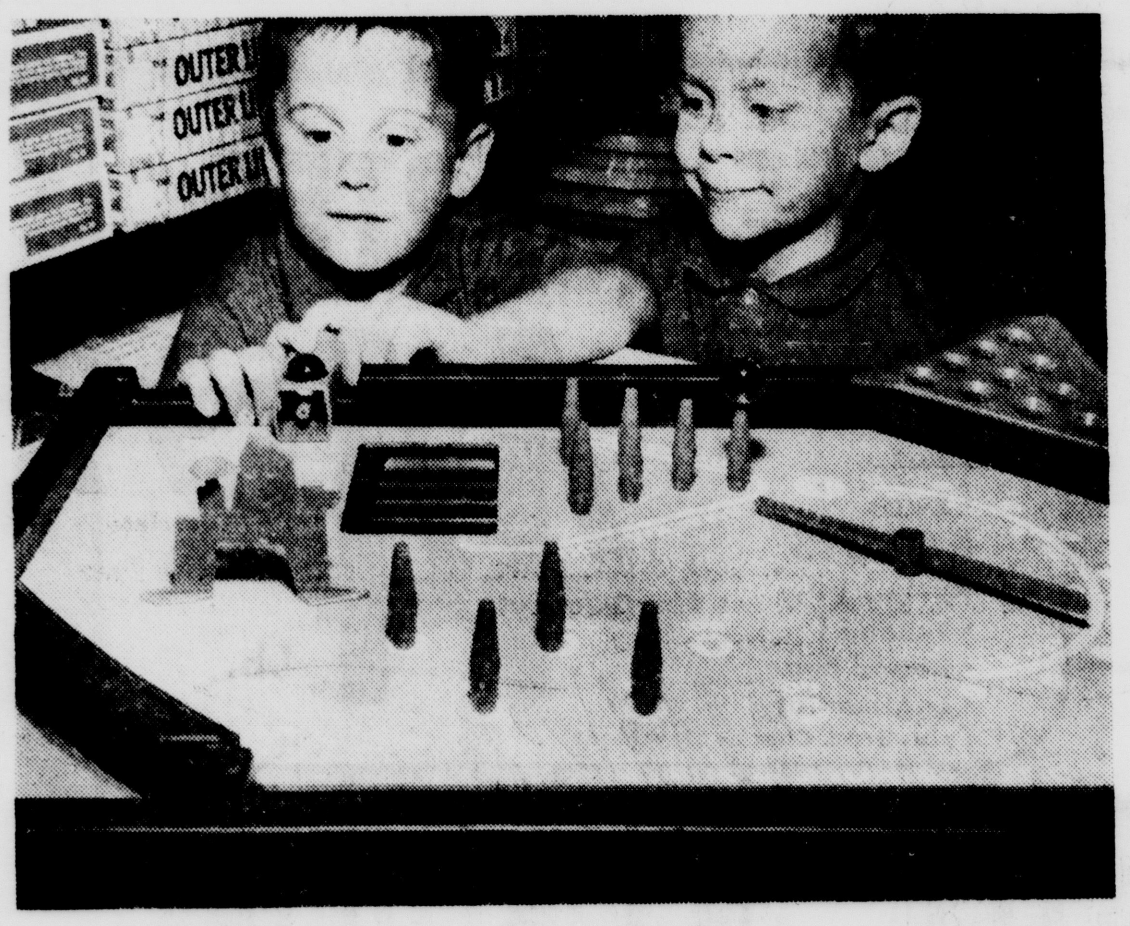
What's New In Christmas Toys?



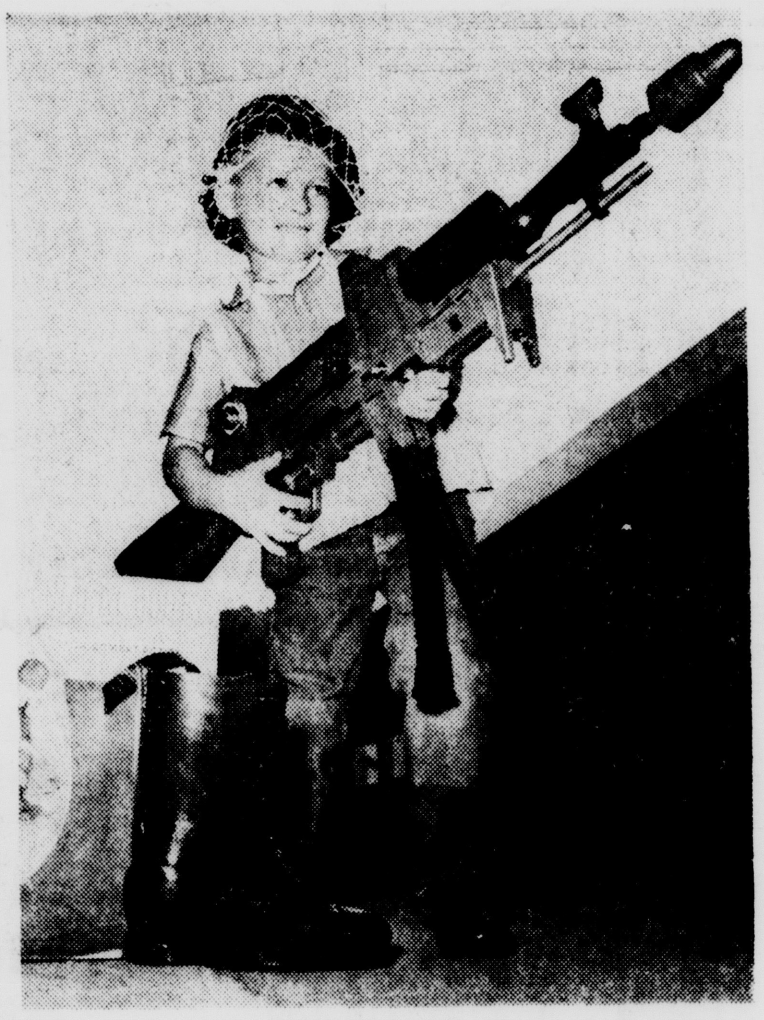
FOR THE VERY YOUNG—"Flipper," the dolphin that helps swimmers on television and in the movies, now is helping tots learn to walk. The new wheel toy is tested by 16-month-old Barry Peronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Peronto of 316 Riviera Drive, San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)



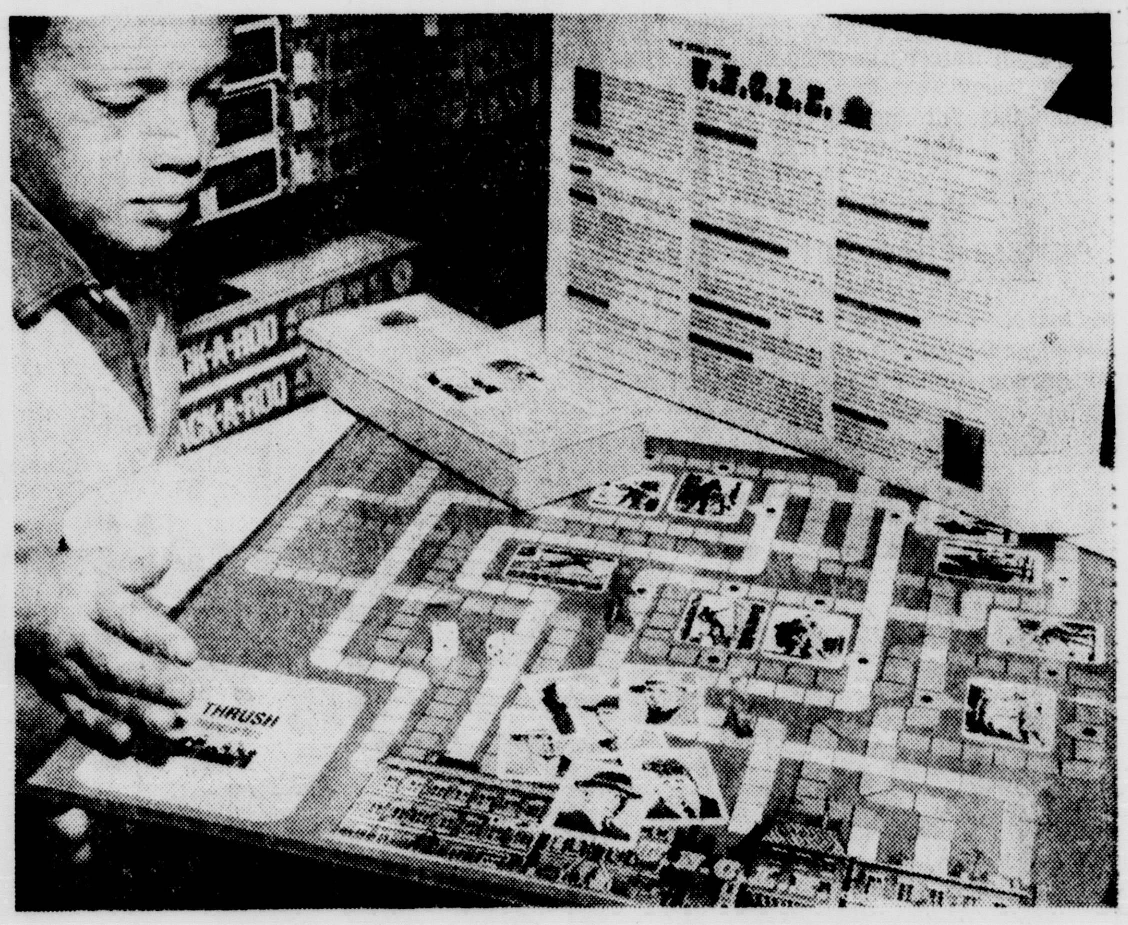
BRING 'EM BACK STUFFED — Stuffed animals grow larger each winter, Jennifer Jessup discovers. Jennifer, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowden Jessup, 81 Corte Gracitas, Greenbrae, is dwarfed by "Spoofer Dog" (left) and "Leo the Lion." These and other giant Plush-Toys are on sale at the Toy World in the Corte Madera Shopping Center. Leo will let children rest on his soft back while watching television.



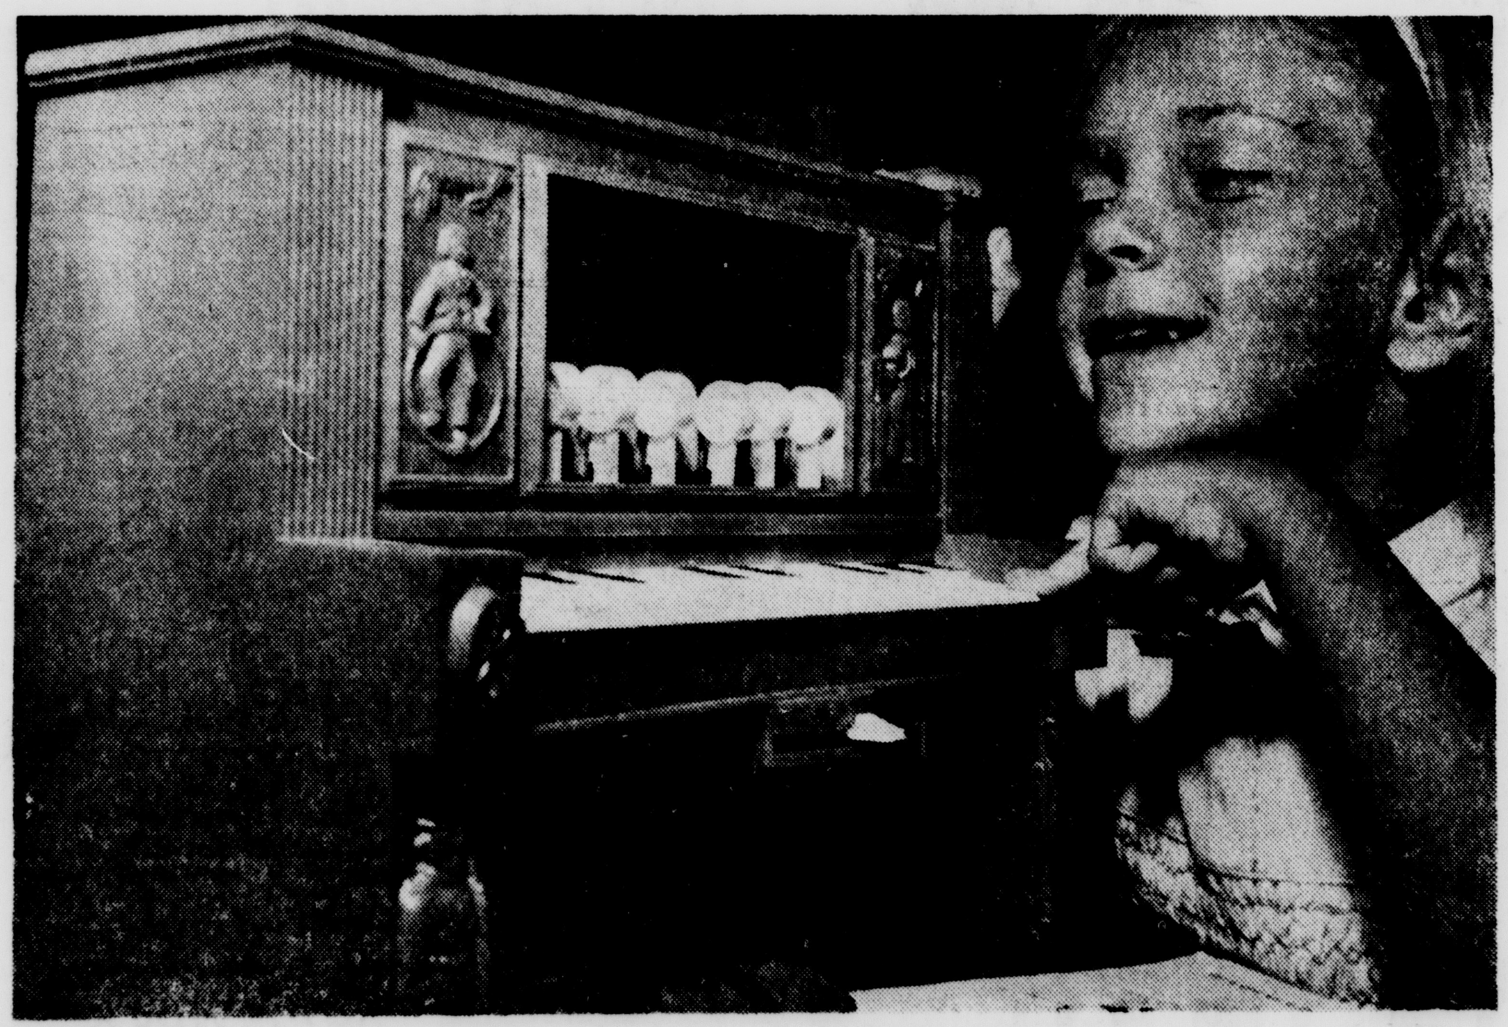
"SMACK-A-ROO" — Katie's brothers, Michael (left), 5, and Dennis, 4, check the action on a game that is a combination of pinball, baseball, bowling and a balancing act. The game, too, is produced by Mattel and is available for the Christmas rush.



ONE-MAN ARMY — Robert Guild, 5, son of Donald J. Guild, 20 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield, tries out the "Johnny Seven OMA" and a pair of combat boots. The toy weapon, which achieved popularity last Christmas, is seven guns in one.

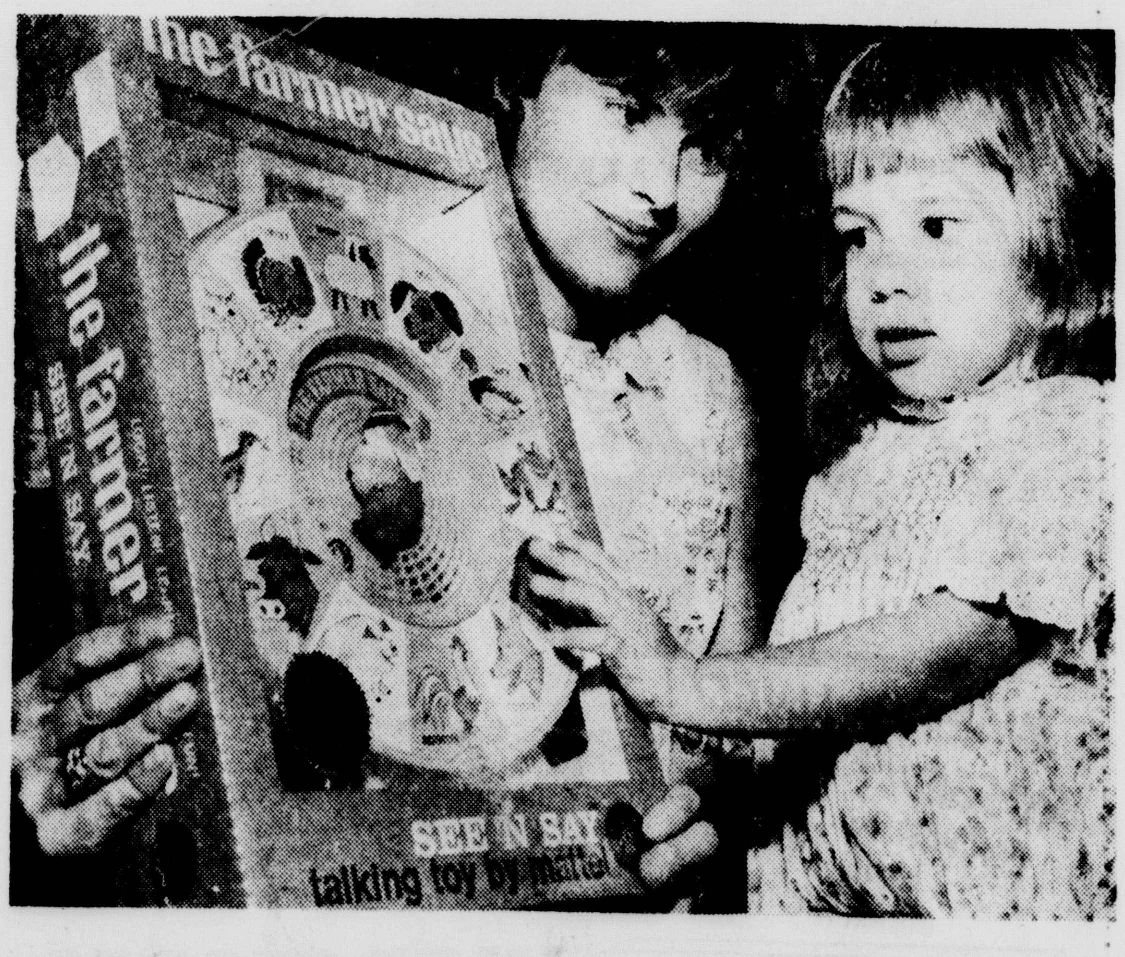


TELEVISION'S INFLUENCE—Greg Clark, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, 420 Pinewood Drive, Marinwood, looks over a new board game, "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.," at the San Rafael Toy Shop. The game can be played by two or four players and is supposed to match the intrigue and suspense of the TV series.



RINKY TINK SOUND—This "Razz-Ma-Tazz" piano features black notes that actually play and a piano roll that works. Linda Bjork, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Bjork of 934 Vernon Avenue, Mill Valley, tries out the tiny instrument at the Toy Palace in San Rafael. The piano roll selection comes with the toy, and different tunes may be inserted by sliding back a panel under the keyboard.

"CHARM" SNAKE — Mrs. Mike La Course of the Toy Palace finds this plush toy an easy one to charm. The snake may soon be coiled around a Christmas tree.



EDUCATION AND FUN — Mrs. James Costello of 290 Via Lerida, Greenbrae, shows her daughter, Katie, 3, "The Farmer Says," a See 'n' Say toy by Mattel. The toy has a noisemaker which sounds out the word the farmer is pointing to, helping children learn how to spell new words.

Merger Of Coroner's Office Is Debated

Proposed consolidation of the Marin County coroner's office with that of the district attorney was argued today by three men whose present positions would be affected by the change, and by a fourth who has recommended it to the county board of supervisors

Speaking on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" were Coroner Frank J. Keaton; Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales; Dr. John H. Manwaring, pathologist and autopsy surgeon for the coroner's office, and County Administrator Alan Bruce.

The program, conducted by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast from a tape recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Administrator Bruce said the purpose of the proposal is to remove political pressure now bearing on the coroner's post.

At the same time it would remove the possibility of claims of conflict of interest on the basis of the coroner operating a mortuary while holding his public post, Bruce said.

"It should be made crystal clear that the elimination of any elected office is a very drastic change. It is so serious that the burden of proof to show why the change should be made lies on the proposer," he said.

"This would not take the post out of politics. In fact I have been told that the merger would put me in the position of running for office as district attorney-county coroner. I certainly would not do that," Bales declared.

Coroner Keaton declared: "There are six other coroners who run mortuaries in the state. I have done my job."

"I've heard talk of merging this office with others for some time now, but I haven't heard a practical proposal for it," said Keaton. The coroner's office now handles about 400 cases a year, he said, arguing that the district attorney's office could not handle the added burden.

The proposed merger which would make it possible to require a certified physician to perform the coroner's duties, noted Dr. Manwaring.

"The coroner's office is essentially a medical office," he said. "But the most important qualification of the office is not medical training, it is motivation. Training, also includes experience. . . .

"Eventually the office will be in the hands of a full-scale physician as it should be."

Manwaring thus agreed with a recommendation of the Marin Medical Society to the board of supervisors, but he qualified this by saying: "We should not now lose a man who is qualified by experience. If we make it a medical office we will have to eliminate many of the administrative activities now included in it."

The expense of the proposal was also a point of contention among the speakers. "It is clear that it would cost more money," said Bales.

"The cost would not be significantly higher," claimed Bruce.

All speakers agreed that the county should eventually have a morgue. A morgue operation which could be co-ordinated with a local hospital is being investigated, said Bruce.

Thieves Take $1,300 In Guitars

Loss of $1,300 worth of guitars in a burglary of the home of Carole G. O'Neil, 20 Quisisana Drive, Kentfield, was reported today by sheriff's deputies.

The victim told officers entry apparently was by prying a sliding glass door. One guitar, made in Madrid, was worth $700, according to the report.

Patricia Coy, 251 Richardson Drive, Strawberry Manor, told deputies a watch, two radios and clothing, worth a total of $200, were taken from her home while she was hospitalized. Entry apparently was via an unlocked door, deputies said.

Theft of $195 worth of items from a panel truck parked at Gate 6, Marinship, was reported by Vernon S. Cox, 974 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo.

Loot included a radio and a 15-cord harp. No forced entry was evident.

Terra Linda Area Tennis Courts Asked

Tennis players in the Terra Linda annexations petitioned the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission last night to construct two tennis courts in a neighborhood park at the end of De La Guerra Road, instead of one.

The petition, containing about 200 signatures, was presented at a special meeting of the commission at Santa Margarita School to discuss the proposed park layout.

Preliminary plans for the five-acre park include a tennis court, intermediate, tot and multi-purpose play areas, a picnic area along a creek, a turfed area and hiking trails.

Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota said development would cover about two acres and the remainder of the park would be open area.

Two tennis courts would not be feasible on the site because of space limitations, Rodota said. "It's not often that a tennis court is included in a neighborhood park, but we feel it would be a good use in this area," he said.

Two tennis courts would change the complexion of the park and would attract tennis players from other areas, he said.

Other residents asked questions about traffic problems and asked for buffer zoning or landscaping to preserve the privacy of homes in the park area.

"We will try to screen frontage property," Rodota promised.

The first phase construction, estimated to cost from $16,000 to $18,000, could get under way next spring, and the second phase next summer," he said.

The first phase will consist of rest rooms, storage facilities, grading, drainage, and all paving including the tennis courts, Rodota said. The second phase will include installation of playground equipment, landscaping and turfing by park department crews.

The commission will have its next regular meeting Dec. 1, under its new schedule of meetings on the first Wednesday of each month.

Commissioner Howard L. Simon was absent.

More Burning Bans Lifted

The summer ban on outdoor burning was lifted yesterday in Larkspur and in the Kentfield and Sleepy Hollow Fire districts.

The ban will remain in effect in San Anselmo, though being lifted in Sleepy Hollow which is served by the San Anselmo Fire Department, said Asst. Fire Chief Richard McLaren.

Burning is now allowed in Larkspur and Sleepy Hollow from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. and in Kentfield from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. All three departments require a burning permit.

Ex-Governor Knight Says He Would Support Reagan

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight says he would support Ronald Reagan in a gubernatorial bid if the actor had a platform of "true Republican principles."

"I have always supported every Republican nominee and I would be willing to do that with Mr. Reagan," Knight said. "I have only one reservation—I want to be sure that he would support and present a platform of true Republican principles."

Knight made the comments during a question-and-answer period with newsmen yesterday in his statewide tour to obtain support for a possible bid to regain his former job.

He said Reagan, a leading candidate for the GOP gubernatorial nomination next year, now represented "the extreme right wing of the Republican Party, which is a minority within the Republican Party."

Pants — Breakfast Into Evening

By DORIS KLEIN

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—Yes sir, ladies! California's designers now confirm what your husband has said all along: You really do wear the pants around the house.

Pants appeared in nearly every collection opening the California Fashion Creators Spring and Resort Wear showings to the nation's fashion writers this week at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.

Pants came in all shapes, widths and lengths, although ankle-length was the favorite. There were bell-bottoms, cowboy styles, overalls, stovepipes, hip huggers, slack suits, flowing harem trousers, floor-length culottes and even the Indian-style dhoti.

And pants, the designers decreed, may be worn from breakfast through the most formal evening entertaining.

Phil Rose devoted almost his entire collection to pants. He showed patio trousers in a dacron-cotton voile jump-suit style completely ruffled from neck to ankle. There were corduroy knickers combined with poor boy T shirts and a black and white stretch leotard with red corduroy knickers.

His collection included an entire set of shiny vinyl, printed in everything from polka dots to zebra stripes, shaped into pant suits, jump suits with bare midriffs, and even a transparent vinyl "space coat" shown over a striped leotard. Rose tagged that group "How to look 'in' in outer space."

Typing Paper Is Way To Man's Heart

DAVIS (UPI)—One way to a college man's heart is through typing his term paper, a sociologist at the University of California suggests.

Dr. John Finely Scott, a careful observers of the tender traps set by college sweethearts, believes the role of the sororities in helping land a husband is rapidly decreasing.

"The girls would reach the hearts of their men most effectively . . . not by pasting paper flowers on the sorority football float . . . but, rather through typing their term papers," said the sociologist.

Membership in sororities and fraternities was once the most certain way to marriage, Scott said, but today a student competing for grades just doesn't have the time for complicated sorority forms of courtship. And the growing significance of "more varied student groups" means the sororities are no longer in the pink of health, he said.

Today, he said, setting a daughter loose on a large campus leads to a "great danger."

New Sunny Hills Officer Is Wife Of City Councilman

Mrs. J. Wayne Womack, the new officer, is the wife of the first mayor of Novato, following incorporation of the city and her husband is now a city councilman in Novato.

Colleen, who works part time in the Womack's Fabric Store and Toy Store, is also busy with an active family of five children, Craig, 15, Diane, 14, Elaine, 12, Jennifer, 11 and Matthew, nine years of age.

MRS. WAYNE WOMACK

THE SLENDER brunette likes to sew, not only for herself but also for her three girls. Hiking and knitting are also among the interests of the new president.

"As wife of a city councilman, I so enjoy the contact with people in connection with these duties," Colleen said. Mrs. Womack has served as Grape Festival booth chairman. She has also served as fashion show chairman, which will be presented in the spring and fall of 1966.

Proceeds from the fund raising activities are used to further the work of the sunny hills home in San Anselmo. Among the many Parent-Teacher Assn. activities that Colleen has taken part in are parliamentarian at Hill Junior High School, recording secretary of the Parents Club at Novato High School and a past P-TA president.

OTHER OFFICERS to serve on the board with Mrs. Womack include Mesdames Rudy Larisch, vice president; John Frederick, secretary; Robert Higgs, treasurer; and project chairmen, Mesdames Roger Neale, fashion show; John Roos and Duane Moeller, Grape Festival; Donald Saunders, Bargain Box, Robert Dougherty, annual luncheon and fashion show, and Harold Craig, publicity.

FINALE OF A FANTASY

Finale of 1965 for the Episcopal Churchwomen of Mill Valley's Church of Our Saviour was a meeting highlighted by a musical fantasy from "The Wonderful World of Wendy and Willy." It was presented yesterday morning by Muriel (Mrs. Alfred) Alstrom and the Marin Lyrics directed by Mrs. Otto Weissich. From left, Mrs. Alstrom, who wrote the story and lyrics to much by her son Dale Alstrom, is the narrator, as Mrs. Dale Alstrom (Willy) and Mrs. Philip Lespina (Wendy) sing and dance. Women of all other churches in Mill Valley were special guests.

Diet Changes May Prevent Acne Cases

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Teen-agers suffering from a frustrating case of acne can take heart, reports the California Medical Assn.

About 75 per cent of their age group is similarly afflicted and there are, indeed, a few helpful steps.

Most cases of acne are caused by hormonal changes which occur during adolescence, said the doctors, and there isn't a thing that can be done about these changes except to wait. But diet also plays a big role and this is where the teen-ager can help himself.

Foods to avoid are those which are hydrogenated or homogenized, since the essential unsaturated fatty acids are changed to harmful saturated fatty acids which tend to plug skin pores. Meats should be broiled instead of fried and the unsaturated fatty acid margarines are definitely preferable.

Avoid chocolate, nuts and cola drinks, but eat all fruits and vegetables. Sometimes vitamin capsules containing vitamins A, B complex and C help the skin considerably. Proper rest also is necessary.

Poverty War Involvement Sounded Out

The Community Action Committee of Marin Ciity made its move last night for a stronger voice in the selection of personnel to work in Marin County's war on poverty program.

It came in the form of a memorandum to the County War on Poverty Committee recommending changes in staffing procedures previously recommended by Walter Bremond, county director of community relations.

"How strong is our voice from the target area? Do we have a voice in policy, procedure and formulating program which directly affects us?" the committee asked in its opening statement.

Bremond said "local involvement" (in this case Marin City residents) in the Economic Opportunity Act "is a highly critical area and relates to the great civil rights struggle."

After reading the committee's recommendations for changes, Bremond said the first three differed little from his recommendations, but he balked at the fourth request and offered a compromise.

The committee recommended that it have the function of screening, interviewing and selecting personnel, and that it have final approval of personnel.

Bremond proposed that it share the screening, interviewing and selecting with the county and the agency undertaking the program, but that final approval of personnel be left to the countywide committee.

In his original recommendations, he did not include the CAC in any of these procedures.

The countywide committee agreed to send Bremond's proposal to the Marin City Committee for consideration before acting on the changes.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said, "I'm not even sure the Community Action Committee has gone far enough in some regards." He suggested the Marin City Committee could help set up job standards.

Verna J. Bynum, a Marin City Community Action Committee representative on the countywide committee, said, "We feel we have people who can fill different jobs, and we'd like to have someone from the community in the jobs."

Mrs. Bynum said sometimes job specifications "are so strong and so far over our heads, we'd never reach them."

Florence Scott, executive director of the Marin Council of Community Services, said that the countywide committee, of which she is a member, may have been lax for "not thinking in terms of job descriptions."

"There are jobs open that are not being filled," Administrator Bruce said.

The committee also was scheduled to discuss the role and responsibility of the community action committee, but postponed discussion until the latter, with a representative of the Office of Economic Opportunity on the issue.

The Community Action Committee said in its memo that if the proposed changes are not met, it recommends "freezing of the funds which were allocated for the program 'Teenage Married Couples' and 'Unwed Mothers' because we have other priority needs in our community."

The committee received an offer of help from the Northgate Lodge, B'nai Brith, and referred it to the by-laws committee, which is studying possible expansion of the group. Edward G. Younger, was elected to the by-laws committee.

Liberties Union Talk Scheduled

Lawrence Speizer, national executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union, will discuss civil liberties informally at the home of Dr. Sam Hanzel, 100 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, Sunday at 3 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

Speizer heads the national legislative program of the ACLU and has appeared many times before congressional committees.

Among cases he has successfully argued during the past four years is that a belief in God is not a prerequisite for holding public office, and that a confession from a defendant held incommunicado could not be admitted as evidence.

Speizer is also chairman of the National Civil Liberties Clearing House, an organization uniting groups concerned with the defense of the Bill of Rights and civil liberties.

Inmate Is Innocent Of Having Knife

Ernest Richardson, San Quentin prisoner charged with possession of a knife last June 2, was found innocent yesterday by a Marin Superior Court jury after two and one-half hours deliberation.

The defendant is serving time for murder in Monterey County on a Dec. 2, 1958, conviction. Trial was before Judge Harold J. Haley.

Easement Suits

Condemnation suits have been filed against three East Strawberry Drive property owners for easements necessary for a sewer line to the Harbor Point development. Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors were informed Tuesday night by the district's attorney.

Lawmaker Claims Tax Crime Really Does Pay

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, chairman of a state assembly committee probing the current assessors' scandal, has concluded that crime pays, and extremely well for those who file false property tax affidavits.

Knox's municipal and county government committee is halfway through its investigation of the scandals which reportedly have resulted in losses of $200 million in taxes to counties.

"The details of the current assessors' scandal have made it obvious that 'crime does pay' and it pays extremely well for a firm or individual who files a false property tax affidavit," Knox said. "Fraud specialists from the department of justice have indicated that in most counties procedures for checking tax statements are so perfunctory that they constitute an open invitation for falsification."

Knox said James Tooke, the tax consultant whose information touched off the scandals, reported it was a general practice among property tax advisors to scale down figures arbitrarily on tax statements and said this could be done easily in 20 counties.

"My committee staff," Knox said, "has unearthed typical samples of correspondence between other tax consultants and their clients. In these instances, consultants have advised their clients to declare only 50 per cent of their inventories on tax affidavits. They further advise their clients to refuse to cooperate with local assessor's offices and to claim that all of the company's books and records are maintained on the East Coast."

Knox said specific remedies would not be recommended until the study was complete but said the committee is considering stricter reporting laws, increased penalties for false reporting, increased state supervision over assessors and a requirement that out-of-state firms make records available.

JOHN COCHRAN
"Living in caves"

"Blues for Mr. Charlie," a play to open Dec. 3 at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, is being directed by John Cochran, who believes the production is a "long overdue reminder to the white majority of the evils of traditional race prejudice."

"We live in a very sick society," says Cochran, "and there will have to be many changes made. People are living emotionally in caves. We can send a man to the moon but we can't see a man across the street if he happens to be a different color."

James Baldwin's "Blues" is fine drama but, more important, it will force its audiences to see a brutal reality which still is a long way from being remedied, according to the 29-year-old director.

The play will be given by the Homestead Players at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12. It has a bi-racial cast from all sections of Marin and San Francisco, acting the story of unpunished murder of a Negro youth by a white supremacist.

How can race hatred be cured? Cochran thinks that "some kind of atmosphere must be set up so we can look into ourselves and see who we really are—not black or white people, but people.

"The white man," he said, "must understand the economic and emotional reasons why he has invented a 'nigger,' a creature which doesn't exist and never existed."

Baldwin's play, he feels, is the first real communication from Negroes to whites in the American theater.

Cochran, born in Georgia and reared in a Detroit Negro ghetto, moved to Los Angeles after his graduation from Wayne State University in Detroit. He intended to go to UCLA medical school but found he could not afford it, and took a job as group worker at a treatment center for emotionally disturbed children.

He became an actor when a drama director happened to be in the audience when Cochran was making a fund-raising appeal for the center. His delivery was so convincing the director signed him for a professional stage part.

Cochran has had television roles on "Ben Casey," "Death Valley Days" and "Dr. Kildare," has appeared in television commercials, and has a role in a movie, "The Incident," which will be released next year.

He came to San Francisco to try for a stage play, found the cast was complete, but remained when he read that the Homestead Players were planning to produce "Blues for Mr. Charlie." He now resides in Mill Valley.

Experimental Film Series In Sausalito

Presented in cooperation with the San Francisco Mime Troupe and Canyon Cinema, the series will include works by such well-known avant-garde film-makers as Jonas Mekas, Bruce Conner, Ron Rice, Bruce Baille, Robert Nelson and Stan Vanderbeek. Both Conner and Vanderbeek are recipients of $10,000 Ford Foundation grants.

Each program on Friday and Saturday will begin at 11 p.m. (reason for the title) and admission price will include refreshments, according to Mime Troupe producer Bill Graham.

The initial program tomorrow and Saturday will consist of five films by Nelson, including "Oh Dem Watermelons," a top money award winner at the San Francisco Film Festival. Other Nelson films are "Plastic Haircut," "Confessions of a Black Mother Succuba," "Oiley Peloso The Pumph Man" and "Thick Pucker."

The programs are scheduled to run each Friday and Saturday through Jan. 8, skipping the Christmas weekend, Graham said.

John L. Weaver is president of the Marin Astronomical Society.

Between 10 and 20 per cent of stolen cars are never recovered, says the National Automobile Club.

Transit District Sells Bond Issue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Bay Area Rapid Transit District sold $70 million worth of bonds yesterday at 3.5877 per cent interest.

Successful bidder was a syndicate headed by First National Bank of Chicago.

The only other bid, 3.5934 per cent net interest, was by a syndicate headed by Bank of America.

The district, building a high speed commuter transit system in the San Francisco Bay Area, previously had sold $180 million worth of bonds. It is authorized to sell $792 million worth of general obligation, taxpayer supported bonds.

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, chairman of a state assembly committee probing the current assessors' scandal, has concluded that crime pays, and extremely well for those who file false property tax affidavits.

Knox's municipal and county government committee is halfway through its investigation of the scandals which reportedly have resulted in losses of $200 million in taxes to counties.

"The details of the current assessors' scandal have made it obvious that 'crime does pay' and it pays extremely well for a firm or individual who files a false property tax affidavit," Knox said. "Fraud specialists from the department of justice have indicated that in most counties procedures for checking tax statements are so perfunctory that they constitute an open invitation for falsification."

Knox said James Tooke, the tax consultant whose information touched off the scandals, reported it was a general practice among property tax advisors to scale down figures arbitrarily on tax statements and said this could be done easily in 20 counties.

"My committee staff," Knox said, "has unearthed typical samples of correspondence between other tax consultants and their clients. In these instances, consultants have advised their clients to declare only 50 per cent of their inventories on tax affidavits. They further advise their clients to refuse to cooperate with local assessor's offices and to claim that all of the company's books and records are maintained on the East Coast."

Knox said specific remedies would not be recommended until the study was complete but said the committee is considering stricter reporting laws, increased penalties for false reporting, increased state supervision over assessors and a requirement that out-of-state firms make records available.

Health Group Chief To Have Surgery

Mrs. Geneva W. Berry of 479 Montecito Avenue, Corte Madera, executive director of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., underwent thyroid surgery yesterday in Community Hospital, Martinez.

Her hospitalization Tuesday caused Mrs. Berry to miss the Christmas Seal campaign kickoff for the first time in nine years, four years in Contra Costa and the past five years in Marin.

JOHN COCHRAN
"Living in caves"

"Blues for Mr. Charlie," a play to open Dec. 3 at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, is being directed by John Cochran, who believes the production is a "long overdue reminder to the white majority of the evils of traditional race prejudice."

"We live in a very sick society," says Cochran, "and there will have to be many changes made. People are living emotionally in caves. We can send a man to the moon but we can't see a man across the street if he happens to be a different color."

James Baldwin's "Blues" is fine drama but, more important, it will force its audiences to see a brutal reality which still is a long way from being remedied, according to the 29-year-old director.

The play will be given by the Homestead Players at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12. It has a bi-racial cast from all sections of Marin and San Francisco, acting the story of unpunished murder of a Negro youth by a white supremacist.

How can race hatred be cured? Cochran thinks that "some kind of atmosphere must be set up so we can look into ourselves and see who we really are—not black or white people, but people.

"The white man," he said, "must understand the economic and emotional reasons why he has invented a 'nigger,' a creature which doesn't exist and never existed."

Baldwin's play, he feels, is the first real communication from Negroes to whites in the American theater.

Cochran, born in Georgia and reared in a Detroit Negro ghetto, moved to Los Angeles after his graduation from Wayne State University in Detroit. He intended to go to UCLA medical school but found he could not afford it, and took a job as group worker at a treatment center for emotionally disturbed children.

He became an actor when a drama director happened to be in the audience when Cochran was making a fund-raising appeal for the center. His delivery was so convincing the director signed him for a professional stage part.

Cochran has had television roles on "Ben Casey," "Death Valley Days" and "Dr. Kildare," has appeared in television commercials, and has a role in a movie, "The Incident," which will be released next year.

He came to San Francisco to try for a stage play, found the cast was complete, but remained when he read that the Homestead Players were planning to produce "Blues for Mr. Charlie." He now resides in Mill Valley.

Experimental Film Series In Sausalito

Presented in cooperation with the San Francisco Mime Troupe and Canyon Cinema, the series will include works by such well-known avant-garde film-makers as Jonas Mekas, Bruce Conner, Ron Rice, Bruce Baille, Robert Nelson and Stan Vanderbeek. Both Conner and Vanderbeek are recipients of $10,000 Ford Foundation grants.

Each program on Friday and Saturday will begin at 11 p.m. (reason for the title) and admission price will include refreshments, according to Mime Troupe producer Bill Graham.

The initial program tomorrow and Saturday will consist of five films by Nelson, including "Oh Dem Watermelons," a top money award winner at the San Francisco Film Festival. Other Nelson films are "Plastic Haircut," "Confessions of a Black Mother Succuba," "Oiley Peloso The Pumph Man" and "Thick Pucker."

The programs are scheduled to run each Friday and Saturday through Jan. 8, skipping the Christmas weekend, Graham said.

John L. Weaver is president of the Marin Astronomical Society.

Between 10 and 20 per cent of stolen cars are never recovered, says the National Automobile Club.

Transit District Sells Bond Issue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Bay Area Rapid Transit District sold $70 million worth of bonds yesterday at 3.5877 per cent interest.

Successful bidder was a syndicate headed by First National Bank of Chicago.

The only other bid, 3.5934 per cent net interest, was by a syndicate headed by Bank of America.

The district, building a high speed commuter transit system in the San Francisco Bay Area, previously had sold $180 million worth of bonds. It is authorized to sell $792 million worth of general obligation, taxpayer supported bonds.

HOLD YOUR FIRE, ROGER!

Roger Saenz, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Saenz of 132 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael, seems determined that his family shall have a turkey for Thanksgiving. The big tom on which he's drawing a bead with the less-than-lethal gun is at the Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael. The museum will keep him until Thanksgiving (that's a week from today) so Marin children will have a chance to see what the piece de resistance of Thanksgiving dinners looks like "on the hoof."

New, Smelly Problems Besetting Gallinas Village District Board

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Peace has not yet been restored to the Gallinas Village Community Services District.

Residents, long angry over park plans proposed by district directors, are expected to let directors know of another grievance tonight: Backed up sewers and raw sewage in the gutters began soon after last week's rain.

Part-time maintenance man David R. Scott of Petaluma told board chairman Herbert C. Belben Jr. Tuesday that the district would have to find another man as he could not keep up with the work.

However, another resignation, that on Oct. 15 of Director Harry Thomas, will not come to pass. He retrieved his letter of resignation before it was opened.

"It's just that I don't like being pushed around," Thomas said today in explaining his reconsideration.

Thomas resigned after other directors voted to reject bids on development of a park at Rosal and Adrian Way in a stormy board meeting.

Today's meeting will be at 8 p.m. at John MacPhail School. It was postponed from the regular time last Thursday because of Veterans Day.

Thomas, who lives at 805 Descanso Way, Santa Venetia, said he has had to pick his way carefully to his car the past few mornings because of sewage in the streets.

Belben said the main subject of tonight's session will be the sewers. He said some pressure must be brought on Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District to solve the problem.

The problem is a complex one. The Gallinas Village CSD is almost out of the sewer business. In fact the area has already been annexed to Las Gallinas Sanitary District. However the sewer facilities of the CSD have not yet been accepted by the sanitary district.

The facilties are being upgraded with extensive work by the sanitary district but maintenance is still the responsibility of the Gallinas Village CSD, sanitary district secretary Helen Foulkes explained.

Belben said the backup of sewer lines was due to inadequate bypasses installed by the sanitary district pending completion of four pumping stations.

Mrs. Foulkes said this was not the case. The trouble was due to a generally inadequate system and the backup has occurred whenever there are extensive rains and rainwater gets into the lines, she said.

The upgrading now being done under contract by Kirkwood-Bly Inc. of Santa Rosa was to be completed Oct. 15, but delay in delivery of parts for the pumping stations has delayed the completion of the job. Work will probably not be complete until the first of the year, Mrs. Foulkes said.

Thomas said vandals have caused extensive problems for the contractor. He said someone, "angry about his sewer assessment," started one of the firm's tractors and pulled up a line crossing Gallinas Creek, doing $10,000 damage.

A spokesman for the firm, who did not want his name used, said it was not known if this was the work of vandals or not. The damage occurred during the Labor Day weekend.

The spokesman confirmed, however, that there has been an amount of vandalism, such as broken truck windows and headlights and construction shack break-ins.

The firm wrote a form letter to residents asking for cooperation in control of children. The sheriff's department was asked for extra help.

Legal Counter Moves Continue Over Tunnel

San Rafael and Marin County have filed a reply to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad's latest effort to 'forestall reopening of the Puerto Suello Tunnel in San Rafael.

Boris H. Lakusta, attorney for the city and county in their running battle with the railroad, said he filed a "motion to affirm" with the U.S. Supreme Court Monday.

The motion was offered in support of the California Public Utilities Commission order that the railroad re-open the tunnel which has been closed since it collapsed in a fire on July 22, 1961.

NWP last month filed a "jurisdictional statement" seeking to block the state PUC order. It had previously been upheld by the California Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, Lakusta said, there has been no word on whether a new Interstate Commerce Commission hearing, asked by the railroad, would be held in San Francisco. Originally scheduled for last month, it was indefinitely postponed by the ICC.

Speakers Are For, Against Marin Joining Region Park

The pros and cons of regional park and recreation districts were aired before the Marin Conservation Council last night by a leading Bay Area conservationist and a former member of the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission.

Speakers were Daniel B. Luten, a member of numerous conservation groups now lecturing on geography at University of California, and Mrs. Helen Newman of Tiburon, former parks commissioner.

Saying he was speaking "not as an advocate but as an historian," Luten traced the background of the East Bay Regional Park District, recently joined by Contra Costa County.

Marin could theoretically join that district, he said, since Contra Costa borders Marin under the waters of San Pablo Bay.

On theh other hand, he noted, Marin County could create its own district, which then might be joined by adjacent counties. Such action would require approval of the Local Agency Formation Commission as well as the board of supervisors, he said.

Mrs. Newman said she was strongly opposed to such a step, adding that she considers Marin's present approach to parks and recreation to be adequate.

About 30 people attended the session.

Tools Stolen

Novato contractor James R. Fillipo told San Rafael police yesterday thieves the night before broke into a locked tool box at a construction site at Fourth Street and Santa Margarita Drive and took hand tools and 150 feet of electrical wire, worth a total of $62.65.

Bookish Thieves

Terry A. Jarcik of 137 Canal Street, Apt. 21, told San Rafael police yesterday someone had taken an attache case with college text books in it from his unlocked car, parked in a carport at the apartment house. He said value of the case and books was $62.

FIVE-TO-LIFE FOR SALLY SAFE GANG

Convicted Police Officer Fires Counsel, Hires Hallinan; Quartet Denied Probation

Four men were sentenced yesterday to terms of from five years to life for trying to burglarize the San Francisco home of Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford), Sausalito restaurant owner.

One of them, former San Francisco police officer Salvatore Polani, 44, later announced that he had hired Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere to appeal his case further.

Judge Harry J. Neubarth of San Francisco Superior Court denied probation to Polani and ex-convicts Winston Major, 51, Wesley Roy Gant, 57, and Louis A. Romero, 34.

Judge Neubarth sentenced the men after hearing a report from probation officer Robert Nichols, who declared that Polani "cannot be considered a suitable subject for probation in the light of the nature of this offense, which involved a calculated breach of public trust—a trust which he has apparently been violating for some time."

Of the others, Nichols said their long criminal records ruled out any chance of probation.

Attorney Emmet Hagerty, who had represented Polani during the trial, asked Judge Neubarth to suspend the former officer's sentence and give him a year in the county jail instead.

"He was a prime mover in this thing," replied the judge. "It seems to me he should have a greater sentence than the others."

Judge Neubarth also denied the bids of attorneys to have all four men released on bail pending appeals. Charges against Gant and Romero of being habitual criminals were dropped by the district attorney's office, however.

The men were arrested in and near Mrs. Owen's home the night of April 6 by police acting on a tip from Point Reyes Station contractor Robert K. Worthington.

Polani announced his change of attorneys at the end of yesterday's court session. When Judge Neubarth asked if Hagerty was out of the case, Polani acknowledged that he was.

"I'm happy to be out," said Hagerty.

Marinites Injured In Span Collisions

An elderly San Rafael couple suffered minor injuries yesterday in a four-car chain-reaction crash on the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge that helped tie up rush-hour traffic and caused a second accident.

A car driven toward San Francisco by George L. Rice, 70, of 28 Mira Mar Avenue, San Rafael, was struck from behind at 3:50 p.m. by a car driven by Everett C. Draper, 55, of Eureka, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Rice's car was forced into a station wagon driven by Bruce L. Dippel, 39, of San Francisco. Draper's car was then hit from behind by a car driven by Lloyd L. Lind, 57, of Santa Rosa.

Twenty minutes later, at 4:10 p.m., Reynold Acevedo, 27, of San Francisco suffered a sprained left ankle and cuts and bruises in a second chain-reaction crash on Highway 101 just north of the bridge.

George Macris, 64, of San Bruno was driving south when he slowed for the traffic tie-up caused by the first accident. His car was tsruck from behind by a car driven by Raymond C. Edmondson, 25, of Daly City, the highway patrol said. Acevedo's car then crashed into Edmondson's. Acevedo was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Eleanor D. Johnson, 47, was en route to her home at 44 Diablo Drive, Kentfield, when her car skidded on the curve at the end of the bridge and crashed into the cement wall. She was treated at Marin General Hospital for forehead and scalp cuts.

$10 Million Decision

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Joseph M. Farber, state director of veterans affairs, must make a decision before the end of the month on the renewal of a fire and hazard insurance policy on some $2 billion worth of property mortgaged under the Cal-Vet, low interest, farm and home financing plan.

The current five-year contract with the National American Co., operated by Howard F. Ahmanson, is due to expire. Premiums for the insurance coverage for the five years amount to about $10 million.

Farber said the current contract with National American has been a good one in that it extended coverage to a number of new areas, including damage from mud slides. He said it covers farms and homes of some 128,000 California veterans under the program.

Brown Names Seeger To Pollution Group

William R. Seegar, general manager and chief engineer of Marin Municipal Water District, has been appointed by the Governor to the Technical Coordinating Committee of the State Water Quality Control Board.

The committee was created by the 1965 Legislature. The State Water Quality Control Board is responsible for controlling water pollution.

Burglars Hit Empty House In Tiburon

Gordon Y. Kaneko of Mill Valley complained to the Tiburon Sheriff's substation that between 1 p.m. Tuesday and 3 p.m. yesterday a vacant house he owns at 160 Rock Hill Road, Tiburon, was burglarized.

A double oven, hot plate, garbage disposal unit and dishwasher were reported missing. Investigating officers found a rear door leading to the kitchen unlocked.

CHECKING THE CHECKER

The San Rafael Police Department's city council-ordered crackdown on overtime parking seems to be producing results. An Independent-Journal camera survey along Fourth Street from Lincoln Avenue to D Street on Tuesday turned up only three all-day parkers, whereas a similar photo check in 1963 produced 28. However, various vehicles were found parked in red zones—including this meter maid's electric cart, parked in front of the Rafael Theater while the meter maid had coffee at the Court House Creamery.

Heart Monitor Taken From Ike

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower passed another milestone on the road toward recovery from his heart attack today as doctors disclosed they were no longer monitoring his machine.

The electronic device had been in constant service since the 75-year-old five star general was brought to the hospital here.

In a statement this morning, Eisenhower was described as having spent a "very good night."

He was stricken nine days ago.

Coin Box Gone

Corte Madera police last night discovered a phone was pried from the wall of a telephone booth at the Texaco service station at Fifer Avenue and Lucky Drive. The coin box was missing, they said.

The 6,215-foot Benicia-Martinez Bridge carries four traffic lanes.

Residents, long angry over park plans proposed by district directors, are expected to let directors know of another grievance tonight: Backed up sewers and raw sewage in the gutters began soon after last week's rain.

Part-time maintenance man David R. Scott of Petaluma told board chairman Herbert C. Belben Jr. Tuesday that the district would have to find another man as he could not keep up with the work.

However, another resignation, that on Oct. 15 of Director Harry Thomas, will not come to pass. He retrieved his letter of resignation before it was opened.

"It's just that I don't like being pushed around," Thomas said today in explaining his reconsideration.

Thomas resigned after other directors voted to reject bids on development of a park at Rosal and Adrian Way in a stormy board meeting.

Today's meeting will be at 8 p.m. at John MacPhail School. It was postponed from the regular time last Thursday because of Veterans Day.

Thomas, who lives at 805 Descanso Way, Santa Venetia, said he has had to pick his way carefully to his car the past few mornings because of sewage in the streets.

Belben said the main subject of tonight's session will be the sewers. He said some pressure must be brought on Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District to solve the problem.

The problem is a complex one. The Gallinas Village CSD is almost out of the sewer business. In fact the area has already been annexed to Las Gallinas Sanitary District. However the sewer facilities of the CSD have not yet been accepted by the sanitary district.

The facilties are being upgraded with extensive work by the sanitary district but maintenance is still the responsibility of the Gallinas Village CSD, sanitary district secretary Helen Foulkes explained.

Belben said the backup of sewer lines was due to inadequate bypasses installed by the sanitary district pending completion of four pumping stations.

Mrs. Foulkes said this was not the case. The trouble was due to a generally inadequate system and the backup has occurred whenever there are extensive rains and rainwater gets into the lines, she said.

The upgrading now being done under contract by Kirkwood-Bly Inc. of Santa Rosa was to be completed Oct. 15, but delay in delivery of parts for the pumping stations has delayed the completion of the job. Work will probably not be complete until the first of the year, Mrs. Foulkes said.

Thomas said vandals have caused extensive problems for the contractor. He said someone, "angry about his sewer assessment," started one of the firm's tractors and pulled up a line crossing Gallinas Creek, doing $10,000 damage.

A spokesman for the firm, who did not want his name used, said it was not known if this was the work of vandals or not. The damage occurred during the Labor Day weekend.

The spokesman confirmed, however, that there has been an amount of vandalism, such as broken truck windows and headlights and construction shack break-ins.

The firm wrote a form letter to residents asking for cooperation in control of children. The sheriff's department was asked for extra help.

Tools Stolen

Bookish Thieves

Terry A. Jarcik of 137 Canal Street, Apt. 21, told San Rafael police yesterday someone had taken an attache case with college text books in it from his unlocked car, parked in a carport at the apartment house. He said value of the case and books was $62.

Legal Counter Moves Continue Over Tunnel

San Rafael and Marin County have filed a reply to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad's latest effort to forestall reopening of the Puerto Suello Tunnel in San Rafael.

Boris H. Lakusta, attorney for the city and county in their running battle with the railroad, said he filed a "motion to affirm" with the U.S. Supreme Court Monday.

The motion was offered in support of the California Public Utilities Commission order that the railroad re-open the tunnel which has been closed since it collapsed in a fire on July 22, 1961.

NWP last month filed a "jurisdictional statement" seeking to block the state PUC order. It had previously been upheld by the California Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, Lakusta said, there has been no word on whether a new Interstate Commerce Commission hearing, asked by the railroad, would be held in San Francisco. Originally scheduled for last month, it was indefinitely postponed by the ICC.

Speakers Are For, Against Marin Joining Region Park

The pros and cons of regional park and recreation districts were aired before the Marin Conservation Council last night by a leading Bay Area conservationist and a former member of the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission.

Speakers were Daniel B. Luten, a member of numerous conservation groups now lecturing on geography at University of California, and Mrs. Helen Newman of Tiburon, former parks commissioner.

Saying he was speaking "not as an advocate but as an historian," Luten traced the background of the East Bay Regional Park District, recently joined by Contra Costa County.

Marin could theoretically join that district, he said, since Contra Costa borders Marin under the waters of San Pablo Bay.

On theh other hand, he noted, Marin County could create its own district, which then might be joined by adjacent counties. Such action would require approval of the Local Agency Formation Commission as well as the board of supervisors, he said.

Mrs. Newman said she was strongly opposed to such a step, adding that she considers Marin's present approach to parks and recreation to be adequate.

About 30 people attended the session.

Marinites Injured In Span Collisions

An elderly San Rafael couple suffered minor injuries yesterday in a four-car chain-reaction crash on the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge that helped tie up rush-hour traffic and caused a second accident.

A car driven toward San Francisco by George L. Rice, 70, of 28 Mira Mar Avenue, San Rafael, was struck from behind at 3:50 p.m. by a car driven by Everett C. Draper, 55, of Eureka, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Rice's car was forced into a station wagon driven by Bruce L. Dippel, 39, of San Francisco. Draper's car was then hit from behind by a car driven by Lloyd L. Lind, 57, of Santa Rosa.

Twenty minutes later, at 4:10 p.m., Reynold Acevedo, 27, of San Francisco suffered a sprained left ankle and cuts and bruises in a second chain-reaction crash on Highway 101 just north of the bridge.

George Macris, 64, of San Bruno was driving south when he slowed for the traffic tie-up caused by the first accident. His car was tsruck from behind by a car driven by Raymond C. Edmondson, 25, of Daly City, the highway patrol said. Acevedo's car then crashed into Edmondson's. Acevedo was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Eleanor D. Johnson, 47, was en route to her home at 44 Diablo Drive, Kentfield, when her car skidded on the curve at the end of the bridge and crashed into the cement wall. She was treated at Marin General Hospital for forehead and scalp cuts.

$10 Million Decision

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Joseph M. Farber, state director of veterans affairs, must make a decision before the end of the month on the renewal of a fire and hazard insurance policy on some $2 billion worth of property mortgaged under the Cal-Vet, low interest, farm and home financing plan.

The current five-year contract with the National American Co., operated by Howard F. Ahmanson, is due to expire. Premiums for the insurance coverage for the five years amount to about $10 million.

Farber said the current contract with National American has been a good one in that it extended coverage to a number of new areas, including damage from mud slides. He said it covers farms and homes of some 128,000 California veterans under the program.

Brown Names Seeger To Pollution Group

William R. Seegar, general manager and chief engineer of Marin Municipal Water District, has been appointed by the Governor to the Technical Coordinating Committee of the State Water Quality Control Board.

The committee was created by the 1965 Legislature. The State Water Quality Control Board is responsible for controlling water pollution.

Burglars Hit Empty House In Tiburon

Gordon Y. Kaneko of Mill Valley complained to the Tiburon Sheriff's substation that between 1 p.m. Tuesday and 3 p.m. yesterday a vacant house he owns at 160 Rock Hill Road, Tiburon, was burglarized.

A double oven, hot plate, garbage disposal unit and dishwasher were reported missing. Investigating officers found a rear door leading to the kitchen unlocked.

Heart Monitor Taken From Ike

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower passed another milestone on the road toward recovery from his heart attack today as doctors disclosed they were no longer monitoring his machine.

The electronic device had been in constant service since the 75-year-old five star general was brought to the hospital here.

In a statement this morning, Eisenhower was described as having spent a "very good night."

He was stricken nine days ago.

Coin Box Gone

Corte Madera police last night discovered a phone was pried from the wall of a telephone booth at the Texaco service station at Fifer Avenue and Lucky Drive. The coin box was missing, they said.

The 6,215-foot Benicia-Martinez Bridge carries four traffic lanes.

Contract Suit Names Marinite

Sid E. Flaherty, prize fighter-manager whose stable once included middleweight champion Bobo Olsen, has filed a $250,000 suit in Marin Superior Court alleging one of his fighters has been persuaded to break a seven-year contract with him.

Defendants are Vincent Correnti, a Marin County resident, Walter Minskoff, Leo Minskoff, Willie Ketchum, George Andros, and 10 John Does.

The suit alleges that Flaherty and Thaddeus Spencer, a boxer from Portland, Ore., signed a contract March 1, 1960. In December of 1962, however, Flaherty charges, Correnti and the other defendants "intentionally and maliciously" coerced Spencer into breaking the contract and fighting instead under their managership.

Flaherty also asks a court order adjoining the defendants from interfering with his contract until its expiration on March 1, 1967.

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Weak Bids Sometimes Give Tips To Fast-Thinking Opposition

If you want an excuse to overbid, make a note of today's hand.

The pass was his undoing.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamonds and led a third diamond to start the play.

Claude Delmouly, playing the South hand, knew that West would have bid if he had held all of the missing high cards.

WHAT HAPPENED

Delmouly ruffed the third diamond in dummy and led the queen of spades.

East covered with the king, and South won with the ace.

Now there was no hurry with the hearts. Declarer cashed the high clubs, discarding a heart, and ruffed dummy's last club.

When West discarded a heart, South led a trump to force West into the lead.

DECEPTIVE BID

South would go down at four spades if West opened the bidding with one diamond.

South would discard a club from dummy on the third round of diamonds, cash the top clubs, play the ace of spades and then lead a low spade in the hope of forcing West to win with the king.

If you habitually open the bidding with very weak hands you will sometimes have stories about how you fooled the oppenents.

More often, the other players will have stories about how your weak bid landed you in the soup.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealr, you hold:

♥ Q J 10
♦ J 8
♣ A K Q 7

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one club.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid of one notrump, partly because it is a point shy and partly because the diamonds are too weak.

Chicago Bears Won A Couple Big Ones

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Bears have rolled up two of the three widest margin scores in National Football League history, a 73-0 rout of the Washington Redskins in the 1940 championship and a 57-0 shellacking of the Baltimore Colts in 1962.

Today is Thursday, Nov. 18, the 322nd day of 1965 with 43 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase; the morning star is Jupiter; the evening stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn.

In 1836, Sir William Gilbert, dramatist and librettist of the Gilbert and Sullivan team, was born.

In 1903, the United States and Panama reached agreement and signed a treaty of the Panama Canal.

In 1964, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara announced plans to close 97 military bases.

A thought for the day—Thomas Jefferson said: "Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap; it will be dear to you."

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Weak Bids Sometimes Give Tips To Fast-Thinking Opposition

If you want an excuse to overbid, make a note of today's hand.

The pass was his undoing.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamonds and led a third diamond to start the play.

Claude Delmouly, playing the South hand, knew that West would have bid if he had held all of the missing high cards.

WHAT HAPPENED

Delmouly ruffed the third diamond in dummy and led the queen of spades.

East covered with the king, and South won with the ace.

Now there was no hurry with the hearts. Declarer cashed the high clubs, discarding a heart, and ruffed dummy's last club.

When West discarded a heart, South led a trump to force West into the lead.

DECEPTIVE BID

South would go down at four spades if West opened the bidding with one diamond.

South would discard a club from dummy on the third round of diamonds, cash the top clubs, play the ace of spades and then lead a low spade in the hope of forcing West to win with the king.

If you habitually open the bidding with very weak hands you will sometimes have stories about how you fooled the oppenents.

More often, the other players will have stories about how your weak bid landed you in the soup.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealr, you hold:

♥ Q J 10
♦ J 8
♣ A K Q 7

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one club.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid of one notrump, partly because it is a point shy and partly because the diamonds are too weak.

Chicago Bears Won A Couple Big Ones

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Bears have rolled up two of the three widest margin scores in National Football League history, a 73-0 rout of the Washington Redskins in the 1940 championship and a 57-0 shellacking of the Baltimore Colts in 1962.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Mushroom Poisoning Can Take Some Unexpected Directions

VAN DELLEN

There are more than 2,000 species of mushrooms that differ in color, texture, taste, and odor. One type, Coprinus atramentarius, is toxic only when combined with alcohol. This black-spotted variety is harmless when cooked and eaten, but the gourmet is likely to get sick if he drinks wine, beer, or other liquors within 24 hours. The manifestations vary from nausea to collapse, depending upon the amount of alcohol and mushrooms consumed.

TOADSTOOLS and mushrooms have been steeped in mystery throughout the ages because the fear of poisoning has been passed down from one generation to another. The majority are edible, but the few harmful varieties are responsible for their notorious reputation.

The Amanita muscarina (fly mushroom) contains the poison, muscarine, that causes vomiting, abdominal pain, diarrhea, intense thirst, and profuse perspiration when consumed. The pupils of the eyes contract and the victim may develop convulsions and become comatose.

The more deadly Amanita phalloides also leads to gastrointestinal distress along with excess salivation, circulatory failure and damage to the liver and kidneys. Both specimens have white gills and spores and grow in clusters on wet or shady ground. They have a bitter taste and yield a pungent milk.

Mushrooms should not be eaten unless they are picked by those who know the real McCoy or by commercial dealers who make it their business to be careful. The best known edible species, Agaricus campestris, are found in pastures and grassy places. The top is white, and the pink gills later change to brown.

MANY FAMOUS people have been poisoned by these fungi. Emperor Nero made his niche in history by burning Rome. He also gave one of the most deadly banquets, where poisonous mushrooms were served. All the guests, guards, and gate crashers died.

Over the years, many simple tests have been devised to determine the safety of mushrooms, but as a rule they are valueless. To be safe, buy your mushrooms at a reliable store.

WAKEFULNESS

O. G. writes: Is there a sickness the opposite of sleeping sickness, where the person cannot sleep for a long time?

REPLY

Prolonged sleeplessness occurs in certain mental disorders and in those illnesses in which pain or other disagreeable symptoms exist. Ordinary insomnia may occur in healthy individuals.

YOUNG GENIUS

Mrs. F. W. writes: My 3½-year-old son has been reading for some time. I notice he reads as easily upside down and backward as he does the proper way. Do I have an unusual boy?

REPLY

Yes. Most youngsters this age cannot read at all, much less backward and upside down.

A 'LOCAL'

F. G. writes: What is meant by local anesthesia?

REPLY

The best example is the injection of a novocaine-like drug by the dentist to deaden the nerve to the tooth. This affords anesthesia of a local area without affecting the remainder of the body.

ARTHRITIC KNEES

M. D. writes: Is it wise to exercise arthritic joints when one can hear a dry clicking sound in the knees?

REPLY

Not when they swell and become painful.

Shot Punctures Car

Laurine Ritz of 152 Villa Avenue, San Rafael, complained to police Tuesday night that someone had shot a bullet hole in the left door of her sedan while it was parked. Officers theorized the hole had been made within the previous 24 hours.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

There are more than 2,000 species of mushrooms that differ in color, texture, taste, and odor. One type, Coprinus atramentarius, is toxic only when combined with alcohol. This black-spotted variety is harmless when cooked and eaten, but the gourmet is likely to get sick if he drinks wine, beer, or other liquors within 24 hours. The manifestations vary from nausea to collapse, depending upon the amount of alcohol and mushrooms consumed.

TOADSTOOLS and mushrooms have been steeped in mystery throughout the ages because the fear of poisoning has been passed down from one generation to another. The majority are edible, but the few harmful varieties are responsible for their notorious reputation.

The Amanita muscarina (fly mushroom) contains the poison, muscarine, that causes vomiting, abdominal pain, diarrhea, intense thirst, and profuse perspiration when consumed. The pupils of the eyes contract and the victim may develop convulsions and become comatose.

The more deadly Amanita phalloides also leads to gastrointestinal distress along with excess salivation, circulatory failure and damage to the liver and kidneys. Both specimens have white gills and spores and grow in clusters on wet or shady ground. They have a bitter taste and yield a pungent milk.

Mushrooms should not be eaten unless they are picked by those who know the real McCoy or by commercial dealers who make it their business to be careful. The best known edible species, Agaricus campestris, are found in pastures and grassy places. The top is white, and the pink gills later change to brown.

MANY FAMOUS people have been poisoned by these fungi. Emperor Nero made his niche in history by burning Rome. He also gave one of the most deadly banquets, where poisonous mushrooms were served. All the guests, guards, and gate crashers died.

Over the years, many simple tests have been devised to determine the safety of mushrooms, but as a rule they are valueless. To be safe, buy your mushrooms at a reliable store.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request).

WAKEFULNESS

O. G. writes: Is there a sickness the opposite of sleeping sickness, where the person cannot sleep for a long time?

REPLY

Prolonged sleeplessness occurs in certain mental disorders and in those illnesses in which pain or other disagreeable symptoms exist. Ordinary insomnia may occur in healthy individuals.

YOUNG GENIUS

Mrs. F. W. writes: My 3½-year-old son has been reading for some time. I notice he reads as easily upside down and backward as he does the proper way. Do I have an unusual boy?

REPLY

Yes. Most youngsters this age cannot read at all, much less backward and upside down.

A 'LOCAL'

F. G. writes: What is meant by local anesthesia?

REPLY

The best example is the injection of a novocaine-like drug by the dentist to deaden the nerve to the tooth. This affords anesthesia of a local area without affecting the remainder of the body.

ARTHRITIC KNEES

M. D. writes: Is it wise to exercise arthritic joints when one can hear a dry clicking sound in the knees?

REPLY

Not when they swell and become painful.

Shot Punctures Car

Laurine Ritz of 152 Villa Avenue, San Rafael, complained to police Tuesday night that someone had shot a bullet hole in the left door of her sedan while it was parked. Officers theorized the hole had been made within the previous 24 hours.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Market, Romance Better Than People

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — One would think that any television program that can offer such provocative guests as Art Buchwald, Lena Horne, Gloria Swanson, Jules Feiffer and Bubb Schulberg—all within a single week—would be worth keeping on. Or at least that a network would think so—especially since it is on during the daytime, when the network air is most foul, most of the time.

All of the above guests are only some of those scheduled to turn up next week on the show in question, ABC-TV's "The Young Set," a daily one-hour talk series whose hostess is the actress Phyllis Kirk. The show is being canceled—goes off Dec. 17.

ABC-TV feels that the ladies who watch the home screen during the daytime would much prefer a different sort of diversion, and so the network has unveiled the following two half-hour properties to be added to its rock 'em, sock 'em sunshine lineup:

—"Supermarket Sweep," a thrilling pastiche which will make its world debut Dec. 20, originate from supermarkets around the nation and feature special runners, selected by contenders, racing around the food centers scooping up "as many groceries as each can collect" in a given time. Once again I suggest ABC-TV contact our celebrity-strewn Arrow Market here on Santa Monica Boulevard, into which two robbers came the other night, scooping up the cash in register in a given amount of time as our wife, her back to them, three feet away, stood reading a magazine, never noticing. A great reporter.

—The other new ABC-TV entry, also to have its world premier Dec. 20, is called "The Dating Game," and is described as a show that presents "attractive and eligible men and women with romance in mind."

Royal Opera Has Finance Problem

LONDON (AP) — The Royal Opera House says it is in a financial crisis and has called on the British government for relief.

The opera house now receives a government subsidy of $2.45 for each $2.80 it takes in. During the year 1964-65 it received a subsidy of $2,153,570 for the opera and ballet.

The Earl of Drogheda, chairman of the board of the opera house, said yesterday costs have risen so sharply that the estimated deficit or 1966-67 is given as $679,000.

Real Estate Trainee

Eugene J. Naber, an appraiser in the Marin County assessor's office, has completed real estate certificate training at the University of California at Berkeley.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Market, Romance Better Than People

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — One would think that any television program that can offer such provocative guests as Art Buchwald, Lena Horne, Gloria Swanson, Jules Feiffer and Bubb Schulberg—all within a single week—would be worth keeping on. Or at least that a network would think so—especially since it is on during the daytime, when the network air is most foul, most of the time.

All of the above guests are only some of those scheduled to turn up next week on the show in question, ABC-TV's "The Young Set," a daily one-hour talk series whose hostess is the actress Phyllis Kirk. The show is being canceled—goes off Dec. 17.

ABC-TV feels that the ladies who watch the home screen during the daytime would much prefer a different sort of diversion, and so the network has unveiled the following two half-hour properties to be added to its rock 'em, sock 'em sunshine lineup:

—"Supermarket Sweep," a thrilling pastiche which will make its world debut Dec. 20, originate from supermarkets around the nation and feature special runners, selected by contenders, racing around the food centers scooping up "as many groceries as each can collect" in a given time. Once again I suggest ABC-TV contact our celebrity-strewn Arrow Market here on Santa Monica Boulevard, into which two robbers came the other night, scooping up the cash in register in a given amount of time as our wife, her back to them, three feet away, stood reading a magazine, never noticing. A great reporter.

—The other new ABC-TV entry, also to have its world premier Dec. 20, is called "The Dating Game," and is described as a show that presents "attractive and eligible men and women with romance in mind."

Pvt. Spike And Baseball's New Image

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball's new public image began forming today behind the leadership of a new commissioner — a retired three-star Air Force general who delights in being called Pvt. Spike.

He is William D. Eckert, 56, of Washington, D.C., a trim, sharp-visaged man with thinning steel-gray hair and the build of a high school football halfback, 160 pounds, 5 feet 8½ inches.

His unanimous recommendation yesterday to the major league's 20 club owners ended a six-month search by a screening committee headed by John Fetzer of the Detroit Tigers and John Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates. They started originally with about 20 men.

The soft-spoken Eckert, a much-decorated officer who retired from the service four years ago, was a surprise choice to become baseball's fourth commissioner. He follows a line that includes Judge K. M. Landis, who ruled with a mailed fist; A. B. (Happy) Chandler, who was ousted by owners in favor of Ford Frick, retiring at the age of 71 after serving since 1951.

Eckert's first lieutenant will be Lee MacPhail, baseball-wise 48-year-old president of the Baltimore Orioles and son of the stormy Larry MacPhail of years ago.

MacPhail was named to head a so-called cabinet as administrator in the commissioner's office. The new-image baseball government also will have departments encompassing player affairs, public information, television-radio and amateur baseball that includes Little League, American Legion, high school and college levels.

Whether directors of each of these branches ill be named is yet to be decided, said MacPhail, who signed a three-year contract at $40,000 annually.

Eckert was given a seven-year pact at $65,000.

The new commissioner admits he knows little of the inner workings of baseball and that his first action will be to confer with as many club owners as possible and the presidents of the American and National leagues, Joe Cronin and Warren Giles.

Cronin prominently as mentioned as Frick's successor but eliminated himself yesterday by accepting another seven-year contract as American League president at a salary increase.

Frick will be Eckert's conferee for the next three months and will aid in officiating at the baseball meetings in Miami next month. A year ago in Phoenix, Frick was successful in getting owners to restore the commissioner's power which had been clipped after the death of Landis.

He urged restoration of autocratic powers in order to broaden public confidence and maintain the honesty and integrity of the game, warning that baseball was in danger of losing its coveted public image.

STANFORD A MUD BOWL SO LEAVE AUTOS HOME

The football players aren't the only ones likely to be inconvenienced by mud during Saturday's 68th renewal of the Big Game between Stanford and California at Palo Alto.

Stanford University officials have urged fans to leave their autos at home because this week's rains have turned the woodsy parking area around Stanford Stadium into a quagmire.

Fans should use trains and buses or pool rides, the university warned, noting that in the past cars have become hopelessly mired and had to be left behind.

Happy Story With Sad Ending; Or, Getting Fore The Hard Way

Pull up a chair, Bunkie, and I'll tell you a sad story concerning two of the Bounty County's prominent residents, William Zimmerman and Dr. Marv Gilberg.

Golfers on the Meadow Club team now participating in the big Gold Cup Invitational Tournament in Las Vegas, Zimmy and Marv left San Francisco Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock on what was supposed to have been a routine 90 minute flight to Las Vegas where they were to join the other dozen or so members of their Meadow Club team.

WHEN THEIR commercial aircraft approached Las Vegas, however, the weather was so frightful that the pilot decided a landing was impossible so he swung the plane down to Albuquerque, New Mexico. If you've ever been to Albuquerque you're already shedding a few tears for our Rover Boys.

A FEW HOURS later they caught another flight, this one looping to Los Angeles, thence to Vegas, but again on approaching the rambling, gambling city the inclement weather forbade a landing and AGAIN Zimmy and Marv wound up landing in Albuquerque with silly expressions all over their faces. This time it was the crack of dawn and if you've ever been in Albuquerque at the crack of down you're probably hysterical by now, but keep reading please.

AGAIN, OUR intrepid Rover Boys decided to try their luck on still another flight that was to detour through Los Angeles and after their third try in a matter of hours they finally made it to Vegas.

Rushing over to the Stardust Hotel, they located their Meadow Club teammates who had already played their first round in the tournament involving golf club teams from throughout the country.

"Sorry we're late," Zimmy and Marv chorused, "but we've done enough flying to travel to Japan and back."

"Oh, that's alright," their buddies replied, "We're in first place. It really didn't matter; we did great without you."

Thud!

Just then one Meadow Club member's wife turned to the other and said: "Don't you just hate to see grown men cry."

MARTIN BACCAGLIO, the former Novato High and College of Marin gridder who has been a great star for San Jose State this season, has recovered from severe chest bruises and probably will see action in Saturday night's big game against Fresno State, which is great news for San Jose . . . Milt Morley, newly-crowned golf champion of the Marin Country Club and one of the finest shotmakers in Marin, is moving to New Orleans because of a new job. We're sorry to lose a golfer of Milt's caliber but wish him birdies all the way to New Orleans, which is the only way for a golfer to fly . . . THIS is the final week for the I-J's Fearless, Peerless Pigskin Prognosticators. Rookie Bob Alvarado is in first place with a 70-31 record; Yours Truly and Maurice "The Wet Nosed" Weinger are tied for second at 69-32, Ralph Chatoian trails at 66-35 and Ed "Also" Randol is so far behind at 54-47 we're going to have a moment of silence for him.

WILLIE MAYS seemed to sum it up nicely yesterday when asked what he thought of the new commissioner of baseball, William D. Eckert. Said Willie: "Who's he?"

Versalles Wins A.L. MVP Title

BOSTON (AP) — Zoilo Versalles, the spectacular shortstop of the Minnesota Twins, was a near unanimous choice today for the 1965 American League Most Valuable Player Award.

Versalles, who sparked the Twins to their first American League pennant, received 19 of the 20 first place ballots cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

The other first place vote went to teammate Tony Oliva, who won the A.L. batting championship for the second year in a row. Oliva finished second in the voting, being picked second on 13 ballots, and the 1964 winner, Brooks Robinson of Baltimore, finished third.

The only other player named on all 20 ballots was relief pitcher Eddie Fisher of Chicago. The knuckle ball artist became the first relief pitcher in the American Lague ever named on every ballot.

Fisher finished fourth in the voting with 122 points, compared to 275 for Versalles, 174 for Oliva and 150 for Robinson.

Versalles' total was 100 points higher than the runner-up because each first place vote was worth 14 points while second place votes received 9 points and third place, votes 8 points, etc.

"Boy, oh, boy," he exclaimed in surprise, "I cannot believe I got 19 of the 20 first place votes. This is the best thing that can happen to any ball player."

The speedy shortstop said the award came as a surprise to him. "I didn't think about it during the season. I only thought about winning the pennant."

The Twins manager, who had a preseason squabble with Versalles and fined him $300 for not hustling in an exhibition game against the New York Mets, said of the award: "That's terrific. He certainly deserved it."

Mele said Versalles "inspired us to a pennant. His play in the field, his work at bat and his leadership led us to the pennant."

To help the Twins to their first pennant, Versalles led the major league in runs scored with 126, and he led the American League in total bases with 308. Batting at the top of the order he collected 666 at bats in 160 games, a league high, and finished with a .273 average.

Versalles had 182 hits of which 45 were doubles, 12 were triples and 19 home runs. He knocked in 77 runs and stole 27 bases. His doubles tied Carl Yastrzemski of Boston for the league lead in that department.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER—Minnesota Twins shortstop Zoilo Versalles showed some swinging ability last night, doing the twist with show-girl at Minneapolis-St. Paul night club after learning he had been named the American League's Most Valuable Player for 1965. (AP Wirephoto)

One-Year Contract For Former Catcher

President George Weiss said the decision of the board was unanimous. Mrs. Joan Payson, owner of the Mets, was informed of the decision in Paris, where she is vacationing.

Under the former major league catcher, the Mets won 19 games and lost 48 for a .284 percentage. They were 31-64, .326 under Stengel.

Westrum, who will be 43 Nov. 28, said he nearly became a manager once before.

"It was either in 1961 or 1962," he recalled. "My name was brought up as manager of the Giants' club at Tacoma. But Horace Stoneham told me it would be too easy to fire me in that job. So I stayed with the Giants as a coach."

Westrum went with the Giants as a coach when they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958. He retired as a player in 1957 after 11 seasons with New York.

In that time he batted .217 and had a .985 fielding average. He played in two World Series, 1951 and 1954, handling 23 chances without an error in the second one.

The Mets' new field boss, 5-feet-11 and 200 pounds, was born in Clearbrook, Minn., in 1922 and now lives in Phoenix, with his wife, Josephine, and their two daughters.

Are Muslims Jeopardizing Patterson?

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson was quoted yesterday as saying at Las Vegas, Nev., he has "run into obstacles" that "jeopardized my camp."

Courier-Journal writer Larry Boeck reported that Patterson prefaced the statement by saying the Black Muslims are "a very, very clever organization. I've read that, and I've heard that, but I don't believe anything until I see it for myself, and I can tell you they are clever."

Boeck said Patterson allowed him to participate in an exclusive interview with Sig Kamph of the Stockholm Aftonbladet because Boeck is from the hometown of heavyweight champion Cassius Clay.

Patterson was quoted as saying:

"I have run into obstacles here I never had in any of my fights and things I never could have foreseen.

"I can't at this moment expose precisely what has happened in the last few days. What has happened has jeopardized my camp, to a degree, at least.

"To talk about them (the obstacles) now would only cause confusion."

In answer to a question, Patterson said, "Sure, I'll tell you after the fight. Of course. Most definitely and beyond all doubt because I want these people to know that I knew before the fight exactly what was happening..'

Bob Miller was named president of the newly formed Terra Linda High School Ski Club. Other officers are Scott Ogle, vice president; Peg Morris, secretary, and Mary Furtado, treasurer.

Novato, Redwood Stars Top Marin Grid Statistics

Otis Is Double Champ; Giants No. 1 Air Combo

The powerful tailback out of coach Harry Moore's I-formation romped for 779 yards in six league games, carrying the ball 147 times for a 5.3 average. He beat out Drake's speedy Dean Lazzarini for the second straight year. Lazz, who suffered a broken collarbone early in his last prep game, gained 594 yards in 103 carries for a 5.8 average.

Otis dethroned Lazzarini as the scoring champ of the league with a four touchdown performance in Novato's final game of the year. Otis ended up with 8 touchdowns and 1 extra point for a total of 49 points, while Dean scored 7 touchdowns and 2 PAT's for 44.

The combination of quarterback Dane Durham to halfback Len Pieri won the Redwood combo the top spots in passing. Durham was the league's leading passer both in percentage of completions and yards gained. He completed 24 of 51 attempts for 493 yards, mostly in Redwood's final two games of the year. Durham was followed by Novato's John Dolinsek with 28 completions and 314 yards and Drake's Bob Ingram with 24 completions and 376 yards.

Pieri was the top receiver in the league, catching 15 passes for 465 yards after great performances in Redwood's final two contests. He averaged 31 yards per catch on the season. Novato's Tom Corder was runner-up with 15 catches and 299 yards.

In final team statistics, Novato was the total offense king and Drake was defensive boss. Drake was on top in rushing with an 180-yard average to Novato's 175, and Redwood was No. 1 in passing with an 101-yard average. But it was Novato in total offense, 264 average to Drake's 245.

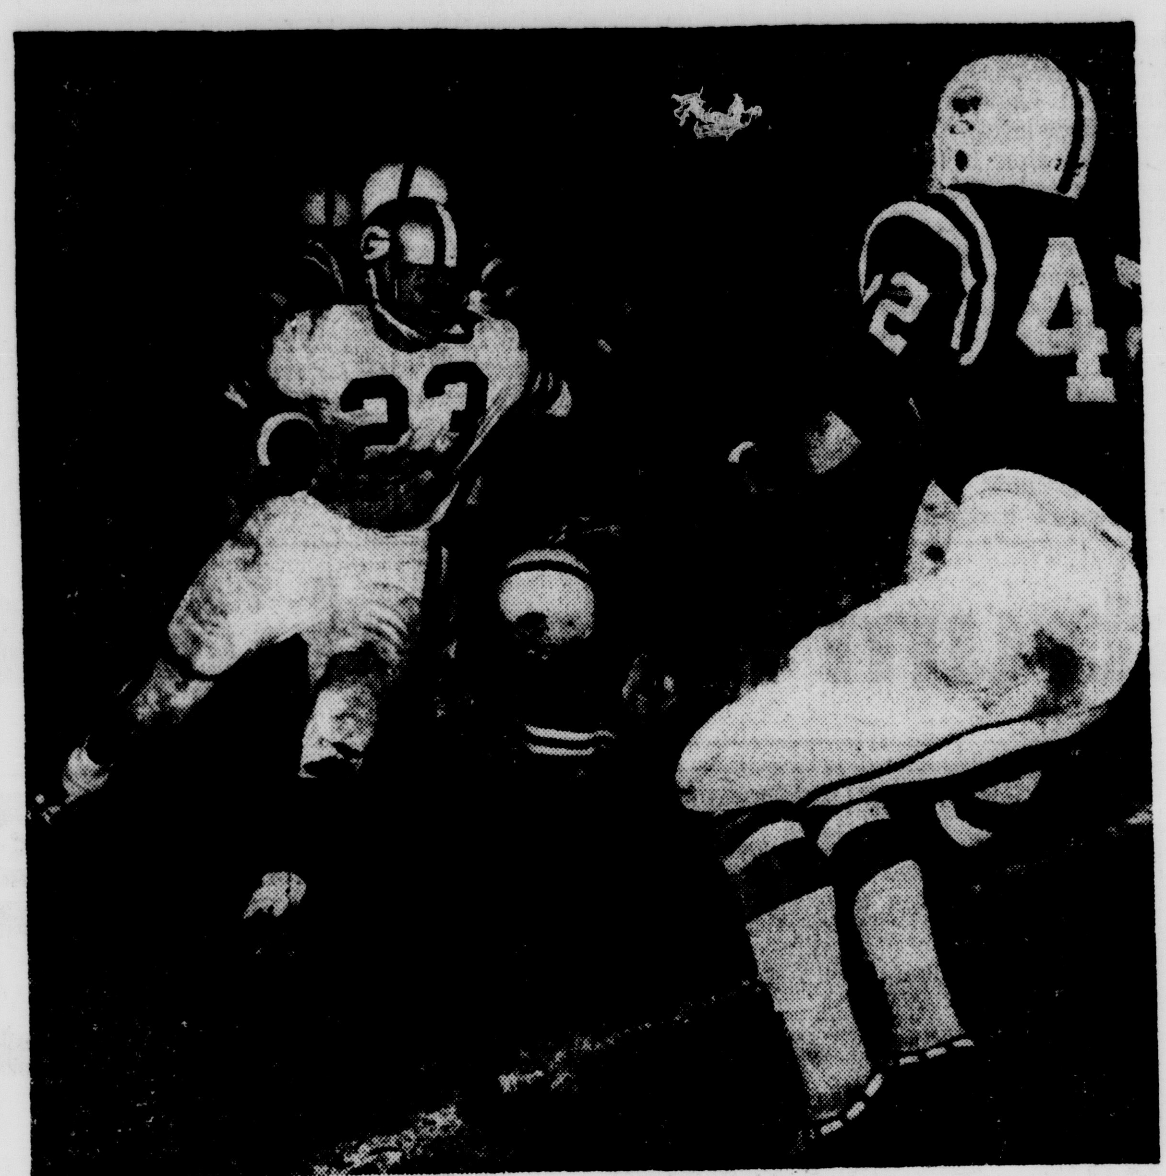
Double Winner

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mickey Wright is the only player ever to win the U.S. Women's Open golf championship two years in succession. She won it in 1958 and again in 1959.



REDWOOD ACE — Len Pieri (23), Redwood halfback, finished the season as top receiver in the league. He's shown here making a gain against San Rafael earlier this season. A boy who could really run with the ball after catching it, he averaged 31 yards every time he caught a pass.

Wilt Now No. 2 Scorer In NBA History; Celtics Bow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Come sometime in February Wilt Chamberlain probably will become the all-time career scorer in the National Basketball Assn. with close to 21,000 points.

The Big Dipper, as the 7-foot-1 former Kansas All-America prefers to be called, became the No. 2 all-time scorer last night when he tossed in 46 points against the Cincinnati Royals.

There was just one flaw. Wilt's team, the Philadelphia 76ers, lost the game 131-115 as the Royals won their seventh straight and replaced the 76ers as the Eastern Division leaders.

Jerry West also scored 46 points in pacing the Los Angeles Lakers, the Western Division leaders, to a 125-115 victory over the Boston Celtics in the other NBA game scheduled yesterday.

Chamberlain got his 46 points on 18 field goals and 10 of 12 free throws. This gave him a career total of 19,263 and he needed only 33 to pass Dolph Schayes' career total of 19,249. Schayes now is Chamberlain's boss as coach of the 76ers.

Bob Pettit of St. Louis, who retired after last season, is the NBA's No. 1 career scorer with 20,880. Chamberlain can catch up and pass him by averaging 30 points per game for the remaining 69 games of this season. This is well within Chamberlain's capability.

West topped off his 46-point effort for the Lakers with a three-point play in the last quarter that broke a 107-107 tie and put the Lakers ahead for good in the game at Los Angeles.

Boston, which played without injured Larry Siegfried, Willie Naulls, Ron Bonham and John Thompson, was led by John Havlicek, who came off the bench and scored 41 points.

Marin Skaters Win Norcal Title

Jimmy Harwin, 10, and Donna Ross, 12, both of San Rafael, brought back the northern California Juvenile "B" Dance championships to Marin when they teamed up to win at the Santa Rosa Roller Palace last Sunday.

Jimmy lives at 213 Hickory Lane, and Donna lives at 402 Corrillo Drive. They were representing the Roll-Aire Skating Center in San Rafael.

POILE MORE VALUABLE IN SEALS' OFFICE JOB

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Seals of the Western Hockey League put their eye to the future and decided to name Charlie Burns as player-coach and leave Norman (Bud) Poile freer to handle the job as general manager.

Poile has been handling both jobs since he took back the coaching reins from Nick Mickoski early last season. Announcement of the switch came yesterday.

"We had to make a choice," said Seals president Mel Swig, "whether to make Bud a full-time coach or a full-time general manager. We decided he would be most valuable in the top job."

With San Francisco granted a franchise by the National Hockey League for 1967, the importance of Poile's job could increase. The Seals ownership and a group headed by Bing Crosby are bidding for the NHL franchise and Swig said a merger of the two groups is in the works.

Poile has coached 15 years. He said the decision to handle only the general manager's job was his own and that he didn't plan to return to coaching.

Burns, a high scorer for the Seals, said the timing of his elevation to coach surprised him. The 29-year-old who will become a playing coach, said his ambition the past few years has been to coach.

"Charlie has shown the leadership and potential to be a good coach," said Swig who added that Poile had recommended the player for the job.

Poile has three years remaining on his contract with the Seals which might be indicative of plans to retain him in the general manager capacity should the organization gain the NHL franchise.

Swig said the likelihood of removing Poile should the club go big league was "minimal."

Burns and Poile both served with Detroit in the NHL. Charlie played with the club starting with the 1958-59 season. Poile, also a former NHL player, was an official in the Detroit organization several years.

Wilt Now No. 2 Scorer In NBA History; Celtics Bow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Come sometime in February Wilt Chamberlain probably will become the all-time career scorer in the National Basketball Assn. with close to 21,000 points.

The Big Dipper, as the 7-foot-1 former Kansas All-America prefers to be called, became the No. 2 all-time scorer last night when he tossed in 46 points against the Cincinnati Royals.

There was just one flaw. Wilt's team, the Philadelphia 76ers, lost the game 131-115 as the Royals won their seventh straight and replaced the 76ers as the Eastern Division leaders.

Jerry West also scored 46 points in pacing the Los Angeles Lakers, the Western Division leaders, to a 125-115 victory over the Boston Celtics in the other NBA game scheduled yesterday.

Chamberlain got his 46 points on 18 field goals and 10 of 12 free throws. This gave him a career total of 19,263 and he needed only 33 to pass Dolph Schayes' career total of 19,249. Schayes now is Chamberlain's boss as coach of the 76ers.

Bob Pettit of St. Louis, who retired after last season, is the NBA's No. 1 career scorer with 20,880. Chamberlain can catch up and pass him by averaging 30 points per game for the remaining 69 games of this season. This is well within Chamberlain's capability.

West topped off his 46-point effort for the Lakers with a three-point play in the last quarter that broke a 107-107 tie and put the Lakers ahead for good in the game at Los Angeles.

Boston, which played without injured Larry Siegfried, Willie Naulls, Ron Bonham and John Thompson, was led by John Havlicek, who came off the bench and scored 41 points.

POILE MORE VALUABLE IN SEALS' OFFICE JOB

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Seals of the Western Hockey League put their eye to the future and decided to name Charlie Burns as player-coach and leave Norman (Bud) Poile freer to handle the job as general manager.

Poile has been handling both jobs since he took back the coaching reins from Nick Mickoski early last season. Announcement of the switch came yesterday.

"We had to make a choice," said Seals president Mel Swig, "whether to make Bud a full-time coach or a full-time general manager. We decided he would be most valuable in the top job."

With San Francisco granted a franchise by the National Hockey League for 1967, the importance of Poile's job could increase. The Seals ownership and a group headed by Bing Crosby are bidding for the NHL franchise and Swig said a merger of the two groups is in the works.

Poile has coached 15 years. He said the decision to handle only the general manager's job was his own and that he didn't plan to return to coaching.

Independent-Journal Sports
42 Thurs., Nov. 18, 1965

Burns, a high scorer for the Seals, said the timing of his elevation to coach surprised him. The 29-year-old who will become a playing coach, said his ambition the past few years has been to coach.

"Charlie has shown the leadership and potential to be a good coach," said Swig who added that Poile had recommended the player for the job.

Poile has three years remaining on his contract with the Seals which might be indicative of plans to retain him in the general manager capacity should the organization gain the NHL franchise.

Swig said the likelihood of removing Poile should the club go big league was "minimal."

Burns and Poile both served with Detroit in the NHL. Charlie played with the club starting with the 1958-59 season. Poile, also a former NHL player, was an official in the Detroit organization several years.

Pheasant Season Gets Underway Saturday

By JERRY HARRELL

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's general pheasant season opens Saturday with prospects rated good in most areas.

It's estimated that more than 225,000 hunters will join in the chase for the king of upland game birds during the two-week season.

The general season will continue through Dec. 5 with daily shooting hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The opening day has been delayed this year in six San Joaquin Valley counties to avoid a conflict with crop harvests. The season in the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced and Tulare will be Dec. 11-26.

Two southern counties, Imperial and Riverside, will have a longer season than the rest of the state, opening this Saturday and continuing through Dec. 19.

The bag limit statewide is two birds per day, 10 per season. A hunting license and pheasant tags are required.

Shooting in most of the state is restricted to taking of male pheasants. Hens may be taken in Southern California, including Kern, Inyo, Mono and San Luis Obispo counties.

A look at reports of game managers of the State Fish and Game Department turns up such prospects as "rated as good . . . prime hunting . . . brood counts are up."

Only in the Bag Valley of Shasta County and Modoc County's Tulelake and Surprise Valley areas are prospects listed as only fair.

Over-all populations of ringnecks in the Sacramento Valley are up, and game managers predict good hunting.

"The 1965 hatch may be up 25 per cent or more over that for the previous season," the state's summary of delta conditions said.

Prospects also are good in Stanislaus County, which opens for hunting Saturday instead of with the delayed - opener group of counties for the San Joaquin Valley.

Walter T. Shannon, state fish and game director, cautioned hunters to obtain permission before entering private land to hunt.

For the unattached hunter, there will be eleven community hunting areas plus the Grime Cooperative Hunting Area in the Sacramento Valley.

State and federal waterfowl management areas also will be open to pheasant hunting. Several are loaded with birds and could provide top shooting.

Caffeine Detected At Bay Meadows; Owner Suspended

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — The Bay Meadows stewards said Wednesday they have suspended indefinitely trainer-owner Fern Darling after caffein was found in the urine of Queen's General, winner of the fifth race Monday.

Although parimutuel wagering was unaffected, Queen's General was disqualified and the next three horses moved up a notch each. They were Verna-Star, Polyonio and Embark Briskly. Queen's General forfeited his winning share of $1,200 and the purse was redistributed.

Pheasant Season Gets Underway Saturday

By JERRY HARRELL

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's general pheasant season opens Saturday with prospects rated good in most areas.

It's estimated that more than 225,000 hunters will join in the chase for the king of upland game birds during the two-week season.

The general season will continue through Dec. 5 with daily shooting hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The opening day has been delayed this year in six San Joaquin Valley counties to avoid a conflict with crop harvests. The season in the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced and Tulare will be Dec. 11-26.

Two southern counties, Imperial and Riverside, will have a longer season than the rest of the state, opening this Saturday and continuing through Dec. 19.

The bag limit statewide is two birds per day, 10 per season. A hunting license and pheasant tags are required.

Shooting in most of the state is restricted to taking of male pheasants. Hens may be taken in Southern California, including Kern, Inyo, Mono and San Luis Obispo counties.

A look at reports of game managers of the State Fish and Game Department turns up such prospects as "rated as good . . . prime hunting . . . brood counts are up."

Only in the Bag Valley of Shasta County and Modoc County's Tulelake and Surprise Valley areas are prospects listed as only fair.

Over-all populations of ring-necks in the Sacramento Valley are up, and game managers predict good hunting.

"The 1965 hatch may be up 25 per cent or more over that for the previous season," the state's summary of delta conditions said.

Prospects also are good in Stanislaus County, which opens for hunting Saturday instead of with the delayed - opener group of counties for the San Joaquin Valley.

Walter T. Shannon, state fish and game director, cautioned hunters to obtain permission before entering private land to hunt.

For the unattached hunter, there will be eleven community hunting areas plus the Grime Cooperative Hunting Area in the Sacramento Valley.

State and federal waterfowl management areas also will be open to pheasant hunting. Several are loaded with birds and could provide top shooting.

Caffeine Detected At Bay Meadows; Owner Suspended

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — The Bay Meadows stewards said Wednesday they have suspended indefinitely trainer-owner Fern Darling after caffein was found in the urine of Queen's General, winner of the fifth race Monday.

Although parimutuel wagering was unaffected, Queen's General was disqualified and the next three horses moved up a notch each. They were Verna-Star, Polyonio and Embark Briskly. Queen's General forfeited his winning share of $1,200 and the purse was redistributed.

son, Ind., High School and on West Point intramural teams, said he was a great admirer of Landis.

"But I don't intend to be a czar and, at the same time, I don't intend to live in an ivory tower," said Eckert, who admitted he knew he was being considered for several weeks. "Each person operates differently. Landis was a great commissioner and I had the highest regard for him.

"My authority will be exercised by analyzing, studying and considering. I will not use it dictatorially. I will call the signals as I see them."

Eckert said he was nicknamed Spike at West Point when he was a plebe because of his interest in sports.

"Baseball men can call me Commissioner or General, but I get a kick out of being called Private Spike," he smiled. "That's the name I'm known by in a Washington youth organization of which I'm president."

Since his retirement, Spike has served on many industry and defense advisory boards but plans to leave most of them to devote nearly full time to his new post.

At the U.S. Military Academy, where he graduated in 1930, he was on the Equestrian team and played polo. He still is active in horseback riding, tennis, squash and golf.

Spike was one of two young pursuit pilots selected to attend Harvard graduate school of business and got his master's degree there.

During World War II he commanded the 452nd B-17 bomb group, 8th Air Force, in the European theater of operations. Then followed a series of promotions taking him into the fields of Air Force business management. At the time he on his third star, he was the youngest lieutenant general in all the services.

When the club owners and other baseball brass were grouped for picture-taking ceremonies yesterday, Frick had the best quip of the day when he said:

"Never in 20 years of baseball has this many people been so close together."

Graebner, Ashe Shoot In Semis

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, and Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles, shot into the men's singles semifinals of the New South Wales Tennis Championships today, completing a wave of victories that has placed Americans in at least the semifinals of all events.

Graebner defeated Barry Phillips-Moore of Australia 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4 in the quarter-finals and will meet John Newcombe of Australia in the first semifinal tomorrow.

Ashe set up a Saturday semifinal match with Australian Fred Stolle by beating Ken Fletcher, an Australian living in Hong Kong, 6-1, 6-4, 6-3.

Newcombe eliminated Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5 while Stolle stopped fellow Australian Owen Davidson 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

In a women's doubles semifinal match, Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. Carole Graebner, Clark's wife, whipped Australians Jan Lehane and Madonna Schacht 2-6, 6-1, 6-2.

The victory put Miss Richey and Mrs. Graebner in Saturday's final against Australians Margaret Smith and Lesley Turner, who defeated Judy Tegart and Kerry Melville, also of Australia, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1.

The American pair already has advanced to the semifinals of women's singles with Miss Richey scheduled to meet Gail Sheriff of Australia tomorrow and Mrs. Graebner set to play Miss Smith Saturday.

The Graebners also are in one semifinal of mixed doubles while Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Tegart are in the other.

Indians Stay Out, Bears Go Indoors

STANFORD, Calif. (AP)—The Stanford Indians refuse to go indoors to prepare for Saturday's Big Game against California. But the Bears have displaced their basketball team in Harmon Gym.

"It appears that we're going to have to play on a soft field and we might as well get used to it by practicing on one," said Stanford Coach John Ralston as he led his Indian football team in a rain-drenched outdoor practice yesterday.

Reserve guard Delos Brown was excused from practice because of a heavy cold.

"I'd say we have one of the best mudding teams in the country," said Ralston. "In fact, the only thing that would make us happier for the Big Game would be snow."

Meanwhile, California Coach Ray Willsey put his team indoors for half the 90-minute practice session. The Bears beat Oregon 24-0 last Saturday in wet weather.

"Rain might change our game plan to a degree, but why worry about something you can't do anything about?" said Willsey. "Stick to worrying about something you can."

son, Ind., High School and on West Point intramural teams, said he was a great admirer of Landis.

"But I don't intend to be a czar and, at the same time, I don't intend to live in an ivory tower," said Eckert, who admitted he knew he was being considered for several weeks. "Each person operates differently. Landis was a great commissioner and I had the highest regard for him.

"My authority will be exercised by analyzing, studying and considering. I will not use it dictatorially. I will call the signals as I see them."

Eckert said he was nicknamed Spike at West Point when he was a plebe because of his interest in sports.

"Baseball men can call me Commissioner or General, but I get a kick out of being called Private Spike," he smiled. "That's the name I'm known by in a Washington youth organization of which I'm president."

Since his retirement, Spike has served on many industry and defense advisory boards but plans to leave most of them to devote nearly full time to his new post.

At the U.S. Military Academy, where he graduated in 1930, he was on the Equestrian team and played polo. He still is active in horseback riding, tennis, squash and golf.

Spike was one of two young pursuit pilots selected to attend Harvard graduate school of business and got his master's degree there.

During World War II he commanded the 452nd B-17 bomb group, 8th Air Force, in the European theater of operations. Then followed a series of promotions taking him into the fields of Air Force business management. At the time he on his third star, he was the youngest lieutenant general in all the services.

When the club owners and other baseball brass were grouped for picture-taking ceremonies yesterday, Frick had the best quip of the day when he said:

"Never in 20 years of baseball has this many people been so close together."

Market Closes Lower In Moderate Trading

Kennecott, Anaconda and other copper company shares sank as the administration put pressure of copper prices by clearing the way for release of 200,000 of the metal from the federal stockpile.

The news conflicted with a rash of dividend increases and other special situations that gave the market strength in spots.

Gulf & Western gained sharply. The company owns more than half of New Jersey Zinc, which announced plans for development of a zinc-lead orebody in Canada.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.9 million shares, compared with 9.12 million yesterday.

Copper stocks paced the decline as President Johnson cleared the way for selling 200,000 tons of the metal from the national stockpile to stabilize prices.

Kennecott fell 2½ points and Anaconda was off 3.

Time Inc. rose more than 4 points as the company declared an extra year-end dividend.

Fairchild Camera advanced a point or so and SCM ran up more than a point. Brunswick, Wednesday's most active issue, was fractionally higher.

Drug companies were mixed. Parke Davis gained a fraction and Searle was fractionally lower.

Prices were mixed in heavy trading in the American Stock Exchange. Syntex was up 2 points and National Video advanced a point or so. Canadian Superior Oil and Kiddie and Co. were up more than a point. American Book fell off a point and Benrus dropped more than a point.

Redwood Bank Deposits Rise

Redwood National Bank reported a rebound in deposits to $13,379,775 in its statement of condition of Oct. 13.

The figure reflected an increase of more than 7 per cent from the $12,487,654 reported June 30. At that time Redwood announced an 8 per cent drop from deposits of $13,600,000 on June 30, 1964.

Total assets of $15,473,916 were also up, from $14,615,443 on June 30, but still under the $15,800,000 reported in 1964. Loans were up from $7.8 million last June to more than $8.3 million on Oct. 13.

Still Dancing At Robello Studio; New Interior Decorator Shop

Dancing classes under the name of Robello Dance Studio are continuing at 2130 Fourth Street, San Rafael—former location of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio operated by Robert Kelly Denham.

Mrs. Louise Robello, owner of the property, is a dancing teacher of 21 years and originally opened for Arthur Murray on the Miracle Mile in 1953. She sold in 1962 to David Michael, who turned the business over to Denham early last year.

Michael, I am toid, is now in South Carolina, where he is working for Holiday Magic Cosmetics. Denham, of course, has taken Arthur Murray Studios to Red Hill and Essex Avenues, San Anselmo under a newly issued franchise.

On the Robello staff are Ludwig Dahlberg as dance instructor, Mrs. Robello's daughter Bernice who has been teaching for eight years — also Linda Western and Rex Marquardt, all former instructors in the Arthur Murray operation.

Hours for polishing up on cha-cha-cha or other popular steps for the holidays at Robello's are from 1 to 10 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and to 6 p.m. on Saturdays.

INTERIOR DECORATOR Lorette Larson of San Rafael has established a new shop at 1050 Redwood Highway — on the service road near the Tiburon-Belvedere interchange. It is located in the premises (now completely remodeled) formerly occupied by Draperies, Inc., which has moved to a lower level building in the rear.

Name of the business is Lorette Larson Interiors. Associated in the operation are Mrs. William Bolen of San Francisco and Margaret Vickers of San Anselmo. Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Vickers originated the Designers Showcase series of interior design programs for women's organizations.

The shop offers institutional, commercial and residential interior design services from the blueprint stage to the finished product. Shoppers will find antiques and other furnishings, imports, reproductions, decorative accessories and gifts.

INTERESTING DISPLAY at the Sandal, Inc., in Strawberry Town and Country Village is the "Celebrity Capezios" collection of footwear, which includes dancing shoes used by famous theatrical stars since the early 1900s and created by Salvatore Capezio.

The collection of 36 autographed shoes graced the insteps of the Dolly Sisters, Irene Castle, Tammy Grimes, Mary Martin, Sir Lawrence Olivier, Chita Rivera and a number of others.

The Sandal at Strawberry has been open about three months and is a second outlet for Joyce M. Curry who has operated her Sausalito store about nine years. Robert Boyd of San Francisco is in charge.

BRUCE SCHOENFELD of Ross has set up a new warehouse for his Husky Waterproofing Co. at Northgate Industrial Park. This is in the building of Phil's Plumbing Co. at 123 Carlos Drive. Schoenfeld manufactures industrial waterproofing systems incorporating resins and sealants for flexible joint systems.

DR. R. L. NORMAN of Greenbrae has been appointed engineering associate at the Richmond laboratory of Chevron Research Co. Since joining the company in 1960 he has played a key role in applying computers to petroleum processing design and other chemical engineering problems.

WILLIAM TIMMER REALTOR celebrates the opening of his new Northgate branch office tomorrow and Saturday with free chances to all visitors on 25 turkeys. Salesmen are Charles Dewalt, Hank Greenberg, Jack Ludwig, Timothy O'Leary and Robert (Nook) Ryan. The office is in Northgate Unit One.

THIS YEAR'S Imported Automobile Show will be held in San Francisco next week from Tuesday through Sunday at Brooks Hall in the Civic Center. Many new models will be shown for the first time. Personnel from some of our Marin imported car dealers will take their turns at the displays.

MOST of Marin field underwriters for New York Life are attending a business life insurance seminar in Berkeley today and Friday to brush up on proposed changes in the tax law which may affect life insurance.

Prefabricated walls of concrete with imbedded flagstone are raised at 148 Mitchell Boulevard for the new home of Capitol Insulation Contractors in Northgate Industrial Park. The firm, now at 34 De Luca Place, San Rafael, specializes in thermal and sound deadening insulation for construction. The new building, containing 9,500 square feet of floor space, is due to be completed by the end of this month. Capitol will occupy part of the premises and lease out the balance.

Market Closes Lower In Moderate Trading

Kennecott, Anaconda and other copper company shares sank as the administration put pressure of copper prices by clearing the way for release of 200,000 of the metal from the federal stockpile.

The news conflicted with a rash of dividend increases and other special situations that gave the market strength in spots.

Gulf & Western gained sharply. The company owns more than half of New Jersey Zinc, which announced plans for development of a zinc-lead orebody in Canada.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.9 million shares, compared with 9.12 million yesterday.

Copper stocks paced the decline as President Johnson cleared the way for selling 200,000 tons of the metal from the national stockpile to stabilize prices.

Kennecott fell 2½ points and Anaconda was off 3.

Time Inc. rose more than 4 points as the company declared an extra year-end dividend.

Fairchild Camera advanced a point or so and SCM ran up more than a point. Brunswick, Wednesday's most active issue, was fractionally higher.

Drug companies were mixed. Parke Davis gained a fraction and Searle was fractionally lower.

Prices were mixed in heavy trading in the American Stock Exchange. Syntex was up 2 points and National Video advanced a point or so. Canadian Superior Oil and Kiddie and Co. were up more than a point. American Book fell off a point and Benrus dropped more than a point.

Redwood Bank Deposits Rise

Redwood National Bank reported a rebound in deposits to $13,379,775 in its statement of condition of Oct. 13.

The figure reflected an increase of more than 7 per cent from the $12,487,654 reported June 30. At that time Redwood announced an 8 per cent drop from deposits of $13,600,000 on June 30, 1964.

Total assets of $15,473,916 were also up, from $14,615,443 on June 30, but still under the $15,800,000 reported in 1964. Loans were up from $7.8 million last June to more than $8.3 million on Oct. 13.

Hongkong Bank Due To Open

Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corp., a century-old international banking firm, will dedicate its six-million-dollar, 18-story office building at Pine and Sansome Streets, San Francisco, tomorrow.

The bank was founded in Hong Kong in 1865 and established a San Francisco agency that same year. Recently it has been located at 80 Sutter Street. The local subsidiary deals in both international and domestic services.

Construction was started 13 months ago on the new building, which contains 120,000 square feet of gross floor area. It was designed by Hertzka and Knowles, San Francisco architects. Cahill Construction Co. was the general contractor.

Dedication ceremonies will be at 11:30 a.m., and there will be an open house on the main floor from 3 to 5:45 p.m. The bank will open for business on Monday.

Still Dancing At Robello Studio; New Interior Decorator Shop

Dancing classes under the name of Robello Dance Studio are continuing at 2130 Fourth Street, San Rafael—former location of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio operated by Robert Kelly Denham.

Mrs. Louise Robello, owner of the property, is a dancing teacher of 21 years and originally opened for Arthur Murray on the Miracle Mile in 1953. She sold in 1962 to David Michael, who turned the business over to Denham early last year.

Michael, I am told, is now in South Carolina, where he is working for Holiday Magic Cosmetics. Denham, of course, has taken Arthur Murray Studios to Red Hill and Essex Avenues, San Anselmo under a newly issued franchise.

On the Robello staff are Ludwig Dahlberg as dance instructor, Mrs. Robello's daughter Bernice who has been teaching for eight years — also Linda Western and Rex Marquardt, all former instructors in the Arthur Murray operation.

Hours for polishing up on cha-cha-cha or other popular steps for the holidays at Robello's are from 1 to 10 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and to 6 p.m. on Saturdays.

INTERIOR DECORATOR Lorette Larson of San Rafael has established a new shop at 1050 Redwood Highway — on the service road near the Tiburon-Belvedere interchange. It is located in the premises (now completely remodeled) formerly occupied by Draperies, Inc., which has moved to a lower level building in the rear.

Name of the business is Lorette Larson Interiors. Associated in the operation are Mrs. William Bolen of San Francisco and Margaret Vickers of San Anselmo. Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Vickers originated the Designers Showcase series of interior design programs for women's organizations.

The shop offers institutional, commercial and residential interior design services from the blueprint stage to the finished product. Shoppers will find antiques and other furnishings, imports, reproductions, decorative accessories and gifts.

INTERESTING DISPLAY at the Sandal, Inc., in Strawberry Town and Country Village is the "Celebrity Capezios" collection of footwear, which includes dancing shoes used by famous theatrical stars since the early 1900s and created by Salvatore Capezio.

The collection of 36 autographed shoes graced the insteps of the Dolly Sisters, Irene Castle, Tammy Grimes, Mary Martin, Sir Lawrence Olivier, Chita Rivera and a number of others.

The Sandal at Strawberry has been open about three months and is a second outlet for Joyce M. Curry who has operated her Sausalito store about nine years. Robert Boyd of San Francisco is in charge.

BRUCE SCHOENFELD of Ross has set up a new warehouse for his Husky Waterproofing Co. at Northgate Industrial Park. This is in the building of Phil's Plumbing Co. at 123 Carlos Drive. Schoenfeld manufactures industrial waterproofing systems incorporating resins and sealants for flexible joint systems.

DR. R. L. NORMAN of Greenbrae has been appointed engineering associate at the Richmond laboratory of Chevron Research Co. Since joining the company in 1960 he has played a key role in applying computers to petroleum processing design and other chemical engineering problems.

WILLIAM TIMMER REALTOR celebrates the opening of his new Northgate branch office tomorrow and Saturday with free chances to all visitors on 25 turkeys. Salesmen are Charles Dewalt, Hank Greenberg, Jack Ludwig, Timothy O'Leary and Robert (Nook) Ryan. The office is in Northgate Unit One.

THIS YEAR'S Imported Automobile Show will be held in San Francisco next week from Tuesday through Sunday at Brooks Hall in the Civic Center. Many new models will be shown for the first time. Personnel from some of our Marin imported car dealers will take their turns at the displays.

MOST of Marin field underwriters for New York Life are attending a business life insurance seminar in Berkeley today and Friday to brush up on proposed changes in the tax law which may affect life insurance.

Beautification Should Be Goal For Personal Efforts

Some may chuckle at the Highway Beautification Bill, sometimes referred to as "Lady Bird's bill" because of the First Lady's interest in its passage.

Obviously, however, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's interest in beautification goes far beyond the confines of highways. She is thinking in terms of beautifying and cleaning up parks, schoolgrounds, and other public places as well as highways.

Some of the suggestions made by her have local appeal, both from the standpoint of practical application and the fact that large public outlays are not required.

Mrs. Johnson makes this suggestion in the National Education Assn. Journal:

"School children are the most natural allies of beautification, and you as educators are in a position to help them appreciate their immediate world, particularly through art and science classes."

She suggests that children be divided into cleanup teams to brighten parks with flowers, weed overgrown lots, repair fences, and clean up littered areas.

Commenting on one Washington, D.C., school cleanup project, she points out: "Before the project, school windows were broken frequently, but none have been broken in the project area since the schools were spruced up."

Planting and cleanup projects need not be limited to the schools and the school year. They can be taken up by other youth and conservation groups, either year round or during summer vacation.

The possibilities are limitless. The education journal reports some youth groups are planting flowers and trees on school grounds and distributing anti-litter posters, litter bags and trash baskets.

One national honor society built trash boxes, placed them at the school exits, then sold the waste paper collected.

Such projects by youth groups can serve a two-fold purpose.

First of all, youngsters who would normally give vent to their energy in destructive activities, would be given something constructive to occupy what leisure time they may have.

And more important, they would automatically acquire new appreciation and pride in their school grounds, in gardens and parks which they once took for granted.

Even after they have outgrown these projects, they would be less likely to uproot shrubs, damage lawns, or destroy school or park property which they once helped to beautify.

"National beautification", at first glance, may sound broad and impersonal. But with proper local application, it can have real meaning to all.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

YOUTHS PLANT 1,500 TREES

A group of 20 teen-agers planted 1,500 evergreen trees in less than 6 hours recently in Lebanon, N.J.

The students, all volunteers aged 12 to 19, started at 9 in the morning and worked until 3:30, with an hour for lunch.

The seedlings were planted on a one and one-half acre area as the first step in a conservation program that seeks to control erosion as well as to make a 2,300-acre section suitable for recreation.

Officials praised the young people for "doing a very good job," and said they were anxious to teach them "good land use."

If a more imaginative and persistent effort were made by adults to find meaningful, constructive outlets for youthful energy, boys and girls—as well as everybody else—would stand to benefit.

God is most generous in instilling in every child a bit of His divine power. But He expects them to be helped first in unlocking it and then in applying it in a way that will benefit everyone.

"Train a boy in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not swerve from it."
(Proverbs 22:6)

Governor Throttles Attempt For Legislative Pension Grab

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Decision of Gov. Edmund G. Brown to veto Senate Bill 13, passed in the final stages of the special legislative session to correct some errors in the origional reapportionment measure, but containing a rider increasing legislative retirement to windfall benefits, marks a move which should be pleasing to taxpayers.

Even before the amendment was adopted, legislative retirement constitutes one of the most lucrative pay-offs in the state for government service. The benefits are well over and above those accorded state civil service employees, which causes an unusual but probably justified amount of "griping" on the part of the public workers.

ADOPTION OF the amendment, which can be said to have been done by the conference committee which reported the final bill more or less in secret, as the committee's sessions were executive, appears to have been nothing less than an attempt to impugn on the generosity of the people as a "reward" to those who may lose seats in the Legislature as a result of reapportionment.

The amendment, the governor said, could have increased retirements to as much as $210,000 for a 40-year-old legislator, over and above what he might expect from regular retirements.

"BY MY VETO," the governor declared, "I hope to make it clear that such back-door approaches to legislative salaries are not acceptable in California."

The governor is asking the State Supreme Court to recognize the corrections to reapportionment provided for in the bill, and thereby carry out its original intent, without the necessity of placing the rider amendment calling for increased retirements into effect.

The fact that the Legislature, in the closing hours of a session, or at any other time for that matter, can and does override its own rules to "sneak through" measures for its own benefit, regardless of drains on the taxpayer, constitutes a defect which inures to the detriment of the rights of the people. Regardless of the subject, the basis of all legislation is coupled with a complete understanding, or opportunity to understand, what laws the legislature is making.

ON THE SUBJECT of retirement benefits, the legislature voted itself an extra liberal system. Not only are legislators included in that system, but also elective state officials. Without the cooperation of a governor, and Governor Brown wasn't in office when the original bill was passed, the liberalities could have been passed up.

With retirement systems the vogue for almost everyone, it is assumed the public would have no qualms about sponsoring retirement benefits for legislators on a reasonable basis, even though the public never has had opportunity to vote on the subject. But signals of abuse easily could lead to a wave of resentment.

'Favoritism' Charge Wrong

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Warren Robinson's charge to the San Rafael City Council of "favoritism" by our "Meter Maids" once again seems to prove how easy it is for some to strike out and criticize the most convenient target when the net result is a less than subtle reflection upon our entire Police Department.

. . . Few towns protect their citizens and merchants as does the City of San Rafael and, for that matter, the County of Marin. This obviously is the result of a general competency on the part of our law enforcement officers and exceptional cooperation between all branches, regardless of subdivision or department.

Members of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce have worked closely with our mayors and city council, as well as our Police Department, to materially improve the parking situation in downtown San Rafael. Admittedly, we still have a ways to go.

Toward this end, we need all the cooperation and support that we can get from our local merchants in backing our Chamber program. It was therefore disappointing to find Mr. Robinson's name does not appear on the membership roster of the Chamber of Commerce.

I would like to extend an invitation to you, Mr. Robinson, to avail yourself of the many advantages of the progressive programs now underway among your fellow merchants through the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. These programs are based on constructive criticism, awareness and cooperation with the City Departments.

My suggestion to you, Mr. Robinson, would be to support your community in its problems instead of blindly knocking it. You'll look a long way to find a better place to live and work.

Thanks For Help In An Emergency

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to take this means to thank the two kind ladies who stopped and rendered assistance when my husband was stricken with a fatal heart attack on Oct. 26 at the 101 underpass at Corte Madera. I did not learn their names so cannot thank them personally.

The kindness of the above ladies as well as the Larkspur police, the Larkspur ambulance, the kind nurse at Marin General Hospital will long be remembered. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and may God bless all of you for your kindness to me.

Vanishing American Returning To Sioux?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I met a friend of mine the other day who is an admitted conservative (that painful carbuncle on the body politic) and he said he felt he was joining the Sioux as the vanishing American.

However, he said, before he disappeared altogether, he would like to prophesy that the next America revolution would, of necessity, be a bloody one; because the bourgeois hierarchy of the Politburo would be hard to unseat.

He asked me if I could imagine a future when the present campus commies were stodgy, middle-aged comrades, each busy at his appointed task, and their kids were whooping it up on the quad with signs like, "GIVE US BACK FREE ENTERPRISE" or "DOWN WITH THE COMINTERN."

I said, no, I couldn't imagine it, because one sign like that and junior's head would roll! He said I got the picture!

Then he had to hurry on because he had to appear before the local P-TA, of which he is a member, to prove he did not belong to—not the Communist Party, USA, mind you — but to a right wing group!

Can you beat that?

Resident Protests Secret Meeting

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Ralph M. Brown act Forbids closed meetings of municipal governing bodies except for hiring, firing or hearing charges against an employee. This closed meeting then that was held with the Kentfield Fire Commission regarding the widening of Sir Francis Drake is in direct violation of this state law.

Why should the Kentfield Fire District be given the information and the taxpayers, whose properties are involved, be discriminated against. These various public bodies get togehter, discuss things amongst themselves, the school districts want this, the fire districts want that, the department of public works wants something else and the taxpayer is set up as the patsy. . .

How can we property owners work out a solution to our traffic and parking problems when the department of public works ignores them and tells them they have no idea of where, what or when this widening is to take place and yet they see fit to discuss these matters at a closed meeting with other agencies. . .

Many thanks to an alert Independent-Journal for their article in the Nov. 11 paper for bringing this closed meeting into the open. . .

Before any matter is discussed at the planning commission meetings, the board of supervisors meetings or these different districts, the agenda for these meetings should be advertised in the Independent and anything not advertised should not be heard. This goes for all original or continued hearings. . .

The property owner should demand his rights and write to his supervisor asking that a county law be established making it mandatory for all agendas to be published in the paper so that all concerned will know what is happening in his area or to his property.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

THE LATE, dynamic, heavily bearded sculptor, Jo Davidson, whose head of Franklin D. Roosevelt sold in the hundreds of thousands in replicas at various prices, made the grade for the first time when he was commissioned to do a bust of the daughter of one of society's most exacting—and wealthiest—patronesses.

When the bust was completed, Mama rode downtown to study it through her upraised lorgnette. "It's good," she admitted, "but the mouth's too big." "It is nothing of the sort," contradicted Davidson, and proved it by measuring his live model's mouth and then the bust with a tape measure. "Nevertheless," persisted Mama, "I still say the mouth's too big." "That settles it," roared Davidson, and threw her his sculptor's tool. "Finish it yourself," he told her.

FINISH IT YOURSELF, MA'AM!
CAMP

Mama stormed out of the studio, but later gave a big party for Davidson, pointing him out as "the one artist she had been unable to intimidate." Davidson lived in Paris luxuriously for a whole year on the proceeds.

ONE OF THE first deluxe theatres built in New York was the Park, completed in 1798, and located on then fashionable Park Row and Ann Street. The traffic jam on opening night caused such problems for the constabulary that this sign was painted for subsequent performances: "Ladies and Gentlemen will please direct their servants to sit down with their horses' heads towards the New Brick Meeting House, and take up with their horses' heads towards Broadway."

Computer Runs Monster Bakery, Even Sends Bills For The Cake

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND and SAM ZAGORIA
(Second in a Series)

(Mr. Zagoria is a member of the National Labor Relations Board and former assistant to Sen. Clifford Case of New Jersey.)

HERE'S HOW it works:

The computer sets the daily production goal for each product, knowing that it must keep inventory of all bulk ingredients—how much has been ordered, how much is on hand. It meters out the proper amount of milk, sugar, flour, and eggs, moving ingredients from storage into mixers and running the mixtures at the right speed for the time required. It alerts workers to add what machines can't do.

Electronic quality controls are posted all along the assembly line and baker-engineers watch the marching batter. Doughs and batters are prepared under controlled temperature and humidity conditions in individual aluminum pans and march 12 abreast—into ovens 110 feet long. At the end of the oven is a cooler and then an icy blast takes the cake down to 40 degrees below.

After icing and packaging, cartons are piled automatically on wooden pallets and guided into a holding freezer the size of a football field. Here, almost 8 million cakes are stacked by automated cranes and when ordered are retrieved by the cranes and put on conveyors moving to waiting trucks or railroad cars. The computer knows exactly what cake is on hand, where every cake is, and when it was baked.

WHEN ORDERS come, the stock is moved by the computer on a first-in, first-out basis. The procedure is so fast that when a truck arrives at the front gate with an order for various items, by the time the driver pulls into the shipping dock, a fork lift is waiting with the cakes stacked neatly on a pallet.

The lift rides onto the truck, unloads, and the computer sends off a bill for the goodies and makes note that tonight it has to make more cakes, and it can—at the rate of 30,000 an hour, 24 hours a day.

There are 1,000 workers in the plant, but if there is a little old cakemaker, he comes out only on payday.

MOST OF the manpower is made up of assembly-line watchers and they look as if they are more familiar with screwdriver than rolling pin.

Massachusetts Battle Due For Governor

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The Massachusetts gubernatorial race is still months away, but the intense maneuvering and jockeying for the Democratic nomination is already taking on national significance.

Striking illustration of this is the inside word being put out by Washington friends of Kenneth O'Donnell, former White House assistant to Presidents Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

THEY ARE SAYING O'Donnell will announce his candidacy at a Boston political rally before the end of the year—probably Dec. 22—and that he will have the active backing of Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., a close friend.

O'Donnell's principal opponent will be former State Atty. Gen. Edward McCormack, nephew of Speaker John McCormack, who is already busy rounding up support from potential delegates to next spring's Democratic convention.

McCormack, 41, who was defeated by Sen. Edward ("Ted") Kennedy in a bitter 1962 primary contest, will have the powerful backing of Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

While Senator Kennedy is remaining tight-lipped on his choice for governor, O'Donnell's friends are claiming an endorsement will come at a politically strategic time.

AS GROUNDS FOR that belief, they point out that Kennedy has told Senate colleagues he will take a definite stand in the gubernatorial struggle, and that he will make his position known in advance of the state convention.

O'Donnell partisans also are stressing that a number of Kennedy organization workers have pledged their support to O'Donnell — something they would never do without Kennedy's knowledge and approval.

It is also asserted that other Kennedy assistants have profferred sizable campaign contributions to O'Donnell.

ANOTHER POSSIBLE explosive element in the impending O'Donnell-McCormack clash is the book the former is writing about President Kennedy with two other members of the "Irish Mafia," Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien and David Powers, a former White House aide.

The O'Donnell-Powers portion of the book, which has been completed, reputedly contains some unflattering references about President Johnson before he succeeded Kennedy.

Publication of the book, due early next year, is still uncertain because O'Brien has not submitted his part. The new Cabinet member has put more than 60 hours of reminiscences on tape, but is still undecided whether to go through with the project.

If the O'Donnell-Powers portion of the book is published, McCormack is reported to be prepared to use it to highlight the political split between O'Donnell and President Johnson while emphasizing his close relationship with the latter.

THE SENATE Communications Subcommittee's investigation of so-called "extremist broadcasts" is scheduled to start public hearings today.

Beautification Should Be Goal For Personal Efforts

Some may chuckle at the Highway Beautification Bill, sometimes referred to as "Lady Bird's bill" because of the First Lady's interest in its passage.

Obviously, however, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's interest in beautification goes far beyond the confines of highways. She is thinking in terms of beautifying and cleaning up parks, schoolgrounds, and other public places as well as highways.

Some of the suggestions made by her have local appeal, both from the standpoint of practical application and the fact that large public outlays are not required.

Mrs. Johnson makes this suggestion in the National Education Assn. Journal:

"School children are the most natural allies of beautification, and you as educators are in a position to help them appreciate their immediate world, particularly through art and science classes."

She suggests that children be divided into cleanup teams to brighten parks with flowers, weed overgrown lots, repair fences, and clean up littered areas.

Commenting on one Washington, D.C., school cleanup project, she points out: "Before the project, school windows were broken frequently, but none have been broken in the project area since the schools were spruced up."

Planting and cleanup projects need not be limited to the schools and the school year. They can be taken up by other youth and conservation groups, either year round or during summer vacation.

The possibilities are limitless. The education journal reports some youth groups are planting flowers and trees on school grounds and distributing anti-litter posters, litter bags and trash baskets.

One national honor society built trash boxes, placed them at the school exits, then sold the waste paper collected.

Such projects by youth groups can serve a two-fold purpose.

First of all, youngsters who would normally give vent to their energy in destructive activities, would be given something constructive to occupy what leisure time they may have.

And more important, they would automatically acquire new appreciation and pride in their school grounds, in gardens and parks which they once took for granted.

Even after they have outgrown these projects, they would be less likely to uproot shrubs, damage lawns, or destroy school or park property which they once helped to beautify.

"National beautification", at first glance, may sound broad and impersonal. But with proper local application, it can have real meaning to all.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

YOUTHS PLANT 1,500 TREES

A group of 20 teen-agers planted 1,500 evergreen trees in less than 6 hours recently in Lebanon, N.J.

The students, all volunteers aged 12 to 19, started at 9 in the morning and worked until 3:30, with an hour for lunch.

The seedlings were planted on a one and one-half acre area as the first step in a conservation program that seeks to control erosion as well as to make a 2,300-acre section suitable for recreation.

Officials praised the young people for "doing a very good job," and said they were anxious to teach them "good land use."

If a more imaginative and persistent effort were made by adults to find meaningful, constructive outlets for youthful energy, boys and girls—as well as everybody else—would stand to benefit.

God is most generous in instilling in every child a bit of His divine power. But He expects them to be helped first in unlocking it and then in applying it in a way that will benefit everyone.

"Train a boy in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not swerve from it."

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Decision of Gov. Edmund G. Brown to veto Senate Bill 13, passed in the final stages of the special legislative session to correct some errors in the origional reapportionment measure, but containing a rider increasing legislative retirement to windfall benefits, marks a move which should be pleasing to taxpayers.

Even before the amendment was adopted, legislative retirement constitutes one of the most lucrative pay-offs in the state for government service. The benefits are well over and above those accorded state civil service employees, which causes an unusual but probably justified amount of "griping" on the part of the public workers.

ADOPTION OF the amendment, which can be said to have been done by the conference committee which reported the final bill more or less in secret, as the committee's sessions were executive, appears to have been nothing less than an attempt to impugn on the generosity of the people as a "reward" to those who may lose seats in the Legislature as a result of reapportionment.

The amendment, the governor said, could have increased retirements to as much as $210,000 for a 40-year-old legislator, over and above what he might expect from regular retirements.

"BY MY VETO," the governor declared, "I hope to make it clear that such back-door approaches to legislative salaries are not acceptable in California."

The governor is asking the State Supreme Court to recognize the corrections to reapportionment provided for in the bill, and thereby carry out its original intent, without the necessity of placing the rider amendment calling for increased retirements into effect.

The fact that the Legislature, in the closing hours of a session, or at any other time for that matter, can and does override its own rules to "sneak through" measures for its own benefit, regardless of drains on the taxpayer, constitutes a defect which inures to the detriment of the rights of the people. Regardless of the subject, the basis of all legislation is coupled with a complete understanding, or opportunity to understand, what laws the legislature is making.

ON THE SUBJECT of retirement benefits, the legislature voted itself an extra liberal system. Not only are legislators included in that system, but also elective state officials. Without the cooperation of a governor, and Governor Brown wasn't in office when the original bill was passed, the liberalities could have been passed up.

With retirement systems the vogue for almost everyone, it is assumed the public would have no qualms about sponsoring retirement benefits for legislators on a reasonable basis, even though the public never has had opportunity to vote on the subject. But signals of abuse easily could lead to a wave of resentment.

'Favoritism' Charge Wrong

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Warren Robinson's charge to the San Rafael City Council of "favoritism" by our "Meter Maids" once again seems to prove how easy it is for some to strike out and criticize the most convenient target when the net result is a less than subtle reflection upon our entire Police Department.

. . . Few towns protect their citizens and merchants as does the City of San Rafael and, for that matter, the County of Marin. This obviously is the result of a general competency on the part of our law enforcement officers and exceptional cooperation between all branches, regardless of subdivision or department.

Members of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce have worked closely with our mayors and city council, as well as our Police Department, to materially improve the parking situation in downtown San Rafael. Admittedly, we still have a ways to go.

Toward this end, we need all the cooperation and support that we can get from our local merchants in backing our Chamber program. It was therefore disappointing to find Mr. Robinson's name does not appear on the membership roster of the Chamber of Commerce.

I would like to extend an invitation to you, Mr. Robinson, to avail yourself of the many advantages of the progressive programs now underway among your fellow merchants through the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. These programs are based on constructive criticism, awareness and cooperation with the City Departments.

My suggestion to you, Mr. Robinson, would be to support your community in its problems instead of blindly knocking it. You'll look a long way to find a better place to live and work.

Thanks For Help In An Emergency

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to take this means to thank the two kind ladies who stopped and rendered assistance when my husband was stricken with a fatal heart attack on Oct. 26 at the 101 underpass at Corte Madera. I did not learn their names so cannot thank them personally.

The kindness of the above ladies as well as the Larkspur police, the Larkspur ambulance, the kind nurse at Marin General Hospital will long be remembered. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and may God bless all of you for your kindness to me.

Vanishing American Returning To Sioux?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I met a friend of mine the other day who is an admitted conservative (that painful carbuncle on the body politic) and he said he felt he was joining the Sioux as the vanishing American.

However, he said, before he disappeared altogether, he would like to prophesy that the next America revolution would, of necessity, be a bloody one; because the bourgeois hierarchy of the Politburo would be hard to unseat.

He asked me if I could imagine a future when the present campus commies were stodgy, middle-aged comrades, each busy at his appointed task, and their kids were whooping it up on the quad with signs like, "GIVE US BACK FREE ENTERPRISE" or "DOWN WITH THE COMINTERN."

I said, no, I couldn't imagine it, because one sign like that and junior's head would roll! He said I got the picture!

Then he had to hurry on because he had to appear before the local P-TA, of which he is a member, to prove he did not belong to—not the Communist Party, USA, mind you — but to a right wing group!

Can you beat that?

Resident Protests Secret Meeting

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Ralph M. Brown act Forbids closed meetings of municipal governing bodies except for hiring, firing or hearing charges against an employee. This closed meeting then that was held with the Kentfield Fire Commission regarding the widening of Sir Francis Drake is in direct violation of this state law.

Why should the Kentfield Fire District be given the information and the taxpayers, whose properties are involved, be discriminated against. These various public bodies get togehter, discuss things amongst themselves, the school districts want this, the fire districts want that, the department of public works wants something else and the taxpayer is set up as the patsy. . .

How can we property owners work out a solution to our traffic and parking problems when the department of public works ignores them and tells them they have no idea of where, what or when this widening is to take place and yet they see fit to discuss these matters at a closed meeting with other agencies. . .

Many thanks to an alert Independent-Journal for their article in the Nov. 11 paper for bringing this closed meeting into the open. . .

Before any matter is discussed at the planning commission meetings, the board of supervisors meetings or these different districts, the agenda for these meetings should be advertised in the Independent and anything not advertised should not be heard. This goes for all original or continued hearings. . .

The property owner should demand his rights and write to his supervisor asking that a county law be established making it mandatory for all agendas to be published in the paper so that all concerned will know what is happening in his area or to his property.

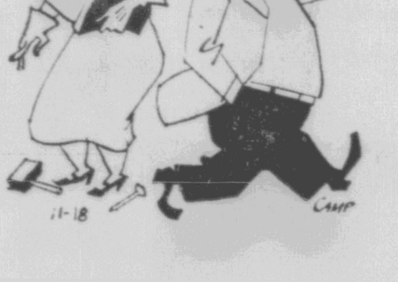
BENNETT CERF

THE LATE, dynamic, heavily bearded sculptor, Jo Davidson, whose head of Franklin D. Roosevelt sold in the hundreds of thousands in replicas at various prices, made the grade for the first time when he was commissioned to do a bust of the daughter of one of society's most exacting—and wealthiest—patronesses.

When the bust was completed, Mama rode downtown to study it through her upraised lorgnette. "It's good," she admitted, "but the mouth's too big." "It is nothing of the sort," contradicted Davidson, and proved it by measuring his live model's mouth and then the bust with a tape measure. "Nevertheless," persisted Mama, "I still say the mouth's too big." "That settles it," roared Davidson, and threw her his sculptor's tool. "Finish it yourself," he told her.

Mama stormed out of the studio, but later gave a big party for Davidson, pointing him out as "the one artist she had been unable to intimidate." Davidson lived in Paris luxuriously for a whole year on the proceeds.



ONE OF THE first deluxe theatres built in New York was the Park, completed in 1798, and located on then fashionable Park Row and Ann Street. The traffic jam on opening night caused such problems for the constabulary that this sign was painted for subsequent performances: "Ladies and Gentlemen will please direct their servants to sit down with their horses' heads towards the New Brick Meeting House, and take up with their horses' heads towards Broadway."

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND and SAM ZAGORIA
(Second in a Series)

(Mr. Zagoria is a member of the National Labor Relations Board and former assistant to Sen. Clifford Case of New Jersey.)

HERE'S HOW it works:

The computer sets the daily production goal for each product, knowing that it must keep inventory of all bulk ingredients—how much has been ordered, how much is on hand. It meters out the proper amount of milk, sugar, flour, and eggs, moving ingredients from storage into mixers and running the mixtures at the right speed for the time required. It alerts workers to add what machines can't do.

Electronic quality controls are posted all along the assembly line and baker-engineers watch the marching batter. Doughs and batters are prepared under controlled temperature and humidity conditions in individual aluminum pans and march 12 abreast—into ovens 110 feet long. At the end of the oven is a cooler and then an icy blast takes the cake down to 40 degrees below.

After icing and packaging, cartons are piled automatically on wooden pallets and guided into a holding freezer the size of a football field. Here, almost 8 million cakes are stacked by automated cranes and when ordered are retrieved by the cranes and put on conveyors moving to waiting trucks or railroad cars. The computer knows exactly what cake is on hand, where every cake is, and when it was baked.

WHEN ORDERS come, the stock is moved by the computer on a first-in, first-out basis. The procedure is so fast that when a truck arrives at the front gate with an order for various items, by the time the driver pulls into the shipping dock, a fork lift is waiting with the cakes stacked neatly on a pallet.

The lift rides onto the truck, unloads, and the computer sends off a bill for the goodies and makes note that tonight it has to make more cakes, and it can—at the rate of 30,000 an hour, 24 hours a day.

There are 1,000 workers in the plant, but if there is a little old cakemaker, he comes out only on payday.

MOST OF the manpower is made up of assembly-line watchers and they look as if they are more familiar with screwdriver than rolling pin.

Seabee, Proud Family Are Cast In Poignant Role At Restaurant

A tall, straight-backed youth, perhaps just starting to shave, definitely not much more than a year out of high school, a boy by most standards, a young man because of his unpleasant job -- the young Navy Seabee walks in with his proud family.

THE FAMILY—Mother, little sister, young wife and small baby—choose their seats with an eye towards the view of the sailor, home from the war. The three women, all at the same time, vye for the attention of the son, brother, husband they have not seen for months. They question and listen, joke and smile, but mostly watch with covetous eyes this young man who probably won't be home again for several months.

Other coffee sippers look up, watch and listen to this happy family. Drifts of conversation over clattering dishes: "Forty-five miles from camp, in the jungle, when they radioed about the baby. Hours before I could get back and find out," And "you'd think they could do better than that," and "you look tired, like you haven't been sleeping." And "you don't sleep too heavily there. Never know when it might be your last."

TELL THIS young man and his family that the war he is helping to fight is senseless, immoral. Tell them he is a war criminal, according to something called Nuremburg decisions. Tell them we should just have refused to serve his country.

Just try to tell them that.

ALL OFF DUTY Corte Madera policemen were told to report to the office at 3:30 p.m. Friday. Officers on duty were called in from their beats. The emergency? Just so the force could sing out a surprise happy birthday for police and fire chief Frank L. Nelson.

"I don't think he was very surprised," said police secretary Marilyn R. Wilson. "They all came into the building and stood waiting, outside his office. They made a lot of noise. He must have suspected something."

Asked about his age, Nelson, whose birthday was actually Saturday, responded: "Not for publication!"

AT THE LAST MEETING of the San Anselmo City Council, real estate man Marius Cordone was told that to avoid abatement, he would have to make several repairs on a house at 721 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and have it inspected for termites.

"I'm not going to have any termite inspection," Cordone told the council. "I could show you lots of buildings in this city with termites, including this building right here (reference to city hall).

The councilmen laughed nervously and rescinded their request. "It seems to me this should be a matter of free choice," said Councilman Cedric E. Clute.

City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt explained that the city made heavy repairs of termite damage in city hall three years ago. Asked if the problem still exists, he said.

"Oh, I imagine it does. We are sitting on this damp ground here you know."

'The Honorable Omar' Desires To Dismount From His Camel

NEW YORK (AP) — Omar Sharif, the most famous film sheik since Rudolph Valentino, thinks it is time the public let him down off his camel.

THE YOUNG Egyptian-born actor, who won an Academy Award nomination for his portrayal several years ago of Shiek Ali in "Lawrence of Arabia," remarked:

"Many think I always wore robes and rode a camel. This is untrue. I hardly ever saw a camel before except on a cigarette box.

"It's hard to shake the image created by your first success. Most of the time one doesn't succeed in shaking it. But that is better than to have to try to shake the image of your first flop."

Slender, still in his early 30s, Omar is good-natured, somewhat shy in manner. As Michel Shalhoub, son of a Syrian lumber importer, he was reared in Cairo and graduated from an English college there. A year later he turned to acting after he found the lumber business left him with a wooden feeling.

He made a couple of dozen films in Cairo, became a star in the Arab world, and married Faten Hamama, Egypt's best-known actress. They have a son, Tarek, 8.

HE PICKED the name Omar Sharif — which means "the honorable Omar"—because of its sound. But when he first appeared on the "Lawrence of Arabia" sets, Irish actor Peter O'Toole objected:

"Nobody could be called Omar Shariff. I'm going to call you 'Cairo Fred.' "

"Orientals are violin people," he remarked. "They are emotional and sentimental and self-indulgent.

"In Egyptian melodramas your success was judged by how much you could make the audience cry. Since then I've had to learn emotional restraint — to realize that the most moving thing is not someone actually crying, but someone who wants to cry and is fighting it."

Sharif, a cultural man who speaks six languages, said that as an Oriental he had met with some difficulties in adjusting to the Western tempo.

"IT IS SO speedy," he observed drily. "I try to sleep as long as possible because it is the slowest thing I know.

"An Oriental, as long as he has food enough for this day, neither works nor worries about tomorrow.

"But I suppose speed is necessary in the larger cities of Europe and America because life there is so tough and competitive. If you don't keep at it, someone will take your place."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Marin County applied for federal funds to help construct a municipal seaplane landing area in Richardson Bay.

The Marin County Planning Commission approved commercial zoning for a $500,000 shopping center in Santa Venetia, but withheld approval for further study on another shopping center in nearby Gallinas Village.

20 YEARS AGO

Frank Rusalem and Associates formed a $2 million corporation, Madera Gardens, to develop a tract in the Corte 'Madera-Larkspur flats, proposed to be one of the largest housing developments in the North Bay.

Irked by refusal of the city council to meet their request for a 15 per cent pay boost, all members of the Mill Valley Fire Department, except Chief Leslie Armager, handed in resignations effective in two weeks.

Drake Widening Study Is Due For Hearing

The Marin County Department of Public Works has not yet completed final studies on widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Laurel Grove Avenue and Ross town limits, though a public hearing is slated before the county planning commission Dec. 6.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said studies would be completed in time for him to make a recommendation prior to the hearing.

An additional 50 to 60 feet must be acquired, Frost said.

The present road is 40 to 46 feet wide on a total right of way width of 60 to 65 feet. This includes paving for only two lanes, one each way.

Frost said the county, aided by state funds, intends to widen the stretch of boulevard to a width of 100 feet on a minimum right of way of 110 feet. This will provide four lanes, each 12 feet wide, a 16-foot median strip, eight feet on each side for parking, and 10 more feet on each side for walks.

Frost said the basic alternates under study to gain the additional 50 to 60 feet are taking an equal amount on either side of the existing right of way, or taking all from one side or the other.

Seabee, Proud Family Are Cast In Poignant Role At Restaurant

A tall, straight-backed youth, perhaps just starting to shave, definitely not much more than a year out of high school, a boy by most standards, a young man because of his unpleasant job — the young Navy Seabee walks in with his proud family.

THE FAMILY—Mother, little sister, young wife and small baby—choose their seats with an eye towards the view of the sailor, home from the war. The three women, all at the same time, vye for the attention of the son, brother, husband they have not seen for months. They question and listen, joke and smile, but mostly watch with covetous eyes this young man who probably won't be home again for several months.

Other coffee sippers look up, watch and listen to this happy family. Drifts of conversation over clattering dishes: "Forty-five miles from camp, in the jungle, when they radioed about the baby. Hours before I could get back and find out," And "you'd think they could do better than that." and "you look tired, like you haven't been sleeping." And "you don't sleep too heavily there. Never know when it might be your last."

TELL THIS young man and his family that the war he is helping to fight is senseless, immoral. Tell them he is a war criminal, according to something called Nuremburg decisions. Tell them we should just have refused to serve his country.

Just try to tell them that.

ALL OFF DUTY Corte Madera policemen were told to report to the office at 3:30 p.m. Friday. Officers on duty were called in from their beats. The emergency? Just so the force could sing out a surprise happy birthday for police and fire chief Frank L. Nelson.

"I don't think he was very surprised," said police secretary Marilyn R. Wilson. "They all came into the building and stood waiting, outside his office. They made a lot of noise. He must have suspected something."

Asked about his age, Nelson, whose birthday was actually Saturday, responded: "Not for publication!"

AT THE LAST MEETING of the San Anselmo City Council, real estate man Marius Cordone was told that to avoid abatement, he would have to make several repairs on a house at 721 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and have it inspected for termites.

"I'm not going to have any termite inspection," Cordone told the council. "I could show you lots of buildings in this city with termites, including this building right here (reference to city hall).

The councilmen laughed nervously and rescinded their request. "It seems to me this should be a matter of free choice," said Councilman Cedric E. Clute.

City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt explained that the city made heavy repairs of termite damage in city hall three years ago. Asked if the problem still exists, he said.

"Oh, I imagine it does. We are sitting on this damp ground here you know."

'The Honorable Omar' Desires To Dismount From His Camel

NEW YORK (AP) — Omar Sharif, the most famous film sheik since Rudolph Valentino, thinks it is time the public let him down off his camel.

THE YOUNG Egyptian-born actor, who won an Academy Award nomination for his portrayal several years ago of Shiek Ali in "Lawrence of Arabia," remarked:

"Many think I always wore robes and rode a camel. This is untrue. I hardly ever saw a camel before except on a cigarette box.

"It's hard to shake the image created by your first success. Most of the time one doesn't succeed in shaking it. But that is better than to have to try to shake the image of your first flop."

Slender, still in his early 30s, Omar is good-natured, somewhat shy in manner. As Michel Shalhoub, son of a Syrian lumber importer, he was reared in Cairo and graduated from an English college there. A year later he turned to acting after he found the lumber business left him with a wooden feeling.

He made a couple of dozen films in Cairo, became a star in the Arab world, and married Faten Hamama, Egypt's best-known actress. They have a son, Tarek, 8.

HE PICKED the name Omar Sharif — which means "the honorable Omar"—because of its sound. But when he first appeared on the "Lawrence of Arabia" sets, Irish actor Peter O'Toole objected:

"Nobody could be called Omar Shariff. I'm going to call you 'Cairo Fred.' "

"Orientals are violin people," he remarked. "They are emotional and sentimental and self-indulgent.

"In Egyptian melodramas your success was judged by how much you could make the audience cry. Since then I've had to learn emotional restraint — to realize that the most moving thing is not someone actually crying, but someone who wants to cry and is fighting it."

Sharif, a cultural man who speaks six languages, said that as an Oriental he had met with some difficulties in adjusting to the Western tempo.

"IT IS SO speedy," he observed drily. "I try to sleep as long as possible because it is the slowest thing I know.

"An Oriental, as long as he has food enough for this day, neither works nor worries about tomorrow.

"But I suppose speed is necessary in the larger cities of Europe and America because life there is so tough and competitive. If you don't keep at it, someone will take your place."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Marin County applied for federal funds to help construct a municipal seaplane landing area in Richardson Bay.

The Marin County Planning Commission approved commercial zoning for a $500,000 shopping center in Santa Venetia, but withheld approval for further study on another shopping center in nearby Gallinas Village.

20 YEARS AGO

Frank Rusalem and Associates formed a $2 million corporation, Madera Gardens, to develop a tract in the Corte 'Madera-Larkspur flats, proposed to be one of the largest housing developments in the North Bay.

Irked by refusal of the city council to meet their request for a 15 per cent pay boost, all members of the Mill Valley Fire Department, except Chief Leslie Armager, handed in resignations effective in two weeks.

Drake Widening Study Is Due For Hearing

The Marin County Department of Public Works has not yet completed final studies on widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Laurel Grove Avenue and Ross town limits, though a public hearing is slated before the county planning commission Dec. 6.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said studies would be completed in time for him to make a recommendation prior to the hearing.

An additional 50 to 60 feet must be acquired, Frost said.

The present road is 40 to 46 feet wide on a total right of way width of 60 to 65 feet. This includes paving for only two lanes, one each way.

Frost said the county, aided by state funds, intends to widen the stretch of boulevard to a width of 100 feet on a minimum right of way of 110 feet. This will provide four lanes, each 12 feet wide, a 16-foot median strip, eight feet on each side for parking, and 10 more feet on each side for walks.

Frost said the basic alternates under study to gain the additional 50 to 60 feet are taking an equal amount on either side of the existing right of way, or taking all from one side or the other.

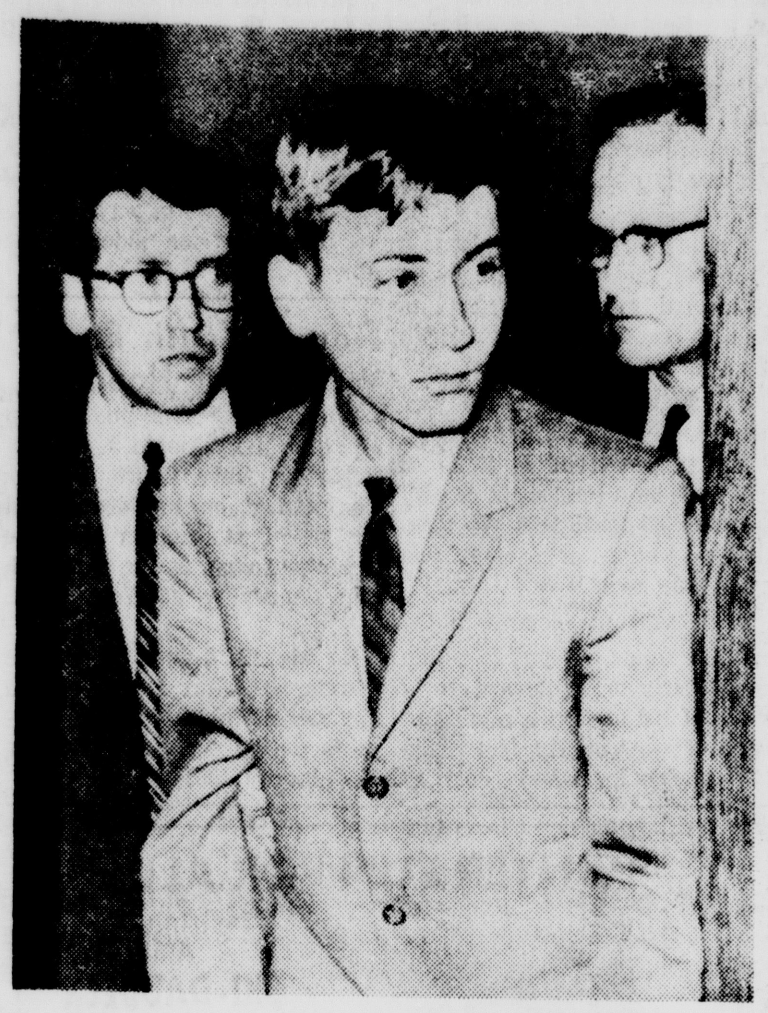
Teener Lectures On Castro, Fires Two Pistols On Plane



PLANE SHOOTING—This teen-ager, identified as Thomas Robinson, 16, of Brownsville, Tex., is escorted into a federal commissioner's office in New Orleans last night by federal agents. He was arrested after his alleged shooting spree aboard a National Airlines plane. (AP Wirephoto)

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A teen-aged honor student, lecturing about Castro and firing wildly from two pistols, terro rized 91 passengers on a jetliner last night over the Gulf Coast. He pulled the trigger of one gun in the face of space agency mission director Christopher Kraft but the weapon misfired.

Thirteen key officials of the Gemini space program were aboard the National Airlines DC-8 during the youth's 20-minute outburst of pistol shots and a diatribe about the dangers of Castroism. The plane landed safely after the gun-wielding 16-year-old was subdued by a Houston businessman.

FEDERAL CHARGE

Thomas Robinson of Brownsville, Tex., a frail-looking 16-year old, was arrested on a federal charge of crime aboard an aircraft. He later said he did not intend to hijack the plane, "I was hoping at least, maybe somebody would wake up."

Robinson was overpowered and disarmed of his .22-caliber and .32-caliber pistols by Edward T. Haake, 45, a Houston businessman. He shrugged off references to his heroism, saying anyone would have done it.

"It's not that I'm brave. I don't even like to fly," Haake said.

BOURBON AND WATER

After the scuffle, Haake said, he handed the youth a drink—bourbon and water—"to calm him down . . . he guzzled it right down."

"What have you got under the newspaper,' Kraft recalled asking the boy.

Robinson then pulled a .22-caliber target pistol an shoved it in front of Kraft's face. He pulled back the hammer. It clicked but did not discharge, Kraft said, because it was not properly cocked.

Other passengers said Kraft turned pale.

When the gun failed to go off, Robinson walked up to the lounge between the first class cabin and the cockpit and tried to open the door.

Stewardess Nancy Taylor told him he could not go in, that the cockpit was ”off limits.” Over an intercom, she notified the pilot, Capt. Dean Cooper, who radioed New Orleans Airport he was returning because "there is a boy aboard who is waving guns."

At that point, the youth faced the passengers and told them it was time somebody went to the aid of people who want to get out of Cuba. He said he hoped "somebody would wake up."

Enlistments Held Cutting Draft Calls

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey predicts a drop in draft calls by January because of a heavy increase in voluntary enlistments for the armed services.

But he doubts that the upturn in the draft picture will bring any change in present plans to begin drafting married men without children.

He also adds that "all bets are off if there's any major escalation" in the war in Viet Nam.

Hershey said yesterday in an interview that the services have had an overall increase of 60 per cent in voluntary enlistments since the last summer's step-up in the war effort.

Police Seek Diary As Lead To Young Girl's Burial Site

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — A missing diary was being sought today as the possible key to the desert burial site of one of three teen-aged girls who were slain.

Police said yesterday they were told that one of the victims, Gretchen Fritz, 17, kept a diary that pinpointed the burial place of a slaying victim — possibly that of Alleen Rowe, 15.

The information strengthened theories held by authorities that Miss Fritz and her sister, Wendy, 13, were killed last August because the older girl knew about the May, 1964, slaying of Miss Rowe.

Sheriff Waldon Burr said he had received "numerous telephone calls about a diary belonging to Gretchen. These callers told us that if we got Gretchen's diary, we would get considerable information on these murder cases."

Detectives said they have not located any diary, nor have they spoken to anyone who actually saw it.

The most substantial information about the diary was believed to have been received from Deborah Ellson, 16, an acquaintance of all three of the victims.

Miss Ellson, who was not a suspect in the case, assertedly had informed authorities that she had heard about Gretchen's diary, but had never seen it.

Authorities also were questioning other friends of the three victims as well as three suspects, Charles Schmid, 23, John Saunders, 19, and Mary French, 19.

The suspects were arraigned last Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Toby Lavetter on suspicion of killing Miss Rowe.

DROPPED LOOT—Patrolman Richard Timmis of San Anselmo police examines $743 worth of coins which were found outside H and J Coin Shop on the Miracle Mile in the Hub City after a burglary last night. Police Chief Raymond H. Buchignani said the coins, in plastic bag, were being carried away in a pillow case which tore and dumped them. However, one of the burglars escaped with about $9,600 worth of coins. (Independent-Journal photo)

Skulking Suspect Nabbed, Brother Sought After $10,000 Coin Theft

By STEPHEN COOK

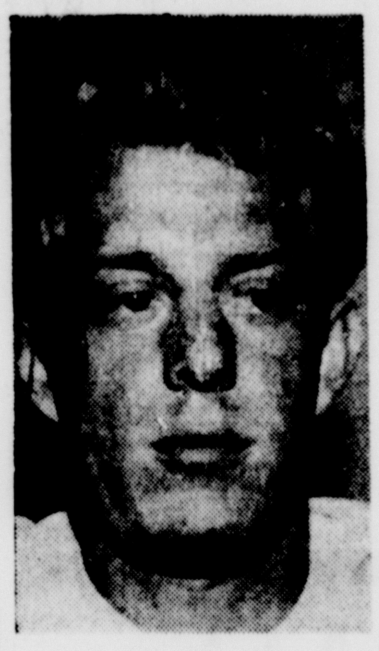
A burglary team of two brothers broke into the H and J Coin Shop at 75 Redhill Avenue, San Anselmo, during last night's wind and rain storm, police said, and tried to make off with $10,343 in rare coins.

A series of blunders, though, cut their take by $743 and resulted in the arrest of Robert Harorld Wood, 29, of 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said the thieves tripped the store's burglar alarm at 8:50 p.m., while breaking open the display cases which housed the coins. Four patrolmen raced to the scene.

The officers stationed themselves at the front and back of the store, Buchignani said, thinking the culprits were still inside.

Patrolman Vincent Sloane, at the front, heard a dog barking the backyard of a house across Redhill Avenue from the shop. He walked over and saw two men crouched among the rain-soaked bushes.



THOMAS EDWARD WOOD
Sought by police

The patrolman drew his gun and ordered them out, "but they apparently didn't think he could see them and made no response," Chief Buchignani said.

Sloane walked over and grabbed one of them, Robert Wood. The other darted off, crashing through the bushes. Other officers joined the search, but the man was not found. Wood said it was his brother Thomas Edward Wood, 24, according to Chief Buchignani. Wood denied they had burglarized the coin shop, however.

Buchignani said the officers found six rare silver dollars in Robert Wood's pocket. They were later identified by store owner Jerry H. Sholar as having come from his display case.

Buchignani said the shop was entered by climbing up a drain pipe and breaking a bathroom window with a rock.

The thieves used pillow cases to haul out the coins, he said. That may haev been a bad idea, because officers found a ripped pillow case and $743 worth of coins spilled in the mud outside the window.

Buchignani theorized that the material ripped from the weight of the coins as the burglars

Judge Finds Own Mistake, Sets Up Retrial For Pair

There'll be a second chance for Chance and Sheffield, because of a conscientious judge.

Thomas Howerd Chance, 24, and Harold Bradley Sheffield, 20, both of Petaluma, were convicted by a Marin Superior Court jury of the burglary last Aug. 4 of Joe's Market in Point Reyes Station.

After the conviction, however, Judge Joseph G. Wilson discovered he had made an error in his instructions to the jury. He said he mistakenly told the jury that an accessory after the fact of a crime may be convicted of the crime itself.

Judge Wilson did not allow his own error to stand. He informed defense attorneys, who promptly moved for a new trial. He then granted the motion.

Date of the new trial will be set at 9:30 a.m. next Tuesday—the same day a third man arrested for the burglary, Gerald Dalton Rich, 23, of Petaluma, is to be sentenced on his plea of guilty.

Coast Storm Expected To Linger Days

Gusts Of Wind On Tam Taper; Shed Tumbles

Rainfall will continue tonight and become scattered tomorrow, but the storm center is expected to linger near California several more days, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Rainfall in the 24 hours to noon in San Rafael was 1.16 inches.

Wind gusts up to 80 miles an hour were recorded yesterday afternoon atop Mount Tamalpais, but they tapered off during the night. A steady wind of 60 to 65 miles an hour was reported there yesterday afternoon.

In San Anselmo a landslide sent an old woodshed tumbling into Corte Madera Creek at 4 p.m. from the rear yard of the home of Mrs. Clara Beaty, 122 Sycamore Avenue.

BREAKS UP

City public work crews were asked to remove the building, which threatened to block the creek, according to City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell. But the building got away from the men, floated through the downtown San Anselmo and then broke up. Workers removed timber from the east side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, but most of the remains of the building washed down into the bay.

A tree branch fell across a pair of power lines, cutting off electric service for about 15 homes in a canyon west of Lagunitas about 5 a.m. today, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. reported.

A tree fell at 401 Chapman Avenue, Corte Madera at about 12:05 a.m. today, breaking a power line serving a few homes in the area. Both outages were repaired quickly.

NO FLOODING

City and county street crews reported no flooding or streets blocked.

San Anselmo workers did cut one tree on Scenic Avenue which was leaning over the street and seemed about to fall. A tree fell at the side of Bretano Way, Greenbrae, but did not block the street.

Heaviest rainfall in the county in the 24 hours to 8 a.m. today was 1.41 inches at Woodacre, with 1.2 at Ross and 1.1 at Belvedere, Mill Valley and Terra Linda.

Chevy Chase area of Larkspur had 1.06, with 1.05 in downtown Larkspur and at Sausalito, and 1.04 at San Anselmo. Novato recorded .96, Inveress .7 and Point Reyes Station .46.

Luci's New Ring Said Not For Engagement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Johnson wore a new ring on her third finger, left hand last night but the White House said today it was not the gift of any boyfriend — it was from her parents. (See earlier story, page 9).

The appearance of the gold, pearl and diamond ring on the finger of the President's 18-year-old daughter as she danced cheek-to-cheek with boyfriend Pat Nugent at a White House party raised new speculation she might be engaged.

Former Vice President Wallace Is Dead At 77

Also Was Secretary In FDR Cabinets

A hospital spokesman said he died late this morning. He had been ill several months.

The cause of death was said to be arterial sclerosis.

Mrs. Wallace was with him when the former vice president died.

Wallace had been hospitalized earlier at the National Institute of Health in Washington. He was released Oct. 28 and he returned to South Salem.

WAS BLOCKED

Southern Democrats and big city forces blocked his renomination to the post, however, and Harry S. Truman got the bid. When Truman became president, he ousted Wallace from a cabinet post as secretary of commerce following a row over foreign policy.

Wallace, first a Republican, became a Democrat when he entered his public career in 1933 and eventually developed as a leading proponent of Roosevelt's New Deal policies.

His international views, however, prompted considerable controversy.

In 1948 Wallace ran for president under the newly formed Progressive Party, campaigning for friendlier relations with Russia. Wallace accepted the Communist party's support, but as criticism developed during the campaign, he declared, "I am not a Communist or Socialist or Marxist of any description."

After his unsuccessful presidential campaign, Wallace dropped from public view to become a gentleman farmer on his 115-acre farm at South Salem, N.Y.

PRIVATE STUDY

There he spent his remaining years privately studying and experimenting with plants—crossbreeding corn for hybrids, for example. He enjoyed gardening but his speciality was raising strawberries.

"If you garden you want to live and see how plants develop the next year," Wallace once said at his farm, complete with barns and windmill overlooking the green hills and blue lakes of northern Westchester County, N.Y.

Wallace also served as secretary of agriculture under Roosevelt and promulgated a controversial plan to cut surpluses by reducing crop acreage and killing young pigs.

With the outbreak of the Korean War, Wallace's view toward Russia cooled, then he became alarmed over Soviet policy. But he saw Communist China as perhaps a greater threat.

In 1962 Wallace wrote:

"Looking ahead—say 20 or 30 years—I'd say we've got to get Russia or China with us; we can't have both those countries with their huge populations against us."

Wallace predicted China might become the Mongols of the 20th Century, threatening first Russia, then the rest of the world.

Reds Ambush Unit, Shoot Up Aircraft

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Cavalrymen battled North Vietnamese troops on the slopes of Chu Pong Mountain today for the fifth consecutive day despite a Communist ambush in which both sides suffered major losses.

In another action 40 U.S. Marine helicopters flew to battalions of Vietnamese troops to Hiep Duc 28 miles south of Da Nang where the Viet Cong overran the town yesterday and impaled the defenders on stakes. Red machinegun fire was so withering two helicopters were shot down.

Two more flights of Strategic Air Force B-52 bombers from Guam hit Communist positions in the Chu Pong area 225 miles northeast of Saigon where the Red forces ambushed 600 Cavalrymen yesterday and cut the force in two. The Americans suffered "Moderate losses," U.S. officials said, but killed 300 Communists.

All indications from the field were the American losses were heavier than those suffered in three previous days of fighting with regular North Vietnamese troops and those were reported to be the heaviest of the war. The battle itself was as fierce as any yet fought in Viet Nam.

The battle south of Da Nang was not yet fully joined but

JET FLAMES OUT

Pilot's Luck Almost Out After War, Years Flying

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Cmdr. Wesley McDonald came home two weeks ago after flying combat missions over Viet Nam for five months.

He has been a naval aviator for 17 years, and until yesterday had never lost a plane.

"I flew 43 combat missions in Viet Nam—about 120 hours—and I've logged about 4,500 hours since I started in Navy aviation in 1948."

He said he was flying at 5,000 feet when he heard a muffled explosion from the rear of the plane and the power failed.

The plane was over Rancho Bernardo, a community north of here, but McDonald managed to direct the Skyhawk into an unpopulated area.

He guided the plane down to an altitude of 2,800 feet before ejecting.

"I stayed with the plane until I was certain it would land out in the hills, then I ejected," McDonald said. "I was thrown in the air—an experience I don't advertise for pleasure."

He left the plane not a moment too soon. As his parachute opened, he said the plane burst into flames.

Northgate Unit Sale Reported

The Draper Companies have sold unit one of the Northgate Shopping Center in San Rafael to a group of San Francisco investors banded as Howard Properties.

Sale price reportedly exceeded 2.5 million dollars.

Unit one included 9.7 acres of commercial property with buildings containing 79,579 square feet of floor space, parking space for 460 cars and 28 tenants. It does not include the Emporium and other major stores in that area.

Major tenants in the portion sold are Purity Stores, Crocker-Citizens National Bank, Northgate Drugs, Lin Fa Restaurant, and Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Assn., along with 23 other retail stores and service businesses. All space is leased.

The transaction was an outright sale, not a leaseback arrangement, said William Hoey, manager of Dohemann and Co., which handled the transaction along with Coldwell, Banker and Co.

Sales of another Marin County holding of the Draper Companies and two of their shopping centers elsewhere are reported pending.

Santa Fe Railway Strike Halted

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks today suspended its strike against the Santa Fe Railway and agreed to submit to federal mediation efforts. (See earlier story, page 5.)

The railway clerks called the strike against the entire 13,000-mile Santa Fe system at 5 a.m. EST in protest of what it called the line's "stalling tactics" on disputes dating back two years.

But the National Mediation Board in Washitngon stepped in at the railroad's request, and shortly before 1 p.m., the brotherhood agreed to mediation efforts.

Norwegian Ship Out Of Danger

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Norwegian motorship, in distress about 650 miles southwest of here, today dumped all her deck cargo into the Pacific to prevent serious leakage in rough seas.

The 552-foot vessel Martha Bakke radioed to a Coast Guard plane circling overhead that she was in no immediate danger.

POPE PAUL VI

POPE PIUS XII
Candidate

POPE JOHN XXIII
Began council

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today ordered the start of the beatification process for his two predecessors, John XXIII and Pius XII. His action was a first step toward their possible cannonization as saints.

Pope Paul made his surprise announcement in a discourse at a public ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica for the promulgation of two new decrees of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Speaking of the renewal of Roman Catholicism started by the council, which was first convened by Pope John, Pope Paul said his to predecessors should be piously remembered. He said the church and the world owed much to them.

"We are arranging," he said, "that to this end there be canonically begun the processes of beatification of these holy and eminent supreme pontiffs who are so dear to us."

Beatification declares that someone worthy of public veneration because of exceptional holiness during his life. It is a step toward canonization, which declares that the beaitified may be called a saint.

In his speech, Pope Paul also announced:

That the long-awaited reform of the Vatican Curia is progressing and that he will soon announce a new statute for the Vatican's Holy Office, the Curia's most powerful unit and its most controversial.

That the period from the end of the Ecumenical Council, Dec. 8, to Pentecost Sunday, next June, ill be a special jubilee period for the world's Roman Catholics to promote the council's decisions.

That he hopes to convene his new Synod of Bishops for the first time next year or, if not feasible then, in 1967.

Pope Paul's statement on the Curia had long been expected. he said he felt there was no need for great changes but for "perfectioning."

Pope Paul established the Synod — or Senate — of Bishops, with representatives from various nations to advise him after the council ends. Many experts feel it will amount to a sort of continuation of the council.

The to decrees of the Ecumenical Council promulgated today were on the apostolate of the laity and on divine revelation.

During the council session, the prelates took a final vote on the to documents. The divine revelation decree as approved by a vote of 2,344-6, the laity decree by 2,305-2.

Pope Paul then promulgated the to decrees.

The decree on the laity bids Roman Catholic laymen play an active role in their church and recommends creation of a Vatican secretariat for the laity.

The decree on divine revelation says both Scripture and the traditions of the Church "merge into a unity" in handing down the word of God. It encourages the preparation by Protestant and Catholic scholars, working together, of Bible translations for interdenominational use.

The general contents of both decrees were known before their promulgation. The complete texts became public with today's ceremony.

The documents are the 11th and 12th issued as decrees by the council since it began in 1962. Four more will be issued before the council ends Dec. 8.

The decree on the laity encourages Catholic men and women "to a more fervent life," binding them to do what they can to help their church spread the Gospel both as individuals and as members of Catholic lay organizations.

The decree on divine revelation is a theological treatise that stirred much heat in the council from its opening in 1962. At issue was whether God's word is revealed by Scripture and Church tradition as from a single source or from two distinct sources.

Johnson Turns On White House Glitter To Entertain Princess

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Said the President to the Princess: "You have claimed our heart and we are happy to give it to you."

Said the Princess to the President: "We are having the most wonderful time."

And that about summed up the festivities last night at the most dazzling affair of the Washington social season—the White House dinner dance President and Mrs. Johnson gave for Britain's royal tourists, Princess Margaret and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon.

One final museum visit and ceremonial tree-planting at the British Embassy was all that was scheduled for Margaret today before her afternoon departure for New York. She leaves a captivated capital.

One of her conquests was the President, who ignored any tinges he may have felt from his Oct. 8 operation, to dance with the tiny, blue-eyed Margaret. Despite her jewels and her sophisticated ballgown she looked like a little girl, not quite coming up to the President's shoulder.

The tune they danced to was "Everything's Coming Up Roses"—in honor of the Princess, who was known as Margaret Rose as a youngster. She was reported to have enjoyed the affair "wildly."

Johnson must have enjoyed it, too. For though the Princess left the White House at 1:35 this morning, the President didn't call it quits until shortly after 2.

The next dance was a sentimental tribute to the Johnson's 31st wedding anniversary yesterday. The Johnsons danced to the tune of the "Anniversary Waltz" and "The Girl That I Married."

McNamara Battles Copper Price Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government plans to release at least 200,000 tons of copper from its stockpile. It says the aim is to nip the climb in copper prices and ease a world shortage of the metal.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced the decision last night, saying the world copper situation threatens a disruption which could lead to strong inflationary developments.

The announcement came one week after similar government proposals had forced a price-rise rollback in the aluminum industry.

There was no immediate comment from major copper companies as to whether they would follow the aluminum pattern and cutback prices.

McNamara said the release plus three other actions affecting the metal had been discussed with leading U.S. copper companies.

The other government decisions:

1. To control exports of copper and copper scrap "for an indefinite period to conserve domestic supply."

2. To ask Congress to suspend the 1.7-cent-a-pound import duty on copper, a protection McNamara said domestic producers don't need. The Western world used 5.3 million tons of refined copper last year but produced 4.4 million tons. The rest came from scrap.

3. To ask the New York Commodity Exchange to curb excessive speculation in copper trading by raising margin requirements for copper. He said the current margin is about 10 per cent, compared to an approximate 70 per cent on the New York Exchange.

McNamara said the government copper would be sold at between 36 and 38 cents a pound, as much as 34 cents below prices current on the speculative markets in London and New York.

War On Poverty's Policies Defended

Ronald Field, field representative for the Economic Opportunity Program in 11 western states, in a Novato speech Tuesday night quoted Sargent Shriver, national director of the program, that "we will make no retreat from our policies on participation of the poor."

Field was one of three speakers on the War on Poverty program presented by the Novato Democratic Club on a program that drew 50 persons at the Novato Community House.

Sharing the platform with him were Dr. Paul O'Rourke, former Novatan who is state director of the program, and Walter Bremond, Marin County director of community services.

O'Rourke said many of the poor who have become involved in War on Poverty projects have proven themselves highly capable and competent, and "they take to participation like ducks to water."

Bremond, however, said participation of the poor has caused some stress and conflict. Established welfare and charitable agencies were somewhat taken aback by the edict of participation by the poor themselves, he said.

However, Bremond declared, the Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted the concept in asking the people of Marin City to elect five representatives to the council in charge of the program.

Bremond praised the preschool program set up under the War on Poverty in Sausalito School District as "one of the finest in California."

O'Rourke, calling War on Poverty a self-help project designed to do for the poor what welfare programs have failed to do, declared it is "an extremely positive program" and is proving successful.

He blamed news media for stressing negative aspects of the program, and declared, "The result is that the public a large has little awareness of the strength and success the program is having."

Field Hands Picket Ship, Block Loading Of Grapes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The SS President Wilson will sail for the Far East today on schedule but without 1,250 cases of grapes it originally had intended to carry.

The ship's owner—American President Lines (APL)—agreed last night to leave the grapes behind after loading operations were halted by four pickets representing striking Kern County grape pickers.

The pickets said the grapes had been shipped by Delano growers who are being struck by the AFL-CIO Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee and the independent National Farm Workers Assn.

The pickets showed up on Pier 50 where the President Wilson was being loaded yesterday Some 50 longshoremen, who already had loaded some of the grapes, stopped work in sympathy.

Teamsters also agreed to honor the line, and deliverty trucks arriving with cargo halted. There was a brief scuffle at one point when a truck tried to drive through.

Its tires were flattened and the word "scab" was scrawled with soap on its side. Police arrive to restore order, but there were no arrests.

Woman Jury Hearing Testimony In Slaying

An all-woman jury in the murder trial of Armando G. Sanchez, 33-year-old San Quentin prisoner charged with slaying a shop foreman, was chosen yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Testimony started today before Judge Thomas F. Keating. Conviction carries an automatic death penalty, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said.

Sanchez allegedly knifed Ralph Canning, 54, of Oakland, following a dispute between the two men April 23. He is charged with assault by a lifer. Canning, a civilian, was struck at least 18 times with a knife-like instrument, officers said.

Strike May Hurt Space, War Efforts

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Machinists at McDonnell Aircraft Corp. are preparing for a strike at midnight that would halt production of Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam and could delay two Gemini space shots.

Some 11,000 members of District 9 of the International Assn. of Machinists jammed a downtown auditorium yesterday and overwhelmingly rejected a company contract offer. The rejection is tantamount to a strike vote. The McDonnell plant has 35,000 employees, 17,000 of them machinists.

A strike would immediately hit production of the Phantoms, used by the Navy, Air Force and Marines in Viet Nam. About 50 now are on McDonnell production lines.

The walkout also may reach to Cape Kennedy, Fla., where about 500 McDonnell employees, including some machinists, are working on the launch of Geminis 6 and 7, scheduled for Dec. 4 and 13.

Eugene Glover, machinist union vice president, said the union must "take into account the situation at the Cape."

He said he would confer today in a three-way telephone hookup with union officials in Washington and representatives of the Cape Kennedy members. One of the points to be discussed, he said, is a possible dispensation from striking for machinists working on the Gemini launchings.

Storer Offers Marincello Talks

Marin County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer ha soffered to speak to any group in the county, including those opposed to Marincello, to explain his vote in favor of the Marincello master plan.

In a two-page press release, Storer today reviewed some of his statements made at last Friday's hearing and asked that opponents now take a positive interest in the plan and offer suggestions.

"This would be constructive and welcomed by county officials, not to mention the developer," Storer said.

State Postpones Parks Discussion

Discussion of location of mainland docking facilities to serve Angel Island State Park was postponed indefinitely yesterday by the California Park Commission, meeting in Los Angeles.

The commission also put off discussion of improvement projects at Marin Headlands State Park and Mount Tamalpais State Park, scheduled for today, to await an as-yet-uncompleted investigation report, the Associated Press reported from Los Angeles. The improvemets are to be financed from the $150 million state bond issue approved by voters last year.

When cast-iron plows appeared in the early 1800's many farmers refused to use them for fear of "poisoning the soil."

COINS

Sholar, who lives at 278 San Felipe Way, Novato, took a quick inventory last night and told police that about $9,600 worth of his rare coins were still missing.

He was still taking inventory today, but told police that all the gold coins he had on display were gone. His most valuable coins, he said, were locked in the safe and untouched.

Buchignani said Thomas Wood has been living at 409 and one-half Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo. The home is practically across the street from the coin shop.

The chief reported that Maria Svenson, who owns the home, told him two pillow cases were missing from the bedroom there.

Buchgnani described Wood as standing five feet eight inches tall, weighing 150 pounds, with blonde hair, hazel eyes and a slim build.

His brother, who was booked at county jail on a charge of burglary, gave his occupation as a truck driver and said he lived with his wife at the Bermuda Palms, Buchignani said. Bail was set at $2,500.

Suspended Sentence For Marijuana Sale

Twenty-six-year-old Anthony Louis Pastor of Beverly Hills was given a four-months suspended county jail sentence and placed on three years probation today in Marin Superior Court for selling marijuana.

A second count of illegal sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley following Pastor's guilty plea. Pastor is one of 11 adults arrested in a June 4 roundup of southern Marin County suspects for sale or possession of the weed.

already the casualties were mounting. The Communists were believed to have suffered heavily when wave after wave of U.S. and Vietnamese planes bombed and strafed Viet Cong gun positions for two hours.

In the Chu Pong area units of the 1st Air Cavalry division regrouped after the mauling they received, flew their dead and wounded out by helicopter and pressed deeper into the jungle through head-high elephant grass.

Intelligence officers told UPI that pack elephant trails indicated the Communists may be fighting in defense of the main supply point for all Red troops in the Central Highlands.

Scores of Americans lay on the battlefield all night amid the bodies of slain comrades and Communists.

First reports on the ambush said the Americans had beaten off the attack. But correspondents on the scene today were told that the U.S. force had been cut in two and that the separated units curled into two tight perimeters to defend themselves for the night.

American troops returning to the battlefield today said they found it littered with dead and dying men on both sides.

The American column was headed north from Chu Pong, here 1st Cavalry units virtually annihilated a North Vietnamese regiment in three previous days of bitter fighting, to a new landing zone three miles away.

The Communists cut loose with mortar and sniper fire from every direction as the American infantrymen pushed through head-high bush. The attack snapped the column in two.

Bruce Sees Marincello Service District Setup

Some kind of special district undoubtedly will have to be created to provide municipal-type services to Marincello, County Administrator Alan Bruce said today.

He said county sheriff's and fire protection provided in the unincorporated areas will not be adequate when Marincello is developed. He believes a community service area which would be governed by the board of Supervisors would probably be the best approach.

Those holding property in the district would pay an additional tax for the added service.

Bruce's remarks were in response to action Tuesday night by the Novato City Council, which urged that extra services for Marincello be paid for by Marincello and not spread throughout the county.

The issue of municipal-type services supplied by the county in some areas has been under study for some time by a city-county services committee. These studies are continuing and the question of service for Marincello will undoubtedly be discussed, Bruce said.

Court Approves Recording Contract For Novato Girl

The contract between Chris Clark, 19, and Motown Records Corp. of Detroit, New York and Hollywood was approved by Judge A. A. Scott of Los Angeles Superior Court.

Miss Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Clark of 14 Nave Court, Novato, has been a Novato resident for 12 years. She graduated from Novato High School in 1963.

She sang with various combos and small bands while in high school, and since graduation has been singing in night clubs in Texas, Los Angeles and Detroit.

Under terms of the court-approved contract, Miss Clark will receive 3 per cent of gross sales of the records for seven years if all options are picked up.

Defendant Denies Killing Marinite

He is charged with the Oct. 17 rifle slaying of Riley, a tenant in the apartment house of which Lovill is owner. Police, answering a report that shots had been heard, saw Riley stagger out of an apartment and collapse at their feet. He died hours later.

Lovill was found standing in a hallway with a .30 caliber rifle, officers said.

Rains, Winds Delay Ship's Maiden Trip

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The maiden voyage of the new cargoliner President Polk was delayed one day until tonight because of heavy rains and high winds.

The American President Lines vessel has luxury quarters for 12 passengers. The ship is in the new Master Mariner class and soon will be joined by sister ships, the President Harrison and the President Monroe.

Pole-Visiting Jet Feted On Return

BURBANK (AP) — A champagne party awaited the crew and passengers of the "Polecat" as the Boeing 707 jet ended its historic polar circumnavigation of the globe.

The Polecat was six hours behind schedule in Honolulu, after completing 26,000 miles in 62 hours and 28 minutes. The plane was in the air an estimated 51 hours and 26 minutes, with the rest of the time spent at refueling stops.

The huge craft averaged 560 miles an our for the trip, officials said.

The west Carquinez Bridge was purchased by the State of California in September, 1940.

Railway Clerks On Strike; Santa Fe Trains Halted

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks went on strike against the 13,000 mile Santa Fe system today. The railroad immediately asked the National Railway Mediation Board to take jurisdiction.

Santa Fe said that passenger trains in runs at the time the strike was called at 6 a.m. (CST) would be allowed to reach their destinations.

There were no immediate efforts to negotiate. The Santa Fe said it was awaiting word from the mediation board. The brotherhood said it had no statement beyond what was in its original release earlier today.

In most if not all places, members of the five on-train brotherhoods refused to cross picket lines of the 9,000 clerks union.

Arraignment Set In Shooting

SALINAS (UPI) — William Brennan, 36, Fresno, a suspended California Highway Patrolman accused of shooting a Salinas man to death, will be arraigned in Superior Court Dec. 3.

Municipal Judge William Stewart determined yesterday that evidence showed a felony had been committed and set the arraignment date.

Witnesses testified that Brennan shot Rolan Strange, 30, of Salinas, twice with a .38 caliber pistol while the two fought.

They said the shooting followed an argument between Strange and Brennan involving Strange's wife, Joan, 29.

Southern Californians Brace For More Rain

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California, inundated by more than five inches of rain in its worse November storm, braced today for a predicted two or three more inches. It was the fifth straight day of downpours.

The downpours eased overnight, giving a breather to thousands of residents whose homes were flooded, threatened or isolated by floods and mud slides.

The forecast: Gusty winds and rain, heavy at times, from a new storm expected to last through tomorrow.

Los Angeles received 5.16 inches of rain, bringing the season total to 6.97.

The Simi Valley, an agricultural area 35 miles west where houses are replacing groves, was perhaps hardest hit. An estimated 200 persons evacuated parts of three subdivisions during a deluge yesterday, taking refuge in an emergency center at a high school. Damage in the area was estimated at "several million." Sheriff's deputies said at least 56 homes were flooded and more than 100 partially flooded.

At Thousand Oaks, just over the hills from Simi, homes were hit in two subdivisions.

Roads in both areas were flooded and in some places undercut. More than 100 county workers were called in to protect a storm drain threatened by washout. Sandbags were brought in from other communities to protect homes.

Elsewhere, hillside homes in many areas were damaged by water and flowing mud. Rocks and slides blocked mountain roads. State Highway 118 linking the Simi and San Fernando valleys was blocked for a time.

At Box Canyon near the San Fernando Valley 40 members of a religious sect, the Wisdom, Knowledge, Faith and Love Fountain of the World—a group whose men have helped many others during floods and fires—were evacuated when flooding undermined buildings.

State Parks Bond Issue Not Enough

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Fred L. Jones, state director of parks and recreation, indicated yesterday the "one time only" $150 million beach and park bond issue of 1964 will not begin to meet the state park system needs over the next 20 years.

Jones presented an accelerated development program for the state park system to the state park commission at a meeting in Los Angeles. He also gave a progress report on how the money from the bond issue was being spent.

Jones said park system usage had increased from less than 10 million visitor days in 1948 to more than 32 million visitor days in 1964 and is expected to jump to 113 million by 1980. Present facilities are overused, with 1.5 million campers turned away from parks last year because no campsites were available.

Jones said the state park system development should be phased over a 20-year period at a cost of $500 million. This would provide for an additional 23,000 camp units, 30,000 picnic units, 55,000 parking spaces, 211 boat launching ramps, and other facilities.

Terra Linda's Recreation Director Resigns His Post

WILLIAM A. GORDON
He's through

William A. Gordon, Terra Linda recreation director for a year and one-half, submitted his written resignation to Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District directors early this morning at the close of a long meeting.

No reason was given in the letter, board chairman Jack Brandon said. Gordon could not be reached for comment today. The resignation is to take effect Dec. 31.

Most of last night's meeting was spent discussing a teen charter and revised rules for teen-age dances, Brandon said.

It was agreed that in addition to the two sheriff's deputies and four chaperones for each dance, there would be two more adults serving as gate tenders.

Directors also agreed that no one will be admitted to a dance after 9 p.m. rather than the previous 10 p.m., and that all guests must register by 6 p.m., rather than permitting registration until the start of the dance at 8 p.m.

The revisions were made following a fracas in the center parking lot after a dance last month. This was not so serious as the vandalism and disturbances that caused directors to close the dances last summer.

Directors will meet again at the center at 8 p.m. Wednesday to discuss finances and Gordon's resignation.

Brandon was directed to meet with directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District to see if control or signs could be tightened in the district. Brandon reported a truck was parked in a median strip over the weekend with signs offering wood for sale. There are also signs offering homes and puppies for sale which are in violation of the county code, he said.

Fuel Cell Woes Hit Gemini Again

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Trouble with power-producing fuel cells threatens to delay the Dec. 4 launch date of Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr.

Sources said any postponement probably would be for to days. There was no indication when a decision would be made.

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration official said there was a possibility of keeping the Dec. 4 schedule by working on Thanksgiving and weekends, normally off days.

A NASA spokesman said that during a test Tuesday, pressure apparently built up and forced liquid hydrogen into the to fuel cells, which combine hydrogen and oxygen to produce electrical power. The spokesman said the cells may not have been harmed, but to be on the safe side for the intended 14-day mission, the decision was made to replace them.

If Gemini 7 is delayed, the companion Gemini 6 flight, to be launched nine days after Gemini 7, also would be postponed.

State Sets Seminar On Narcotics Laws

Speakers Ready For Next Event

Members of Terra Linda High School's newly formed Forensic Club will enter their second tournament Saturday at Terra Nova High School in Pacifica.

Entered in the tourney, which will be confined to non-debating events, will be Janice Read, Shelley Cochran, Terry Carlson, Judy Naves, Lelia Loban, Frank Gravitt, Kathy Spence and Monica Miller.

WAR PROTESTORS ALLOWED PARADE

Judge Orders Oakland To Permit March, Bars Anti-Viet Nam Show At Terminal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) Dist. Judge William T. Sweigert issued a preliminary injunction ordering the City of Oakland to permit a massive anti-Viet Nam war parade Saturday—but at the same time, imposed strict conditions on sponsors of the demonstration.

Sweigert's action followed refusal by the Oakland City Council to issue a parade permit to the Viet Nam Day Committee (VDC), although the judge stated formally last Friday that the parade should be permitted.

Oakland withheld permits on two previous occasions last month, and once a parade of about 10,000 demonstrators was barred from entering the city at its boundary by hundreds of police officers. There was also a brief encounter between the demonstrators and members of California's "Hells Angels" motorcycle club.

Sweigert's order yesterday restrained city officials from arresting plaintiffs for violations of their parade permit ordinances, and enjoined officials from failing to provide the demonstrators with adequate protection against attacks.

But the judge imposed some conditions upon the VDC.

The most important restriction was his forbiding the demonstrators from sending even a token force of one person to their preferred parade objective, the Oakland Army Terminal, a major West Coast military embarkation center to the Far East.

The VDC promptly announced they would appeal this restriction, although they considered Sweigert's decision in the main to be a victory.

The judge based his ruling on his interpretation of the first and 14th amendments to the U.S. Constitution. He said the amendments give the Viet Nam demonstrators the right of free speech and assembly so long as their activity is peaceful and orderly.

As approved by Sweigert, the parade route will run seven miles from the University of California campus through Berkeley to either a vacant lot or a park a mile from the army base. The judge said that an approach to the base would create unreasonable traffic hazards and make it difficult for police to do their job.

Oakland police have warned that the demonstration might incite mob violence and noted that public threats have been made by the Hell's Angels, Judge Sweigert specifically named the notorious motorcycle club in his order.

Delta Jet Makes Forced Landing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Delta Airlins DC8 turned back to Los Angeles seven minutes after takeoff early today after an explosion in its number four engine.

There were no injuries among the 58 passengers or crew of six, an airline spokesman said.

The Dallas-bound flight, Delta's flight 820, took off at 1:55 a.m. and was about 1,000 feet in the air when the engine apparently ingested an unidentified object through its jet intake, said the pilot, Capt. W. D. Wood of Dallas.

Wood said there was a minor explosion and a ball of fire shot out through the jet exhaust.

Sausalitan Injured On Shoreline Road

Joseph H. Brown, 39, of 503 Main Street, Sausalito, suffered minor injuries at 11:30 a.m. yesterday when his car ran off the road near Point Reyes Station, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Brown was driving north on Shoreline Highway three quarters of a mile south of Point Reyes Station when he crashed into an embankment. He was treated for cuts and bruises by a Point Reyes Station doctor.

Chauffeur Leads Police To Jewelry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police have arrested a family chauffeur in the $126,000 jewel robbery at the Pacific Heights mansion of San Francisco car dealer Albert E. Schlesinger.

Police said Robert H. Heermann, the Schlesinger's 27-year-old chauffeur, led them to a vacuum cleaner inside the mansion after his arrest yesterday.

They found $72,000 worth of the loot, including half of a $50,000 necklace. The remaining jewels from last Saturday night's theft were still missing.

Two other men were arrested in Reno, Nev., and were being returned to San Francisco for questioning as the chauffeur's alleged accomplices.

They are Walbert B. Cunningham, 52, and Larry Igou, 26. They were arrested by Reno police on a vagrancy charge.

San Francisco police said they cracked the case after a neighborhood police officer heard that a young man brought a diamond ring to a pawnbroker to ask if it were real. It was.

The young man, Vern Bennett, 19, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property, police said.

Reform Jews Ask Viet Nam Truce

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Leaders of Reform Judaism in the United States and Canada have overwhelmingly voted to urge an American cease-fire in Viet Nam.

The 3,000 delegates to the 48th biennial meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregtions urged the armistice "subject only to the requirements of the safety of our armed forces."

The resolution, adopted yesterday, called upon President Johnson to announce to the world "that as of a given date, our armed forces will cease firing, our planes will cease bombing. . ."

The announcement would state that American representatives would proceed to a designated neutral place to meet with opposing forces in Viet Nam.

The resolution also called on "representatives of the opposing forces to join us in this unselfish determination to demonstrate our commitment to peace in our time and for all time."

Earlier the delegates, representing a million Reform Jews in 664 temples, passed resolutions supporting peaceful dissent and demonstrations against American foreign policies.

In a heated debate the delegates deleted the resolution's original language in specifically referring to dissent and demonstrations against Viet Nam policies.

The key wording, as passed, said:

"Those who are critical of the United States' policies, whether from the pulpit or in the street, must be neither stifled nor intimidated by the threat of investigation. Neither shall their motives nor their loyalties be impugned."

Delegates also approved a resolution supporting the winning of converts to Judaism. Jews stopped the practice in 315 A.D. under penalty of death by order of Roman Emperor Constantine I.

Sentencing Due In Manslaughter

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) —A Californian will be sentenced Monday for manslaughter — the Oct. 4 shooting of his stepson.

Frank Baldinegro, 68, of Nubieber in California's Lassen County, pleaded guilty yesterday to the reduced charge. He originally had been charged with murder.

Guild Strike Hits Newspaper In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The American Newspaper Guild went on strike early today against the nation's largest evening daily, the Los Angles Herald-Examiner.

Negotiations were reported continuing despite the strike as union and management representatives met with mediators.

Assistant managing editor Agness Underwood said department heads would fill in for the estimated 1,000 struck editorial, advertising and circulation workers.

Key issues, union spokesmen said, involve wage and job security issues.

Journeymen now receive $164.50 a week minimum after five years, and are demanding two yearly raises—$16 the first and $8 the second year. The newspaper has offered $4.05 and $4.25.

President Of Brazil Urges Anti-Subversive Measures

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Western Hemisphere heard a strong call by Brazil's president for them to update inter-American machinery to combat infiltration and subversion.

"It is urgent that we, the members of the inter-American system, rethink our concepts and preconceptions in the light of the new realities," President Humberto Castello Branco declared in formally opening the special inter-American conference last night.

The Brazilian chief chided past hemisphere parleys for "academically mulling over principles and provisions that, when a dispute comes up, we do not show any inclination to obey."

Stoutly defending the intervention in the Dominican Republic, Castello Branco said the hemisphere defense system was devised in the early postwar years to protect against direct armed aggression.

Now aggression threatens more subtly "through infiltration and subversion" and "it is therefore imperative that we take a new look at the concepts of aggression and intervention," he said.

His keynote rang harmoniously with a theme sounded by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk after Washington ordered troops into Santo Domingo, which Washington said were to save lives and prevent a Communist takeover.

Of the five Latin-American nations which sent troops to join the Americans in the peace force formed by the Organization of American States, Brazil sent the biggest number.

Rusk, heading the U.S. delegation to the conference, declined public comment on the Brazilian's proposal at this time. He planned to deliver the American speech early next week, after some other deleate haev had their say.

One of the highest mountains in the Caribbean, Morne La Selle on the southeast coast of Haiti, rises to 8,793 feet.

Luci Wearing New Ring, But Still Won't Tell

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new gold and diamond ring sparkled on Luci Johnson's third finger, left hand, as she danced cheek-to-cheek with boyfriend Pat Nugent at a White House party.

The ring drew new speculation that the President's daughter, 18, is engaged to marry Nugent, 23. But the White House again would make no comment and Luci, herself, couldn't be reached.

AT PRINCESS' PARTY

Luci, in a strapless white faille evening dress, her hair bouffant, had a gay time at the dinner-dance last night in honor of Britain's Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon.

She danced some slow numbers romantically with Nugent and did some fast frugs with other partners during the evening to the blaring beat of Peter Duchin's orchestra in the East Room.

Before the dinner, Mrs. Johnson's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, had asked the few reporters permitted to watch the dancing that they not interview Luci.

REPORTERS STALLED

Reports circulated several weeks ago that Luci and Pat—whose hometown is Waukegan, Ill.—had flown to the LBI Ranch in Texas for a weekend to ask President and Mrs. Johnson's permission to marry.

Neither the Johnsons nor their White House spokesmen would either confirm or deny the report. Luci and Nugent maintained that their private lives were their own and they would have nothing to say. There were subsequent rumors, though, that the President had persuaded the young couple to wait at least until Luci, a freshman at Georgetown University School of Nursing here, finished her four-year course.

Nugent is scheduled to enter military service around Nov. 28. He has been working meanwhile in the office of the District of Columbia Advisory Council on Higher Education.

Candidate Hits 'Pro-Viet Cong'

BERKELEY (UPI)— Republican gubernatorial candidate Laughlin E. Waters today called "pro-Viet Cong demonstrators a frantic fringer of offbeats, deadbeats and Red beats."

"The American majority belives in law, believes in free speech and believes in both the wisdom and justice of our stand beside the South Vietnamese," he said in a speech prepared for noon delivery before faculty and students of the University of California Law School.

But Waters praised U.S. District Judge William T. Sweigert for ruling that anti-Viet Nam war demonstrators could march through Oakland Saturday under proper controls and with safeguards for the rights of others.

Auto Smog Gadgets Claimed Doing A Job

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A smog control engineer reports that emission control devices installed on new and used cars are now preventing 364,000 gallons of hydrocarbons — smog components—from entering the atmosphere daily.

Miles Brubacher, senior engineer for the California Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board, reported to a meeting of the board yesterday that the state already has 100,000 1966 model cars on the road.

All of these, he said, are equipped with crankcase and exhaust emission control devices, preventing 14,000 gallons of hydrocarbons from being discharged into the air daily.

The board's executive officer, Donald A. Jensen, recommended that the board make three major proposals to the special session of the legislature next February.

These proposals, Jensen said, would have the board certify only one rather than two exhaust control devices for used cars, speed up installation and make servicing and inspection mandatory.

Color Television Bonanza Revives Sierra Ghost Town

BAKER (AP)—A sudden bonanza has flopped into the laps of the residents of the tiny desert town of Mountain Pass—it's color television.

Two years ago Mountain Pass was almost dead asleep, having only nine residents operating the Mountain Pass Mine, which is owned by the Molybdenum Corp. of America.

Now there are 175 people, and they're working one of the biggest producers of europium oxide—used in the manufacture of color television tubes—in the world.

The company said its deposit of rare earth metals is the largest in the world, with the most important being bastnasite, a fluocarbonate which contains small amounts of europium.

And the residents are happy to see the boom in color television set sales—it means expansion of the mine, more people and more growth.

Burns On Mend After Surgery

FRESNO (AP) — Sen. Hugh Burns, D-Fresno, was reported in satisfactory condition today at a Fresno hospital following surgery yesterday.

He had a cyst removed from his neck.

Burns, 63, who is president pro tem of the Senate, said he had planned the operation for some time, but had delayed it until after the close of the special legislative session.

WAR IN VIET NAM

Wrecks of five U.S. Air Force L-19 spotter planes lie behind their sandbag revetments today on Tan Heip Airfield after a Viet Cong attack. The Viet Cong infiltrated the base, 35 miles southwest of Saigon, and planted charges on the planes last night. A U.S. spokesman said 28 Viet Cong were killed in the attack. Telephone Rate Hike Discussed

Muir Beach Community Services District directors last night discussed telephone rates, to be increased next April, but took no action. Further studies may be made on the subject, said Jack F. Harris, board president.

The board indicated it was pleased that Green Gulch Ranch, which touches the Pacific near Muir Beach, is to become an agricultural preserve under the land conservation act of 1965.

Charles Graham, secretary-manager, reported he has leveled off ground on the hill above the beach for a second tank and is checking prices on tanks.

Brown Boasts Of California Ability To Create New Jobs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "No state in the nation can even begin to match California's record in creating new jobs," says Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Brown, addressing a dinner audience last night, said California industry produced 1.3 million new jobs and increased profits 57 per cent during the seven years of his administration. He added:

"The . . .healthy business climate has also brought unparalleled prosperity to our employers. Corporate profits in California totaled $3.6 billion in 1958, the year before I took office.

"Last year they totaled $5.7 billion, an increase of $2 billion or 57 per cent. The prospects are even better for 1965," Brown declared.

Earlier, Brown said the Republican Party in California is "off and running fast" for the governorship — in different directions, "as usual."

"Off to the far, far right," Brown declared, "Ronald Reagan is demanding that President Johnson declare war on North Viet Nam, abandon the antipoverty program, scuttle federal aid to education, give up Medicare and put Barry Goldwater in charge of our Social Security program."

The $21 million Vincent Thomas Bridge, linking San Pedro with Terminal Island, is Southern California's first major suspension bridge.

Tomales Unification Proposals Get Airing

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization, studying the entire county for various unification schemes, came up with several proposals last night.

All were aimed at solving the problem of the Tomales High School District, which the state Board of Education has said repeatedly lacks enough pupils for unification within its own borders.

Robert Stannard, secretary for the committee, said one proposal would put the attendance area of Sir Francis Drake High School in the Tomales unified district.

Another would unify Tomales with Petaluma High School District. There were several variables of this.

Stannard was to come up with attendance and finance figures on the various proposals for report to the committee at its next meeting at 8 p.m., Dec. 1, at the Civic Center.

Youth's Condition Better At Hospital

Jack J. Green, 16, son of Martin F. Green of 449 Marin Drive, Tamalpais Valley, was reported improving today at Marin General Hospital after allegedly being whipped about the head with a telephone receiver on Monday.

Green, said to be in good condition and out of the hospital's intensive care unit, told sheriff's officers that John Allen Acree, 18, of 109 Cardinal Road, Tamalpais Valley, broke into his bedroom and beat him with a telephone receiver, berating Green for phoning a 17-year-old girl Acree had been dating. Acree told a different version of the fight.

Peking Believed Closer To U.N.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 47-47 split in the General Assembly on seating Red China plus waning support for U.S. demands that a to-thirds vote decide the issue, aroused speculation today that Peking cannot be barred much longer.

Supporters of the U. S. campaign to keep Red China out of the United Nations admitted privately that they may have scored their last annual victory.

Many diplomats believed the fact that the 117-nation assembly approved the call for a two-thirds majority by a margin of only 7 votes was more significant than the dramatic split over admitting Peking.

The procedural maneuver was approved 56-47 with 11 abstentions, a majority of 20 less than the last vote on the same question four years ago.

The consensus was that if Peking's supporters break the majority barrier next year, they can rally enough support to admit Red China on a straight vote.

Diplomats noted that if Indonesia had not quit the United Nations last March, Peking may have had the single vote needed to score a simple majority this time.

It was believed that Red China's backers could pick up a number of votes if they did not insist on coupling their call for admission of Peking with demands to oust Nationalist China.

Ceylon tried before Wednesday's vote to delete the ouster demand, but the sponsors refused. Peking has said it will not consider U.N. membership unless the Nationalists are thrown out.

Advisory Group Elects Chief

Junius Thompson of Novato was elected last night as chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee on the Development of Marin.

He will replace Mrs. Betty Pierce Jan. 1.

Harold S. Elberg of San Anselmo was elected vice chairman.

The committee discussed a reply to the recommendation on committees prepared by county administrator Alan Bruce. Bruce suggested that the advisory committee's efforts be more concentrated.

Steel Structure Plans Opposed

A steel building at the Sausalito corporation yard would not be harmonious with the residential neighborhood at Nevada and Tomales streets in Sausalito, city planning commissioners agreed last night.

They adopted a resolution urging the city council to require that the structure, proposed by the city staff to be of steel, be of materials "harmonious and sympathetic with the neighborhood." (The city council Tuesday asked City Mgr. Charles A. Brown to investigate use of material other than steel and to get comparative costs.)

The commission, reported acting chairman Alan D. Bonapart, agreed that within five years it would be wise to add a fulltime professional city planner.

Rhodesian Again Branded Traitor

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today rebel Rhodesian Premier Ian's Smith's attempt to replace Gov. Sir Humphrey Gibbs was "an act of treason."

Under British law treason can be punishable by death.

The premier, who appeared in the House of Commons to answer questions on the Rhodesian crisis after a morning spent in urgent consultations with his ministers, said the Smith regime had committed Gibbs, his wife, and other loyal government house staff.

He said people who knew Gibbs and had some impression of Deputy Prime Minister Clifford Du Pont, named by Smith to replace Gibbs, "will be able to measure the extent to which Rhodesia has been degraded and her people abused by the events of the last seven days."

Rhodesia seized its independence from Britain last Thursday—the first British colony to take such action since the 13 American colonies in 1776.

Britain already has imposed stiff economic and diplomatic sanctions on Rhodesia. Wilson's meeting with ministers today was to determine ways on tightening a strangle grip around Smith's rebel government.

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart, who returned early today from the United Nations, told newsmen it now appeared there was no danger of African states' intervention other than by economic measures.

Wilson will send diplomatic trouble-shooter Malcolm MacDonald on an urgent mission to Zambia to discuss Zambia's request for British troops to guard the Kariba Dam from possible Rhodesian sabotage, it was reported today.

THOSE NEW QUARTERS ARE A KICK

The Blue Lantern Tavern has a remote control TV set and patrons have learned accidentally they can turn it off and out by dropping two of the new copper quarters on the bar.

A repairman said he didn't know what to do about it but guessed the sound from the bar was triggering the set.

Novato Woman Hurt

Christine A. Walton, 34, of 799 Plaza Iinda, Novato, complained of back pains after her northbound car crashed into the divider fence on Highway 101 just north of the Alto interchange at 12:30 p.m. yesterday, the California Highway Patrol reported. She was to see her own doctor.

Larkspur Trustees Seek War On Poverty Money

Larkspur School District trustees last night approved two projects which might qualify the district for $22,000 in federal war on poverty funds.

District business manager Gilbert L. Slusher said rough drafts were presented to the board of plans to open school libraries at San Clemente and Neil Cummins schools for students to work at night.

The second proposal, he said, would be to attempt to identify children who will be problem learners as early as age 4.

Under this project, he said, the district would have to work with other agencies such as police departments and the county social services department.

The Larkspur School District Board also:

1. Awarded a contract for blacktopping at Henry C. Hall School to A. J. Bresnan Co. of San Rafael for $2,255 and a contract for blacktop at Larkspur-Corte Madera School to Piombo Brothers of San Rafael for $4,091.

2. Complied with a new state law by adopting a policy for negotiations with teacher groups.

3. Approved a student teaching agreement with San Francisco State College.

4. Approved a pilot project for the district's seventh and eighth grades involving giving of tests which can be scored by IBM machines. The process provides quick analysis of the tests, Slusher said.

5. Heard reports on the district's library skills program and trends in district English teaching.

Farm Profits Offset By Higher Costs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Bank of America report says sharply higher labor costs will keep California farm profits this year at about the same level as last year despite record total sales.

The bank's economic research report released yesterday said cash receipts for the first eight months of 1965 show a 2.6 per cent increase over the first two-thirds of 1964. The researchers said the year-end total should be a record $3.62 billion.

The sale of California livestock should provide the largest increase, from $1.321 billion last year to about $1.375 billion.

The 40 per cent increase in the price for canning tomatoes and the good autumn weather that boosted crops will contribute to raising the vegetable and melon totals from last year's $503 million, the report said.

In short bursts, the squid probably is the fastest of all marine creatures, according to the Miami Seaquarium.

Vocational Training Classes Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California Employment Director Albert B. Tieburg yesterday reported federal approval of 24 vocational training classes for 502 jobless persons.

Tieburg said that the classes could be conducted in Culver City, Duarte, Eureka, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Oakland, Palo Alto, Pomona, Sacramento, Stockton and Van Nuys.

Worker, 73, Falls From Platform, Dies

A Vallejo sheetmetal worker fell from a 10-foot-high plank platform yesterday and was dead on arrival at 3:47 p.m. at Novato General Hospital.

William Schulmeyer, 73, landed just five feet from two men working on the ground below, but neither saw him fall, said William F. Johns, foreman of the work crew. The fact Schulmeyer did not cry out has led state industrial accident investigators to believe the man may have had a heart attack.

The fall occurred at the McGraw-Hill Book Co. warehouse under construction just north of Novato. It was Schulmeyer's first day on the job. He was putting tape on points in ventilation ducts. standing on a scaffold above a concrete floor.

Schulmeyer is survived by his wife, Charlotte Schulmeyer, of Vallejo, and two sons, Alfred Schulmeyer of Kentucky and Phillip E. Schulmeyer of Vallejo. Funeral arrangements are pending at Redwood Funeral Chapel, Novato.

Actress Dandridge Killed By Drug

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The death of actress Dorothy Dandridge last Sept. 8 was caused by an overdose of a drug used to treat psychiatric depressive cases, the county coroner's office has reported.

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey said yesterday the compound, Tofranil, is a new drug. He said his office would not attempt to determine if the 41-year-old actress' death was accidental or a suicide.

'Grace' Complaints Over Meters Stop

Motorists in San Rafael have learned quickly about the new policy of ticketing cars in front of parking meters as soon as their time is up, rather than allowing a 12-minute grace period which is indicated by a moving hand on the old type meters still in use.

Police said today that compaints from irate parkers since the new policy went into effect Tuesday have dropped in frequency until there were none this morning.

JULES VERNE IDEA — The old French science fiction writer's scheme of a monster cannon to launch lunar voyages has almost come true in Barbados, British West Indies. Scientists have welded together two 16-inch naval rifles end-to-end, to make a launching gun 118 feet tall. It has already fired 185-pound payloads to heights of 84-plus miles; Canadian and American scientists plan to try putting a 50-pound capsule into orbit with it. The idea was first suggested by famed physicist Sir Isaac Newton in the 18th Century.

Conference Set On Highway

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A top state official has been directed to confer with San Francisco officials in an 11th hour effort to solve the freeway hassle and save $270 million in federal highway funds.

The highway commission yesterday ordered John Erreca, director of public works, to see what he could do to end the dispute.

Unless San Francisco approves construction of a new freeway within a few months, the state stands to lose $270 million earmarked for the interstate highway system.

Mothers Asks Aid To Find Daughters

Mrs. Rita Allen said Monroy Allen, 24, her husband, took the children for a Halloween weekend visit "but he took them all the way to Sweden."

Allen, a civilian worker at the Nike missile station at Pacifica, returned from Sweden and is awaiting trial on a felony child stealing charge. Mrs. Allen declared he refused to tell where the children are.

Mrs. Allen, at the San Francisco home of her father, Ed Ellis, reported the husband had phoned from Sweden and she had talked then with the two older girls.

German Women's Role Told By Justice Minister's Wife

The growing role of women in West Germany's public life was described to a group of students at Dominican College last night by the wife of that country's minister of justice.

Mrs. Rose Jaeger appeared while on the last leg of a lecture tour through this country and Canada. She had another reason for stopping in Marin, however: three cousins who live in the county.

She stayed with the family of one cousin, J. William Zimmerman of 318 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, and visited with the others, Carl H. Zimmerman of 214 Laurel Place, San Rafael, and Frederick A. Zimmerman of Mill Valley.

Most young women who go to college in Germany are encouraged to go into teaching, Mrs. Jaeger said, but many, including one of her own six children, are going into law.

German women, who have had the right to vote since 1919, are now determined to make better use of this right so as to help prevent the country from going through another nightmare like it did under Adolph Hitler, she said.

Mrs. Jaeger left today to meet a speaking engagement in Cincinatti. She will return to Bonn from there.

Fisheries

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gov. Edmund C. Brown has announced the appointment of Ray E. Welsh, founder and president of Salmon Unlimited, as a member of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission.

State Tax Revenues Rise

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — General fund tax revenues for the July-October period ran 33 per cent ahead of those for a year ago, due mainly to a new provision which requires large retailers to return sales taxes to the state each month instead of quarterly.

State Controller Alan Cranston said revenues for the first four months of the 1965-66 fiscal year totaled $632,494,914, up $158 million from a year ago.

Expenditures for the period also were up, Cranston said, totaling $816,622,417 for the four months. This was an increase of $87 million or 12 per cent, and the outgo passed income by more than $184 million for the four-month period.

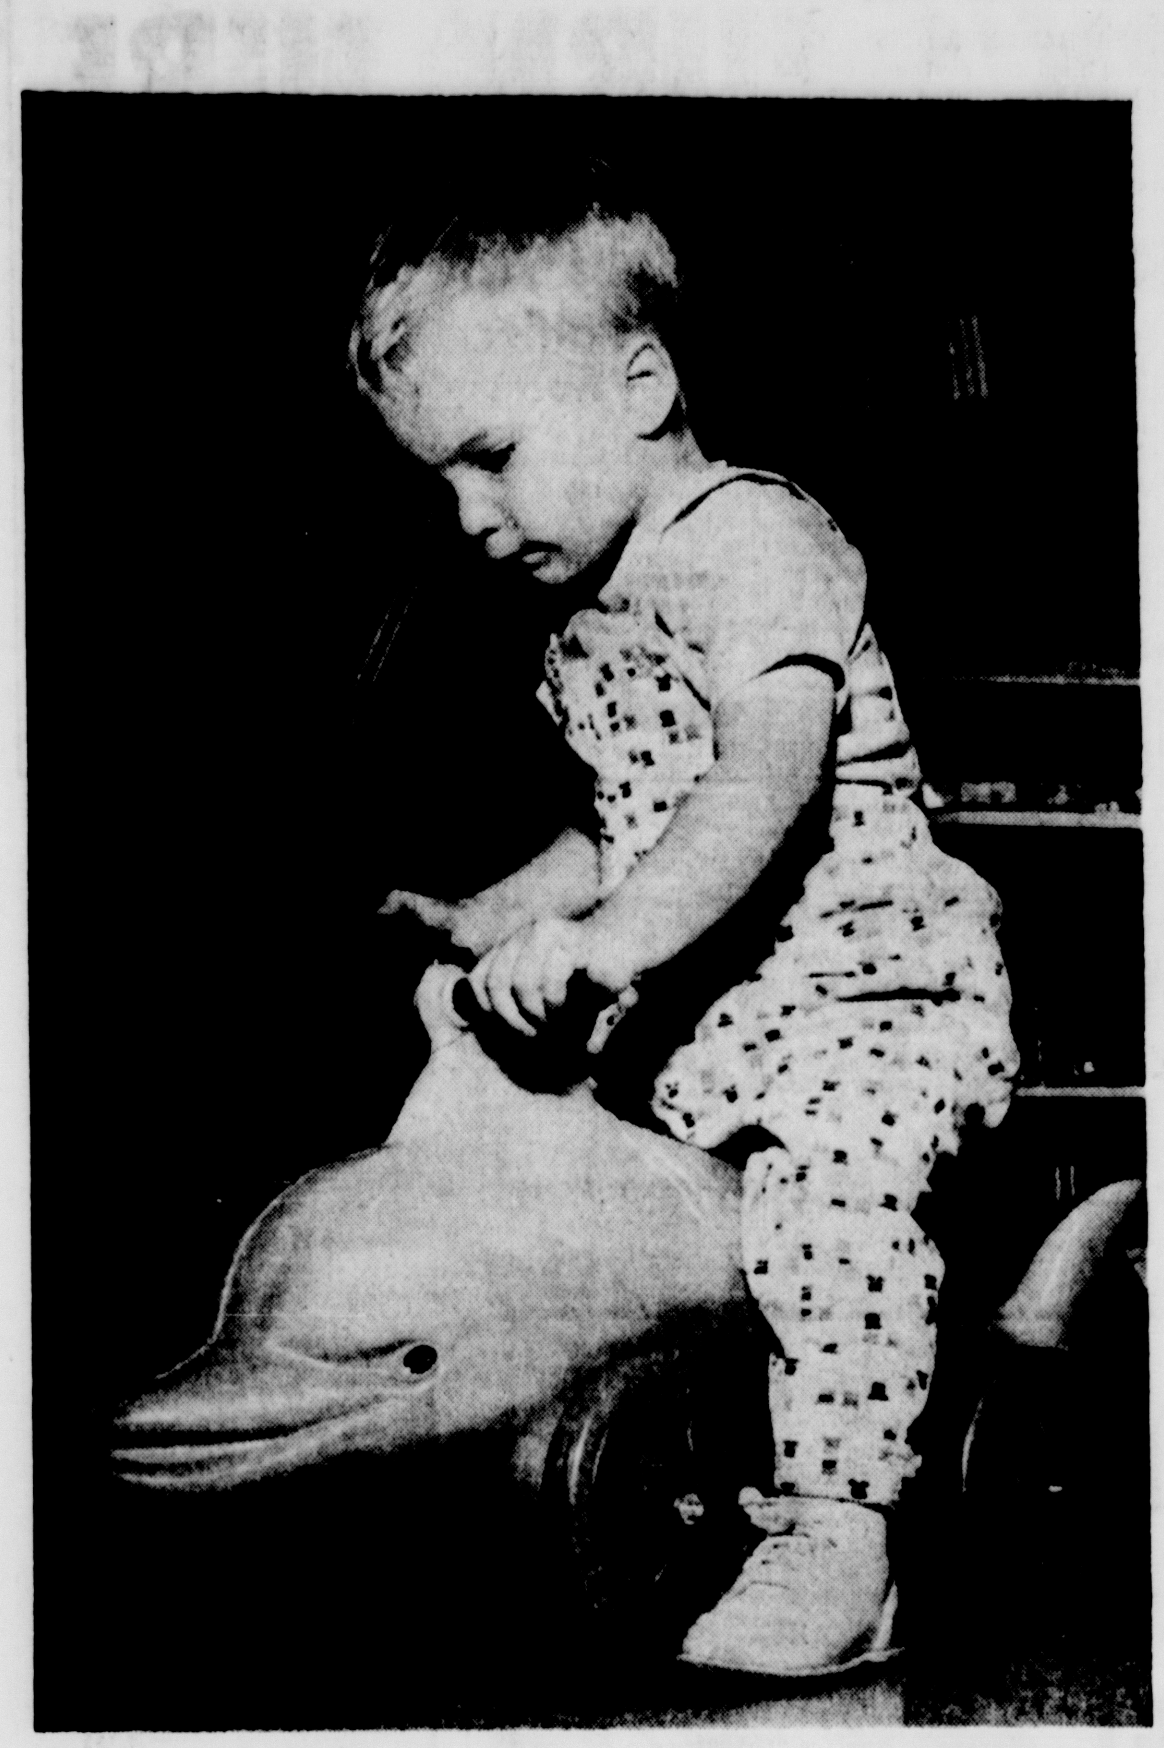
What's New In Christmas Toys?



FOR THE VERY YOUNG—"Flipper," the dolphin that helps swimmers on television and in the movies, now is helping tots learn to walk. The new wheel toy is tested by 16-month-old Barry Peronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Peronto of 316 Riviera Drive, San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

BRING 'EM BACK STUFFED — Stuffed animals grow larger each winter, Jennifer Jessup discovers. Jennifer, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowden Jessup, 81 Corte Gracitas, Greenbrae, is dwarfed by "Spoofer Dog" (left) and "Leo the Lion." These and other giant Plush-Toys are on sale at the Toy World in the Corte Madera Shopping Center. Leo will let children rest on his soft back while watching television.

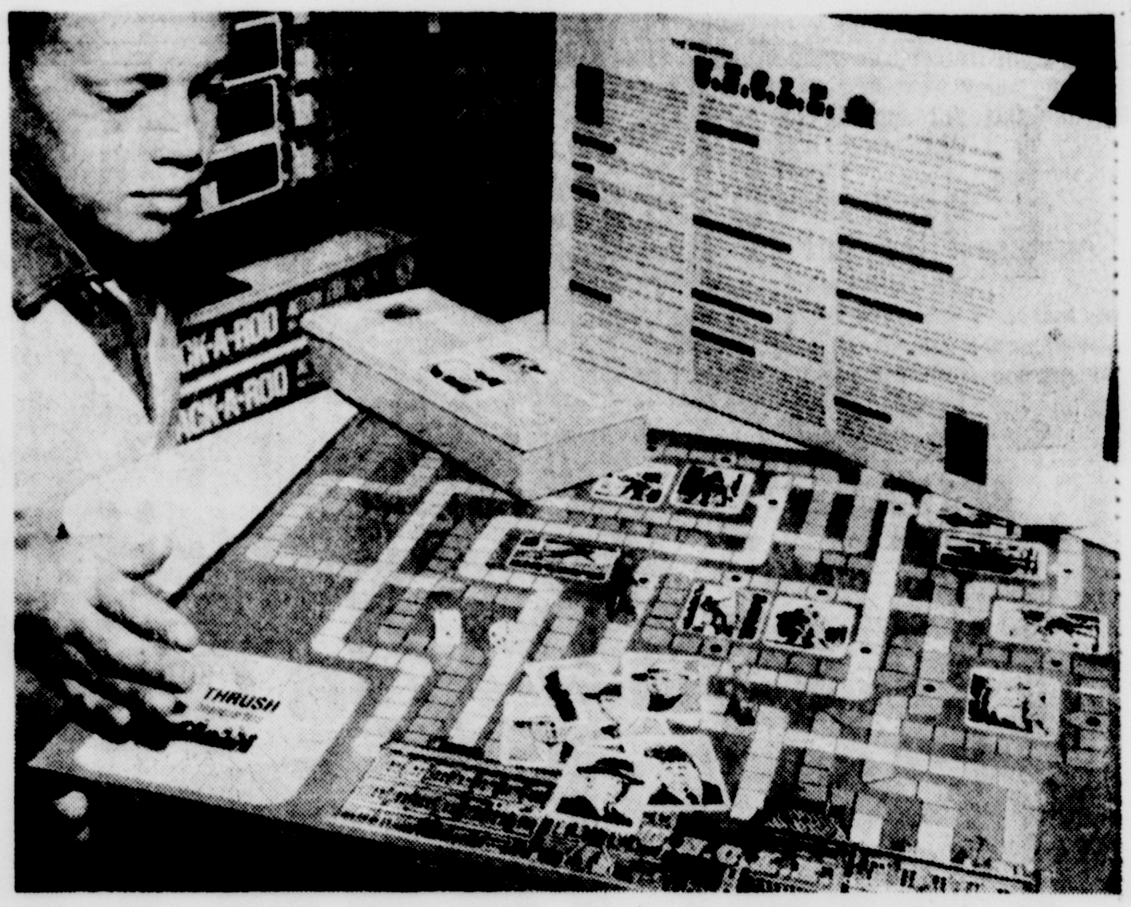
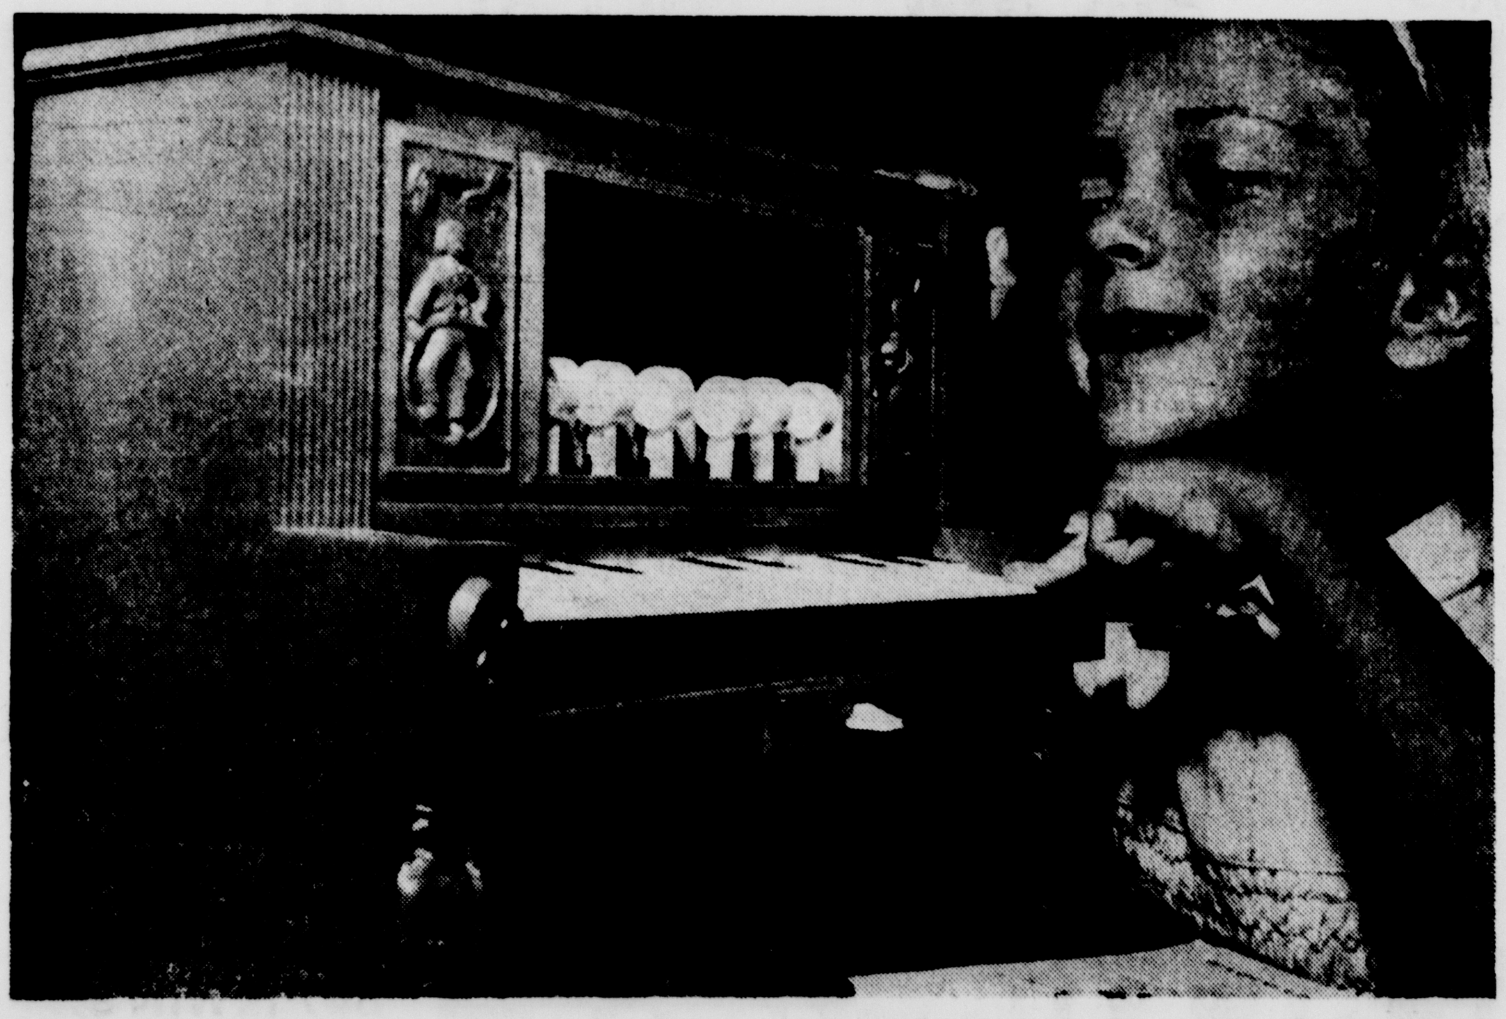
"SMACK-A-ROO" — Katie's brothers, Michael (left), 5, and Dennis, 4, check the action on a game that is a combination of pinball, baseball, bowling and a balancing act. The game, too, is produced by Mattel and is available for the Christmas rush.

ONE-MAN ARMY — Robert Guild, 5, son of Donald J. Guild, 20 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield, tries out the "Johnny Seven OMA" and a pair of combat boots. The toy weapon, which achieved popularity last Christmas, is seven guns in one.



TELEVISION'S INFLUENCE—Greg Clark, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, 420 Pinewood Drive, Marinwood, looks over a new board game, "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.," at the San Rafael Toy Shop. The game can be played by two or four players and is supposed to match the intrigue and suspense of the TV series.



RINKY TINK SOUND—This "Razz-Ma-Tazz" piano features black notes that actually play and a piano roll that works. Linda Bjork, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Bjork of 934 Vernon Avenue, Mill Valley, tries out the tiny instrument at the Toy Palace in San Rafael. The piano roll selection comes with the toy, and different tunes may be inserted by sliding back a panel under the keyboard.

"CHARM" SNAKE — Mrs. Mike La Course of the Toy Palace finds this plush toy an easy one to charm. The snake may soon be coiled around a Christmas tree.

Merger Of Coroner's Office Is Debated

Proposed consolidation of the Marin County coroner's office with that of the district attorney was argued today by three men whose present positions would be affected by the change, and by a fourth who has recommended it to the county board of supervisors

Speaking on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" were Coroner Frank J. Keaton; Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales; Dr. John H. Manwaring, pathologist and autopsy surgeon for the coroner's office, and County Administrator Alan Bruce.

The program, conducted by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast from a tape recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Administrator Bruce said the purpose of the proposal is to remove political pressure now bearing on the coroner's post.

At the same time it would remove the possibility of claims of conflict of interest on the basis of the coroner operating a mortuary while holding his public post, Bruce said.

"It should be made crystal clear that the elimination of any elected office is a very drastic change. It is so serious that the burden of proof to show why the change should be made lies on the proposer," he said.

"This would not take the post out of politics. In fact I have been told that the merger would put me in the position of running for office as district attorney-county coroner. I certainly would not do that," Bales declared.

Coroner Keaton declared: "There are six other coroners who run mortuaries in the state. I have done my job."

"I've heard talk of merging this office with others for some time now, but I haven't heard a practical proposal for it," said Keaton. The coroner's office now handles about 400 cases a year, he said, arguing that the district attorney's office could not handle the added burden.

The proposed merger which would make it possible to require a certified physician to perform the coroner's duties, noted Dr. Manwaring.

"The coroner's office is essentially a medical office," he said. "But the most important qualification of the office is not medical training, it is motivation. Training, also includes experience. . . .

"Eventually the office will be in the hands of a full-scale physician as it should be."

Manwaring thus agreed with a recommendation of the Marin Medical Society to the board of supervisors, but he qualified this by saying: "We should not now lose a man who is qualified by experience. If we make it a medical office we will have to eliminate many of the administrative activities now included in it."

The expense of the proposal was also a point of contention among the speakers. "It is clear that it would cost more money," said Bales.

"The cost would not be significantly higher," claimed Bruce.

All speakers agreed that the county should eventually have a morgue. A morgue operation which could be co-ordinated with a local hospital is being investigated, said Bruce.

Thieves Take $1,300 In Guitars

Loss of $1,300 worth of guitars in a burglary of the home of Carole G. O'Neil, 20 Quisisana Drive, Kentfield, was reported today by sheriff's deputies.

The victim told officers entry apparently was by prying a sliding glass door. One guitar, made in Madrid, was worth $700, according to the report.

Patricia Coy, 251 Richardson Drive, Strawberry Manor, told deputies a watch, two radios and clothing, worth a total of $200, were taken from her home while she was hospitalized. Entry apparently was via an unlocked door, deputies said.

Theft of $195 worth of items from a panel truck parked at Gate 6, Marinship, was reported by Vernon S. Cox, 974 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo.

Loot included a radio and a 15-cord harp. No forced entry was evident.

Terra Linda Area Tennis Courts Asked

Tennis players in the Terra Linda annexations petitioned the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission last night to construct two tennis courts in a neighborhood park at the end of De La Guerra Road, instead of one.

The petition, containing about 200 signatures, was presented at a special meeting of the commission at Santa Margarita School to discuss the proposed park layout.

Preliminary plans for the five-acre park include a tennis court, intermediate, tot and multi-purpose play areas, a picnic area along a creek, a turfed area and hiking trails.

Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota said development would cover about two acres and the remainder of the park would be open area.

Two tennis courts would not be feasible on the site because of space limitations, Rodota said. "It's not often that a tennis court is included in a neighborhood park, but we feel it would be a good use in this area," he said.

Two tennis courts would change the complexion of the park and would attract tennis players from other areas, he said.

Other residents asked questions about traffic problems and asked for buffer zoning or landscaping to preserve the privacy of homes in the park area.

"We will try to screen frontage property," Rodota promised.

The first phase construction, estimated to cost from $16,000 to $18,000, could get under way next spring, and the second phase next summer," he said.

The first phase will consist of rest rooms, storage facilities, grading, drainage, and all paving including the tennis courts, Rodota said. The second phase will include installation of playground equipment, landscaping and turfing by park department crews.

The commission will have its next regular meeting Dec. 1, under its new schedule of meetings on the first Wednesday of each month.

Commissioner Howard L. Simon was absent.

More Burning Bans Lifted

The summer ban on outdoor burning was lifted yesterday in Larkspur and in the Kentfield and Sleepy Hollow Fire districts.

The ban will remain in effect in San Anselmo, though being lifted in Sleepy Hollow which is served by the San Anselmo Fire Department, said Asst. Fire Chief Richard McLaren.

Burning is now allowed in Larkspur and Sleepy Hollow from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. and in Kentfield from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. All three departments require a burning permit.

Ex-Governor Knight Says He Would Support Reagan

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight says he would support Ronald Reagan in a gubernatorial bid if the actor had a platform of "true Republican principles."

"I have always supported every Republican nominee and I would be willing to do that with Mr. Reagan," Knight said. "I have only one reservation—I want to be sure that he would support and present a platform of true Republican principles."

Knight made the comments during a question-and-answer period with newsmen yesterday in his statewide tour to obtain support for a possible bid to regain his former job.

He said Reagan, a leading candidate for the GOP gubernatorial nomination next year, now represented "the extreme right wing of the Republican Party, which is a minority within the Republican Party."

Pants—Breakfast Into Evening

By DORIS KLEIN

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—Yes sir, ladies! California's designers now confirm what your husband has said all along: You really do wear the pants around the house.

Pants appeared in nearly every collection opening the California Fashion Creators Spring and Resort Wear showings to the nation's fashion writers this week at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.

Pants came in all shapes, widths and lengths, although ankle-length was the favorite. There were bell-bottoms, cowboy styles, overalls, stovepipes, hip huggers, slack suits, flowing harem trousers, floor-length culottes and even the Indian-style dhoti.

And pants, the designers decreed, may be worn from breakfast through the most formal evening entertaining.

Phil Rose devoted almost his entire collection to pants. He showed patio trousers in a dacron-cotton voile jump-suit style completely ruffled from neck to ankle. There were corduroy knickers combined with poor boy T shirts and a black and white stretch leotard with red corduroy knickers.

His collection included an entire set of shiny vinyl, printed in everything from polka dots to zebra stripes, shaped into pant suits, jump suits with bare midriffs, and even a transparent vinyl "space coat" shown over a striped leotard. Rose tagged that group "How to look 'in' in outer space."

Typing Paper Is Way To Man's Heart

Dr. John Finely Scott, a careful observers of the tender traps set by college sweethearts, believes the role of the sororities in helping land a husband is rapidly decreasing.

"The girls would reach the hearts of their men most effectively . . . not by pasting paper flowers on the sorority football float . . . but, rather through typing their term papers," said the sociologist.

Membership in sororities and fraternities was once the most certain way to marriage, Scott said, but today a student competing for grades just doesn't have the time for complicated sorority forms of courtship. And the growing significance of "more varied student groups" means the sororities are no longer in the pink of health, he said.

Today, he said, setting a daughter loose on a large campus leads to a "great danger."

Diet Changes May Prevent Acne Cases

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Teen-agers suffering from a frustrating case of acne can take heart, reports the California Medical Assn.

About 75 per cent of their age group is similarly afflicted and there are, indeed, a few helpful steps.

Most cases of acne are caused by hormonal changes which occur during adolescence, said the doctors, and there isn't a thing that can be done about these changes except to wait. But diet also plays a big role and this is where the teen-ager can help himself.

Foods to avoid are those which are hydrogenated or homogenized, since the essential unsaturated fatty acids are changed to harmful saturated fatty acids which tend to plug skin pores. Meats should be broiled instead of fried and the unsaturated fatty acid margarines are definitely preferable.

Avoid chocolate, nuts and cola drinks, but eat all fruits and vegetables. Sometimes vitamin capsules containing vitamins A, B complex and C help the skin considerably. Proper rest also is necessary.

Poverty War Involvement Sounded Out

The Community Action Committee of Marin Ciity made its move last night for a stronger voice in the selection of personnel to work in Marin County's war on poverty program.

It came in the form of a memorandum to the County War on Poverty Committee recommending changes in staffing procedures previously recommended by Walter Bremond, county director of community relations.

"How strong is our voice from the target area? Do we have a voice in policy, procedure and formulating program which directly affects us?" the committee asked in its opening statement.

Bremond said "local involvement" (in this case Marin City residents) in the Economic Opportunity Act "is a highly critical area and relates to the great civil rights struggle."

After reading the committee's recommendations for changes, Bremond said the first three differed little from his recommendations, but he balked at the fourth request and offered a compromise.

The committee recommended that it have the function of screening, interviewing and selecting personnel, and that it have final approval of personnel.

Bremond proposed that it share the screening, interviewing and selecting with the county and the agency undertaking the program, but that final approval of personnel be left to the countywide committee.

In his original recommendations, he did not include the CAC in any of these procedures.

The countywide committee agreed to send Bremond's proposal to the Marin City Committee for consideration before acting on the changes.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said, "I'm not even sure the Community Action Committee has gone far enough in some regards." He suggested the Marin City Committee could help set up job standards.

Verna J. Bynum, a Marin City Community Action Committee representative on the countywide committee, said, "We feel we have people who can fill different jobs, and we'd like to have someone from the community in the jobs."

Mrs. Bynum said sometimes job specifications "are so strong and so far over our heads, we'd never reach them."

Florence Scott, executive director of the Marin Council of Community Services, said that the countywide committee, of which she is a member, may have been lax for "not thinking in terms of job descriptions."

"There are jobs open that are not being filled," Administrator Bruce said.

The committee also was scheduled to discuss the role and responsibility of the community action committee, but postponed discussion until the latter, with a representative of the Office of Economic Opportunity on the issue.

The Community Action Committee said in its memo that if the proposed changes are not met, it recommends "freezing of the funds which were allocated for the program 'Teenage Married Couples' and 'Unwed Mothers' because we have other priority needs in our community."

The committee received an offer of help from the Northgate Lodge, B'nai Brith, and referred it to the by-laws committee, which is studying possible expansion of the group. Edward G. Younger, was elected to the by-laws committee.

Liberties Union Talk Scheduled

Lawrence Speizer, national executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union, will discuss civil liberties informally at the home of Dr. Sam Hanzel, 100 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, Sunday at 3 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

Speizer heads the national legislative program of the ACLU and has appeared many times before congressional committees.

Among cases he has successfully argued during the past four years is that a belief in God is not a prerequisite for holding public office, and that a confession from a defendant held incommunicado could not be admitted as evidence.

Speizer is also chairman of the National Civil Liberties Clearing House, an organization uniting groups concerned with the defense of the Bill of Rights and civil liberties.

Inmate Is Innocent Of Having Knife

Ernest Richardson, San Quentin prisoner charged with possession of a knife last June 2, was found innocent yesterday by a Marin Superior Court jury after two and one-half hours deliberation.

The defendant is serving time for murder in Monterey County on a Dec. 2, 1958, conviction. Trial was before Judge Harold J. Haley.

Easement Suits

Condemnation suits have been filed against three East Strawberry Drive property owners for easements necessary for a sewer line to the Harbor Point development. Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors were informed Tuesday night by the district's attorney.

JOHN COCHRAN
"Living in caves"

"Blues for Mr. Charlie," a play to open Dec. 3 at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, is being directed by John Cochran, who believes the production is a "long overdue reminder to the white majority of the evils of traditional race prejudice."

"We live in a very sick society," says Cochran, "and there will have to be many changes made. People are living emotionally in caves. We can send a man to the moon but we can't see a man across the street if he happens to be a different color."

James Baldwin's "Blues" is fine drama but, more important, it will force its audiences to see a brutal reality which still is a long way from being remedied, according to the 29-year-old director.

The play will be given by the Homestead Players at 8:30 p.m. Dec. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12. It has a bi-racial cast from all sections of Marin and San Francisco, acting the story of unpunished murder of a Negro youth by a white supremacist.

How can race hatred be cured? Cochran thinks that "some kind of atmosphere must be set up so we can look into ourselves and see who we really are—not black or white people, but people.

"The white man," he said, "must understand the economic and emotional reasons why he has invented a 'nigger,' a creature which doesn't exist and never existed."

Baldwin's play, he feels, is the first real communication from Negroes to whites in the American theater.

Cochran, born in Georgia and reared in a Detroit Negro ghetto, moved to Los Angeles after his graduation from Wayne State University in Detroit. He intended to go to UCLA medical school but found he could not afford it, and took a job as group worker at a treatment center for emotionally disturbed children.

He became an actor when a drama director happened to be in the audience when Cochran was making a fund-raising appeal for the center. His delivery was so convincing the director signed him for a professional stage part.

Cochran has had television roles on "Ben Casey," "Death Valley Days" and "Dr. Kildare," has appeared in television commercials, and has a role in a movie, "The Incident," which will be released next year.

He came to San Francisco to try for a stage play, found the cast was complete, but remained when he read that the Homestead Players were planning to produce "Blues for Mr. Charlie." He now resides in Mill Valley.

Transit District Sells Bond Issue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Bay Area Rapid Transit District sold $70 million worth of bonds yesterday at 3.5877 per cent interest.

Successful bidder was a syndicate headed by First National Bank of Chicago.

The only other bid, 3.5934 per cent net interest, was by a syndicate headed by Bank of America.

The district, building a high speed commuter transit system in the San Francisco Bay Area, previously had sold $180 million worth of bonds. It is authorized to sell $792 million worth of general obligation, taxpayer supported bonds.

Orchestra To Open Series Monday

The Oakland Chamber Orchestra under Gerhard Samuel, which opened the first Belvedere-Tiburon Peninsula cultural series last year, will again open the series this year on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Del Mar School auditorium, Tiburon.

The program will consist of the overture from "La Clemenza di Tito" by Mozart; Divertimento for Strings by Bartok; Symphony No. 22 for two English horns, two French horns and strings by Haydn; Wagner's "Siegfried Idyl"; and Bach's Suite No. 2 in B Minor for flute and strings with flutist Gary Gray as soloist.

Further information on the series may be obtained by writing Belvedere-Tiburon Peninsula Cultural Series, Box 585, or by calling Mrs. Sam Mercer of Tiburon.

Columnist To Abandon Her By-Line

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Ailing Louella Parsons, queen of Hollywood gossip columnists, will abandon her famed by-line Dec. 1 after 40 years of reporting the heartbeat of the motion picture colony.

It was announced yesterday that Dorothy Manners, who worked with Miss Parsons for 30 years, will take over the column.

Miss Manners has shared the column's by-line and written the copy for more than a year. She also inherits the title of Motion Picture Editor for Hearst Headline Service beginning Dec. 1.

Miss Parsons, seriously ill for more than three years, has moved from her Beverly Hills house to a nursing home where she will be under close supervision of doctors.

Driver Suffers Cut

Frank A. Neer, 41, of 112 Howard Drive, Tiburon, suffered a cut upper lip at 12:15 a.m. toyesterday on Tiburon Boulevard just east of Trestle Glen Boulevard when his eastbound car crashed into a guard rail on a curve, sheriff's deputies reported. He was to see his own doctor.

Lawmaker Claims Tax Crime Really Does Pay

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, chairman of a state assembly committee probing the current assessors' scandal, has concluded that crime pays, and extremely well for those who file false property tax affidavits.

Knox's municipal and county government committee is halfway through its investigation of the scandals which reportedly have resulted in losses of $200 million in taxes to counties.

"The details of the current assessors' scandal have made it obvious that 'crime does pay' and it pays extremely well for a firm or individual who files a false property tax affidavit," Knox said. "Fraud specialists from the department of justice have indicated that in most counties procedures for checking tax statements are so perfunctory that they constitute an open invitation for falsification."

Knox said James Tooke, the tax consultant whose information touched off the scandals, reported it was a general practice among property tax advisors to scale down figures arbitrarily on tax statements and said this could be done easily in 20 counties.

"My committee staff," Knox said, "has unearthed typical samples of correspondence between other tax consultants and their clients. In these instances, consultants have advised their clients to declare only 50 per cent of their inventories on tax affidavits. They further advise their clients to refuse to cooperate with local assessor's offices and to claim that all of the company's books and records are maintained on the East Coast."

Knox said specific remedies would not be recommended until the study was complete but said the committee is considering stricter reporting laws, increased penalties for false reporting, increased state supervision over assessors and a requirement that out-of-state firms make records available.

Experimental Film Series In Sausalito

Presented in cooperation with the San Francisco Mime Troupe and Canyon Cinema, the series will include works by such well-known avant-garde film-makers as Jonas Mekas, Bruce Conner, Ron Rice, Bruce Baille, Robert Nelson and Stan Vanderbeek. Both Conner and Vanderbeek are recipients of $10,000 Ford Foundation grants.

Each program on Friday and Saturday will begin at 11 p.m. (reason for the title) and admission price will include refreshments, according to Mime Troupe producer Bill Graham.

The initial program tomorrow and Saturday will consist of five films by Nelson, including "Oh Dem Watermelons," a top money award winner at the San Francisco Film Festival. Other Nelson films are "Plastic Haircut," "Confessions of a Black Mother Succuba," "Oiley Peloso The Pumph Man" and "Thick Pucker."

The programs are scheduled to run each Friday and Saturday through Jan. 8, skipping the Christmas weekend, Graham said.

John L. Weaver is president of the Marin Astronomical Society.

HOLD YOUR FIRE, ROGER!

Roger Saenz, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Saenz of 132 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael, seems determined that his family shall have a turkey for Thanksgiving. The big tom on which he's drawing a bead with the less-than-lethal gun is at the Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael. The museum will keep him until Thanksgiving (that's a week from today) so Marin children will have a chance to see what the piece de resistance of Thanksgiving dinners looks like "on the hoof."

New, Smelly Problems Besetting Gallinas Village District Board

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Peace has not yet been restored to the Gallinas Village Community Services District.

Residents, long angry over park plans proposed by district directors, are expected to let directors know of another grievance tonight: Backed up sewers and raw sewage in the gutters began soon after last week's rain.

Part-time maintenance man David R. Scott of Petaluma told board chairman Herbert C. Belben Jr. Tuesday that the district would have to find another man as he could not keep up with the work.

However, another resignation, that on Oct. 15 of Director Harry Thomas, will not come to pass. He retrieved his letter of resignation before it was opened.

"It's just that I don't like being pushed around," Thomas said today in explaining his reconsideration.

Thomas resigned after other directors voted to reject bids on development of a park at Rosal and Adrian Way in a stormy board meeting.

Today's meeting will be at 8 p.m. at John MacPhail School. It was postponed from the regular time last Thursday because of Veterans Day.

Thomas, who lives at 805 Descanso Way, Santa Venetia, said he has had to pick his way carefully to his car the past few mornings because of sewage in the streets.

Belben said the main subject of tonight's session will be the sewers. He said some pressure must be brought on Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District to solve the problem.

The problem is a complex one. The Gallinas Village CSD is almost out of the sewer business. In fact the area has already been annexed to Las Gallinas Sanitary District. However the sewer facilities of the CSD have not yet been accepted by the sanitary district.

The facilties are being upgraded with extensive work by the sanitary district but maintenance is still the responsibility of the Gallinas Village CSD, sanitary district secretary Helen Foulkes explained.

Belben said the backup of sewer lines was due to inadequate bypasses installed by the sanitary district pending completion of four pumping stations.

Mrs. Foulkes said this was not the case. The trouble was due to a generally inadequate system and the backup has occurred whenever there are extensive rains and rainwater gets into the lines, she said.

The upgrading now being done under contract by Kirkwood-Bly Inc. of Santa Rosa was to be completed Oct. 15, but delay in delivery of parts for the pumping stations has delayed the completion of the job. Work will probably not be complete until the first of the year, Mrs. Foulkes said.

Thomas said vandals have caused extensive problems for the contractor. He said someone, "angry about his sewer assessment," started one of the firm's tractors and pulled up a line crossing Gallinas Creek, doing $10,000 damage.

A spokesman for the firm, who did not want his name used, said it was not known if this was the work of vandals or not. The damage occurred during the Labor Day weekend.

The spokesman confirmed, however, that there has been an amount of vandalism, such as broken truck windows and headlights and construction shack break-ins.

The firm wrote a form letter to residents asking for cooperation in control of children. The sheriff's department was asked for extra help.

Legal Counter Moves Continue Over Tunnel

San Rafael and Marin County have filed a reply to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad's latest effort to 'forestall re-opening of the Puerto Suello Tunnel in San Rafael.

Boris H. Lakusta, attorney for the city and county in their running battle with the railroad, said he filed a "motion to affirm" with the U.S. Supreme Court Monday.

The motion was offered in support of the California Public Utilities Commission order that the railroad re-open the tunnel which has been closed since it collapsed in a fire on July 22, 1961.

NWP last month filed a "jurisdictional statement" seeking to block the state PUC order. It had previously been upheld by the California Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, Lakusta said, there has been no word on whether a new Interstate Commerce Commission hearing, asked by the railroad, would be held in San Francisco. Originally scheduled for last month, it was indefinitely postponed by the ICC.

Speakers Are For, Against Marin Joining Region Park

The pros and cons of regional park and recreation districts were aired before the Marin Conservation Council last night by a leading Bay Area conservationist and a former member of the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission.

Speakers were Daniel B. Luten, a member of numerous conservation groups now lecturing on geography at University of California, and Mrs. Helen Newman of Tiburon, former parks commissioner.

Saying he was speaking "not as an advocate but as an historian," Luten traced the background of the East Bay Regional Park District, recently joined by Contra Costa County.

Marin could theoretically join that district, he said, since Contra Costa borders Marin under the waters of San Pablo Bay.

On theh other hand, he noted, Marin County could create its own district, which then might be joined by adjacent counties. Such action would require approval of the Local Agency Formation Commission as well as the board of supervisors, he said.

Mrs. Newman said she was strongly opposed to such a step, adding that she considers Marin's present approach to parks and recreation to be adequate.

About 30 people attended the session.

Tools Stolen

Novato contractor James R. Fillipo told San Rafael police yesterday thieves the night before broke into a locked tool box at a construction site at Fourth Street and Santa Margarita Drive and took hand tools and 150 feet of electrical wire, worth a total of $62.65.

Bookish Thieves

Terry A. Jarcik of 137 Canal Street, Apt. 21, told San Rafael police yesterday someone had taken an attache case with college text books in it from his unlocked car, parked in a carport at the apartment house. He said value of the case and books was $62.

FIVE-TO-LIFE FOR SALLY SAFE GANG

Four men were sentenced yesterday to terms of from five years to life for trying to burglarize the San Francisco home of Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford), Sausalito restaurant owner.

One of them, former San Francisco police officer Salvatore Polani, 44, later announced that he had hired Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere to appeal his case further.

Judge Harry J. Neubarth of San Francisco Superior Court denied probation to Polani and ex-convicts Winston Major, 51, Wesley Roy Gant, 57, and Louis A. Romero, 34.

Judge Neubarth sentenced the men after hearing a report from probation officer Robert Nichols, who declared that Polani "cannot be considered a suitable subject for probation in the light of the nature of this offense, which involved a calculated breach of public trust—a trust which he has apparently been violating for some time."

Of the others, Nichols said their long criminal records ruled out any chance of probation.

Attorney Emmet Hagerty, who had represented Polani during the trial, asked Judge Neubarth to suspend the former officer's sentence and give him a year in the county jail instead.

"He was a prime mover in this thing," replied the judge. "It seems to me he should have a greater sentence than the others."

Judge Neubarth also denied the bids of attorneys to have all four men released on bail pending appeals. Charges against Gant and Romero of being habitual criminals were dropped by the district attorney's office, however.

The men were arrested in and near Mrs. Owen's home the night of April 6 by police acting on a tip from Point Reyes Station contractor Robert K. Worthington.

Polani announced his change of attorneys at the end of yesterday's court session. When Judge Neubarth asked if Hagerty was out of the case, Polani acknowledged that he was.

"I'm happy to be out," said Hagerty.

Marinites Injured In Span Collisions

An elderly San Rafael couple suffered minor injuries yesterday in a four-car chain-reaction crash on the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge that helped tie up rush-hour traffic and caused a second accident.

A car driven toward San Francisco by George L. Rice, 70, of 28 Mira Mar Avenue, San Rafael, was struck from behind at 3:50 p.m. by a car driven by Everett C. Draper, 55, of Eureka, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said Rice's car was forced into a station wagon driven by Bruce L. Dippel, 39, of San Francisco. Draper's car was then hit from behind by a car driven by Lloyd L. Lind, 57, of Santa Rosa.

Rice suffered multiple bruises and his wife, Hazel, 70, suffered a cut right leg and cracked ribs. They were treated at the Kaiser Health Plan clinic in San Rafael.

Twenty minutes later, at 4:10 p.m., Reynold Acevedo, 27, of San Francisco suffered a sprained left ankle and cuts and bruises in a second chain-reaction crash on Highway 101 just north of the bridge.

George Macris, 64, of San Bruno was driving south when he slowed for the traffic tie-up caused by the first accident. His car was tsruck from behind by a car driven by Raymond C. Edmondson, 25, of Daly City, the highway patrol said. Acevedo's car then crashed into Edmondson's. Acevedo was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Eleanor D. Johnson, 47, was en route to her home at 44 Diablo Drive, Kentfield, when her car skidded on the curve at the end of the bridge and crashed into the cement wall. She was treated at Marin General Hospital for forehead and scalp cuts.

$10 Million Decision

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Joseph M. Farber, state director of veterans affairs, must make a decision before the end of the month on the renewal of a fire and hazard insurance policy on some $2 billion worth of property mortgaged under the Cal-Vet, low interest, farm and home financing plan.

The current five-year contract with the National American Co., operated by Howard F. Ahmanson, is due to expire. Premiums for the insurance coverage for the five years amount to about $10 million.

Farber said the current contract with National American has been a good one in that it extended coverage to a number of new areas, including damage from mud slides. He said it covers farms and homes of some 128,000 California veterans under the program.

Brown Names Seeger To Pollution Group

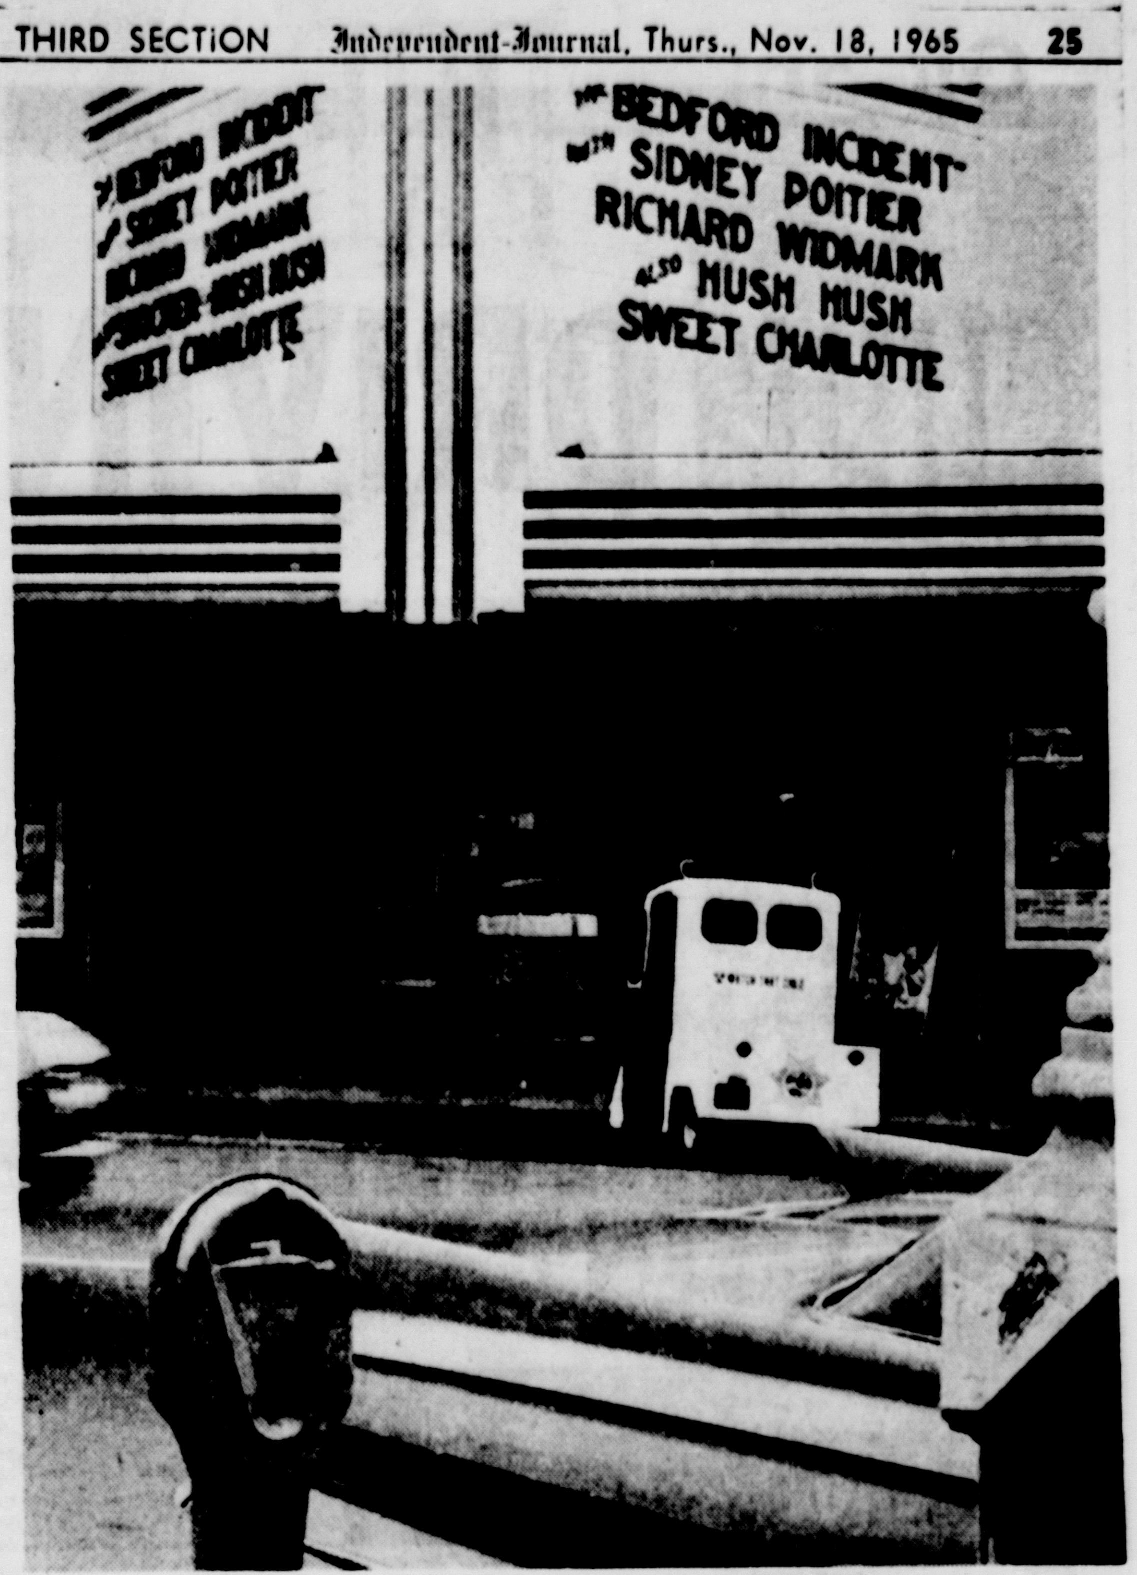
William R. Seegar, general manager and chief engineer of Marin Municipal Water District, has been appointed by the Governor to the Technical Coordinating Committee of the State Water Quality Control Board.

The committee was created by the 1965 Legislature. The State Water Quality Control Board is responsible for controlling water pollution.

Burglars Hit Empty House In Tiburon

Gordon Y. Kaneko of Mill Valley complained to the Tiburon Sheriff's substation that between 1 p.m. Tuesday and 3 p.m. yesterday a vacant house he owns at 160 Rock Hill Road, Tiburon, was burglarized.

A double oven, hot plate, garbage disposal unit and dishwasher were reported missing. Investigating officers found a rear door leading to the kitchen unlocked.



CHECKING THE CHECKER

The San Rafael Police Department's city council-ordered crackdown on overtime parking seems to be producing results. An Independent-Journal camera survey along Fourth Street from Lincoln Avenue to D Street on Tuesday turned up only three all-day parkers, whereas a similar photo check in 1963 produced 28. However, various vehicles were found parked in red zones—including this meter maid's electric cart, parked in front of the Rafael Theater while the meter maid had coffee at the Court House Creamery.

Heart Monitor Taken From Ike

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower passed another milestone on the road toward recovery from his heart attack today as doctors disclosed they were no longer monitoring his machine.

The electronic device had been in constant service since the 75-year-old five star general was brought to the hospital here.

In a statement this morning, Eisenhower was described as having spent a "very good night."

He was stricken nine days ago.

Coin Box Gone

Corte Madera police last nig discovered a phone was pri from the wall of a telepho booth at the Texaco service s tion at Fifer Avenue and Luc Drive. The coin box was mi ing, they said.

Contract Suit Names Marinite

Sid E. Flaherty, prize fighter-manager whose stable once included middleweight champion Bobo Olsen, has filed a $250,000 suit in Marin Superior Court alleging one of his fighters has been persuaded to break a seven-year contract with him.

Defendants are Vincent Correnti, a Marin County resident, Walter Minskoff, Leo Minskoff, Willie Ketchum, George Andros, and 10 John Does.

The suit alleges that Flaherty and Thaddeus Spencer, a boxer from Portland, Ore., signed a contract March 1, 1960. In December of 1962, however, Flaherty charges, Correnti and the other defendants "intentionally and maliciously" coerced Spencer into breaking the contract and fighting instead under their managership.

Flaherty also asks a court order adjoining the defendants from interfering with his contract until its expiration on March 1, 1967.

The moon is approaching its new phase; the morning star is Jupiter; the evening stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Weak Bids Sometimes Give Tips To Fast-Thinking Opposition

If you want an excuse to overbid, make a note of today's hand.

The pass was his undoing.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamonds and led a third diamond to start the play.

Claude Delmouly, playing the South hand, knew that West would have bid if he had held all of the missing high cards.

WHAT HAPPENED

Delmouly ruffed the third diamond in dummy and led the queen of spades.

East covered with the king, and South won with the ace.

Now there was no hurry with the hearts. Declarer cashed the high clubs, discarding a heart, and ruffed dummy's last club.

When West discarded a heart, South led a trump to force West into the lead.

If West returned a heart, South would get a free finesse; irf West returned a diamond, dummy would ruff and South would get rid of his last low heart.

DECEPTIVE BID

South would go down at four spades if West opened the bidding with one diamond.

South would discard a club from dummy on the third round of diamonds, cash the top clubs, play the ace of spades and then lead a low spade in the hope of forcing West to win with the king.

If you habitually open the bidding with very weak hands you will sometimes have stories about how you fooled the oppenents.

More often, the other players will have stories about how your weak bid landed you in the soup.

Either way, you'll have fascinating stories to tell the other inmates of the poorhouse.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealr, you hold:

♥ Q J 10
♦ J 8
♣ A K Q 7

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one club.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid of one notrump, partly because it is a point shy and partly because the diamonds are too weak.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Mushroom Poisoning Can Take Some Unexpected Directions

VAN DELLEN

There are more than 2,000 species of mushrooms that differ in color, texture, taste, and odor. One type, Coprinus atramentarius, is toxic only when combined with alcohol. This black-spotted variety is harmless when cooked and eaten, but the gourmet is likely to get sick if he drinks wine, beer, or other liquors within 24 hours. The manifestations vary from nausea to collapse, depending upon the amount of alcohol and mushrooms consumed.

TOADSTOOLS and mushrooms have been steeped in mystery throughout the ages because the fear of poisoning has been passed down from one generation to another. The majority are edible, but the few harmful varieties are responsible for their notorious reputation.

The Amanita muscarina (fly mushroom) contains the poison, muscarine, that causes vomiting, abdominal pain, diarrhea, intense thirst, and profuse perspiration when consumed. The pupils of the eyes contract and the victim may develop convulsions and become comatose.

The more deadly Amanita phalloides also leads to gastrointestinal distress along with excess salivation, circulatory failure and damage to the liver and kidneys. Both specimens have white gills and spores and grow in clusters on wet or shady ground. They have a bitter taste and yield a pungent milk.

Mushrooms should not be eaten unless they are picked by those who know the real McCoy or by commercial dealers who make it their business to be careful. The best known edible species, Agaricus campestris, are found in pastures and grassy places. The top is white, and the pink gills later change to brown.

MANY FAMOUS people have been poisoned by these fungi. Emperor Nero made his niche in history by burning Rome. He also gave one of the most deadly banquets, where poisonous mushrooms were served. All the guests, guards, and gate crashers died.

Over the years, many simple tests have been devised to determine the safety of mushrooms, but as a rule they are valueless. To be safe, buy your mushrooms at a reliable store.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request).

TELEVISION REVIEW

Market, Romance Better Than People

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — One would think that any television program that can offer such provocative guests as Art Buchwald, Lena Horne, Gloria Swanson, Jules Feiffer and Bubb Schulberg—all within a single week—would be worth keeping on. Or at least that a network would think so—especially since it is on during the daytime, when the network air is most foul, most of the time.

All of the above guests are only some of those scheduled to turn up next week on the show in question, ABC-TV's "The Young Set," a daily one-hour talk series whose hostess is the actress Phyllis Kirk. The show is being canceled—goes off Dec. 17.

ABC-TV feels that the ladies who watch the home screen during the daytime would much prefer a different sort of diversion, and so the network has unveiled the following two half-hour properties to be added to its rock 'em, sock 'em sunshine lineup:

—"Supermarket Sweep," a thrilling pastiche which will make its world debut Dec. 20, originate from supermarkets around the nation and feature special runners, selected by contenders, racing around the food centers scooping up "as many groceries as each can collect" in a given time. Once again I suggest ABC-TV contact our celebrity-strewn Arrow Market here on Santa Monica Boulevard, into which two robbers came the other night, scooping up the cash in register in a given amount of time as our wife, her back to them, three feet away, stood reading a magazine, never noticing. A great reporter.

—The other new ABC-TV entry, also to have its world premier Dec. 20, is called "The Dating Game," and is described as a show that presents "attractive and eligible men and women with romance in mind."

Royal Opera Has Finance Problem

LONDON (AP) — The Royal Opera House says it is in a financial crisis and has called on the British government for relief.

The opera house now receives a government subsidy of $2.45 for each $2.80 it takes in. During the year 1964-65 it received a subsidy of $2,153,570 for the opera and ballet.

The Earl of Drogheda, chairman of the board of the opera house, said yesterday costs have risen so sharply that the estimated deficit or 1966-67 is given as $679,000.

Pvt. Spike And Baseball's New Image

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball's new public image began forming today behind the leadership of a new commissioner — a retired three-star Air Force general who delights in being called Pvt. Spike.

He is William D. Eckert, 56, of Washington, D.C., a trim, sharp-visaged man with thinning steel-gray hair and the build of a high school football halfback, 160 pounds, 5 feet 8½ inches.

His unanimous recommendation yesterday to the major league's 20 club owners ended a six-month search by a screening committee headed by John Fetzer of the Detroit Tigers and John Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates. They started originally with about 20 men.

The soft-spoken Eckert, a much-decorated officer who retired from the service four years ago, was a surprise choice to become baseball's fourth commissioner. He follows a line that includes Judge K. M. Landis, who ruled with a mailed fist; A. B. (Happy) Chandler, who was ousted by owners in favor of Ford Frick, retiring at the age of 71 after serving since 1951.

Eckert's first lieutenant will be Lee MacPhail, baseball-wise 48-year-old president of the Baltimore Orioles and son of the stormy Larry MacPhail of years ago.

MacPhail was named to head a so-called cabinet as administrator in the commissioner's office. The new-image baseball government also will have departments encompassing player affairs, public information, television-radio and amateur baseball that includes Little League, American Legion, high school and college levels.

Whether directors of each of these branches ill be named is yet to be decided, said MacPhail, who signed a three-year contract at $40,000 annually.

Eckert was given a seven-year pact at $65,000.

The new commissioner admits he knows little of the inner workings of baseball and that his first action will be to confer with as many club owners as possible and the presidents of the American and National leagues, Joe Cronin and Warren Giles.

Cronin prominently as mentioned as Frick's successor but eliminated himself yesterday by accepting another seven-year contract as American League president at a salary increase.

Frick will be Eckert's conferee for the next three months and will aid in officiating at the baseball meetings in Miami next month. A year ago in Phoenix, Frick was successful in getting owners to restore the commissioner's power which had been clipped after the death of Landis.

He urged restoration of autocratic powers in order to broaden public confidence and maintain the honesty and integrity of the game, warning that baseball was in danger of losing its coveted public image.

Eckert, a native of Freeport, Ill., whose only close connection with baseball as playing first base and the outfield for Madi-

STANFORD A MUD BOWL SO LEAVE AUTOS HOME

The football players aren't the only ones likely to be inconvenienced by mud during Saturday's 68th renewal of the Big Game between Stanford and California at Palo Alto.

Stanford University officials have urged fans to leave their autos at home because this week's rains have turned the woodsy parking area around Stanford Stadium into a quagmire.

Fans should use trains and buses or pool rides, the university warned, noting that in the past cars have become hopelessly mired and had to be left behind.

Happy Story With Sad Ending; Or, Getting Fore The Hard Way

Pull up a chair, Bunkie, and I'll tell you a sad story concerning two of the Bounty County's prominent residents, William Zimmerman and Dr. Marv Gilberg.

Golfers on the Meadow Club team now participating in the big Gold Cup Invitational Tournament in Las Vegas, Zimmy and Marv left San Francisco Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock on what was supposed to have been a routine 90 minute flight to Las Vegas where they were to join the other dozen or so members of their Meadow Club team.

WHEN THEIR commercial aircraft approached Las Vegas, however, the weather was so frightful that the pilot decided a landing was impossible so he swung the plane down to Albuquerque, New Mexico. If you've ever been to Albuquerque you're already shedding a few tears for our Rover Boys.

A FEW HOURS later they caught another flight, this one looping to Los Angeles, thence to Vegas, but again on approaching the rambling, gambling city the inclement weather forbade a landing and AGAIN Zimmy and Marv wound up landing in Albuquerque with silly expressions all over their faces. This time it was the crack of dawn and if you've ever been in Albuquerque at the crack of down you're probably hysterical by now, but keep reading please.

AGAIN, OUR intrepid Rover Boys decided to try their luck on still another flight that was to detour through Los Angeles and after their third try in a matter of hours they finally made it to Vegas.

Rushing over to the Stardust Hotel, they located their Meadow Club teammates who had already played their first round in the tournament involving golf club teams from throughout the country.

"Sorry we're late," Zimmy and Marv chorused, "but we've done enough flying to travel to Japan and back."

"Oh, that's alright," their buddies replied, "We're in first place. It really didn't matter; we did great without you."

Thud!

Just then one Meadow Club member's wife turned to the other and said: "Don't you just hate to see grown men cry."

MARTIN BACCAGLIO, the former Novato High and College of Marin gridder who has been a great star for San Jose State this season, has recovered from severe chest bruises and probably will see action in Saturday night's big game against Fresno State, which is great news for San Jose . . . Milt Morley, newly-crowned golf champion of the Marin Country Club and one of the finest shotmakers in Marin, is moving to New Orleans because of a new job. We're sorry to lose a golfer of Milt's caliber but wish him birdies all the way to New Orleans, which is the only way for a golfer to fly . . . THIS is the final week for the I-J's Fearless, Peerless Pigskin Prognosticators. Rookie Bob Alvarado is in first place with a 70-31 record; Yours Truly and Maurice "The Wet Nosed" Weinger are tied for second at 69-32, Ralph Chatoian trails at 66-35 and Ed "Also" Randol is so far behind at 54-47 we're going to have a moment of silence for him.

WILLIE MAYS seemed to sum it up nicely yesterday when asked what he thought of the new commissioner of baseball, William D. Eckert. Said Willie: "Who's he?"

Versalles Wins A.L. MVP Title

BOSTON (AP) — Zoilo Versalles, the spectacular shortstop of the Minnesota Twins, was a near unanimous choice today for the 1965 American League Most Valuable Player Award.

Versalles, who sparked the Twins to their first American League pennant, received 19 of the 20 first place ballots cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

The other first place vote went to teammate Tony Oliva, who won the A.L. batting championship for the second year in a row. Oliva finished second in the voting, being picked second on 13 ballots, and the 1964 winner, Brooks Robinson of Baltimore, finished third.

The only other player named on all 20 ballots was relief pitcher Eddie Fisher of Chicago. The knuckle ball artist became the first relief pitcher in the American Lague ever named on every ballot.

Fisher finished fourth in the voting with 122 points, compared to 275 for Versalles, 174 for Oliva and 150 for Robinson.

Versalles' total was 100 points higher than the runner-up because each first place vote was worth 14 points while second place votes received 9 points and third place, votes 8 points, etc.

"Boy, oh, boy," he exclaimed in surprise, "I cannot believe I got 19 of the 20 first place votes. This is the best thing that can happen to any ball player."

The speedy shortstop said the award came as a surprise to him. "I didn't think about it during the season. I only thought about winning the pennant."

The Twins manager, who had a preseason squabble with Versalles and fined him $300 for not hustling in an exhibition game against the New York Mets, said of the award: "That's terrific. He certainly deserved it."

Mele said Versalles "inspired us to a pennant. His play in the field, his work at bat and his leadership led us to the pennant."

To help the Twins to their first pennant, Versalles led the major league in runs scored with 126, and he led the American League in total bases with 308. Batting at the top of the order he collected 666 at bats in 160 games, a league high, and finished with a .273 average.

Versalles had 182 hits of which 45 were doubles, 12 were triples and 19 home runs. He knocked in 77 runs and stole 27 bases. His doubles tied Carl Yastrzemski of Boston for the league lead in that department.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER—Minnesota Twins shortstop Zoilo Versalles showed some swinging ability last night, doing the twist with showgirl at Minneapolis-St. Paul night club after learning he had been named the American League's Most Valuable Player for 1965.

One-Year Contract For Former Catcher

President George Weiss said the decision of the board was unanimous. Mrs. Joan Payson, owner of the Mets, was informed of the decision in Paris, where she is vacationing.

Under the former major league catcher, the Mets won 19 games and lost 48 for a .284 percentage. They were 31-64, .326 under Stengel.

Westrum, who will be 43 Nov. 28, said he nearly became a manager once before.

"It was either in 1961 or 1962," he recalled. "My name was brought up as manager of the Giants' club at Tacoma. But Horace Stoneham told me it would be too easy to fire me in that job. So I stayed with the Giants as a coach."

Westrum went with the Giants as a coach when they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958. He retired as a player in 1957 after 11 seasons with New York.

In that time he batted .217 and had a .985 fielding average. He played in two World Series, 1951 and 1954, handling 23 chances without an error in the second one.

The Mets' new field boss, 5-feet-11 and 200 pounds, was born in Clearbrook, Minn., in 1922 and now lives in Phoenix, with his wife, Josephine, and their two daughters.

Are Muslims Jeopardizing Patterson?

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson was quoted yesterday as saying at Las Vegas, Nev., he has "run into obstacles" that "jeopardized my camp."

Courier-Journal writer Larry Boeck reported that Patterson prefaced the statement by saying the Black Muslims are "a very, very clever organization. I've read that, and I've heard that, but I don't believe anything until I see it for myself, and I can tell you they are clever."

Boeck said Patterson allowed him to participate in an exclusive interview with Sig Kamph of the Stockholm Aftonbladet because Boeck is from the hometown of heavyweight champion Cassius Clay.

Patterson was quoted as saying:

"I have run into obstacles here I never had in any of my fights and things I never could have foreseen.

"I can't at this moment expose precisely what has happened in the last few days. What has happened has jeopardized my camp, to a degree, at least.

"To talk about them (the obstacles) now would only cause confusion."

In answer to a question, Patterson said, "Sure, I'll tell you after the fight. Of course. Most definitely and beyond all doubt because I want these people to know that I knew before the fight exactly what was happening..'

Ski Club Officers

Novato, Redwood Stars Top Marin Grid Statistics

Otis Is Double Champ; Giants No. 1 Air Combo

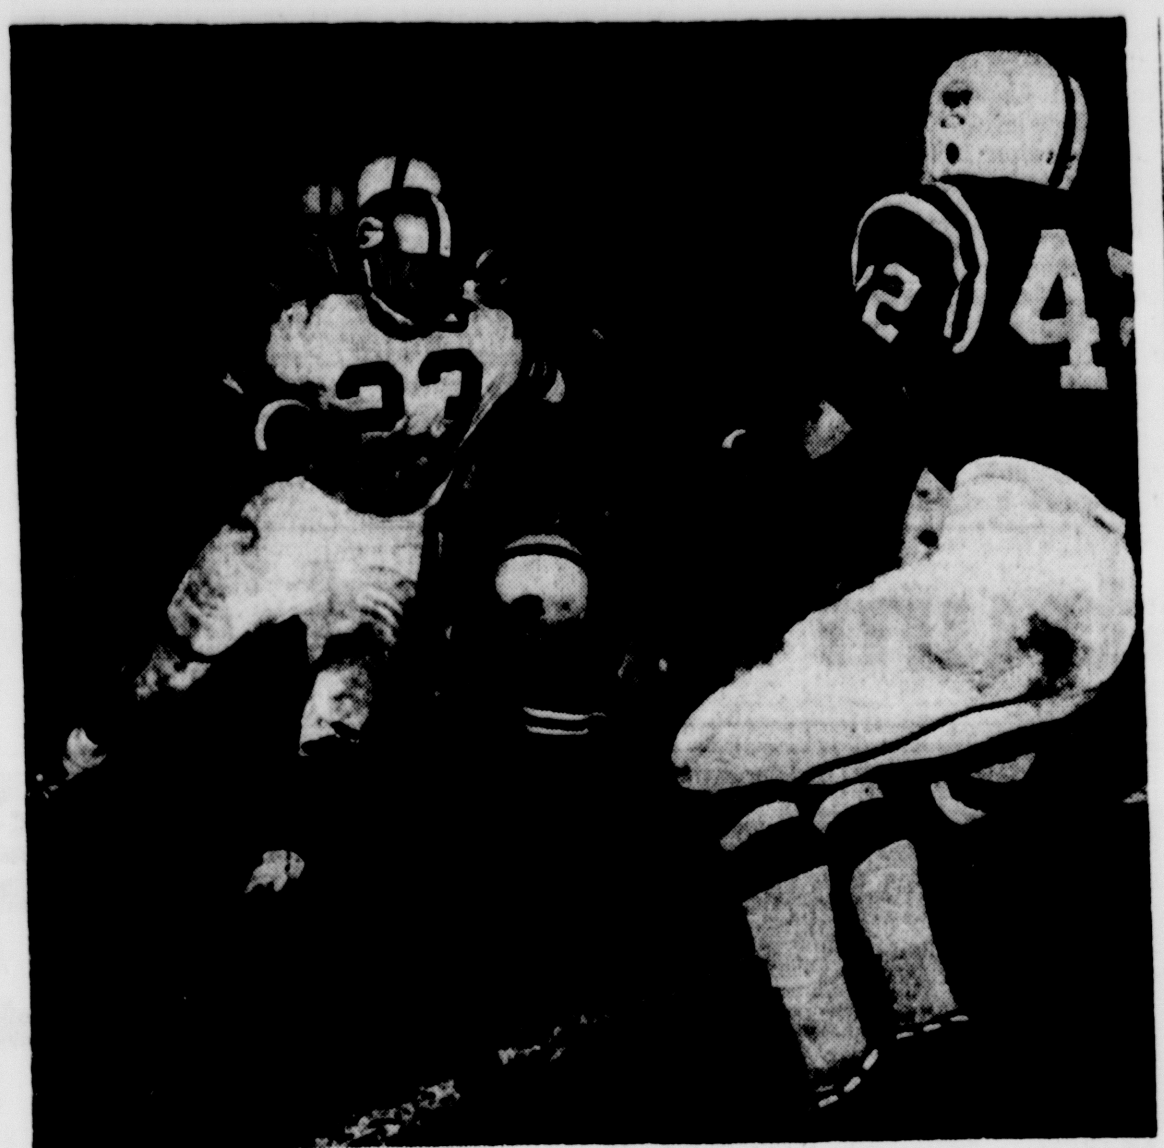
The powerful tailback out of coach Harry Moore's I-formation romped for 779 yards in six league games, carrying the ball 147 times for a 5.3 average. He beat out Drake's speedy Dean Lazzarini for the second straight year. Lazz, who suffered a broken collarbone early in his last prep game, gained 594 yards in 103 carries for a 5.8 average.

Otis dethroned Lazzarini as the scoring champ of the league with a four touchdown performance in Novato's final game of the year. Otis ended up with 8 touchdowns and 1 extra point for a total of 49 points, while Dean scored 7 touchdowns and 2 PAT's for 44.

The combination of quarterback Dane Durham to halfback Len Pieri won the Redwood combo the top spots in passing. Durham was the league's leading passer both in percentage of completions and yards gained. He completed 24 of 51 attempts for 493 yards, mostly in Redwood's final two games of the year. Durham was followed by Novato's John Dolinsek with 28 completions and 314 yards and Drake's Bob Ingram with 24 completions and 376 yards.

Pieri was the top receiver in the league, catching 15 passes for 465 yards after great performances in Redwood's final two contests. He averaged 31 yards per catch on the season. Novato's Tom Corder was runner-up with 15 catches and 299 yards.

In final team statistics, Novato was the total offense king and Drake was defensive boss. Drake was on top in rushing with an 180-yard average to Novato's 175, and Redwood was No. 1 in passing with an 101-yard average. But it was Novato in total offense, 264 average to Drake's 245.



REDWOOD ACE — Len Pieri (23), Redwood halfback, finished the season as top receiver in the league. He's shown here making a gain against San Rafael earlier this season. A boy who could really run with the ball after catching it, he averaged 31 yards every time he caught a pass.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mickey Wright is the only player ever to win the U.S. Women's Open golf championship two years in succession. She won it in 1958 and again in 1959.

POILE MORE VALUABLE IN SEALS' OFFICE JOB

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Seals of the Western Hockey League put their eye to the future and decided to name Charlie Burns as player-coach and leave Norman (Bud) Poile freer to handle the job as general manager.

Poile has been handling both jobs since he took back the coaching reins from Nick Mickoski early last season. Announcement of the switch came yesterday.

"We had to make a choice," said Seals president Mel Swig, "whether to make Bud a full-time coach or a full-time general manager. We decided he would be most valuable in the top job."

With San Francisco granted a franchise by the National Hockey League for 1967, the importance of Poile's job could increase. The Seals ownership and a group headed by Bing Crosby are bidding for the NHL franchise and Swig said a merger of the two groups is in the works.

Poile has coached 15 years. He said the decision to handle only the general manager's job was his own and that he didn't plan to return to coaching.

Burns, a high scorer for the Seals, said the timing of his elevation to coach surprised him. The 29-year-old who will become a playing coach, said his ambition the past few years has been to coach.

"Charlie has shown the leadership and potential to be a good coach," said Swig who added that Poile had recommended the player for the job.

Poile has three years remaining on his contract with the Seals which might be indicative of plans to retain him in the general manager capacity should the organization gain the NHL franchise.

Swig said the likelihood of removing Poile should the club go big league was "minimal."

Burns and Poile both served with Detroit in the NHL. Charlie played with the club starting with the 1958-59 season. Poile, also a former NHL player, was an official in the Detroit organization several years.

Wilt Now No. 2 Scorer In NBA History; Celtics Bow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Come sometime in February Wilt Chamberlain probably will become the all-time career scorer in the National Basketball Assn. with close to 21,000 points.

The Big Dipper, as the 7-foot-1 former Kansas All-America prefers to be called, became the No. 2 all-time scorer last night when he tossed in 46 points against the Cincinnati Royals.

There was just one flaw. Wilt's team, the Philadelphia 76ers, lost the game 131-115 as the Royals won their seventh straight and replaced the 76ers as the Eastern Division leaders.

Jerry West also scored 46 points in pacing the Los Angeles Lakers, the Western Division leaders, to a 125-115 victory over the Boston Celtics in the other NBA game scheduled yesterday.

Chamberlain got his 46 points on 18 field goals and 10 of 12 free throws. This gave him a career total of 19,263 and he needed only 33 to pass Dolph Schayes' career total of 19,249. Schayes now is Chamberlain's boss as coach of the 76ers.

Bob Pettit of St. Louis, who retired after last season, is the NBA's No. 1 career scorer with 20,880. Chamberlain can catch up and pass him by averaging 30 points per game for the remaining 69 games of this season. This is well within Chamberlain's capability.

West topped off his 46-point effort for the Lakers with a three-point play in the last quarter that broke a 107-107 tie and put the Lakers ahead for good in the game at Los Angeles.

Boston, which played without injured Larry Siegfried, Willie Naulls, Ron Bonham and John Thompson, was led by John Havlicek, who came off the bench and scored 41 points.

Pheasant Season Gets Underway Saturday

By JERRY HARRELL

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's general pheasant season opens Saturday with prospects rated good in most areas.

It's estimated that more than 225,000 hunters will join in the chase for the king of upland game birds during the two-week season.

The general season will continue through Dec. 5 with daily shooting hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The opening day has been delayed this year in six San Joaquin Valley counties to avoid a conflict with crop harvests. The season in the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced and Tulare will be Dec. 11-26.

Two southern counties, Imperial and Riverside, will have a longer season than the rest of the state, opening this Saturday and continuing through Dec. 19.

The bag limit statewide is two birds per day, 10 per season. A hunting license and pheasant tags are required.

Shooting in most of the state is restricted to taking of male pheasants. Hens may be taken in Southern California, including Kern, Inyo, Mono and San Luis Obispo counties.

A look at reports of game managers of the State Fish and Game Department turns up such prospects as "rated as good . . . prime hunting . . . brood counts are up."

Only in the Bag Valley of Shasta County and Modoc County's Tulelake and Surprise Valley areas are prospects listed as only fair.

Over-all populations of ringnecks in the Sacramento Valley are up, and game managers predict good hunting.

"The 1965 hatch may be up 25 per cent or more over that for the previous season," the state's summary of delta conditions said.

Prospects also are good in Stanislaus County, which opens for hunting Saturday instead of with the delayed - opener group of counties for the San Joaquin Valley.

Walter T. Shannon, state fish and game director, cautioned hunters to obtain permission before entering private land to hunt.

For the unattached hunter, there will be eleven community hunting areas plus the Grime Cooperative Hunting Area in the Sacramento Valley.

State and federal waterfowl management areas also will be open to pheasant hunting. Several are loaded with birds and could provide top shooting.

Caffeine Detected At Bay Meadows; Owner Suspended

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — The Bay Meadows stewards said Wednesday they have suspended indefinitely trainer-owner Fern Darling after caffein was found in the urine of Queen's General, winner of the fifth race Monday.

Although parimutuel wagering was unaffected, Queen's General was disqualified and the next three horses moved up a notch each. They were Verna-Star, Polyonio and Embark Briskly. Queen's General forfeited his winning share of $1,200 and the purse was redistributed.

Graebner, Ashe Shoot In Semis

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, and Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles, shot into the men's singles semifinals of the New South Wales Tennis Championships today, completing a wave of victories that has placed Americans in at least the semifinals of all events.

Graebner defeated Barry Phillips-Moore of Australia 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4 in the quarter-finals and will meet John Newcombe of Australia in the first semifinal tomorrow.

Ashe set up a Saturday semifinal match with Australian Fred Stolle by beating Ken Fletcher, an Australian living in Hong Kong, 6-1, 6-4, 6-3.

Newcombe eliminated Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5 while Stolle stopped fellow Australian Owen Davidson 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

In a women's doubles semifinal match, Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. Carole Graebner, Clark's wife, whipped Australians Jan Lehane and Madonna Schacht 2-6, 6-1, 6-2.

The victory put Miss Richey and Mrs. Graebner in Saturday's final against Australians Margaret Smith and Lesley Turner, who defeated Judy Tegart and Kerry Melville, also of Australia, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1.

The American pair already has advanced to the semifinals of women's singles with Miss Richey scheduled to meet Gail Sheriff of Australia tomorrow and Mrs. Graebner set to play Miss Smith Saturday.

The Graebners also are in one semifinal of mixed doubles while Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Tegart are in the other.

Fine Mark For Wade

CHICAGO (UPI) — Quarterback Billy Wades' passing efficiency record for 11 National Football League campaigns is a nifty 54.5 per cent.

Unitas' Record

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts has 15 300-yard plus passing performances in his National Football League career, a league record.

Indians Stay Out, Bears Go Indoors

STANFORD, Calif. (AP)—The Stanford Indians refuse to go indoors to prepare for Saturday's Big Game against California. But the Bears have displaced their basketball team in Harmon Gym.

"It appears that we're going to have to play on a soft field and we might as well get used to it by practicing on one," said Stanford Coach John Ralston as he led his Indian football team in a rain-drenched outdoor practice yesterday.

Reserve guard Delos Brown was excused from practice because of a heavy cold.

"I'd say we have one of the best mudding teams in the country," said Ralston. "In fact, the only thing that would make us happier for the Big Game would be snow."

Meanwhile, California Coach Ray Willsey put his team indoors for half the 90-minute practice session. The Bears beat Oregon 24-0 last Saturday in wet weather.

"Rain might change our game plan to a degree, but why worry about something you can't do anything about?" said Willsey. "Stick to worrying about something you can."

Pvt. Spike And Baseball's New Image

son, Ind., High School and on West Point intramural teams, said he was a great admirer of Landis.

"But I don't intend to be a czar and, at the same time, I don't intend to live in an ivory tower," said Eckert, who admitted he knew he was being considered for several weeks. "Each person operates differently. Landis was a great commissioner and I had the highest regard for him.

"My authority will be exercised by analyzing, studying and considering. I will not use it dictatorially. I will call the signals as I see them."

Eckert said he was nicknamed Spike at West Point when he was a plebe because of his interest in sports.

"Baseball men can call me Commissioner or General, but I get a kick out of being called Private Spike," he smiled. "That's the name I'm known by in a Washington youth organization of which I'm president."

Since his retirement, Spike has served on many industry and defense advisory boards but plans to leave most of them to devote nearly full time to his new post.

At the U.S. Military Academy, where he graduated in 1930, he was on the Equestrian team and played polo. He still is active in horseback riding, tennis, squash and golf.

Spike was one of two young pursuit pilots selected to attend Harvard graduate school of business and got his master's degree there.

During World War II he commanded the 452nd B-17 bomb group, 8th Air Force, in the European theater of operations. Then followed a series of promotions taking him into the fields of Air Force business management. At the time he on his third star, he was the youngest lieutenant general in all the services.

When the club owners and other baseball brass were grouped for picture-taking ceremonies yesterday, Frick had the best quip of the day when he said:

"Never in 20 years of baseball has this many people been so close together."

NEW BUILDING AT NORTHGATE INDUSTRIAL PARK

Prefabricated walls of concrete with imbedded flagstone are raised at 148 Mitchell Boulevard for the new home of Capitol Insulation Contractors in Northgate Industrial Park. The firm, now at 34 De Luca Place, San Rafael, specializes in thermal and sound deadening insulation for construction. The new building, containing 9,500 square feet of floor space, is due to be completed by the end of this month. Capitol will occupy part of the premises and lease out the balance.

Market Closes Lower In Moderate Trading

Kennecott, Anaconda and other copper company shares sank as the administration put pressure of copper prices by clearing the way for release of 200,000 of the metal from the federal stockpile.

The news conflicted with a rash of dividend increases and other special situations that gave the market strength in spots.

Gulf & Western gained sharply. The company owns more than half of New Jersey Zinc, which announced plans for development of a zinc-lead ore-body in Canada.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.9 million shares, compared with 9.12 million yesterday.

Copper stocks paced the decline as President Johnson cleared the way for selling 200,000 tons of the metal from the national stockpile to stabilize prices.

Kennecott fell 2½ points and Anaconda was off 3.

Time Inc. rose more than 4 points as the company declared an extra year-end dividend.

Fairchild Camera advanced a point or so and SCM ran up more than a point. Brunswick, Wednesday's most active issue, was fractionally higher.

Drug companies were mixed. Parke Davis gained a fraction and Searle was fractionally lower.

Prices were mixed in heavy trading in the American Stock Exchange. Syntex was up 2 points and National Video advanced a point or so. Canadian Superior Oil and Kiddie and Co. were up more than a point. American Book fell off a point and Benrus dropped more than a point.

Redwood Bank Deposits Rise

Redwood National Bank reported a rebound in deposits to $13,379,775 in its statement of condition of Oct. 13.

The figure reflected an increase of more than 7 per cent from the $12,487,654 reported June 30. At that time Redwood announced an 8 per cent drop from deposits of $13,600,000 on June 30, 1964.

Total assets of $15,473,916 were also up, from $14,615,443 on June 30, but still under the $15,800,000 reported in 1964. Loans were up from $7.8 million last June to more than $8.3 million on Oct. 13.

Hongkong Bank Due To Open

Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corp., a century-old international banking firm, will dedicate its six-million-dollar, 18-story office building at Pine and Sansome Streets, San Francisco, tomorrow.

The bank was founded in Hong Kong in 1865 and established a San Francisco agency that same year. Recently it has been located at 80 Sutter Street. The local subsidiary deals in both international and domestic services.

Construction was started 13 months ago on the new building, which contains 120,000 square feet of gross floor area. It was designed by Hertzka and Knowles, San Francisco architects. Cahill Construction Co. was the general contractor.

Dedication ceremonies will be at 11:30 a.m., and there will be an open house on the main floor from 3 to 5:45 p.m. The bank will open for business on Monday.

Still Dancing At Robello Studio; New Interior Decorator Shop

Dancing classes under the name of Robello Dance Studio are continuing at 2130 Fourth Street, San Rafael—former location of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio operated by Robert Kelly Denham.

Mrs. Louise Robello, owner of the property, is a dancing teacher of 21 years and originally opened for Arthur Murray on the Miracle Mile in 1953. She sold in 1962 to David Michael, who turned the business over to Denham early last year.

Michael, I am toid, is now in South Carolina, where he is working for Holiday Magic Cosmetics. Denham, of course, has taken Arthur Murray Studios to Red Hill and Essex Avenues, San Anselmo under a newly issued franchise.

On the Robello staff are Ludwig Dahlberg as dance instructor, Mrs. Robello's daughter Bernice who has been teaching for eight years — also Linda Western and Rex Marquardt, all former instructors in the Arthur Murray operation.

Hours for polishing up on cha-cha-cha or other popular steps for the holidays at Robello's are from 1 to 10 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and to 6 p.m. on Saturdays.

INTERIOR DECORATOR Lorette Larson of San Rafael has established a new shop at 1050 Redwood Highway — on the service road near the Tiburon-Belvedere interchange. It is located in the premises (now completely remodeled) formerly occupied by Draperies, Inc., which has moved to a lower level building in the rear.

Name of the business is Lorette Larson Interiors. Associated in the operation are Mrs. William Bolen of San Francisco and Margaret Vickers of San Anselmo. Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Vickers originated the Designers Showcase series of interior design programs for women's organizations.

The shop offers institutional, commercial and residential interior design services from the blueprint stage to the finished product. Shoppers will find antiques and other furnishings, imports, reproductions, decorative accessories and gifts.

INTERESTING DISPLAY at the Sandal, Inc., in Strawberry Town and Country Village is the "Celebrity Capezios" collection of footwear, which includes dancing shoes used by famous theatrical stars since the early 1900s and created by Salvatore Capezio.

The collection of 36 autographed shoes graced the insteps of the Dolly Sisters, Irene Castle, Tammy Grimes, Mary Martin, Sir Lawrence Olivier, Chita Rivera and a number of others.

The Sandal at Strawberry has been open about three months and is a second outlet for Joyce M. Curry who has operated her Sausalito store about nine years. Robert Boyd of San Francisco is in charge.

BRUCE SCHOENFELD of Ross has set up a new warehouse for his Husky Waterproofing Co. at Northgate Industrial Park. This is in the building of Phil's Plumbing Co. at 123 Carlos Drive. Schoenfeld manufactures industrial waterproofing systems incorporating resins and sealants for flexible joint systems.

DR. R. L. NORMAN of Greenbrae has been appointed engineering associate at the Richmond laboratory of Chevron Research Co. Since joining the company in 1960 he has played a key role in applying computers to petroleum processing design and other chemical engineering problems.

WILLIAM TIMMER REALTOR celebrates the opening of his new Northgate branch office tomorrow and Saturday with free chances to all visitors on 25 turkeys. Salesmen are Charles Dewalt, Hank Greenberg, Jack Ludwig, Timothy O'Leary and Robert (Nook) Ryan. The office is in Northgate Unit One.

THIS YEAR'S Imported Automobile Show will be held in San Francisco next week from Tuesday through Sunday at Brooks Hall in the Civic Center. Many new models will be shown for the first time. Personnel from some of our Marin imported car dealers will take their turns at the displays.

MOST of Marin field underwriters for New York Life are attending a business life insurance seminar in Berkeley today and Friday to brush up on proposed changes in the tax law which may affect life insurance.

Beautification Should Be Goal For Personal Efforts

Some may chuckle at the Highway Beautification Bill, sometimes referred to as "Lady Bird's bill" because of the First Lady's interest in its passage.

Obviously, however, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's interest in beautification goes far beyond the confines of highways. She is thinking in terms of beautifying and cleaning up parks, schoolgrounds, and other public places as well as highways.

Some of the suggestions made by her have local appeal, both from the standpoint of practical application and the fact that large public outlays are not required.

Mrs. Johnson makes this suggestion in the National Education Assn. Journal:

"School children are the most natural allies of beautification, and you as educators are in a position to help them appreciate their immediate world, particularly through art and science classes."

She suggests that children be divided into cleanup teams to brighten parks with flowers, weed overgrown lots, repair fences, and clean up littered areas.

Commenting on one Washington, D.C., school cleanup project, she points out: "Before the project, school windows were broken frequently, but none have been broken in the project area since the schools were spruced up."

Planting and cleanup projects need not be limited to the schools and the school year. They can be taken up by other youth and conservation groups, either year round or during summer vacation.

The possibilities are limitless. The education journal reports some youth groups are planting flowers and trees on school grounds and distributing anti-litter posters, litter bags and trash baskets.

One national honor society built trash boxes, placed them at the school exits, then sold the waste paper collected.

Such projects by youth groups can serve a two-fold purpose.

First of all, youngsters who would normally give vent to their energy in destructive activities, would be given something constructive to occupy what leisure time they may have.

And more important, they would automatically acquire new appreciation and pride in their school grounds, in gardens and parks which they once took for granted.

Even after they have outgrown these projects, they would be less likely to uproot shrubs, damage lawns, or destroy school or park property which they once helped to beautify.

"National beautification", at first glance, may sound broad and impersonal. But with proper local application, it can have real meaning to all.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

YOUTHS PLANT 1,500 TREES

A group of 20 teen-agers planted 1,500 evergreen trees in less than 6 hours recently in Lebanon, N.J.

The students, all volunteers aged 12 to 19, started at 9 in the morning and worked until 3:30, with an hour for lunch.

The seedlings were planted on a one and one-half acre area as the first step in a conservation program that seeks to control erosion as well as to make a 2,300-acre section suitable for recreation.

Officials praised the young people for "doing a very good job," and said they were anxious to teach them "good land use."

If a more imaginative and persistent effort were made by adults to find meaningful, constructive outlets for youthful energy, boys and girls—as well as everybody else—would stand to benefit.

God is most generous in instilling in every child a bit of His divine power. But He expects them to be helped first in unlocking it and then in applying it in a way that will benefit everyone.

"Train a boy in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not swerve from it."

(Proverbs 22:6)

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Decision of Gov. Edmund G. Brown to veto Senate Bill 13, passed in the final stages of the special legislative session to correct some errors in the origional reapportionment measure, but containing a rider increasing legislative retirement to windfall benefits, marks a move which should be pleasing to taxpayers.

Even before the amendment was adopted, legislative retirement constitutes one of the most lucrative pay-offs in the state for government service. The benefits are well over and above those accorded state civil service employees, which causes an unusual but probably justified amount of "griping" on the part of the public workers.

ADOPTION OF the amendment, which can be said to have been done by the conference committee which reported the final bill more or less in secret, as the committee's sessions were executive, appears to have been nothing less than an attempt to impugn on the generosity of the people as a "reward" to those who may lose seats in the Legislature as a result of reapportionment.

The amendment, the governor said, could have increased retirements to as much as $210,000 for a 40-year-old legislator, over and above what he might expect from regular retirements.

"BY MY VETO," the governor declared, "I hope to make it clear that such back-door approaches to legislative salaries are not acceptable in California."

The governor is asking the State Supreme Court to recognize the corrections to reapportionment provided for in the bill, and thereby carry out its original intent, without the necessity of placing the rider amendment calling for increased retirements into effect.

The fact that the Legislature, in the closing hours of a session, or at any other time for that matter, can and does override its own rules to "sneak through" measures for its own benefit, regardless of drains on the taxpayer, constitutes a defect which inures to the detriment of the rights of the people. Regardless of the subject, the basis of all legislation is coupled with a complete understanding, or opportunity to understand, what laws the legislature is making.

ON THE SUBJECT of retirement benefits, the legislature voted itself an extra liberal system. Not only are legislators included in that system, but also elective state officials. Without the cooperation of a governor, and Governor Brown wasn't in office when the original bill was passed, the liberalities could have been passed up.

With retirement systems the vogue for almost everyone, it is assumed the public would have no qualms about sponsoring retirement benefits for legislators on a reasonable basis, even though the public never has had opportunity to vote on the subject. But signals of abuse easily could lead to a wave of resentment.

'Favoritism' Charge Wrong

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Warren Robinson's charge to the San Rafael City Council of "favoritism" by our "Meter Maids" once again seems to prove how easy it is for some to strike out and criticize the most convenient target when the net result is a less than subtle reflection upon our entire Police Department.

. . . Few towns protect their citizens and merchants as does the City of San Rafael and, for that matter, the County of Marin. This obviously is the result of a general competency on the part of our law enforcement officers and exceptional cooperation between all branches, regardless of subdivision or department.

Members of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce have worked closely with our mayors and city council, as well as our Police Department, to materially improve the parking situation in downtown San Rafael. Admittedly, we still have a ways to go.

Toward this end, we need all the cooperation and support that we can get from our local merchants in backing our Chamber program. It was therefore disappointing to find Mr. Robinson's name does not appear on the membership roster of the Chamber of Commerce.

I would like to extend an invitation to you, Mr. Robinson, to avail yourself of the many advantages of the progressive programs now underway among your fellow merchants through the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. These programs are based on constructive criticism, awareness and cooperation with the City Departments.

My suggestion to you, Mr. Robinson, would be to support your community in its problems instead of blindly knocking it. You'll look a long way to find a better place to live and work.

Thanks For Help In An Emergency

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to take this means to thank the two kind ladies who stopped and rendered assistance when my husband was stricken with a fatal heart attack on Oct. 26 at the 101 underpass at Corte Madera. I did not learn their names so cannot thank them personally.

The kindness of the above ladies as well as the Larkspur police, the Larkspur ambulance, the kind nurse at Marin General Hospital will long be remembered. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and may God bless all of you for your kindness to me.

Vanishing American Returning To Sioux?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I met a friend of mine the other day who is an admitted conservative (that painful carbuncle on the body politic) and he said he felt he was joining the Sioux as the vanishing American.

However, he said, before he disappeared altogether, he would like to prophesy that the next America revolution would, of necessity, be a bloody one; because the bourgeois hierarchy of the Politburo would be hard to unseat.

He asked me if I could imagine a future when the present campus commies were stodgy, middle-aged comrades, each busy at his appointed task, and their kids were whooping it up on the quad with signs like, "GIVE US BACK FREE ENTERPRISE" or "DOWN WITH THE COMINTERN."

I said, no, I couldn't imagine it, because one sign like that and junior's head would roll! He said I got the picture!

Then he had to hurry on because he had to appear before the local P-TA, of which he is a member, to prove he did not belong to—not the Communist Party, USA, mind you — but to a right wing group!

Can you beat that?

Resident Protests Secret Meeting

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Ralph M. Brown act Forbids closed meetings of municipal governing bodies except for hiring, firing or hearing charges against an employee. This closed meeting then that was held with the Kentfield Fire Commission regarding the widening of Sir Francis Drake is in direct violation of this state law.

Why should the Kentfield Fire District be given the information and the taxpayers, whose properties are involved, be discriminated against. These various public bodies get togehter, discuss things amongst themselves, the school districts want this, the fire districts want that, the department of public works wants something else and the taxpayer is set up as the patsy. . .

How can we property owners work out a solution to our traffic and parking problems when the department of public works ignores them and tells them they have no idea of where, what or when this widening is to take place and yet they see fit to discuss these matters at a closed meeting with other agencies. . .

Many thanks to an alert Independent-Journal for their article in the Nov. 11 paper for bringing this closed meeting into the open. . .

Before any matter is discussed at the planning commission meetings, the board of supervisors meetings or these different districts, the agenda for these meetings should be advertised in the Independent and anything not advertised should not be heard. This goes for all original or continued hearings. . .

The property owner should demand his rights and write to his supervisor asking that a county law be established making it mandatory for all agendas to be published in the paper so that all concerned will know what is happening in his area or to his property.

BENNETT CERF

THE LATE, dynamic, heavily bearded sculptor, Jo Davidson, whose head of Franklin D. Roosevelt sold in the hundreds of thousands in replicas at various prices, made the grade for the first time when he was commissioned to do a bust of the daughter of one of society's most exacting—and wealthiest—patronesses.

When the bust was completed, Mama rode downtown to study it through her upraised lorgnette. "It's good," she admitted, "but the mouth's too big." "It is nothing of the sort," contradicted Davidson, and proved it by measuring his live model's mouth and then the bust with a tape measure. "Nevertheless," persisted Mama, "I still say the mouth's too big." "That settles it," roared Davidson, and threw her his sculptor's tool. "Finish it yourself," he told her.

Mama stormed out of the studio, but later gave a big party for Davidson, pointing him out as "the one artist she had been unable to intimidate." Davidson lived in Paris luxuriously for a whole year on the proceeds.

ONE OF THE first deluxe theatres built in New York was the Park, completed in 1798, and located on then fashionable Park Row and Ann Street. The traffic jam on opening night caused such problems for the constabulary that this sign was painted for subsequent performances: "Ladies and Gentlemen will please direct their servants to sit down with their horses' heads towards the New Brick Meeting House, and take up with their horses' heads towards Broadway."

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND and SAM ZAGORIA
(Second in a Series)

(Mr. Zagoria is a member of the National Labor Relations Board and former assistant to Sen. Clifford Case of New Jersey.)

HERE'S HOW it works:

The computer sets the daily production goal for each product, knowing that it must keep inventory of all bulk ingredients—how much has been ordered, how much is on hand. It meters out the proper amount of milk, sugar, flour, and eggs, moving ingredients from storage into mixers and running the mixtures at the right speed for the time required. It alerts workers to add what machines can't do.

Electronic quality controls are posted all along the assembly line and baker-engineers watch the marching batter. Doughs and batters are prepared under controlled temperature and humidity conditions in individual aluminum pans and march 12 abreast into ovens 110 feet long. At the end of the oven is a cooler and then an icy blast takes the cake down to 40 degrees below.

After icing and packaging, cartons are piled automatically on wooden pallets and guided into a holding freezer the size of a football field. Here, almost 8 million cakes are stacked by automated cranes and when ordered are retrieved by the cranes and put on conveyors moving to waiting trucks or railroad cars. The computer knows exactly what cake is on hand, where every cake is, and when it was baked.

WHEN ORDERS come, the stock is moved by the computer on a first-in, first-out basis. The procedure is so fast that when a truck arrives at the front gate with an order for various items, by the time the driver pulls into the shipping dock, a fork lift is waiting with the cakes stacked neatly on a pallet.

The lift rides onto the truck, unloads, and the computer sends off a bill for the goodies and makes note that tonight it has to make more cakes, and it can—at the rate of 30,000 an hour, 24 hours a day.

There are 1,000 workers in the plant, but if there is a little old cakemaker, he comes out only on payday.

MOST OF the manpower is made up of assembly-line watchers and they look as if they are more familiar with screwdriver than rolling pin.

A computer similar to the Sara Lee generalissimo can sift through thousands of law cases to help attorneys research the law. The Law Research Service, Inc., in New York, has put on tape in one of the largest computers in the world the decisions in more than one million law cases.

For a fee the computer is put to work doing the humanly tedious work of digging out precedents—past decisions that bear on the case at hand—in a matter of minutes.

A lawyer calls or writes for cases relating, say, to the question of whether a court may issue a warrant directing the search of a person wherever the person may be found. He gives some background on his problem. The law research editor programs the query. The computer then prints out the case citations.

ONE OF THE service's lawyer-editors checks the citations to make sure the machine is on its electronic toes. The computer then zips to the most appropriate decisions on microfilm and reprints them. The results are now mailed or telegraphed. They can be clicked back on teletype or flashed on a video screen in the lawyer's office.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Massachusetts Battle Due For Governor

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The Massachusetts gubernatorial race is still months away, but the intense maneuvering and jockeying for the Democratic nomination is already taking on national significance.

Striking illustration of this is the inside word being put out by Washington friends of Kenneth O'Donnell, former White House assistant to Presidents Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

THEY ARE SAYING O'Donnell will announce his candidacy at a Boston political rally before the end of the year—probably Dec. 22—and that he will have the active backing of Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., a close friend.

O'Donnell's principal opponent will be former State Atty. Gen. Edward McCormack, nephew of Speaker John McCormack, who is already busy rounding up support from potential delegates to next spring's Democratic convention.

McCormack, 41, who was defeated by Sen. Edward ("Ted") Kennedy in a bitter 1962 primary contest, will have the powerful backing of Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

While Senator Kennedy is remaining tight-lipped on his choice for governor, O'Donnell's friends are claiming an endorsement will come at a politically strategic time.

AS GROUNDS FOR that belief, they point out that Kennedy has told Senate colleagues he will take a definite stand in the gubernatorial struggle, and that he will make his position known in advance of the state convention.

O'Donnell partisans also are stressing that a number of Kennedy organization workers have pledged their support to O'Donnell — something they would never do without Kennedy's knowledge and approval.

It is also asserted that other Kennedy assistants have proffered sizable campaign contributions to O'Donnell.

ANOTHER POSSIBLE explosive element in the impending O'Donnell-McCormack clash is the book the former is writing about President Kennedy with two other members of the "Irish Mafia," Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien and David Powers, a former White House aide.

The O'Donnell-Powers portion of the book, which has been completed, reputedly contains some unflattering references about President Johnson before he succeeded Kennedy.

Publication of the book, due early next year, is still uncertain because O'Brien has not submitted his part. The new Cabinet member has put more than 60 hours of reminiscences on tape, but is still undecided whether to go through with the project.

If the O'Donnell-Powers portion of the book is published McCormack is reported to be prepared to use it to highligh the political split betweer O'Donnell and President Johnson while emphasizing hi close relationship with th latter.

Seabee, Proud Family Are Cast In Poignant Role At Restaurant

A tall, straight-backed youth, perhaps just starting to shave, definitely not much more than a year out of high school, a boy by most standards, a young man because of his unpleasant job -- the young Navy Seabee walks in with his proud family.

THE FAMILY—Mother, little sister, young wife and small baby—choose their seats with an eye towards the view of the sailor, home from the war. The three women, all at the same time, vye for the attention of the son, brother, husband they have not seen for months. They question and listen, joke and smile, but mostly watch with covetous eyes this young man who probably won't be home again for several months.

Other coffee sippers look up, watch and listen to this happy family. Drifts of conversation over clattering dishes: "Forty-five miles from camp, in the jungle, when they radioed about the baby. Hours before I could get back and find out," And "you'd think they could do better than that," and "you look tired, like you haven't been sleeping." And "you don't sleep too heavily there. Never know when it might be your last."

TELL THIS young man and his family that the war he is helping to fight is senseless, immoral. Tell them he is a war criminal, according to something called Nuremburg decisions. Tell them we should just have refused to serve his country.

Just try to tell them that.

ALL OFF DUTY Corte Madera policemen were told to report to the office at 3:30 p.m. Friday. Officers on duty were called in from their beats. The emergency? Just so the force could sing out a surprise happy birthday for police and fire chief Frank L. Nelson.

"I don't think he was very surprised," said police secretary Marilyn R. Wilson. "They all came into the building and stood waiting, outside his office. They made a lot of noise. He must have suspected something."

Asked about his age, Nelson, whose birthday was actually Saturday, responded: "Not for publication!"

AT THE LAST MEETING of the San Anselmo City Council, real estate man Marius Cordone was told that to avoid abatement, he would have to make several repairs on a house at 721 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and have it inspected for termites.

"I'm not going to have any termite inspection," Cordone told the council. "I could show you lots of buildings in this city with termites, including this building right here (reference to city hall).

The councilmen laughed nervously and rescinded their request. "It seems to me this should be a matter of free choice," said Councilman Cedric E. Clute.

City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt explained that the city made heavy repairs of termite damage in city hall three years ago. Asked if the problem still exists, he said.

"Oh, I imagine it does. We are sitting on this damp ground here you know."

'The Honorable Omar' Desires To Dismount From His Camel

NEW YORK (AP) — Omar Sharif, the most famous film sheik since Rudolph Valentino, thinks it is time the public let him down off his camel.

THE YOUNG Egyptian-born actor, who won an Academy Award nomination for his portrayal several years ago of Shiek Ali in "Lawrence of Arabia," remarked:

"Many think I always wore robes and rode a camel. This is untrue. I hardly ever saw a camel before except on a cigarette box.

"It's hard to shake the image created by your first success. Most of the time one doesn't succeed in shaking it. But that is better than to have to try to shake the image of your first flop."

Slender, still in his early 30s, Omar is good-natured, somewhat shy in manner. As Michel Shalhoub, son of a Syrian lumber importer, he was reared in Cairo and graduated from an English college there. A year later he turned to acting after he found the lumber business left him with a wooden feeling.

He made a couple of dozen films in Cairo, became a star in the Arab world, and married Faten Hamama, Egypt's best-known actress. They have a son, Tarek, 8.

HE PICKED the name Omar Sharif — which means "the honorable Omar"—because of its sound. But when he first appeared on the "Lawrence of Arabia" sets, Irish actor Peter O'Toole objected:

"Nobody could be called Omar Shariff. I'm going to call you 'Cairo Fred.'"

"Orientals are violin people," he remarked. "They are emotional and sentimental and self-indulgent.

"In Egyptian melodramas your success was judged by how much you could make the audience cry. Since then I've had to learn emotional restraint — to realize that the most moving thing is not someone actually crying, but someone who wants to cry and is fighting it."

Sharif, a cultural man who speaks six languages, said that as an Oriental he had met with some difficulties in adjusting to the Western tempo.

"IT IS SO speedy," he observed drily. "I try to sleep as long as possible because it is the slowest thing I know.

"An Oriental, as long as he has food enough for this day, neither works nor worries about tomorrow.

"But I suppose speed is necessary in the larger cities of Europe and America because life there is so tough and competitive. If you don't keep at it, someone will take your place."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

The Marin County Planning Commission approved commercial zoning for a $500,000 shopping center in Santa Venetia, but withheld approval for further study on another shopping center in nearby Gallinas Village.

20 YEARS AGO

Frank Rusalem and Associates formed a $2 million corporation, Madera Gardens, to develop a tract in the Corte 'Madera-Larkspur flats, proposed to be one of the largest housing developments in the North Bay.

Irked by refusal of the city council to meet their request for a 15 per cent pay boost, all members of the Mill Valley Fire Department, except Chief Leslie Armager, handed in resignations effective in two weeks.

Drake Widening Study Is Due For Hearing

The Marin County Department of Public Works has not yet completed final studies on widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Laurel Grove Avenue and Ross town limits, though a public hearing is slated before the county planning commission Dec. 6.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said studies would be completed in time for him to make a recommendation prior to the hearing.

An additional 50 to 60 feet must be acquired, Frost said.

The present road is 40 to 46 feet wide on a total right of way width of 60 to 65 feet. This includes paving for only two lanes, one each way.

Frost said the county, aided by state funds, intends to widen the stretch of boulevard to a width of 100 feet on a minimum right of way of 110 feet. This will provide four lanes, each 12 feet wide, a 16-foot median strip, eight feet on each side for parking, and 10 more feet on each side for walks.

Frost said the basic alternates under study to gain the additional 50 to 60 feet are taking an equal amount on either side of the existing right of way, or taking all from one side or the other.

Teener Lectures On Castro, Fires Two Pistols On Plane

PLANE SHOOTING—This teen-ager, identified as Thomas Robinson, 16, of Brownsville, Tex., is escorted into a federal commissioner's office in New Orleans last night by federal agents. He was arrested after his alleged shooting spree aboard a National Airlines plane. (AP Wirephoto)

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A teen-aged honor student, lecturing about Castro and firing wildly from two pistols, terrorized 91 passengers on a jetliner last night over the Gulf Coast. He pulled the trigger of one gun in the face of space agency mission director Christopher Kraft but the weapon misfired.

Thirteen key officials of the Gemini space program were aboard the National Airlines DC-8 during the youth's 20-minute outburst of pistol shots and a diatribe about the dangers of Castroism. The plane landed safely after the gun-wielding 16-year-old was subdued by a Houston businessman.

FEDERAL CHARGE

Thomas Robinson of Brownsville, Tex., a frail-looking 16-year old, was arrested on a federal charge of crime aboard an aircraft. He later said he did not intend to hijack the plane, "I was hoping at least, maybe somebody would wake up."

Robinson was overpowered and disarmed of his .22-caliber and .32-caliber pistols by Edward T. Haake, 45, a Houston businessman. He shrugged off references to his heroism, saying anyone would have done it.

"It's not that I'm brave. I don't even like to fly," Haake said.

BOURBON AND WATER

After the scuffle, Haake said, he handed the youth a drink—bourbon and water—"to calm him down . . . he guzzled it right down."

"What have you got under the newspaper,' Kraft recalled asking the boy.

Robinson then pulled a .22-caliber target pistol an shoved it in front of Kraft's face. He pulled back the hammer. It clicked but did not discharge, Kraft said, because it was not properly cocked.

Other passengers said Kraft turned pale.

When the gun failed to go off, Robinson walked up to the lounge between the first class cabin and the cockpit and tried to open the door.

Stewardess Nancy Taylor told him he could not go in, that the cockpit was "off limits." Over an intercom, she notified the pilot, Capt. Dean Cooper, who radioed New Orleans Airport he was returning because "there is a boy aboard who is waving guns."

At that point, the youth faced the passengers and told them it was time somebody went to the aid of people who want to get out of Cuba. He said he hoped "somebody would wake up."

Enlistments Held Cutting Draft Calls

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey predicts a drop in draft calls by January because of a heavy increase in voluntary enlistments for the armed services.

But he doubts that the upturn in the draft picture will bring any change in present plans to begin drafting married men without children.

He also adds that "all bets are off if there's any major escalation" in the war in Viet Nam.

Hershey said yesterday in an interview that the services have had an overall increase of 60 per cent in voluntary enlistments since the last summer's step-up in the war effort.

Police Seek Diary As Lead To Young Girl's Burial Site

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — A missing diary was being sought today as the possible key to the desert burial site of one of three teen-aged girls who were slain.

Police said yesterday they were told that one of the victims, Gretchen Fritz, 17, kept a diary that pinpointed the burial place of a slaying victim — possibly that of Alleen Rowe, 15.

The information strengthened theories held by authorities that Miss Fritz and her sister, Wendy, 13, were killed last August because the older girl knew about the May, 1964, slaying of Miss Rowe.

Sheriff Waldon Burr said he had received "numerous telephone calls about a diary belonging to Gretchen. These callers told us that if we got Gretchen's diary, we would get considerable information on these murder cases."

Detectives said they have not located any diary, nor have they spoken to anyone who actually saw it.

The most substantial information about the diary was believed to have been received from Deborah Ellson, 16, an acquaintance of all three of the victims.

Miss Ellson, who was not a suspect in the case, assertedly had informed authorities that she had heard about Gretchen's diary, but had never seen it.

Authorities also were questioning other friends of the three victims as well as three suspects, Charles Schmid, 23, John Saunders, 19, and Mary French, 19.
